WAYNE ATCHESON

Clanton Tigers downed the Marbury Bulldogs behind Tommy Atcheson's pitching on Monday, May 4, by a margin of 8 to 3. The game was played in Marbury's ballpark.

Two Wins Over Marbury
Clanton's victory gave Clanton two wins over Marbury. Counting both games, Clanton scored twenty runs to Marbury's three.

Clanton won the game in the bottom of the first inning. The winning run scored on a single by Atcheson. His relief pitcher, Ronny, who was the rest of the game, collected only one hit to four for the Bulldogs. Clanton committed three errors in the game. The Tigers played the game without Atcheson, who went to New Orleans.

Shelton In 2nd Win
Shelton pitched four hitless innings to win his second victory over Marbury. Shelton struck out three in the second and fourth innings. He brought across two runs in the second and fourth innings. Shelton collected only one hit to four for the Bulldogs. Clanton committed three errors in the game. The Tigers played the game without Atcheson, who went to New Orleans.

Here's Razzle Dazzle
The Tigers batted around in the top of the first inning. They scored two runs on a walk and a steal by Cathy, and two consecutive singles by Shelton and Edwards.

Clanton never threatened after the third and Marbury scored in the seventh on a walk, interference by the catcher and on error.

Duck Stiff Winds
The hitters batted against a stiff wind and that made it easier for the pitchers. The game was played in an hour and 30 minutes.

DORIS Smyer, Clanton's most gracious winner of titles in the Hair Styling field has done it again. Doris won 2nd place in the hair cutting contest at Johnson's Beauty Show in Montgomery on April 19 and 20. Attending the Show from Doris Beauty Salon along with "the boss" was her sister Willie Hancock, Minnie Wagner, Carolyn Adams and Dell Allen.

Doris Beauty Salon Does It Again

IN the hair styling competition, it was that girl Doris again. She won 5th place in this area. Her model was her sister, Willie, who also took a large part in the show. On Sunday she was asked to be a model for Madam Buck in one of her classes. Sunday night Willie modeled her hair style on the platform. Madam Buck, is one of the world's top hair stylist and most famous designers.

FARM HOUSING LOANS AVAILABLE

The Farmers Home Administration, under provisions in title V of the Farm Housing Act of 1949, as amended, makes farm housing loans to eligible farmers.

Loans for periods up to 33 years at 4 percent interest are made to farm owners who are otherwise unable to finance needed housing and other building improvements for themselves and their tenants.

The purpose of these loans is to provide decent, safe and sanitary farm dwellings, and other essential farm buildings to farm owners who cannot obtain the credit they need from other sources.

Farm housing loan funds may be used to construct, improve, alter, replace, or repair a house or other building essential to operating the farm. The loan may be used to provide water for farmstead and household use. Loan funds cannot be used to buy land or to refinance debts.

To be eligible for a farm housing loan, an applicant must (1) own a farm which will produce at least 400 worth of commodities for sale; (2) have sufficient farm and other income to pay farm operating and family living expenses, and meet payments on existing debts including the proposed farm housing loan; (3) be without sufficient resources on his own account and unable to obtain credit needed to finance the construction, repair, or improvement of homes and other farm buildings; (4) have the ability and experience necessary to carry out farming operations and meet housing loan requirements; and (5) be a citizen of the United States.

Tenants and farm laborers are not eligible for these loans but owners may borrow money to repair or build houses and other farm buildings for their tenants or laborers.

Construction work should not be started and debts for such work or materials should not be incurred before the loan is closed.

Application for a farm housing loan is made at the county Farmers Home Administration office. The Clanton County FHA office is located in the Huguenot Building, Clanton, Alabama.

Leonard Smith

Dies In Montgomery

Leonard Smith, 64, (87 Riverside Dr.) Montgomery, died Tuesday. The funeral was held at 2 p.m. Thursday April 30 from Concord Baptist Church, Clanton, and burial was in the church cemetery.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Smith; a daughter, Mrs. Merline Thompson, Pensacola, Fla.; a son, Leroy Smith, Huntsville; a stepdaughter, Miss Jeanette Easterling, Montgomery; two stepsons, Junior Evans, Montgomery, and Kermit Giles, Clanton; 19 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

GOOD FOUNDATIONS MAKE BETTER BUILDINGS

A poor foundation for a farm home may be a source of constant trouble and bother.

According to API Extension Farm Building Specialist Bill Cox, uneven floors, dragging doors, hard-to-close windows, and pulled-apart joints often indicate a faulty foundation. If you're planning to build or remodel your house, it may save you money to follow Cox's suggestions.

The best building site is on a slight elevation with good drainage and a firm subsoil, says the specialist. It is important that the foundation be designed for the particular building site and soil characteristics. For example, footings on sand may be undermined by flowing water. However, if the footing is on damp sand, it should not be allowed to become dry because of lower drainage or to become saturated by flooding from drains. Either one of these changes may make the foundation insecure.

Succumbs At 51

Joe C. Sanders, 51, died Wednesday afternoon unexpectedly at his residence.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Friday from the West End Baptist Church with the Rev. L. D. Brookshire officiating. Burial was in Liberty Hill cemetery.

Surviving relatives include the widow, Mrs. Annie Mae Sanders; one daughter, Miss Rosa Ann Sanders, Montgomery; two sons, James Sanders of Montgomery and Arthur Sanders of Berlin, Germany; one sister, Mrs. Kate Lindsey, Buhalda, Ala.; four brothers, O. H. Sanders, Childersburg; G. B. Sanders, LaGrange; Wilford Sanders, Camp Hill; and H. D. Sanders, Tampa, Fla.

Spigener Funeral Home was in charge.

FOLKS and THINGS About Town by Ben

Seniors:
Congratulations on 12 hard of study that brought you to Commencement of a new life a bright future and a long put. From here on, nothing come to you exactly easy.
life and your future will be you make it. The world is you enter—it's a hard nut to and you will get out of it what you put into it.

not discouraged—the reward
all your efforts. True, will find it much easier than the knowledge of a job is just as rewarding for and other.

again we say, congratulations work hard, to contribute and, and you will know the of respect by your fellow-that, and the love of God is can take out of this life

East-West Game Here To Be History-Maker

Plans are now complete for the Sixth Annual All Boys East-West
Baseball Game at the Clanton Ball Park on Sunday afternoon, May 17, 1959.

Double Header

This will be two six-inning games with the first game starting at 2:30 p.m. The Clanton Lions Club is sponsoring these games and all proceeds will be turned over to Alabama Sight Conservation Association, Inc. This work is supported by all Lions Clubs in Alabama, and this worthy cause certainly merits your liberal support.

The present roster for the East squad playing in the Clanton game is made up of the following players: Gerald Queen,
Bill Spivey, Fred Blankenship, Charles Wilkley from Alexandria; Clay Lane Ambrose, Earl Tyus, Tom Minor from Columbiana; Wayne Carter, Ronald Driver, Donald Hand from Marbury; Paul McInnis, Pete Cottle, Don Davidson from Tal-esse; Gary Garrett, Semon Brasher from Vincent.

The West team will have outstanding players as follows:
Clark Billingsley, James Rhodes, from Billingsley; Elwood Edwards, Larry Gay, Bobby Godfrey from Calera; Horace Davis, Don Northcutt from Jemi-son; Ronald Smithman, Lee Salter, Curtis Jarvis, Barclay
Fisher from Montevallo; Louis
Wade, Kenneth Broadhead, Joe
Moody, Gene Hankins from West
Bloomton.

Miss Glasscock Wins Newspaper Calf Award

Margaret Glasscock, 10, of Clanton, has won herself a Birmingham News-Post-Herald prize calf award.

She did it at the big Birmingham Stock Show because Chilton County exhibited five or more calves and because Margaret won Grand Champ in the county stock show.

Margaret is the daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. M. R. "Red" Glasscock.
Mr. Glasscock is Chilton County Agent.

Despite her very young age,
Margaret has had four years experience raising cattle.

For 14 years, The Birmingham
News - Post-Herald and Stations WAPI and WAPI-TV have been awarding these prizes. The number of awards now totals 238, representing an investment of $28,000 in young Alabama farm boys and girls. The purpose of the awards is to stimulate interest in cattle raising throughout Alabama.

This year's Birmingham Show was one of the largest ever with 27 counties represented. The cattle were very high quality, too.
With a total of 320 fat calves, they rated 28 prime, 200 choice, and 92 good. They sold for a total of $92,962.40.

All winning youngsters, with their families and advisors will come to Birmingham this summer for a big barbecue party put out by The Birmingham News - Post-Herald - WAPI. They will hear talks by business and agricultural leaders, see wonderful entertainment, and get that big calf prize at the party.

FRANK GREEN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT 10TH.

Frank Green, age 19, was killed
Sunday in an automobile accident six miles from Union Springs when a car containing several young passengers pulled onto the highway from a church. He was returning from a week end with several friends at Panama City, Fla., but had left early and was traveling alone.

Jerry Teel, who is working at Eufaula with Frank had loaned his car and was coming on later with Alvin Teel and some others.
Frank D. Green, Jr. died Sunday afternoon. The funeral was held at 4 p.m. Tuesday from the First Baptist Church with Dr. J.
Gilbert Hutchison officiating. Burial was in Martin Memorial Cemetery.

Survivors include his parents, Mr.
and Mrs. Frank D. Green, Sr., Clanton; two sisters, Mrs. Barbara Petty and Miss Mary Lou
Green, both of Clanton; a brother,
Jimmy Green, Clanton.
Martin Funeral Home was in charge.

Music Recital At Jemison

Mrs. Nell Walton will present her music students in a music recital at the Jemison High School Auditorium on Tuesday night, May 12th at 7:30.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICES AT THORSBY

Baccalaureate service will be held Sunday morning, May 17th, at eleven o'clock at the school auditorium. Reverend B. B. Burks, pastor of Thorsby Baptist Church will give the sermon.

Graduating exercises will be held Friday evening, May 22nd, at eight o'clock at the school auditorium.
Dr. I. S. Gerald, Head of the Science Department of Erskine
Ramsay Technical High School,
Birmingham, will give the address.
Mrs. Hubert Dennis will present her piano pupils in a recital on Friday evening, May 15th at eight o'clock in the auditorium.

Dedication of Little League Ball Field

On Tuesday, May 19, the new Little League baseball field will be dedicated, prior to the game that is to be played. All Little League teams and their managers are the "JCs", Erskine Powpelt, the "Lions", Clark Blackwell, the "Beavers", Eddie Edwards, and the "Kiwanians", G. D. Jones. The newly created American League teams and their managers are: the "Yankees", Bert Sneed, the "Orioles", Chick Wade, the "Tigers", Ervin Crew, and the "Indians",
T. C. Davis. Like the National League the American League teams are equipped with uniforms, etc., but they do need sponsors and donations. They will also have a regular playing schedule which will be announced later.

For every hit that Little League gets this baseball season, they will get to play a first game of miniature golf through the courtesy of Raymond Powpelt. He is also holding "open house" for all Little Leagueers this Saturday.
Mothers are asked to bring sandwiches and have supper at the ball game with their families. The festivities start at 5:00 o'clock.

Ain't 'She' Sweet?

303 Grads Embark on Many Trails to Success

DURING the final days of this month of May, 1959 three hundred and three Chilton Countyans will embark on the great sea of life.
Not in the "being born" sense, but due to the fact that they have completed the requirements for finishing high school.

Three hundred and three capable and well-trained citizens who can add a great deal to this growing, thriving United States of America.

It's the same all over our land, but it's something special here at home.

To mom, it's her "baby" growing out from under her skirts. To dad, it's a milestone reached in the ever changing lives of his children.

To the graduate it is his first big conquest and he is full of the pride of victor.

To each of us it means something different, but to all it is a challenge to meet these young people with open hands of friendship and understanding and to assist in every way possible their climb to the peak of usefulness to their God and their Country.
The following young people are to be congratulated on a job well done:

HEARTREAKER — TIGERS LOSE DISTRICT CROWN TO SELMA

By WAYNE ATCHESON

The Chilton County High School Tigers lost a heartbreaker to Selma last Friday for the district crown. Selma won it in fourteen innings by a score of 3 to 2. The game was played in Selma.

The district championship was in state and the winner, Selma, will play Lee. The winner of the Lee-Selma game will go to the state finals.

Clanton led Selma going into seventh 1 to 0. Then a ball was hit through Johnny Cathy's legs and through Billy Miller to enable the runner to third. A squeeze batted it up. Clanton scored in the eleventh and Selma did also. Then in the fourteen a walk, a steal, and a ground rule double won the day.

Clay Carroll, the boy with the rubber arm, pitched all fourteen innings after pitching the perfect game. He gave up only four hits, the second hit given up in the eleventh inning. Carroll struck out nineteen batters. Chris Nichols went the distance for Selma.

Clanton had a chance to score in the first inning on three hits and a sacrifice, but two runners were called out at home. Clanton did score in the fourth as Wayne Little doubled. Miller sacrificed Little to third and Carroll struck out. Then Wyatt came through with a single to drive across Little.

Clanton led 1 to 0 going into the bottom of the seventh when Smitherman went to third on a ball that went through Johnny Cathy's and Billy Miller's legs. Kendrick was hit by a pitched ball and J. Mackin hit a bullet line drive back to Carroll for the first out. Mackin batted to squeeze in Smitherman for the tying run.

The Tigers almost got another run in the seventh when Larry Culpepper hit one that nearly went over the fence. It went for a double.

The lights were turned on in the tenth and in the eleventh both teams scored. Monroe walked and stole second. Then Wayne Little hit a line drive into left to bring him in. The inning ended in a double play.

Clanton led when Selma came up in the eleventh 2 to 1. DeRamus struck out and Jones walked and stole second. Duke struck out. With two outs and two strikes on the batter J. Mackin singled Jones in to tie it up.

The game coasted on 'till the bottom of the fourteenth when Jerry Bedgood singled for Selma. Charlie Maples sacrificed Bedgood to second. Then Jimmy DeRamus hit a ground rule double that ended the game.

Clay Carroll pitched a good game as he kept Clanton in the game. Carroll had pitched 27 2/3 straight innings without allowing a run. Carroll said during the game, "My arm is not tired, but I'm tired." But nevertheless Selma got only four hits and we got ten.

Don't forget the East-West game and I'll see you next week.

Isabella To Compete In Livestock Judging, June 4-6

Ability to recognize and appreciate quality livestock is of great importance to Future Farmers. It is for this purpose that the statewide FFA livestock judging contest is held.

The state finals will be during the Alabama FFA Convention, Auburn, June 4-6. Competing will be first and second place winners from each of the state's five districts. The teams will judge hogs, sheep and beef cattle.

First prize in the state contest will be $250.00 and a banner to the winning chapter. Each of the next three finishers also will receive cash awards and FFA banners. Chapters in each district whose livestock judging teams will compete are:

Northwest - Ardmore and Tannehill
Northeast - Southerland and Walnut Grove
Central - Isabella and Mellow Valley
Southeast - Coffee Springs and Greenville
Southwest - Bay Minette and Foley.

1ST PLACE IN CATTLE JUDGING

Three members of the Clanton FFA Chapter entered the Livestock Judging Contest at the Montgomery Fat Stock Show. The team judged three classes of Market animals and graded them. There were twelve other judging teams that entered.

Members of the team were Jerry Murr, Toby Mayfield, and Donald Bulger. The team won a plaque for winning first place.

Named Alabama's Chiropractor Of The Year

Dr. Joe W. Wallace, left of Gadsden, has been named Alabama's Chiropractor of the Year, and T. K. Selman, right, Jasper attorney, has been given an honor plaque. Dr. Wallace was cited for outstanding work as editor of the profession's state publication, and Mr. Selman for valuable services as legal counsel. Awards were made during the recent chiropractic convention in Montgomery.

Clanton was represented by Dr. C. D. Homan and Dr. M. L. Ware.

Akron, Ohio—These little tots could do a lot of "wheeling" on this tire, but even with a child's imagination, it wouldn't quite fit their tricycles. It is the world's largest tire, built in Akron, Ohio, by the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company. The mammoth tire, which stands 10 feet high and is four feet wide, is a research model for a planned line of earthmover and special purpose tires for huge construction machines. With the price of this tire at $14,000—you could buy a three-bedroom home, and with the nylon fabric used in its construction, more than 7,000 pairs of ladies' 3,200 passenger car tires. Size designation for the tire is 44.5x45, which means the distance across the sidewall is 44.5 inches and the bead diameter is 45 inches. It weighs two tons by itself and three tons when equipped with its rim.

GOOD resolutions are fine—but they are hard to live up to after they are born.

IT is true that it is never too late to mend our ways. Trouble is most of us think that it is too early.

NO chance to have a show in life—if you haven't saved the price of admission.

DO a good deed every day. It is the straightest road to the best there is in life.

TRYING to combine business with pleasure is a losing combination.

YOU can't change the past, and don't ruin the present by worrying about the future.

THE greatest problem we face today is keeping our ambitions pinned down to our salaries.

LET'S SAVE LIVES --

Every reader of the Chilton County News should be interested in any plan that might tend to reduce the number of persons killed and injured on our highways. The toll of the dead and maimed constitutes a national scandal.

A steady campaign has been waged by traffic officers to educate the users of motor vehicles in the proper manner of their operation. This publicity program has produced good results but, nonetheless, nearly ninety persons die in highway accidents every day of the year. Hundreds are hospitalized for serious injuries and thousands suffer minor injuries each day. The financial loss, including property damage, cost of funerals and treatment and loss of time, not to mention the earning value of those who die, runs into the millions.

It is high time to take drastic action to save lives and money.

In addition, there should be a more rigid enforcement of all traffic regulations. This will do more than anything to make the automobile driver-conscious of safety rules and the rights of pedestrians and other motorists on the streets and highways. Especially there should be apprehension of those who drive under the influence of intoxicants. Drivers' licenses should be revoked for repeated participation in accidents.

SMALL BUSINESS LEGISLATIVE --

Slowly the small business is being smothered by the competition of mass buying by the corporations. There is a Federation of Independent Business and in Chilton County B. N. Studdard is the Chairman.

The legislative program for this year asks curtailment of Government competition with small business among other things and to our mind is one of the principal sins against the small businessman.

Among others are stronger enforcement of anti-trust laws which promote fairer price competition and break up monopoly-creating mergers.

Enactment of laws requiring manufacturers who sell through factory-owned stores and independent dealers, to put their independents on the same overall buying basis as their stores.

Further tax revisions to provide bigger depreciation allowances on new and used equipment bought by small business, to provide encouragement for building private retirement plans, to secure same tax benefits for unincorporated businesses equivalent to those granted corporate enterprises.

Enactment of laws requiring fairer dealings by unions with small business.

Enactment of strong fair trade laws.

Require cooperatives to pay taxes on same basis as privately operated independent business competitors.

Reduction of Government redtape and reporting burdens on independent Business.

Further streamlining of rules to give small firms a fairer share of Government contracts and Government financing help.

Providing stronger representation for small business in Congress by making the House Small Business Committee permanent, same as the Senate Small Business Committee.

DANGEROUS PET

Taming a Vicious Circle --

Twenty years ago it cost only as much to run the entire federal government as our annual cost for interest alone on the national debt today.

We have had two wars since then, and Uncle Sam borrowed most of the money to pay for both of them. That can't be helped. But there is no excuse for continuing to go into debt in times of peace and prosperity, and that's what we are doing today. We are not running up these bills in the name of defense, either. Since 1954, defense expenditure has remained steady, while spending for civilian programs has risen $15 billion.

When the government pays out more than it collects in taxes, it sets up credits in banks—which is just like printing extra greenbacks. This makes inflation.

When inflation occurs, the government has to pay higher prices and higher salaries—which runs it deeper in debt, which makes for more inflation, and so on indefinitely. We all suffer from the decreasing buying power of our savings, pension funds, insurance.

The only way to beat inflation is to remove its causes. One of the chief causes is deficit spending. Thousands of Americans have been flooding Congress with demands that deficit spending be halted.

The dollar can keep its value if Congress is made to realize that our citizens will no longer stand for inflation—a hidden and vicious tax which makes our plans for personal security worthless.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN
Congressman, Sixth District

In the face of a possible Presidential veto, the House of Representatives last week voted, 243 to 170, to approve a self-financing plan for expanding the facilities of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

The bill was strongly opposed by Republicans who sought to give the Budget Bureau and the Treasury more control over the TVA expansion program. However, the House rejected all restrictions proposed by the Administration despite warnings of a veto.

As approved by the House, the measure will permit the TVA to issue $250,000,000 in bonds for financing construction, acquisition, enlargement, improvement or replacement of facilities needed to meet growing demands for more electric power. At the same time, however, the bill restricts TVA service to its present 80,000 square-mile area.

The House measure specifies that principal and interest on the bonds be secured solely by the sale of TVA power, that the bonds cannot be obligations of or guaranteed by the United States Government, and that their issuance cannot add to the national debt. The bill also requires the Tennessee Valley Authority to repay the Treasury for the federal government's investment in the TVA at the rate of at least ten million dollars annually.

The measure, as passed by the House of Representatives, received the support of all members from Alabama. Senate approval is expected.

Latin American Report
In view of recent unrest in certain Latin American countries, a report released earlier this week by the Inter-American Subcommittee of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs is of particular interest at this time.

The report deals with the strategic importance of Latin America to the defense of our nation, the importance of the area as a principal source of critical raw materials and foodstuffs, and its significance as an importer of our own products. Also covered in the report are a number of the major problems and misunderstandings prevalent at the present time in Latin America.

The Subcommittee, of which our congressman is chairman, does not purport to know the solutions to all the problems affecting United States-Latin American relations. However, the report does offer several definite recommendations which subcommittee members believe will be helpful in eliminating certain basic misunderstandings that presently exist between the United States and our neighbors to the South.

I shall be very pleased to mail a copy of this report to anyone who may be interested in it.

Visitors

We enjoyed seeing Mr. A. L. Kemp of Clanton who was in Washington last week to appear before the House and Senate Appropriations Committees in behalf of the development of the Coosa-Alabama Waterway.

When I consider Thy heavens... the moon and the stars which thou hast ordained: What is man that Thou art mindful of him?

—(Psalm 8:3-4).

How almost unbelievable—but how wonderful—it is that Almighty God, Creator of all the vast universe, should nonetheless in infinite loving kindness have heed of even the least of us mortals!

THINGS
We see

by BOB

HAD a card this week-end from Mrs. C. C. Gay in Stanton and its bouquets for Miss Ruth Hicks of that community. The card read, and we quote: "Dear Mr. Tucker, We are really enjoying Miss Ruth Hicks Stanton News. My daughter in Cairo, Michigan looks forward to the Stanton News". And it's signed "Sincerely, Mrs. C. C. Gay". Now we appreciate that very much. It's wonderful to know we're helping inform her daughter a way up in Michigan, but it's even more rewarding to know that we satisfy our readers over around Stanton enough that they'll drop us a line and tell us so. That's the things that make it all worthwhile anyhow! Thanks so much, Mrs. C. C. Gay, give our regards to the family. P. S. Keep watching the News too, will ya'?

WELL, Sunday being Mother's Day and all, our brood's mother got up, fixed breakfast, cleaned up the dishes, got the young'uns and their paw ready for Sunday School and church, got herself ready for church (she didn't make Sunday School), came home, cooked dinner, cleaned up the dishes and then spent the afternoon just looking after us "kids". Now that's really hooring mother on her day, don't you think? We told her she should appreciate it, she's the only one around who can do those things and we'd be lost without her. You know what... we weren't just kiddin'!

NORBODY'S gonna understand this 'cept we and her, but say Dot: what's an "avocado pipe"?

THE greatest thing a man can learn from a boy, is how to be a man!

TERRI: "Daddy, Ben threw a rock out inna alley." Ben: yeh it was an alley rock." Oh well...

Things We Hear --
A number of folks expressing the desire that they wish they could give more to the Crippled Children Drive. They gave substantially, yet they felt it was not enough. Among them were Bill Popwell, Mr. Guin of Teatons, Mr. Lambert of Lambert Motors, Paul Parrish and Mr. Maddox of Dairy Delite. These are only a few of course, but it speaks well for Mr. I. S. Levine, who has headed the organization in this County for 25-odd years.

It has an obviously fine name, for the people accept it willingly and seem to feel certain that it does a good local job. We all owe Mr. Doc a vote of appreciation for many years of service to his community.

Johnny Vines says the businessmen of Clanton are to be commended when it comes to supporting local causes. We agree Johnny, they're a fine bunch of fellows, all things considered.

Mrs. Edith Parrish says there is a difference in cigars. One's left handed and the other is right handed. It's fact! She showed us. Seems the machines that make them have a left and a right and the left won't take the right leaf and the right won't take what's left. Oh well, it's confusing, but you learn something every day (I think).

Ott Miller says support the East-West Bull Game. It's a wonderful entertainment and a more wonderful cause. We agree with Ott. You going to the game?

Somebody said Elmore's was getting a face-lifting. We think that's puttin' in mildy!

Mr. S. A. Jones is up for nomination as "Man of the Year" by the Followers of Christ class, Junior Boys, of First Methodist Church. You'll never know how much "ecstasy" you created by the loss of your truck for their hayride. It was a first for some of them and without exception they were two dozen happy boys Saturday night. We sincerely thank you for the spirit in which you gave your facilities. If you could have been present you would have been

Reminder On Soil
Bank Compliance

Farmers who have contracted to participate in the 1959 Soil Bank Conservation Reserve shall remember that they must comply with all acreage allotments for the farm as well as all soil bank requirements in order to qualify for payment, Mr. Elmo B. Roberts, Chairman of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today.

A program provision that is sometimes overlooked by farmers requires compliance with all acreage allotments established for the farm. If this requirement is not met the farmer will be ineligible for payment, and he will leave himself liable for further penalties.

Mr. Roberts further pointed out that farmers should be extremely careful that they do not exceed their permitted acreage of bank base crops. Exceeding permitted acreage can also make a farmer ineligible for the payment which he would otherwise earn.

Where a farmer willfully knowingly harvests from or permits grazing on conservation land, payment is forfeited in addition he is subject to a penalty of 50 percent of the payment which would have been made for compliance.

We Offer
CHALLENGE.

TO

THE CLASS OF '59 OF CHILTON COUNTY

THE Peoples Savings Bank offers the challenge to fulfill the mottoes which they have chosen and never to falter in their desire to make something better of themselves and of their communities and world.

You have now completed the first "hurdle" in your creative life, you have graduated (or will be) from high school. You have your diploma and can now set out to make your mark in the world along with the Edison's, the Salk's, the Benjamin Franklin's and, yes we need the Smith's and the Joneses too!

Set your goals high... but not too high; your morals straight and never deceive yourself in them; a code of ethics and a heart for doing what is right will guide you well on the pathways, which by the way, can be straight and narrow and sometimes rough.

The knowledge you have gained in your twelve-odd years of schooling is sufficient for your building, a great future. If it is not, you have missed the first step. A good foundation is essential in every undertaking and you have "exposed" to the foundation for your future. You can make of it what you will.

Chilton County has always turned out fine citizens. Already some of them have made fine progress in the business world. We are sincere in our belief that the "Class of '59" will continue to uphold the record of achievement and clean living that has been attained by Seniors in the past. We can only say further...

Congratulations on your completion of High School. May you go far; achieve much; build strong; and may you always be as happy and as energetic as you are today!

Cotton For Sale

Choice (A) upland cotton purchased by the Commodity Credit Corporation under the 1959 price support program will be offered for sale by approved local sales agents as well as by the New Orleans Commodity Stabilization Service, Commodity Office, according to the Commodity Office, according to the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office. To be approved, such agencies must have had previous experience in selling cotton and must have entered into a Sales Agency Agreement with CCC. Mr. Elmo B. Roberts, chairman, State ASC Committee, reports that cotton "eligible" for purchase under the 1959 support program must have been produced in compliance with the farm's Choice (A) allotment. Price support to farmers for such cotton will be at 30-40 cents per pound, basic Middling 7/8 cotton, gross weight, at average. This compares with the support price of 24-70 cents per pound for cotton grown under Choice (B) allotments.

FFA Members Finish Fat Calf Projects

Eleven members of the Clanton FFA Chapter sold thirteen calves Thursday, April 24 at the Montgomery Fat Stock Show. These members started their calf projects last October. They bought thirteen calves weighing about 300 pounds at a cost of $1,823.79. They sold 9775 pounds of beef for $3,535.98. This gave the boys a feed and labor income of $1,712.19.

All these animals were bought from herds in Chilton County and were financed through the local banks.

The boys did not make a lot of profit but they gained some experience that can not be valued in dollars. Some of the things that a boy learns from a fat calf project are: (1) How to select an animal that will make a rapid gain and grow the kind of beef the consumer demands. (2) He learns the necessity of feeding a balanced ration to livestock. (3) He learns the cost of producing good beef. (4) How to manage, groom and show a calf. (5) How to use the bank credit to finance farm enterprises. (6) Meet interesting people and people that are interested in young men growing livestock. The boys selling calves were: Wayne Panton, Earl Wilson, Tommy Thompson, Robert Bryant, Gene Mims, Gerald Mims, Joe Johnson, Billy Estes, Donald Burd, Gene Powell and Edward Jones.

Each of the boys showing a calf enjoyed growing and showing their calf and have indicated that they are interested in securing a calf for next year.

CHEAP TRANSPORT

Chilton County school children are being transported to and from school daily at a much lower cost than the state average, according to figures just released by Superintendent of Education, W. A. LeCroy.

Reporting to the monthly board meeting he said that while the state figures show a yearly cost of $30.67 for white and $22.79 for Negro children in average daily attendance, Chilton County averaged spending only $19.74 for white and $17.50 for Negro pupils. It was also pointed out that Etowah County was the only county in the state that transported children at a cost per year less than Chilton County and the amount was only 35 cents per child less.

Superintendent LeCroy gives credit for the unusually good record to the bus drivers and mechanics that take care of the buses.

CHILD WELFARE SERVICES

The nearly 1,200 children under care of private child-caring institutions and child-placing agencies in Alabama, whereas most of them already have received or will soon receive some direct service from the department in the county of their residence. These facts were made known today by Pensions and Security Commissioner, Alvin T. Prestwood, in discussing responsibilities of the department to children in institutional care.

"First of all, the indirect service to children in institutions results from the legal requirement that every child-caring institution and child-placing agency be licensed by the State Department of Pensions and Security according to standards set by the State Board," Prestwood said. "This means that physical plans, personnel, type of care, program offered and other factors are in line with these standards—which are thus a protection to every child in institutional care. More directly many of the children were referred to the institution or agency by the county department which investigated their home situation and recommended care."

Likewise, Prestwood continued, county departments are expected to keep in touch with their children in the institution, at the same time developing plans for their return, when feasible, to parents or relatives.

"This direct service to children in institutions are continuing responsibility," the Commissioner explained. "They begin prior to placement in the institution and continue until after the child is released from institutional care." Prestwood said also that some children in private child-caring institutions cannot go back to their families or communities. For these children the department assumes responsibility for adoption placement service.

Though the actual number of children in institutional care in Alabama remains at about the same figure due to the capacity of the institutions and agencies, the Commissioner said that the make up of this population is changing daily. For example, last month 39 children were admitted to care of institutions and agencies and 35 discharged from care.

It was further revealed that at the present time there are 16 private child-caring institutions licensed by the state department. These were listed as follows: Alabama Baptist Children's Home, Alabama Masonic Home, Allen Memorial Home, Catholic Boys' Home, Childhaven, Freewill Baptist Children's Home, Methodist Children's Home, Our Lady of Fatima, Presbyterian Home for Children, St. Mary's Home, St. Thomas on the Hill, Wilmer Hall Children's Protective Home, Mercy Home, Protestant Children's Home and Zimmer Memorial Home.

Prestwood concluded his statement by pointing out that members of his staff work constantly with the institutions in helping them to adhere to standards and strengthen their program. In charge

Board of Education Participates In Guidance Program

The Chilton County Board of Education along with other systems throughout Alabama is now participating in the program to improve mathematics and science and to set up a guidance program in all the schools of our county.

Under the program for improving mathematics and science the Board of Education anticipates spending approximately $120,000 during the next four years for certain mathematics and science equipment.

Under the guidance program boys and girls through testing and counseling will be helped to select the subjects and courses for which they are best suited and the ones in which they are more likely to experience success. It is hoped that a program of this kind will eliminate some of the failures we now have in both high school and college.

To initiate this program workshops with full college credit both on the graduate and undergraduate level are being offered at practically all of the state-supported institutions of higher learning. Already a dozen scholarships

Jemison Takes One From Clanton

WAYNE ATCHESON

Horace Davis pitched Jemison to the Clanton Tigers last Thursday by a score of 3 to 2. The game was played at the City Park in Clanton.

Clanton missed their chance of winning two in a row for the county championship. Since Jemison won the game a five inning affair was supposed to be played after the first game, but the misunderstanding on the part of the Jemison coach prevented the second game. The game was then changed to the next day. Both coaches decided on playing seven innings instead of five. As you can see the county championship goes to the team who wins two out of three games.

Well the four hit pitching of Horace Davis and getting hits in the right spot clinched the game. Clanton had men on base but couldn't bring them across. Jemison scored all their runs in the fourth inning. Alton Littleton brought the winning runs home with a double with the bases loaded.

Clanton jumped to a early lead by scoring two runs in the second. Wayne Little flew out and Clay Carroll hit one through the box for a single. Don Jones followed with a single and both runners advanced a base on an error by the right fielder. Larry Culpepper fouled out and Charlie Turner hit a bloop single over second base to bring in Carroll and Jones. John Will Wyatt grounded out to retire the side.

Jemison wrapped it up in the fourth as Sorrell and Northcutt grounded out. With two out Barrett and Davis singled. Zane Martin walked and Jerry Robinson singled Barrett home. Then Alton Littleton came through with a game winning double down the right field line. Horace Davis failed to tag third base and was put out by Carroll to retire the side.

The game was played under a hot sun and a fair crowd saw the game.

ENTERPRISE 8TH ENTERTAINS 9TH The Eighth Grade of Enterprise Junior High gave a banquet in honor of the Ninth grade, Friday, April 24, at 7:00 o'clock.

This occasion gave the Eighth grade an opportunity to use what they had learned in Mrs. Wright's Home Economics Class. They planned floral arrangements, color schemes, cooking and serving a well balanced meal, table services, and public speaking.

Guests included Emogene Welton, Jerry Bowles, Bernie Mullins, Doyle Bowman and Tommy Harte.

Mary Nell Edwards served as Mistress of Ceremonies. The program was put on by Charles Price, Billingsley and former students of Enterprise, Ola Faye Pierce and Ann Williams, Joyce Pierce and Mary Nell Edwards of the Eighth Grade of Enterprise. Ex-POW Convention

The Sixth Annual Alabama State Convention of American Ex-Prisoners of War, Inc., will be held at the Molton Hotel in Birmingham on Saturday June 6th of this year. Once again the Birmingham Chapter of American Ex-Prisoners of War will be host to the man of Alabama who spent time in enemy prison camps in time of war.

Each year these men and their wives get together and renew old friendships and make new ones. Commander Paul Nola of Birmingham and his convention co-workers are lining up a good program for the convention and have plans to show all who attend a very enjoyable time. An invitation is extended to all former prisoners of war to attend this year's convention.

For convention information write to George W. Harper, 1637 2nd Street, N.W. Birmingham 15, Alabama.

Foods of the Future

SQUIRT CAN SANDWICHES?

Two squirts of this, one squirt of that, and you have a delicious sandwich! Far-fetched? Not at all! Experiments are now being conducted to perfect "foam dispenser" (like those used for whipped cream) for peanut butter, honey, cheese and other sandwich ingredients.

What a boon for "midnight refrigerator raiders" who don't want to awaken the household by rattling dishes!

Many changes will occur in "Foods of the Future," but BEER and ALE will continue to be "old stand-bys" in countless homes. These wholesome beverages will always go well with any type of sandwich or food!

Telephone Talk

By RUFÉ EVANS
Your Telephone Manager

"KOSHI MOSHI!" These are the liding words used to answer a telephone in Japan. Here in America most of us say "Hello." Numerous versions of that familiar greeting are found around the world. For instance, in Arabia it's "Allo" ... In Madrid it's "Hola" ... In Germany it's "Hallo." The Roman says "Pronto," which means "Ready." Latin Americans might say "Con quien?" meaning "With whom?" Some countries dispense with greetings altogether as in England where the direct Briton says "Smith here," and his caller replies with "Jones here." Though customs differ the world over, the importance and convenience of the telephone is universal.

MAGIC CARPETS reserved for Rajahs? Bet your life they're not! I have one, and so do you right within easy reach. It's your telephone! With it you can whisk away to New York, San Francisco, or Hongkong! Be there in minutes, too. And not only does it speed you to the side of faraway friends, but right here at home it transacts business... spreads good news... runs errands... acts as your personal genie! I'm convinced that where "magic carpets" are concerned, Rajahs never had it this good!

(WHEN YOU WHISK AWAY by Long Distance, your magic carpet will get there faster when you call by number, and your trip will cost less when you call after six or on Sunday.)

WHERE ARE YOU when the phone rings? Might as well be on a desert island as stranded rooms away. Yet it's the simplest thing in the world to be rescued. Ever thought of a kitchen extension at your fingertips? Or a bedroom phone for leisurely chats? And, Dad, why feel like a castaway when you slip off to your workshop? It's so easy to have extensions to suit the whole family for only a few cents a day each. They come in colors as lovely as a bouquet of fresh spring flowers, too!

Take it from the experts CHEVY GIVES YOU 7 BIG BESTS!

Take it, not from us, but from the published opinions of outside, independent experts and from on-the-record facts and figures: Chevrolet gives you these 7 big bests over any other car in its field!

BEST ENGINE

Every motor magazine has given Chevy's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "Indeed, this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

BEST ECONOMY

Official dimensions reported to A.M.A. make this clear. For example, Chevy front seat hip room is up to 5.7 inches wider than competitive cars. Automobile Manufacturers Association

BEST ROOM

Who'd want to do without Chevrolet's extra luxuries? Like Safety Plate Glass in every window, the protection of full wraparound bumpers, crank-operated ventilators, the convenience of single-key locking, a real overhead curved windshield, oil-shed hydraulic valve lifters in every standard engine for quieter running, a bigger luggage compartment with side wall lining... and the convenience of automatic choke in every model!

BEST STYLE

POPULAR SCIENCE magazine sums it up: "The fact is, in its price class the Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling..." It's the only car of the leading low-priced three that's unmistakably '59 in every modern line.

BEST TRADE-IN

Check the figures in any official N.A.D.A. Guide Book. You'll find that Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $183 higher than comparable models of the "other two." National Automobile Dealers Association

BEST BRAKES

In direct competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by NASCAR, Chevy out-stopped both the other leading low-priced cars—and why not? Chevy brakes are far larger, built with bonded linings for up to 65% longer life.

Visit your local authorized Chevrolet dealer and see how much more Chevy has to offer!

BETTER SPEECH CLUB HONORS MOTHERS

One of the loveliest tributes of the year, was paid to Mothers when Mrs. Curry Thomas's Sixth Grade Better Speech Club, of the Chilton Elementary School, gave a program on May 8th, 1939, honoring Mothers.

Guests were greeted at the door by Joe Hayes, Host, and given a program and a poem, "Mother's Day" by Mary T. Thomas, both were in red and white. Club colors, and tied with red satin ribbon. Faye Williams and Beverly Hicks ushered the guests to seats in the back of the classroom. Joe Hayes introduced the new work, and the penmanship papers displayed on the wall.

A welcome was given by the President, Beverly Hicks. Following selected scripture and prayer, the program continued with poems, songs, piano selections, a Folk Dance and a Ritual. Janice Traywick told how Mother's Day originated.

Those giving original poems were Benny Bice, Nora Hayes, Revis Williamson, Charlotte Clackler, Jerry Sandlin, Tommy Porter, Allen Owens, Larry Moats, George Tucker, Harry Lloyd, Morgan Ratcliff, Williams, Sherry Cox, Jimmy Edwards, Mike Culver, Patricia Williams, Jerry Fulmer, Virginia Head, Jim Wade, Susan Scott, Mike Johnston, Janice Traywick, Kenneth Jackson, Hollie Jones, Faye Williams, Jean Howell, Gayla Wyatt, Eufan Smith, Beverly Hicks, Brenda Mims, Mary Arkie Cleckler, and Sandra Poole.

The class joined in singing a musical tribute with several songs appropriate for the occasion. The pianists were: Faye Williams, Sharon Jones and Beverly Hicks. Piano selections were given by: Clarlette Clackler, Sharon Jones, Mary Arkie Cleckler, Faye Williams and Beverly Hicks.

The ritual was given by a group and the program was concluded by remarks made by the President.

Each pupil presented his or her mother with a lovely memento, a beautiful book of poems, famous sayings and scripture.

About forty guests enjoyed the program and expressed their appreciation to Mrs. Thomas for the progress the boys and girls had made since the beginning of their sixth year in school.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

MET MAY 12TH.

The Chilton County Hospital Auxiliary held its quarterly meeting on May 12th, at 9:30 a.m. in the Nursing Home Dining Room.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. O. H. Armstrong, the minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. W. A. Willis, and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. J. H. Bodden.

Reports were given and they included a report from Mrs. Dick Hayes, chairman of the recent Red Cross Drive, she reported that there was enough money in the local chapter to keep the office running until the Drive in March unless some disaster occurred.

Mrs. Sibley McGowan reported that the visitations to the residents in the home and the flower garden at the home, which was made possible by the Auxiliary, had both meant a great deal to all those living there and to those who visit. She also asked that the ladies from the Modern Beauty Shop be thanked and given praise for coming out on Wednesday, before Easter and seeing that all the ladies in the home had their hair fixed for Easter and also to say thanks to Mr. "Red" Wagoner for coming and giving the men a haircut.

The secretary reported that the following people had made donations to help pay for the piano which was purchased for the Nursing Home by the Auxiliary: Mrs. C. W. Richard of Tiberias, Fla.; Mrs. J. D. Bell, Mr. Gabby Tiffin, Mr. John Higgins, The VFW Auxiliary and the Chilton County News. She also reported there is yet a small amount to be paid so if any member of the Auxiliary or any friend would like to help to complete this project, it will be gratefully appreciated and you will have a part in helping with the entertainment and enjoyment of these lovely folks at the Nursing Home.

The president read a letter from Mrs. Barnie Jones, chairman of the committee on Auxiliary, asking for information on the local Auxiliary, that she might write an article on same for the Alabama Hospital Bulletin.

The Committee for visitation to the home for the month of May are: Mrs. Gordon Robertson and Mrs. Sibley McGowan.

Mrs. O. F. Woods, County Health Nurse, gave an invitation to the Auxiliary members to help serve as hostesses on June 7th when our nurses will be held at the new Health Center.

The standing report of the Auxiliary is the sale of Hospital Lotions, so if anyone wishes to help with this project, please call either Mrs. O. H. Armstrong or Mrs. Sibley McGowan.

The meeting was adjourned to meet for the next regular meeting in August. There are approximately 60 members and each and everyone is needed to be present for these regular meetings.

BILLINGSLEY HIGH SENIORS: "LET US BE SEEN BY OUR DEEDS."

Jemison Colored School Serves 8 Grades; Many Communities

Jemison Colored School is located in Jemison, Alabama, about one quarter mile north west of downtown Jemison, with an enrollment of 106 elementary pupils, and 35 Junior High School pupils. The school has eight grades, with Charles Gibbs as principal and four teachers, namely: Mrs. Lograyne W. Gibbs, Mrs. Lawrence Gilchrist, Mrs. Mattie B. Coker, and Miss Nina F. Wilson.

The school, a consolidated of Shiloh, Beulah, St. Paul and Cedar Grove schools, now serves Jemison, Thorsby, Beulah, St. Paul, Holly Grove, and Shiloh communities. The majority of the students are transported by means of three county buses.

We operate a lunchroom with one paid worker who is assisted by students of the upper grades and voluntary supervision is given by the junior high school teacher. The lunchroom serves type A lunches with milk to a daily average of 64 pupils and faculty. Each student pays sixteen cents (16c) and adults pay twenty-five (25c) per day for lunches.

Our building, a frame construction, is inadequate for the program that we are attempting. Only two classrooms are equipped with poorly installed lavatories, and all other sanitation is outside, including the drinking fountain. Four rooms are without facilities for hanging cloaks. The auditorium serves as two classrooms and the lunchroom as a classroom, lunchroom, library, and principal's office. The present storage room for foods was once a cloak-room. The building is so constructed that all pupils except those from one classroom must go outside before entering the lunchroom. To give Mr. and Mrs. Public the idea of our needs can easily be stated in a few words, as all interested have stated to us, "A new building."

We feel that our school program will help in the making of good citizens of our boys and girls, and will encourage them to further their education, in as much as our philosophy is the belief that education is primarily a social process and that the child should be educated as a member of a social group dealing with dynamic life situations. These situations should be rich and varied experiences, appropriate to his individual needs, present and future. These experiences should be chosen so as to show growth in his (the child's) ability and the capacity to attain personal and social excellence as he learns to adjust himself in a changing society. We further believe that this growth can only be accomplished by means of procedures which include the fundamental manual and mental skills, vocational skills, and avocational skills in proportion to the pupils' interest, ability, and as they can master. This means bringing the school and life together. While such activity would yield knowledge, abilities and desirable habits of conduct conducive to group living, it aims to deepen and broaden the social experiences in co-operative living.

Our objectives are:

1. To prepare the child for learning, or to create conditions necessary for learning.
2. To develop the child as a useful member of our social order according to his abilities, interests and needs.
3. To maintain a child centered school, encouraging, through guidance, freedom of speech, interpretative experiences and other democratic expressions.
4. To provide a type of instructional program which will treat each pupil as an individual and assist in the maximum development of which he is capable, regardless of age.
5. To encourage, establish and maintain wholesome and genuine school - community relationships through organized efforts.
6. To assist the student to become skillful in interpreting his experiences and in making efficient use of the outcomes that he attains.
7. To teach pupils to develop, appreciate, and maintain effective conduct in social and civic activities.

Our curriculum is based on the Alabama course of study. The struction of correct usage of words. The social studies teacher believes that pupils should understand the economic importance of other countries, their geographical features and locations and understand the meaning of freedom and his responsibility of democracy. Therefore, in order to do our part as good neighbors, with the other countries in the Western and Eastern hemispheres, one should study and know of the peoples of these countries. We are aware that the United States and many of these countries are mutually interdependent. The teacher feels that to know and appreciate democracy it becomes necessary that we study the peoples and their cultural contributions. It is the purpose of this teacher to develop in the child an attitude of tolerance, friendship, and appreciation toward our neighbors. Crafts and homemaking are integrated with the social studies.

More reference books are needed, and there is a great need for audio visual aids in order to do a more effective job in this department.

Among the basic skills and understandings that are being developed in the teaching of mathematics in the 7th and 8th grades are: a continued growth of the number concept, concepts of operations, measurements, basic business practices, basic geometric concepts, graphs, and the vocabulary of arithmetic.

Certainly nature is a phase of science and nature study must be a part of the program of science. In the science classes the study of nature is basic, scientific, and an approach of truth, and not through personification of emotionalism.

Health education is a major part of our program. Some basic areas that are being taught are: need for health education, nutrition, body care, modern medical progress, disease and prevention, first aid, mental health and alcohol education. In this department there is a great need for apparatus for experimental purposes and first aid kits.

Included in the extra-curricular activities we have reading clubs, which are for the betterment of the pupils reading, and recreational reading. A citizens club is set up for the purpose of teaching our students how to become good citizens by learning to respect other people and public property and by learning other factors that go in-

But 1957 was two whole years ago!

Who wants to drive a "new" car that's really just a warmed-over '57? Especially when you can own a 1959 Chevrolet... the only all new car in its field!

We haven't room here to print a full comparison of Chevrolet and its competitors in the low-priced field. But we'd be happy to give you the whole story at your convenience. Just drop in and get the facts—once you do, we're sure you'll want to become a Chevy owner soon!

Roominess—Chevrolet offers more rear-seat width, for example, than other cars in its class. In fact, no medium-priced car surpasses Chevy's rear-seat width! And that's just one dimension of Chevrolet leadership.

Power Team Availability—When you buy a Chevrolet, you can tailor your power to your needs. Engines range from the thrifty 6-cylinder to a robust Super Turbo-Thrust V8—all available on every Chevy model!

Quality—Chevrolet has always enjoyed a reputation for solid workmanship. And this year it's more evident than ever. You can prove that for yourself—just compare the leading low-priced 3 and note Chevy's sheer craftsmanship.

High quality—high style—low price! That's this 1959 Chevrolet Biscayne 2-Door.

Re: D. P. Pickens and Joe Ben Downs, Executors. 19-3tc

Origin of the Bible

The book of Esther takes its name from the principal character and not from its writer, who is generally believed to be "Mordecai," the Persian friend of the Hebrew equivalent "Hadasah," means "fresh myrtle." The Jews called the book "Megillah," meaning "roll." The canonization of the book is mentioned by many. Their chief objection is based, not on historical grounds or well-founded critical analysis, but on an arbitrary, emotional reaction rising from the fact that the name of God does not appear once in the narrative.

The entire book breathes a spirit of faithfulness and integrity to ward God and deep interest in the cause of God's people. The fact that Mordecai steadfastly refused to honor and bow to God's enemy, Haman the Amalekite, is proof that Jehovah and His law were recognized and obeyed by Mordecai. Divine management of events is implied at Esther 4:14. Prayer is doubtless referred to by the word "cry" at 9:31. Furthermore, Haman's charge was that the Jew, in the provinces did not follow at his king's law, but had a law of their own, diverse from all other people. Obviously, Haman was raising the familiar objection of religious politicians to the adherence of Jehovah's people to theocratic law—3:1, 2, 8.

The canonization of the book of Esther may be established on the following grounds: The Jews have always reckoned it in the Hebrew canon and hold it in the very highest esteem. It was probably received into the Hebrew canon by Ezra, who lived at the time its rec'd events occurred and would be in a position to pass its authenticity. He would certainly have excluded it if it had been a fable. Though written in Hebrew, it contains the Persianisms and Aramaisms with which the Hebrew tongue had by that time been contaminated. Its wording in this respect matches that of the books Ezra, Nehemiah, and First and Second Chronicles. The record has the ring of genuineness by harmonizing completely with the times in which it is historically set.

Another strong argument in behalf of its authenticity and historical basis is that to this day the Jews keep the feast of Purim ordained by Mordecai in remembrance of their deliverance at that time. The strongest argument, however, is that the prophetic pictures forecast by the event, of the book of Esther are now, in these "last days," undergoing fulfillment under the Christian era.

There is some difference of opinion as to the writer of the book. There are scholars who credit it to Ezra. Ezra probably brought the book with him when he came from Babylon to Jerusalem, in 457 B. C., and added it to then still growing Hebrew canon. However, it is more probable that Mordecai wrote the record, because he was in position to have all the minute knowledge shown in the narrative of the private affairs of Mordecai and Esther, of Haman's family, and particularly of the domestic details of the palace. Shushan. Also, at the time of his elevation in the king's service he would have access to the official records which are mentioned in the account.

During what time did the events related occur? It was at a time when the Persian empire extended "from India even unto Ethiopia" (1:1). This would fix Darius II as the earliest possible ruler to so hold sway, and the language of the book and the events and customs disclosed and its inclusion into the canon by Ezra would not permit the events to be located beyond the reign of Artaxerxes III. In between these two Persian monarchs was, Xerxes. The Ashaserus of the Esther account must have been one of these three. In the twelfth year of his reign this Ashaserus did not seem too well acquainted with the Jews and their beliefs or disposed to favor them, because he permitted himself to be very readily influenced by Haman to decree their destruction. Darius II would hardly have fitted in this setup; he was well acquainted with the Jews and had favored them early in his reign, before the twelfth year thereof. Neither would Artaxerxes III, because he specially favored the Jews in his seventh year and again in his twelfth year. It must be that the Ashaserus of the Esther account was Xerxes. To this most scholars agree, and the American Translation Bible and Moffatt's translation even substitute Xerxes for Ashaserus in the account.

When, then, did Xerxes reign? After the long reign of Darius II, Xerxes began ruling about 486 B. C. Christians generally say 485 B. C. As to the time of ending of his reign there is disagreement. Most encyclopedias say his reign extended to a twenty-first year, to 465 B. C., and then Artaxerxes III ascended the throne.

But the most accurate profane historian of those times, and who lived during the reign of Artaxerxes III, namely Thucydides, fixes, with the aid of chronology table by Diodorus, the end of Xerxes' reign and the beginning of Artaxerxes, rule at about the year 474 B. C. According to this reckoning, the twelfth year of Artaxerxes III would fall in 465 B. C., which is correct and properly fixes the time for starting the count of the seventy weeks foretold in Daniel 9:24, 25. User's chronology, that usually used in the margins of Bibles, agrees with this shorter reign for Xerxes and gives 456 B. C. as the date for Artaxerxes' twelfth year, but in this instance the compilers of the Bible margin, commonly used, have not used User's chronology but have credited Xerxes with the longer reign and thus erred in the time of the important twelfth year of Artaxerxes III. Actually, Xerxes reigned twelve full years and possibly started his thirteenth, from 486 to 474 B. C. The events of Esther extend from his third year through his twelfth, a period of about ten years.

The book of Esther is packed with dramatic happenings. First the stage is set for the exaltation of the Jewish maiden Hadasah or Esther, who passed the information on to the king in Mordecai's refusing to appear when summoned by King Ahasuerus. Through an arrangement advised by the king's counselors Esther is eventually selected as the new queen of the Persian empire. (1:12-2:20) Thereafter Mordecai, who had acted as Esther's adviser in her rise to queenship, uncovered a plot to kill Ahasuerus. He advised Esther of this, who passed the information on to the king in Mordecai's name. The conspirators were hanged—2:21-23.

Haman the Amalekite or Agagite is promoted by the king to a position above all the other princes. His vanity is fed by the reverential bows of all the king's servants at the gate; but it is pricked by the steadfast refusal of Mordecai, who is also stationed at the king's gate. Wrathful Haman plots the destruction not only of Mordecai but also of all the Jews in the provinces. The laws of Jehovah which they follow and which forbid bowing down to creatures links homage-seeking Haman and moves him to rid the realm of them all. After ceremoniously casting Pur or lot, Haman broaches King Ahasuerus, misrepresents Jehovah's law, and secures a decree of destruction of the Jews. Posts are dispatched throughout the empire carrying the message and setting the thirtieth day of the twelfth month, Adar, as The Day for the anti-Semitic uprisings and massacre—3:1-15.

Now Ahasuerus did not know that Queen Esther was a Jewess. But in time he learned, and acted to the extent of his power to save her and her people. Here is how events worked themselves out: After an urgent warning by her cousin, Mordecai, Esther risks her life to appear unbidden before the king; she invites him and Haman to a banquet, and at that time renews the invitation for the morrow; Haman, his scheme marred only by the sight of unbending Mordecai, jubilantly boasts to his wife and friends, and on their advice builds a fifty-cubit-high gallows on which to hang Mordecai. Reverse begins for the schemer when on the morrow he is asked what honor should be accorded one the king delights in, and, presuming the one is himself, outlines a lavish ceremonial ride through the city's streets, only to find Mordecai is the one to be honored and he is appointed to lead the procession; the second banquet with Esther begins, she pleads for the preservation of herself and her irate demand points out wicked people the Jews, and at the king's Haman as the author of the scheme of massacre, and hears the king order the anti-Semite to be hanged on the gallows he had made for Mordecai. Haman's office is filled by Mordecai; the king authorizes Mordecai to dispatch a decree permitting the Jews to defend themselves on the day of the proposed massacre. At that time the victorious Jews slay 75,800 enemies; the feast of Purim is inaugurated and commanded to be kept in the generations to come. The book closes with the fulfillment of Mordecai's advancement in realm—4:1-10:3.

CLANTON CITY PARK BEGINS ACTIVITIES

SWIMMING POOL OPENS
MONDAY, MAY 25TH

ACCORDING TO V. L. Bulger, City Park Instructor "we have a fine program planned for everyone this year, so come on down and participate."

Admission for swimming lessons will be $3.00. Intermediate, Advanced, Junior Life Saving and Senior Life Saving are the courses offered.

POOL OPENS

The pool will be open to the public from 1:00 to 6:00 Monday through Saturday and 2:00 to 5:00 on Sunday. Night hours will be posted later. Tickets may be purchased at a reduced rate.

VARIETY OF SPORTS

"We are planning synchronized swimming also, if we have enough interested. Tennis, ping pong, volleyball, croquet, boxing, horse shoes, shuffle board, badminton and baseball equipment may be checked out to anyone desiring to play them."

"ROBIN HOOD"

Archery is scheduled under supervision. We are planning to acquire some more games as quickly as we are able.

Crafts and Story Hour will be offered at 1:00 p.m. in the hot part of the day as well as some quiet games such as checkers, dominoes, pick-up sticks and others.

SOFTBALL TEAMS

We have five softball teams playing each Monday and Thursday and eight Little League Ball Teams playing on our new field each Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights.

The town All Stars are under way and the Babe Ruth Teams and American Legion is about to begin. The tennis court is lighted as well as the volleyball court and picnic area.

PICNIC FACILITIES

In order to assure yourself of a fine picnic call the pool at 1265 to reserve the Picnic Area for your party or reunion.

"Come on down to your park everyone and enjoy yourself this summer," says Mr. Bulger.

DOUGLAS EUGENE CLECKLER DIES AT 17 YEARS

Douglas Eugene Cleckler, 17, died in a Birmingham hospital Saturday night. The funeral was held at 2 p.m. on Wednesday from Mt. Pisgah Church. Burial was in the church cemetery. Maertin Funeral Home directing.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Cleckler, Clanton; his grandparents, Mrs. Mattie Robinson and Elijah Gore, both of Clanton.

GASOLINE BIDS TAKEN BY BOARD OF EDUCATION

IT has been the policy of the Chilton County Board of Education for a number of years to purchase all gasoline and motor oil used in the operation of the school buses of Chilton County for the transportation of pupils on a bid basis. The policy still continues and sealed bids will be received by the Chilton County Board of Education at the office of the County Superintendent of Education, Clanton, Alabama, until 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, June 30, 1959.

Approximately 70,000 gallons of gasoline and 600 gallons of motor oil are used annually. Anyone wishing to place a bid should call by the Education Office and secure the specifications.

SPEED WASH OPENS HERE

Speed Wash, America's newest laundry sensation, will hold its grand opening to the public on May 22nd and 23rd at 6th Street across from IGA Super Market.

Speed Wash derives its name from two basic sources. One, it indicates the rate of speed at which a washing and dry cycle can be accomplished and two, the fact that the installation is completely with new, highly efficient Speed Wash washers, according to the owner.

Open seven days a week, twenty four hours a day, Speed Wash provides customers with a battery of coin-operated automatic washers and dryers. Customers can use as many machines as required to do a complete week's washing and drying oftentimes in 30 minutes or less they continued.

SPEED WASH Grand Opening, Friday and Saturday, May 22 and 23 will feature a Free Wash and Dry Service—8-S both days.

CHIEF GORE SAYS "WATCH YOUR SMOKE"

Smoking and matches were the causes of 130,800 fires in 1958, causing property loss of $719,000,000. "No one wants to interfere with the pleasure of smoking from those who enjoy it," said Chief Gene Gore of Clanton Fire Department, "but everyone wants smokers to be careful that their cigarette or match does not cause fires."

"A dangerous practice that takes the lives of many people each night is smoking in bed," added the Chief, warning against this dangerous and thoughtless habit.

Keep ash trays handy and use them, he advised. Be sure the fire is out before you discard your matches and cigarettes.

No only that, Chilton County has 318,419 acres of forests. Be careful with that "weed" in the woods!

AN estimated 40 percent of the turkey deaths are attributed to improper management.

The hundreds of soil samples that arrive at the Auburn Soil Testing Laboratory every day indicate the keen interest Alabama farmers have in higher crop yields and bigger profits.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT A LINO TYPE MACHINE IS?

WELL, that's the certified, patented, official name for the machine which sets nearly all of the reading matter which goes into your Chilton County News.

Several unofficial (in fact, unprintable) names came to mind Monday and Tuesday of this week which would have described "Old Betsy" much better, but we doubt whether or not it would have remedied the situation any.

The ole buzzard went haywire on us and we were caught with our type down.

As a rule your News runs anywhere from 30 to 50 columns of straight matter (reading) in each issue, but when Lopy the Lino breaks down, it's curtains for all other departments and a big issue.

We think we have the trouble remedied (in fact several troubles) and we'll try to make it up to you next week. One thing is certain: we're going to work the heck out of her next week to make up for the two days she didn't produce!

Sorry for the inconvenience. Bear with us, won't you? —THE EDITOR

East-West Ball Game 'Big Success' Say Lions

This game played Sunday afternoon before one of its largest crowds netted $1,800.00.

Major league Scouts attending this game were Red Hayworth, Chicago Cubs; Virgil Ledbetter of Los Angeles Dodgers; Jimmy Bragan, Cincinnati; Jack Sanford of Kansas City and Fred Herring of Pittsburgh.

The Clanton Lions Club wishes to express their sincere thanks and appreciation for the cooperation, contributions and acceptance of everyone that helped in this highly successful undertaking.

EAST SHUTS OUT WEST

by WAYNE ATCHESON

The East shut out the West by a score of 5 to 0. Pitchers Bill Jones and Gerald Queen of Alex City and Pete Cottle of Tallahassee blanked the West.

Only One Hit

The West team got only one hit in the contest as Kenneth Broadhead of West Blocton doubled in the third. For the East Paul McInnis and Don Davidson of Tallahassee, Earnest Caldwell and Charles Billingsley of Alex City, and Earl Tys of Columbiana got the five hits for the East.

Score First Inning

The East scored in the first inning on a fielders choice, a walk, and a single by Paul McInnis.

In the fifth the East exploded for four runs on a walk by Gerald Queen, a single by Earnest Caldwell, a double by Charles Billingsley, two walks, and a single by Earl Tys. The West threatened only in the second as Bill Speavey of Alex City pitched him.

CLANTON TAKES ALL-STAR

by WAYNE ATCHESON

In the second game the Clanton Tigers took three hits and an error and beat the All-Stars 2 to 0. Clay Carroll pitched a three-hit shut out for the winners.

Miller Led Fourth

Coach Don Emlyson's squad scored in the fourth and fifth innings. Billy Miller led the fourth off swinging on the third strike and Wayne Little singled. Don Jones sacrificed Little to second and Larry Culpepper hit to the short-stop by a throwing error brought Little across.

Monroe Brings in Cathy

In the fifth Johnny Cathy walked and Carroll went down swinging. Warren Edwards sacrificed and Cathy went to third on a wide pitch. Then 2nd Monroe singled through a middle to drive in Cathy.

Carroll Strikes Six

Carroll pitched a swell game striking out six and walking none. Ronald Smithman tripled in the second and a double by Glenn Hankins and a single by Charles Billingsley back to back were the only hits Carroll gave up. The game turned out to be a big success and the Clanton Lions Club wishes to thank you for making it a success.

Officer Nabs Convicts After Brief Chase

1 arrested With liquor

Earnie Jones was arrested and charged with transporting illegal liquor last Sunday according to a report from Sheriff Hugh Champion.

Jones was arrested in Dry Valley, between Mars Hill and Randolph with six gallons of whiskey according to the report.

WAR ONE VETS TO ORGANIZE CHAPTER

There will be a meeting of all Chilton county World War One veterans at the courthouse Thursday, May 28th, at 7:00 p.m. There will be an interesting speaker for the occasion, and Chilton County Chapter will be organized. All War One Veterans are invited to attend.

This is one of Alabama's fastest growing organizations. There are now fourteen "barracks", and 25 are expected by the middle of September. The nationwide organization is now adding about 100 chapters a month. Alabama Department Commander is W. A. Kilgough of Birmingham.

The purpose of the organization is to stimulate interest in the various communities into taking more interest in the War One old-timer, for their mutual benefit, pleasure and amusement.

CLIMAXED — LOYALTY CAMPAIGN AT TEMPLE

The "Loyalty Campaign" climaxed last Sunday in the Temple Assembly of God Sunday School with 117 people having perfect attendance for the seven-Sunday campaign.

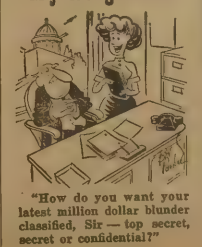

The seven Sundays bridged Easter and Pentecost Sundays, April 5 through May 17. The theme was "Count Me". According to the Superintendent of the school, E. V. Mims, 66 adults, 11 teen agers, and 40 children comprised the 117 who had perfect attendance.

Rev. Nelson E. White is pastor of the church. He recalls that in the 1958 campaign 99 people had perfect attendance.

...Forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press forward. —(Philippians 3:13).

NEW INDUSTRY AT MAPLESVILLE

The Thomas Veneer & Plywood Company has opened at Maplesville. Mr. Hubert Thomas, owner, comes from LeVoor, N. C., and his family will join him at Maplesville when school closes in their hometown.

The citizens of Maplesville have gone all out to welcome the Thomas' and make them feel at home. They are members of the Baptist Church.

The Thomas Veneer & Plywood Company, when running maximum will employ approximately 90 people. This to Maplesville means much and the new industry and the merchants and residents of Maplesville are looking forward to congenial relations.

In this issue of the News the merchants and the Mayor of Maplesville run a page advertisement welcoming the industry and the Thomas family.

ALL DAY SING AT SHILOH

The annual all-day singing will be held at the Shiloh Baptist Church the 5th Sunday in May. The singing will begin at 10:00 o'clock a.m.

Mr. J. W. DeVaughn is chairman. He invites everyone to come and spend the day. Remember we at Shiloh will be looking forward to seeing you. 3:15, 1:00, 1:00, all day and sing the spiritual blessings.

Monday morning Sheriff Hugh Champion received a long distant call from Louisiana informing him that three convicts had escaped from prison there Sunday night after Sheriff Champion told State Highway Patrolman Billy Lawrence of the escape and the kind of automobile they were driving and to be on the lookout for them. About 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon Patrolman Lawrence spotted them about five miles South of Clanton on U. S. 31 and drove close. He followed them up the new four-lane highway for about a mile where they stopped their car and went into the woods this was when Lawrence caught one of them leaving the automobile.

One of the men, Ralph Mims, had been in trouble here before, according to the Sheriff. The other two were Sam Williams and Weston Williams.

A very few minutes after the capture of the first man the other two were taken in the woods nearby. The escapers told the Sheriff they were trying to get North when they were captured.

WHY DO THEY DO IT? --
PEOPLE in general, and possibly you in particular, are entirely too willing in this day and time to sacrifice quality for price.

We ask ourselves "why" every day and the only answer we have ever been able to get (from our own mind anyhow) is that people don't think past their noses.

For instance, if you price an article and it's $4 one place and only $3.25 at another the first thing you think of, naturally, is practicality. You must be economical! But do you go one further and consider which firm is doing the better job for the community or which one has done you the most good personally or the firm or organization you represent.

It's possible that you are spending an organization's money and naturally you are expected to use common sense. Which firm of the two mentioned has done more for your organization? This to our way of thinking is worth more in the long run than it's 75c you can save.

We feel it is worth more than 75c to you to keep the firm going which does the most for the people it serves. There's no doubt about it. . . quality costs money, but we'll be a monkey's uncle if we can see the intelligence in sacrificing it for a 75c saving.

Our Country was built on quality. It has come a long way AWAY from that quality since, and we are as much advocate for quality as we are for progress. . . in fact, we think the maintenance of quality is the perpetuation of progress.

The next time you get an estimate on an item and it's higher at one place than another, chances are there's more of a reason than merely lining the owner's pocket-book. Quality costs money, but we are not willing to sacrifice it for any amount. We think it better to sacrifice the "price conscious" customer to another, less particular merchant! That way we at least maintain quality and service for those who feel it essential.

CHILDREN IN THE STREET --

IT seems strange to us that parents should even need reminding that the street. . . any street, is a dangerous playground for their children.

These pretty summer days are evidencing more and more the thoughtless action of parents letting their offspring free to roam the highways and byways.

What we want to know is why do parents, mothers in particular, feel that the motorist should be required to watch for, stop for, wait on and go around her youngsters. The streets are no place for a child to play, especially a pre-school age child who does not know the dangers of a motor vehicle. Mother is entirely at fault and after she sees the mangled or lifeless body of her son or daughter is no time to decide that the street truly is a dangerous place for a playground.

Playgrounds have been built all over the city of Clanton for the kids. We think it's time they were put to proper use or either keep the kiddies in their own yards.

MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE

Sneaky Business Where it Hurts --

There was a time when all Federal spending legislation originated in the House of Representatives. The only way to get money out of the Treasury was through appropriation bills, and the House Appropriations Committee kept a pretty close watch on them. Both Congress and the people could tell how much money was pouring out and where it was going.

But no more. Now an increasing number of spending programs skirt the sharp-eyed Appropriations Committee and evade the glare of publicity that is focused on the budget. They're not even called appropriations. Our free-spending Congressmen have developed legislative gimmicks which enable the legislators to tap the Treasury for funds to set up and support pet programs without telling the people how much they cost.

In other words, after setting up safeguards on the front door of the Treasury, Congress is running around and taking money out the back door through a system designed to hoodwink the taxpayers. This seems a pretty sneaky way for the Congress of the United States to do business.

EAST WEST PROCEEDS DOUBLE LAST YEAR'S EFFORT

By WAYNE ATCHESON
The East-West game proved to be a big success as proceeds doubled last year's mark. The two games were equally exciting as the East team defeated the West 5 to 0 and the Clanton Tigers took the AllStars 2 to 0.

Lions Sponsored
The games was sponsored by the Clanton Lions Club and the proceeds went to the Alabama Sight Conservation Association.

Major League Scouts
One of the main highlights of the games was the presence of five Major League Scouts. These included Jack Sanford, Kansas City Athletics; Virgil Leebetter, Los Angeles Dodgers; Jimmy Bragan, Cincinnati Redlegs; Fred Herling, Pittsburgh Pirates; and Rikd H. worth, Chicago Cubs. Also Jerry Bryan of the Birmingham News.

Fifteen Stars
After the first contest the scouts picked fifteen stars from the first game which played Clanton. The lucky boys were Earnest Cardwell, Charles Billingsley, Fred Blankenship, Gerald Queen and Bill Spivey all of Alex City. Leon Armbrister, Columbus; Don Davidson and Paul McInish of Tallahassee; Kenneth Broadhead Glenn Hankins and Louie Wade, West Blocton; Barclay Fisher, Curtis Jarvis, Lee Salter, and Ronald Smitherman of Montevallo. Coaches were Gene West of West Blocton and Don Bulger of Columbus.

SHOULDS SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Visiting here last week with Mr. Claud Hathcock were his sisters, Mrs. Eula Brown and Mrs. Friday from Clanton, Ala., also his brother in law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. Williams of Prattville, Ala., Mr. Barney Mevins of Plantersville, were recent visitors here with Mr. Hathcock. Mr. Levis was enroute to Brent, Ala., to visit his uncle, Mr. Hosca Hathcock, who has been seriously ill for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Selley (Lettie Walker) of West Palm Beach, Fla., are here visiting a sister, Mrs. Willie Hathcock.

Sgt. Charles Shouls of Selma, Mr. Sam Shouls, Mrs. Ida Smitherman, Mrs. Dovie Shouls of Plantersville and Mrs. Willie Hathcock of this community visited Mrs. Ida D. Shouls who is in the State Hospital at Tuscaloosa, Ala. They reported that Mrs. Shouls isn't improving satisfactory. They ask all Christians to pray for her.

Mrs. Ollie Shouls of Selma, Ala. spent several days here last week with friends and relatives. Mrs. Shouls has many friends here who are always happy to see her. Her mother, Mrs. Reba Mott suffered a stroke in December and is recovering nicely. She has lost the use of one hand.

Mrs. Carrie Lawrence Lang and friend, Mrs. Betty Salinsky of Flint, Michigan, visited here last week. They also visited Mrs. Lang's mother and sister in Selma, Mrs. Reba Mott and Mrs. Ollie Shouls. We are glad to report Mrs. Shouls is doing well after her recent illness.

Expected here soon are Mr. and Mrs. Felton Shouls and two children Linda and Carol of Flint, Mich.

King Visits Congress

During his recent Washington visit, King Baudouin I of Belgium addressed a joint session of Congress on Tuesday of last week. King Baudouin emphasized in his address the desire of his country for peace and denounced the efforts of imperialist nations seeking "the mastery of intellects."

The dignified and serious young king, whom I had the privilege of meeting, believed the hope of peace lies with America, and so stated in his talk to the Members of Congress.

Our president through the help of "World Encyclopedias" gave a very interesting and informative talk on "Puerto Rico". Miss Hicks discussed the History, Government, Location, Size, Population, Climate, the People and their work, Agriculture, Natural Resources, Tourist Industry, Manufacturing, Trade, Social and Cultural Achievements, Cities and Towns, Education, Holidays Observed, Political Parties, Universities, and their Rule. While discussing "Puerto Rico" the Brown-Travel Bureau of Birmingham had furnished a number of folders on "Puerto Rico" to Miss Hicks and these were passed among the members to give them some idea of the magnificent building, the beaches, motels, hotels, etc. This was informative.

Puerto Rico, became the 52nd Federation of Clubs of Business and Professional Women. Its President, Delia de Aranda Meyers, asked all our clubs to observe "Puerto Rico" week as they observe "Know Your America Week".

This observance we thoroughly enjoyed and at meetings of ours at a later date we will become better acquainted with our 52nd Federation, "Puerto Rico".

Aims and Objectives Of Our Club Were Discussed.

Our next meeting will be held, Friday night, June 12, instead of June 11 Thursday night. At this meeting "Our Emblem" program will be put on by a group from Montgomery, Ala. A full attendance is asked for that night. This program is under the direction of our Chairman, Public Relations, Mrs. Marjorie Sewell.

THINGS We see and hear

by BOB

HEAR Morris Monts got a little queasy on his flight down to the State Jaycee Convention in Mobile this past week end. He, Buddy Wade and James Duke Heflin flew down for the three day affair last Friday morning, and according to reports had a ripping good time. James Duke was in the running when he left here for State vice-president of District VII. You know what; he came back the winner. So the Clanton Club now has a State Officer in the Junior Chamber of Commerce and a capable one at that. Congratulations Duke and we understand Buddy and Morris deserve some bit of credit as campaign managers. See next week's News for photo of "Duke the Jaycee Veepee".

MRS. Reuben DeVaughn tells a rat tale an howl. Seems the DeVaughn clan had been having trouble with rats (and who doesn't) down around Mr. Fugah way and Mrs. DeVaughn had set out poison (can and all) for the varmints. Last Sunday morning she said she was checking around and some rats had built a nest in the can and there was six in the healthiest little rats in there you most ever saw. We're not saying that poison ain't no good, but we'd sure like to hear the argument the salesman could come up with after being hit in the face with that one. Nothing'll ever take the place of a good, big ole pussy cat will it Mrs. DeVaughn. If it can't eat 'em, at least you can teach it to show them where some real poison, poison is!

CHILTON COUNTY'S BUSINESS OF THE WEEK

People Like That 1-Day Service by Cleanrite Cleaners

SHOWN are Clifford Popwell, Mrs. Daisy Popwell (background) and Mrs. Frances Deason, owners and operators of Clanton's Cleanrite Cleaners. They won't take you to the cleaners, as the saying goes, but they can sure do a fine job on any and all clothes cleaning problems. Those who've tried 'em know what we mean. (NEWS PHOTO BY SCOTT)

The Cleanrite Cleaners, located next to the Farley Drug Store on Sixth Street, was organized in 1946 by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Popwell. At that time Mr. Popwell was in the coal business and did not retire from that business and come into the Cleanrite Cleaners until about five years ago.

Mrs. Frances Deason, a daughter has been with the firm since it's beginning and is her mothers "right-hand-man" in all business transactions.

The popwells and Mrs. Deason are proud of their first class work and their prompt one-day service when requested. This one-day service is done at no cost to you. All they ask is your appreciation and your continued support.

Cleanrite Cleaners uses the Sanex method of cleaning and moth-proofing your clothes. As Mrs. Deason explained, their is no use for a laundry bag to be on your clothes to keep them moth-proof. The Sanex method protects them whether in a bag or out of a bag.

Cleanrite Cleaners is also well known for it's alteration department. In fact, Mrs. Daisy (Clifford) Popwell was already in demand as a seamstress long before they opened the Cleanrite Cleaners.

And according to Mrs. Popwell their's is not just another cleaning plant. They take pride in their work and watch every garment and see that it is cleaned and pressed to your satisfaction. They also clean draperies, blankets, spreads, coats, and you can just about name it--and they clean it.

The next time you are in the market for a first-rate cleaning job, go to the Cleanrite Cleaners. They will serve ou well and win you as a regular customer.

ARE YOU SELLING YOURSELF SHORT?

IF you think you are doing your pocketbook a favor by trading out of town where the "bargains" are you are fooling yourself.

Nobody is doing himself (or herself) a favor by trading out of town. You are rather, doing the town you are trading in a favor. If it isn't your own town why are you supporting it above and beyond your own.

Not only charity begins at home. Many things do, and not in the least of these is the support of your home merchants of Chilton County who are in business to better serve the people of this area.

Before you trade elsewhere for "bargains" check your home merchants. You will be surprised to find that not only can you find what you want, but sometimes cheaper and you certainly know that no outside firm is going to support this community with taxes or anything else.

Use your good common sense. . .TRADE AT HOME with your friendly local merchant.

The terms of payment will be cash in full.

George D. Patterson, (District Director of Internal Revenue) 21-11c

Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in Me.—(St. John 14:1).

Some of us in our quest for the Truth, become so confused and unhappy because we cannot seem to comprehend, to understand as we feel we ought. But Jesus, Who was sent by God the Father to be our guiding light, shows us the way in such simple, understandable words that we should never falter.

For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.—(St. Matthew 6:14).

If we hold grudges, harbor resentment which builds up into bitter hatred, if we are constantly and destructively critical of those around us, we indeed build an insurmountable wall between ourselves and God, and our prayers will be in vain. By our unforgiving we create our own Hell on earth.

TAIPEH, FORMOSA—The kite returns to land of honorable ancestors—the Orient—carrying an American freekier. More than a half-million persons on Formosa, Nationalist Free China's off-shore stronghold, watch Tommy Bartlett's Mercury Outboard Water Ski Show.

Underwritten by Mercury, the show was co-sponsored by the USO, Defense Department and State Department. The purpose of the 10-week tour of the Far East was two-fold—entertain servicemen and furnish President Eisenhower's person-to-person program. The audience and sponsors rated the show as a tremendous success on both counts. "The show did not preach Americanism or American power," Bartlett observed. "Instead, it showed American progress to the people in terms that were easy to understand. The members of the troupe are all outstanding athletes and American youths. The show was a demonstration of

IN a statement of general policy, the newly appointed Alabama Milk Control Board has declared that the spirit and intent of the law will be carried out with respect to the entire milk industry rather than any segment.

Chairman John P. Kohn, Jr., in announcing the board's policy, said hearings would be conducted "with dispatch and dignity" under the law, and matters presented to the board would be handled promptly.

Gov. John Patterson recently appointed Chairman Kohn, who is a Montgomery attorney, and four new members of the board representing various segments of the milk industry; the board selected John G. Papanastatos of Montgomery, who has been connected with the dairy industry the last seven years.

And be ye kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. —(Ephesians 4:32.)

When we stop to think that God forgives us of our sins not once but many times, that He loves us despite our unworthiness, how is it possible that we can keep unkindness, hatred and resentment in our hearts?

Fig Bar Treasure Chest

If you can boil water you can make one of the season's most elegant new desserts, "Fig Bar Treasure Chest." It's just that simple! A combination of canned fruits, rich rich square fig bars, lemon flavored gelatin and whipped cream, this luscious uncooked treat is a perfect choice for springtime entertaining. Here's how to make it:

Fig Bar Treasure Chest
2 8-oz. packages Sunshine 2 1-lb. 1-oz. cans fruit
Fig Bars for salad
1 package lemon flavored 1/2 cup heavy cream, gelatin dessert whipped

Line a 9-inch by 5-inch loaf pan with waxed paper, with edges of paper coming up above sides of pan. Cover bottom of pan with one layer of fig bars; also line sides of pan, halfway up with layer of fig bars. Empty gelatin dessert into large bowl. Drain fruits. Add enough water to juice to make 1 1/2 cups liquid. Heat liquid to boiling; pour over gelatin, stirring until dissolved. Chill until firm. Fold in cream and about 3/4 of the drained fruits. Carefully spoon mixture into pan, even with top of fig bar layer lining the sides. Arrange rest of fig bars around sides of pan. Spoon in remainder of pudding. Chill. To serve, remove from pan by lifting waxed paper. Peel off paper; garnish top with remaining fruits. Make "handle" for each end of chest with whole maraschino cherry inserted on toothpick. Makes 8 servings.

COBB TO ATTEND BOYS' STATE U OF A

David Leroy Cobb of Route 4, Clanton, Alabama, has been selected to attend the American Legion Boys' State to be held on the campus of the University of Alabama under the supervision of the American Legion Department of Alabama, according to an announcement made today by Lawson Lynn, Department Adjutant.

These boys will report to the campus of the University on May 31, and will have a week of intensive practice in operating a state, counties and cities.

This is an annual program of the American Legion and has been held every year since 1936. More than 400 boys are expected to attend this year from every corner of the State, according to a statement from Boy's State Director, Cliff Harper.

David Leroy Cobb, one of our local boys, was born May 5, 1942 in Paris, Tenn. He attended first grade in Vienna, Austria American Dependent's School, where his father was on duty with the U. S. Army.

David returned to the States with his parents, Lt. Col. and Mrs. W. R. Cobb, October, 1949. Since that time he has attended Clanton Elementary and is now a junior at Clanton County High School.

His favorite sports are football, having won two letters, and baseball. David is a lover of music and enjoys dancing. Swimming is also a favorite, his being a recipient of American Red Cross Life Saving Certificate.

David stated that he could not have received higher honor than having been selected by the American Legion Post to attend Boy's State.

GLENNER S. S. CLASS HELD MEETING

The Glenner Sunday School Class of the West End Baptist Church, held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. William DeVaughn.

The meeting was called to order with Mrs. Allen Ruff bringing the devotional and opening prayer.

ABUNDANT LIFE
by ORAL ROBERTS

ARE YOU THE "GOT-TO-SHOW-ME" TYPE?
It's true in this life that some people have to "see" a thing to believe that it actually exists. We've all heard someone say, "I'm from Missouri; you gotta show me!"
This kind of thinking applies to many people when they are asked to believe in divine intervention, or when asked whether or not they feel the presence of God. Some can "visualize" without actually seeing, while others doubt because there is nothing really "physical" to see.
The Bible says: "God is a Spirit." He is everywhere, always. By exercising faith and believing, all can "see" God.
It is said that when a dove and its mate are separated, each sits solitary and mourns for the other.
The physical absence of our Saviour was a real blow to the disciples. For this reason, Jesus said, "If I go away, I will come again. I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you." Physical absence cannot compare with spiritual absence. Christ is absent from us only in the flesh. "Lo, I am with you always," he said, "even unto the end of the world."
He is in our hearts; he is by our sides. We see Christ with our minds and feel him through our spirits. We touch him with our faith.
There is a special blessing promised those who believe without seeing him in the flesh. Jesus said to Thomas the doubter, "Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed."
One without Christ's presence is solitary and sad, indeed. He said, "I will come to you." He is here, he is there, he is everywhere in the world today. He is most where he is wanted most. Do you want him? You can "see" God and touch him with your faith. Learn to turn your faith loose, and God will come to you.
Try it and see!

Respondent
The bill of complaint of the State of Alabama on the relation of Lawrence F. Gerald, Jr., Deputy Solicitor of Chilton County, Alabama, against one 1948 Studebaker pickup truck, motor number 1R74701, tag number 4H185, identification number 26988 and bearing number R51347 on door of said truck, was exhibited to me, and it appearing therefrom that on the 9 day of May, 1959, one Horace DeRamus did transport in said automobile certain prohibited liquors or beverages from one point to another in the State of Alabama, and that said automobile was, on the said date seized by officers of Chilton County, Alabama, and said bill of complaint prays that said automobile be declared and forfeited to the State of Alabama, and for an order of condemnation and sale thereof.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that notice of the filing of said bill of complaint be given for three successive weeks in the Chilton County News, a newspaper published in the City of Clanton, Alabama, and that all persons claiming or asserting any right, title or interest in said automobile be required to appear and assert such claim by the 22 day of June, 1959, and that failure to do so, their said right, title or interest will be forever barred.

ORDERED AND DECREED, this the 14 day of May, 1959.
J. B. Atkinson, Judge of the County Court of Chilton County, Alabama. 21-3tc

Social Security Fax

Strange as it may seem, the average American thinks he will never grow old after he will never die. So says Carl H. Dahm, Manager of the Birmingham Social Security District Office, who points out that many of us never bother to inquire about what social security means. This in spite of the fact that this federal system of insurance has been paying benefits for over twenty years. Over 12,000,000 Americans now get checks totaling some $700,000,000 monthly.

What about you? Did you know that social security payments to your family could under some circumstances, run up to more than $50,000.00 if you should die? It's a fact—they are. Did you know that cash payments are often made to seriously disabled insured people if they are between 50 and 65? It is a fact—they are. Would you be surprised to learn that not only will benefits be paid to you when you retire after age 65, but that they can also be paid to your wife if she is 62 or more, even if she has never worked? It's a fact—they can. (Women workers may retire at age 62 if they wish).

These—and many other facts about social security—are things each of us needs to know when trying to plan for our future. In all thinking about the years ahead, a family must face the possibility of death, long illness, or insufficient resources after retirement of the family head. Social security benefits do not and should not be expected to replace, dollar for dollar, the income a worker and his family can earn. But they can and should be used as a base in planning for the future. Known what he can expect—and what he cannot expect—from social security, he should strive to add insurance savings, investments and other income sources to provide adequately for his family.

Informational pamphlets about social security, touching on all parts of the law, are available at any District Social Security Office. They are free. This area is served by the office located at 1710 First Avenue, North in Birmingham, Ala.

First Baptist Mom-Daughter Banquet

Ninety-three mothers and girls Auxiliary daughters of the First Baptist Church enjoyed a banquet on last Tuesday evening, which portrayed the theme, "Melody of Spring", and given by the members of the Womans Missionary Society. The atmosphere of Spring truly prevailed in the dining hall which was decorated in the Girl's Auxiliary colors of green and white under the artistic direction of Mrs. Thomas Hayes, the Womans Missionary Society's Fellow chairman.

Mrs. George Curlee, the WMCU president served as Conductor and Dr. J. G. Gilbert Hutchinson lead the opening prayer, "Keeping Our Hearts in Tune".

After a delightful meal of Songbirds, Springtime Clouds, New Note Garden Melody, Buttercups, Spring Nectar, and Musical Delight, everyone enjoyed group singing lead by Mrs. Joe Moore, one of the GA Concoisseurs, and accompanied at the piano by Martha Ann Josephine Moore, representing the GA's welcomed the Mothers. "Tell Tunes", a parody on Mother Goose Rhymes, which emphasized the importance of "Tell" the GA magazine, was given by Martha Ann Sudduth, Sandra Cox, and Janis Tingle. A comic dialogue, "Silly Symphony" was presented by Judy Lawrence and Becky Gray. Miriam Golden was the essence of spring as she sang "A Song of Spring".

The highlight of the evening was the recognition service, giving credit to those GA members who had passed a step in GA work during this WMCU year. Mrs. Charles Patterson the G. Director, introduced Mrs. J. W. Johnson, the associational Young Peoples Leader, who conducted this recognition service. Those who became Ladies-in-Waiting were: Josephine Moore, Shirley Tucker, Nella Mullins, Sylvia McKee, Janet Culp, and Alicia Adams. Those who became Maidens were: Patsy Minor, Virginia Head, Sherry Cox, Annette Gay, Susan Nichols, Jane Cox, Sandra Bulger, Sandra Cox, Christy Cox, Janis Tingle, Rose Norman, Shirley Moatts, Delores Jones and Martha Ann Sudduth. Miriam Golden and Jennie Lee Polk, Queens in GA Rank, pinned the emblem of rank on each GA as she received her award.

Mrs. George Curlee offered the closing prayer.

SHORT HAS PART IN EXERCISE "DRY HILLS"

Specialist Four Albert W. Short, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Short, Route 2, Maplesville, Ala., is participating with the 4th Infantry Division, a major Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) unit, in Exercise Dry Hills at the Yakima Firing Center in Washington. The exercise will end May 23.

This large-scale maneuver, designed to provide unit and individual training with weapons and in tactics of modern warfare, involves 18,000 soldiers from military posts throughout the U. S.

Specialist Short, regularly assigned as a mechanic in Headquarters Company of the 4th Engineer Battalion at Fort Lewis, Wash., entered the Army in April 1957 and received basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

The 19-year old soldier attended Maplesville High School.

The Old Timer

"If it were not for the hazards, golf and life would be dull."

Mrs. George Curlee offered the closing prayer.

MOTHERS AT MULBERRY RECEIVE GIFTS

Rev. L. E. Daniel, pastor The morning services were well attended here Sunday. Several of our people who have been away came home to be with their mothers and their families on Mother's Day.

Mrs. J. L. Conway was presented flowers for having the most children present for the Morning Worship services. All seven of her children worshipped with her here on Sunday. Mrs. Billy Smith (Molly Webster) received the flowers for being the youngest mother, and Mrs. T. L. Lecroy received flowers as the oldest mother present.

The Laura Williams Circle meets Thursday (today) at 3:15 with Mrs. J. H. Wells. All members are urged to be present.

Let us remember to attend the Prayer Meeting Wednesday night at 7:30. Choir practice follows at 8:15.

If we all do some visiting in behalf of our Church this week we will see an increase in attendance next Sunday. Will you visit and pray for next Sunday's services? Mrs. Gordon Conway, Church reporter.

TO HONOR PEACH — Peach And Trade Days Set For Chilton During June Season

It's peach season once again, and plans have just been completed to honor King Peach once more.

This time it will be the Chilton County Peach and Trade Days Celebration, with a three-weeks promotion designed to help sell Chilton County peaches and to stimulate trade for business houses over the county.

Plans for the Peach and Trade Days Celebration have been announced by Jack House, of Jack House and Associates, Birmingham, advertising and promotion firm, in collaboration with local merchants and peach growers.

Jack House and Associates specialize in conducting Trade Days promotions and currently is holding such a celebration in Calera.

The promotion in Clanton has been timed so as to be held at the time Chilton County peaches will be moving to market at a fast rate and a three weeks campaign to help sell the peaches will start on Monday, June 8.

Final day of the celebration will be Saturday, June 27. During the three weeks period, Happy Day Burns will be broadcasting from locations in Chilton County from his Rambling Ranch Studio. Broadcasts will be made over Birmingham and local radio stations.

Burns also will salute Chilton County on his television programs over WAPI-TV in Birmingham on Saturday mornings and on Saturday afternoons, June 27, a free state show will be held from the Rambling Ranch Studio.

During the entire three weeks, Prize Bucks will be distributed by participating merchants throughout the county. These will be used for valuable prizes to be given away Saturday afternoon, June 27.

Names submitted on the Prize Bucks also will select this year's Peach Queen, who will be sent to Washington to present the winning basket of peaches to the Alabama Congressional delegation.

Three added to the church were Alvin Reed Mims Eunice H. Mims, Samuel Mims, E. M. Thomas, Jr., Tommie J. Mims, Hazel Mims, Beulah Hoxey, Clara Mae Mims, Annie Easterling, Jessie Jones, Doris Jones, Don Driver and Larry Gwathney.

THE Installation School is a two-weeks course in methods of installing telephones. Cagle and Lloyd studied the installation of the push-button telephones.

THE past few weeks have seen much increased interest in the "Chilton County Business of the Week" page running every other week in the News. This is evidenced by the many comments and words of encouragement we receive from interested parties.

This week the feature, which is sponsored by Chilton merchants does not appear. Next week it will appear with a new business featured in the center spot. Look for it next week, only in the News!

Miss Peg Kepler comes to Clanton and Jemison will be recommended, and has been interested in Little Theatre work, radio, TV and publicity and promotion of entertainment.

She has had special training on this particular production and her ability to work with all types of talent, both musical and dramatic, will be of great benefit to the local acts who will take part in the contest which will be to one feature of the show.

The following members of the Lions Club held a meeting tonight to make arrangements for the show and to choose talent: Ed Yeargan was chosen Ticket Chairman, Archie Ogburn was chosen Parade Chairman and Carl Roegner is the Finance Chairman.

"Around The World In A Daze" has the unqualified recommendation of many other towns in the nation where it has played to packed houses. Watch this paper for further news and announcements about "Around The World In A Daze."

Receives M'bership Into Kappa Pi

THE Alabama College Chapter of Kappa Pi, the National honorary Art Fraternity, held its annual initiation recently.

Among the six receiving membership was Mrs. Vivian Kliner, who was also elected secretary-treasurer. Eligibility of membership is based on a high scholastic record and meritorious work of upperclassmen art majors.

The Bethsalem Home Demonstration Club met May 14, with Mrs. A. J. Wilkins. There were 14 members and Mrs. Lane, our Agent present.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. E. S. Short the president. Mrs. M. Yeargan gave the devotional and prayer. Mrs. C. R. Pierce read the story of the hymn. We then played the U. S. hymns.

Mrs. J. C. Bookholdt was in charge of the demonstration "Rabbit House." Mrs. Lane was in charge of the election to choose officers. Short reported on the trip to Cullman.

STAR FARMER TO RECEIVE A FORD TRACTOR

A new Ford tractor will be presented to the Star Farmer of Alabama at the 30th Annual Convention to be held in Auburn June 4, 5, and 6.

According to Thorsby Tractor Co., Ford tractor and implement dealers in Thorsby, this is the fourth consecutive year Alabama's Ford tractor and implement dealers have made this presentation in an effort to help the farm youth who receives the coveted Star Farmer award on his way to successful establishment in farming.

In addition to the new tractor presented to the State Star Farmer, four District Star Farmers will receive a $100.00 Savings Bond. Mr. P. F. Singley said:

More than 250 Alabama FFA members will be competing for the degree of State Star Farmer. The winner will be selected because of his outstanding farming program, his progress toward successful establishment in farming and his demonstrated leadership abilities.

Recipient of the $2,400.00 tractor will be announced at 2:30 p.m. on Friday, June 5, at the Star Farmer Ceremony in the Student Union Building in Auburn. H. T. King, vice-president and general sales manager of Southeast Ford Tractor Company, Atlanta, will present the tractor, as well as the Savings Bonds, in behalf of the Alabama Ford tractor and implement dealers.

ON TUESDAY night, May 26, local Highway Patrolman Billy Lawrence received a dispatch from Montgomery that two convicts had stolen a 1946 Chevrolet automobile from Deatsville, Ala., after escaping from Draper Prison at about 4:00 p.m. Tuesday. The dispatch, received at 8:10 according to reports, stated that the two men were Jack Johnson, 18, of Birmingham, serving time for Burglary and Grand Larceny and Edsel Glass, 20, of Calhoun, serving time for Grand Larceny.

According to Lawrence, he was cruising south of Clanton near Cooper when he received the dispatch. Noting that one of the escapees was from Birmingham he concluded that he probably would head in that direction.

He stationed himself accordingly and "the first car to come along was the right one," he stated. He followed the car, but being close to the time, radioed the Clanton Police to meet him so that he would not lose one of the men when he stopped them.

The Clanton Policemen, Turner and Hester, answered the call and went south, red light flashing. Lawrence stated that when he saw them he turned on his flashing light and pulled the two men over.

He had suspected that one of the men would make a break for it and thus, rather than try to capture single-handed, called in reinforcements. It paid off. One of the men tried to run for it, but was quickly taken into custody.

Sharp thinking by our local law enforcement officers sent the two fugitives back to Draper only hours after their escape.

IT is our belief that, at the present clip, our form of government will work it's way into a corner if not out of existence in the not to distant future with reference to subsidies: who benefits after all?

Most people we know denounce any form of Socialism as a way for our government to produce and maintain its lead in civilization. These same people will turn around and sell their ideals down the river for a grant from the government which requires them to, in short, "do nothing".

Others will draw "fat" paychecks from government sources knowing full well they have done nothing to deserve it. We, as a nation, are coming to believe that any way we can "slink" our way into a government soft spot it's honest income.

Why?

The lawmakers are at fault in the first place for trying to solve a difficult problem by paying through the taxpayers nose and ignoring the problem. At the same time, any man or woman accepting financial aid, knowing full well they do not deserve it, is wrong.

There used to be such a thing as a man receiving money for what he made himself worth. Today, no such animal exists. Even if a man wants to make his own way through sheer effort it is next to impossible. You must have a gimmick to succeed, it seems.

Paying a man not to use his land is wrong. We don't know a ready solution, but we are dead certain that it is the wrong road toward a very stable solution. So we have too much. Isn't that pitiful.

And they tell us it would cost more to get the goods to another country than we could afford. Can we afford to become leeches living off the government? Can we ignore the fact that millions in the world are starving?

If we can afford to pay a man for not growing a crop because we have too much, why can't we pay the same money to get surplus foods overseas where it will help a starving people.

We are sinning against our principles as Christian Americans, but that isn't the half of it. We're rotting the foundation of our free democracy by making "do nothings" of the American people. More people seem to be getting paid for "not doing" than are those who produce and attempt to earn. Is that healthy economy?

The lawmakers try to find the answer through taxation. We all know this is no possible solution and we're just getting deeper and deeper in the mire of misunderstanding and disunity!

The answer lies in honest effort. When we get the wheels balanced again where a man who does not earn his way, has no way, then we will be on the road to a strong and stable economy and what's more the American people will be satisfied with their lot.

"The sleep of a laboring man is sweet..." we wonder how many of us come under this category.

If we grasp our values, principles and ideals and hold them before us at all times we will conquer the problems of economy. We're a long way from it now.

SOME OF THE JOYS
OF NEWSPAPERING --

(REPRINTED FROM PUBLISHER'S AUXILIARY)

WE ran across the following article entitled "Some of the Joys of Newspapering". There is a lot of truth in it and we are passing it on:

- An aroma of fascination surrounds a newspaper, making many persons say they'd like to own one. It is a fascination which clings to everyone except newspaper people. They have no illusions. Now to own a newspaper, here is what you'll have to do in one normal day:
- Explain to Mrs. Smith why Aunt Sara's 85th birthday party was not on the front page.
- Explain to an advertiser why it is impossible to put him on page three.
- Explain to an ex-subscriber why you had to cut off his unpaid subscription.
- Explain deadlines 500 times a day and why you have to have them.
- Soothe a lady who called her party in too late.
- Explain why some weeks you've got news running out of your ears and other weeks the paper reads like a report on Amalgamated Steel.

Apologize to an advertiser for an error in his ad and smile sweetly while he tells you what an idiot you are.

Decipher scribbling that comes in written on check packs, paper napkins, a corner of junior's arithmetic paper or the back of a letter from Cousin Frank.

Pet a balky Linotype that is as nervous as a dish of jello and puts you further behind when you're already behind.

Cope with a folder that is antisocial and wallowing in its own importance that it can, at this final minute, keep you from getting a paper circulated and starts acting like a little boy who wants to go to the bathroom.

I'M A GRAD, DAD --

THE day has come and gone (in Chilton County anyhow) for Junior to graduate from high school (1959 Class) if he was gonna. And how does "pop" feel now that he's won his battle with financing said off-spring's education.

One father says "I'm going to expose him to further education". Another, get out and get a job now boy". Still another, "well, you made it son, now comes the hard part".

My son, you've conquered many things, You've grown into a man; You'll put away your childish dreams, And take the world in hand.

It's not an easy row to hoe, You'll find out in your day; But pit yourself with any foe, And conquer it that way.

It's wonderful to know, my son, You're all we've hoped and dreamed; And as you took that scroll in hand, It all came back it seemed.

A little boy on daddy's knee And how we hoped he'd grow Into a fine and noble son You've done it son, we know.

It's a beginning for you boy, Your whole life is, to be; And what you make of it from now Well, it's up to you, not me.

But, I have every confidence, That is, your Mom and I Our fondest dreams will be surpassed, If you'll get out and try.

You've got a firm foundation, son For things which lie ahead. So take them in your stride, and leave A goodness in your 'stead.

When we take leave of this old world We'll know we've added to: Our dreams, our hopes and all our prayers Will live, my son, in you.

SCHOOLS OF CHILTON
COUNTY, Mt. Pleasant

Mt. Pleasant Junior High School is in a Northerly direction about three miles from Clanton. It is about a mile West of Lomax. The present building is a short distance from Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church where the original school stood. At present there is in the elementary grades an enrollment of 74 pupils with three teachers.

Elementary Teachers
Mrs. Lenora Jones has the first and second grades; Mrs. Myrtle Brown has the third and fourth grades; Mrs. Emily Thompson has the fifth and sixth grades. Each teacher has about twenty-five pupils.

Junior High School
In the Junior High grades, there is an enrollment of twenty-two pupils. Most of the ninth grade pupils have gone on to the high school in Clanton, in order to get subjects that cannot be offered in this school. These pupils have as their teacher, Mr. J. Hudson Williams, principal.

Teachers Still Studying
Mrs. Fannie Jones, who, so far this year, has not failed to prepare daily an average of 85 tasty, colorful, and wholesome lunches, is a real cook. In her desire to render an impartial and as complete a service to the pupils daily as possible, she is gaining in popularity. A type "A" lunch, which includes a protein food (meat, cheese, egg, etc.) a fruit and a vegetable or two vegetables, bread, whole sweetmilk and a dessert is served daily to each pupil for twenty cents (20c). She and all of us are always proud to receive USDA surplus commodities without which our lunchroom could not operate.

Three Buses
Three buses weave their routes through the communities of Liberty Hill, Cedar Grove, New Salem, Jackson Chapel, Junior Chapel and Mount Pleasant, bringing our pupils and carrying other pupils into the Clanton schools.

Subjects Taught
In schools, materials considered to be worth studying, have been classified into subjects and grades. The subjects taught in our schools are those approved by the State Department of Education. These are: English, Science, History, Geography, Arithmetic, Spelling, Literature, health, music and safety.

Aim of Teachers
It is the aim of our teachers to help the pupils develop an understanding interest toward his scholastic and social problems, believing this interest will urge his continuous study.

Extra Curricular Activities
Our extra-curricular activities include basketball, softball, ping-pong, and up until this year Glr Club.

JAYCEES FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

The Clanton Junior Chamber of Commerce is continuing its efforts to assist the Cripple Children Society raise money to aid the program in our county.

Doc Levine, who heads the local Cripple Children Society, has worked hard for many years to assist this worthwhile program. The Methodist Youth Fellowship of First Methodist Church has assisted for several years to mail Easter Seals and many other individual Last year, a total of $14,000 was spent on the cripple children in our county. Cripple Children has a total of 317 which is reported to be a larger number than for any of the 66 counties remaining in Alabama. The total amount contributed to the cripple children program through sale of Easter seals and lilies was only $1,000.

The Jaycees realize this is far from adequate and have undertaken to help. Bob Tucker was appointed chairman with Orville Woods as assistant. Already Jaycees has called on business people to assist financially. Approximately $250 was collected by May 15.

The Jaycees would like to emphasize the fact that we contribute as much as $5,000 to other much needed charity, which does not stay in our county. Yet we let other counties share the expense of our cripple children. Remember $14,000 was spent in our county alone. This is reported a larger amount spent in our county than all of the other charity organizations put together. With these facts in mind, the Jaycees would like to urge citizens to send donations to the Jaycees or the Cripple Children Society.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN
Congressman, Sixth District

The threat of a Presidential veto was again disregarded by members of the House of Representatives when they approved last week a general housing bill authorizing $2 billion in federal funds for various types of housing plus an estimated $3.7 billion in federal assistance to construct 140,000 additional public housing units. In spite of the Administration's contention that the provisions of the bill were too expensive, it was approved by a vote of 261 to 160.

An attempt to substitute a less costly bill, sponsored by a coalition of Republicans and some Southern Democrats and supported by the Administration, was defeated by 44 votes. The $1.3 billion substitute bill would have omitted public housing and reduced somewhat the other housing programs.

In addition to the substitute attempt, the coalition tried to secure passage of several other modifying amendments. It was successful in gaining House approval of one amendment—a provision requiring an annual review by congressional appropriations committees of the funds to be expended by federal housing officials. Under present law, federal agencies are permitted to go directly to the U. S. Treasury for funds.

New Housing Units
As approved by the House, the bill provides $140,000 new public housing starts over a four-year period; a $15 billion program of slum clearance and urban development; a $400 million increase in college housing loans; $100 million for loans to construct homes for the elderly; and an increase in the total amount of mortgages that can be insured by the Federal Housing Administration. The measure also lowers down payments on FHA home mortgages.

After passage, the bill was referred to a House-Senate Conference Committee, which must work out the differences between the House measure and a similar but less costly bill passed by the Senate last February.

Crop Loans Curbed
Before passing the annual agriculture appropriations bill last week, the House voted to put a limit of $50,000 on individual payments under the farm price-support program. The amendment was prompted by recent criticism of large corporate farms which have received loans in excess of a hundred thousand dollars under the program.

There is a difference of opinion, however, as to the possibility of the amendment. It was during the debate on the amendment that the limit on payments from the Commodity Credit Corporation would immobilize price-support program by forcing large farms to dump most of their crops on the open market, thus depressing prices and increasing cost to the federal government. A result, most members from cotton producing states voted against it.

VOICE FROM OUTER SPACE. Rocketing through outer space, a satellite "goes on the air." Though you and I can't pick up this "voice," scientists at receiving stations are eagerly waiting for the messages. This communication from far beyond the earth is made possible by a remarkable invention—the transistor—developed through research by telephone people. It's the same tiny amplifier now being used in such everyday items as radios and hearing aids. They're also used in more and more new telephone equipment, and will play a big part in tomorrow's better telephone service.

Land Being Retired From S.B. Program

About 253 acres of Chilton County land are being retired from the Soil Bank under the program. National, whole farm Soil Bank contracts are taking out of yearly production about 23 million acres of basic crop land or about 10 percent of the estimated 23 million acres of cropland expected to be included in the conservation reserve throughout the country in 1959. Since the average whole farm Soil Bank contract covers a period of 5 to 6 years, this land will not be producing any crops for that length of time.

Mr. Owen points out that this should help in holding down surpluses and should also reduce price support expenditures, since no price support commodities will be harvested from these farms.

Even though all eligible cropland on a farm is placed in the Soil Bank under a whole farm contract, the house and any other buildings may still be occupied and a home garden may be grown.

CEDAR GROVE HD — "THE CRAZIEST THING I EVER DID"

The Cedar Grove Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. J. D. Parrish, May 4th, with 12 members, Miss Porter, and one visitor, Miss Ann Logan present.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Amos Smith. The devotional was given by Mrs. Glover Smith. Mrs. Emmett Smith read the story of the Hymn and lead the group in singing, "Alabama." Roll was called with members answering with, "The Craziest Thing I Ever Did." The minutes were read by Mrs. Kermit Lowery.

Old and new business was discussed. The Club members voted to enter a Community Exhibit in the Fair this year. Two members entered the County Dress Revue Mrs. Amos Smith and Mrs. J. E. Williams.

In the absence of the "Child Care and Family Life" leader, Miss Porter gave the demonstration.

The meeting was dismissed by reading the Club Creed. A game was enjoyed during the social hour, directed by Mrs. J. E. Williams.

The hostess served delicious refreshments, assisted by Miss Ann Logan.

Mrs. Glover Smith will be hostess for the next Club meeting, on June the 2nd.

BAH!

It's all a passing fancy!

Some folks resist change mightily. They don't like to progress. Who are we to argue about it? We'll just tell you smart ones a few facts about Chevrolet and let you make up your own minds!

No matter how you look at it, there's only one 1959 car in the leading low-priced 3, and that's Chevrolet. Proof? Plenty of it, and we'd be glad to show you. But first let us tell you the story. Until we get together, and we hope it's soon, here's a fact to chew on:

What America Wants, America gets in a Chevy! That means you get the quality you want—thoroughgoing workmanship. The styling you want—all new all over again. The performance you want—brisk and thrifty as only Chevy can make it. You get more for your money with a Chevy—and we're just the folks who can prove it! Why not today?

This Biscayne 2-Door is Chevrolet's lowest-priced model, but you'd never know it to look at it!

Their Counselor is Mr. G. B. Culp; Ass. Mrs. E. L. Owen.

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM MOUNT PLEASANT

Rev. Ode Colley preached two fine sermons Sunday.

We had good attendance at both services. Frank Johnson, Earl Hester, James Melton and Ivan Smith gave the BTU program. We enjoyed their quartet with Miss Linda Johnson accompanist.

Mrs. Lilla Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Light of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hanners and daughter of Atlanta, Ga., were the week end visitors of the Floyd and Sanford Cole family.

Our Vacation Bible School will begin June 8th at 1:30 to 4:30. Preparation day will be June 7th at 2:30 o'clock. For further information contact your principal Mrs. Sue Smith, phone 144R-4. We are looking forward to good attendance all the week. All children are welcome. Also all young folks.

Mr. T. S. Eiland and boys of Birmingham visited the Riggs family Sunday. Also Mrs. Bonnie Price who is ill.

Mrs. Jewel Cole is much improved, Mrs. Dolly Melton is on the sick list and prayer list. Let's be much in prayer for these.

Mrs. Riggs attended the Bingo Party at the Stanley clients in Montgomery at the Holiday Inn with Mrs. Carrie Mae Cost of Mineral Springs.

Don't forget our annual homecoming and singing at this church June 14. All singers and quartets and listeners, all invited. There will be a thirty minute message.

At the noon hour, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. daughters were the Sunday noon guests of the Ivan family.

All ladies of the church agreed to make aprons for the WMS. Turn in your aprons to Mrs. Leona Johnson or Mr. Riggs.

Mr. V. O. Moore visited mother in Morgan County one week end.

We were happy to have a mother in Morgan County one week end.

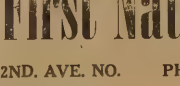

How about it? Is your life while, without a church, in touch with the Lord, for I am weak; O Lord, heal me... (Psalm 61:2).

The great Abraham Lincoln spoke often of the need to have faith in God. He had fallen to knees because he had no place else to go. The realization of our human weakness and insufficiency is the first step toward God's mercy and help—so freely granted to heal and save us, through dev prayer and faith.

The invocation was given by Rev. L. E. Daniel. The Class Song "Farewell Song" was sung by the graduates, accompanied at the piano by Miss Truman Smith.

The principal, Mr. Gordon Conway, introduced the Supt. of Education, Mr. W. A. Leroy. Mr. Leroy introduced the guest speaker, Mr. B. P. Dilworth, District Supervisor of Vocational Agriculture, Auburn.

Mr. Dilworth presented an interesting speech he left with the Seniors these sayings "Look forward to the future for you will have to live in it," and "Be sure of what you want for some day you might get it."

Miss Loyce Baker presented the Seniors. The diplomas were awarded by Mr. Gordon Conway. The Alma Mater was sung by everyone, which closed the exercises.

VERMONT SCHOOL HAS THEIR FINAL ACTIVITIES 58-59

On Friday morning, May 22, Vermont School had their closing exercises in the school auditorium, with the sixth grade pupils in charge. The exercise was begun by students from the sixth grade giving the devotional. The first and second grades presented a safety skit and several numbers in rhythm and songs. The third and fourth grade sang several songs and did a march with the rhythm band.

The sixth grade gave the graduation exercises with the entire class taking part.

Mrs. Mattie Robinson was presented a love gift by her students, for the work she has done for them the last two years.

After a few remarks to the Sixth grade students, Mrs. Robinson presented certificates to the following: Sue Robinson, Gail Brasher, Judy Donovan, Ina Mae Smithman, Mrs. V. G. Hutchison, Ruth Smithman, Steve McKinn, Roger Davis, Bobby Short, G. Brasher and Buddy Nickels.

The exercises were closed by singing Vermont School song. A number of mothers were present. Those who were present every day during the school year at Vermont were: Steven McMinn, Agnes Anderson, Linda McMinn, Rogers Sewell and Ronny Sewell. Congratulations to them and their parents.

We feel like we have closed one of the best school years that we have ever had at Vermont.

OUR TRIP TO CLANTON

On Friday, May 15, 8:35 a.m. the third and fourth grades of Vermont School went on an educational trip to Clanton, with the teacher and four mothers, Mrs. Clarence Harrison, Mrs. Oscar Walker, Mrs. Hudson Crane and Mrs. Perry Golden.

Our first stop was the H & W Chair Factory, where we got a guide to show us around the factory. We saw how chairs are made and how they are painted.

Next we stopped at the Dairy-Dele where we all got chocolate or vanilla ice cream cones.

We ate our ice cream cones on the way to the water works. Mr. Blackwood, our guide, showed us around. We walked across a platform outside, and looked at the tanks of water. He showed us how it is filtered. He said the water must be changed every 60 hours.

The next stop was the Clanton Laundry. There Mr. Thompson was our guide. First we saw the boiler room where they keep the soap. Then we went into the laundry where the clothes are washed and dried. Then we saw where the clothes are dry cleaned. Mr. Thompson gave each of us a piece of candy.

Then we went to the Post Office where we saw how mail is sorted and delivered. Then we saw how the mail is delivered and how it is stamped.

The next stop was the Union Banner Office. There we saw how the paper is folded and cut. The man gave us a sample of the cut paper. Then we saw how the paper is delivered and how it is stamped.

Then we went back to the bus and ate lunch. Each of us had a bag of lunch and a box of milk (our luncheon work package).

After lunch we went to the Bell Telephone Company. There we saw the women and girls taking and receiving messages. This is called communication.

The last stop was Millers drive store. We all got different things. The store was very nice. We went back to school. We all had a good time and learned a lot.

went to the Dairy-Dele. Each of the 25 children brought some ice cream of their choice.

Then we walked down to the City Water Works. Some of us was scared at first, but when we found out it was safe we wanted to go over it again. Mr. Blackwood showed us around. He showed us how the water is filtered.

We walked back to the bus and went to the Clanton Laundry. There we saw how the water was heated and some hundred pound bags of soap. We went on through where they ironed 4 shirts at one time. When we came out a man gave us a piece of candy.

Next we went to the United States Post Office. We saw all the names of people on the different routes.

Next we went to the Union Banner office to see how the paper is printed. The man that showed us around printed some paper and gave us two or three pieces each. After we left the Union Banner office we went back to the bus for lunch.

After lunch we went to the Bell Telephone Company and saw how they connected the phones.

The last few minutes in Clanton was spent in Millers 5 and 10 cent store. Some bought 1 pop guns and others bought watches and water guns. They all went out with something in their hands. When they all got back to Vermont School they all scattered out all over the playground showing our toys.

WHY the strike at Hayes Aircraft Corporation?

Hundreds of people have asked: "Why the strike at Hayes Aircraft and what were the reasons for it?"

It has been a well-known fact for the past eight years that Hayes employees enjoyed above the average wages, the highest of fringe benefits and good working conditions.

In fact, on March 6, 1958, Mr. John Case, International Representative of the United Automobile Workers, AFL-CIO, made the following statement in the local Union's newspaper with respect to the United Automobile Workers Contract with Hayes:

"A MUCH BETTER AIRCRAFT CONTRACT THAN IS IN EFFECT AT MOST OTHER AIRCRAFT COMPANIES."

Mr. Case also stated in another place in this editorial:

"AS THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN LAID OFF HAVE FOUND OUT, HAYES AIRCRAFT IS A GOOD PLACE TO WORK. THE PAY IS GOOD, AND THE WORKING CONDITIONS ARE AS GOOD OR BETTER THAN ANY PLACE YOU MIGHT GO TO WORK. HAYES SUPERVISORS AND MANAGEMENT ARE AS GOOD OR BETTER THAN THE SUPERVISORS AND MANAGEMENT OF ANY OTHER PLANT."

This, from the International Representative of the United Automobile Workers in March, 1958.

The general public, and our employees, certainly have the right to ask: "Why a strike now at Hayes where these conditions still exist?"

The answer, from the Company's point of view, is very simple. During the negotiations for the renewal of our contract, it was repeatedly called to the attention of the Union Negotiating Committee, and to our employees, that the aircraft industry was becoming more and more competitive and we had been underbid on a number of contracts by companies paying less wages than Hayes. In fact, prior to the strike we had on layoff some 2000 employees due to a lack of work.

The Company proposed to the Negotiating Committee of the United Automobile Workers that, in order to endeavor to hold our competitive position, the contract be renewed without any increase in our wage structure, but that we include in the contract a cost-of-living clause. The Company also suggested a present agreement that an automatic increase for the second year be included in the new contract inasmuch as we were discussing a two year contract.

DEMANDS WERE THEN MADE ON THIS COMPANY DURING NEGOTIATIONS AND IN THE NEWSPAPERS SUBSEQUENT TO THE STRIKE, WHICH WOULD INVOLVE A TOTAL INCREASE FOR THE YEAR 1959 OF $2,006,118.00, AND FOR THE SECOND YEAR AN INCREASE OF $2,892,308.00 PLUS OTHER UNTERMINED DEMANDS WHICH IN THE COMPANY'S ESTIMATION WOULD COST A MINIMUM OF $1,000,00.00 ADDITIONAL PER YEAR.

THESE DEMANDS WERE MADE ON A COMPANY WHOSE TOTAL NET EARNINGS IN 1958 WERE ONLY $844,000.00 ON THE WORK PERFORMED BY THESE PEOPLE.

For these unrealistic economic matters, and some non-economic matters, a strike was called by the United Auto Workers, and today, ten days later, still prevails.

IN OTHER WORDS, ECONOMIC DEMANDS WERE MADE AND A STRIKE WAS CALLED ON A COMPANY BECAUSE THE COMPANY WOULD NOT ACCEDE TO WAGE INCREASES WHICH AMOUNTED TO DOUBLE AND TRIPLE THE TOTAL NET PROFIT OF THE COMPANY ON THE WORK PERFORMED BY THE PEOPLE REPRESENTED BY THE UNITED AUTOMOBILE WORKERS, AFL-CIO.

THESE DEMANDS HAVE BEEN MADE AGAINST A COMPANY WHOSE CONTRACTS ARE LARGELY FIXED PRICE AND SECURED BY COMPETITIVE BIDDING.

Such irresponsible and unrealistic demands are, in our opinion, the reason that hundreds of companies have moved, and are moving, from the State of Michigan. This has caused unemployment of thousands of people there and a general breakdown of community and municipal services, and has even brought the great State of Michigan to the brink of financial disaster. Do we want that situation in Alabama?

TO DEMANDS OF THIS KIND, THE COMPANY WILL NOT YIELD.

HAYES IS AN ALABAMA COMPANY, LARGELY OWNED BY ALABAMA PEOPLE, MANAGED BY ALABAMA PEOPLE, AND FULLY 95% OF OUR EMPLOYEES ARE ALABAMIANS.

WE HAVE TO CONSIDER THE INTEREST OF THE COMPANY, OF OUR EMPLOYEES, AND OF THE COMMUNITIES INVOLVED. AS MUCH AS WE DISLIKE TO SEE OUR EMPLOYEES ON STRIKE, WE CAN NOT, AND WILL NOT, YIELD TO THESE DEMANDS OF THE UNITED AUTOMOBILE WORKERS WHICH WOULD ULTIMATELY DESTROY THE COMPANY, CAUSE A LOSS OF JOBS OF ALL OF OUR EMPLOYEES, AND DISRUPT THE ECONOMIC LIFE OF A GREAT MANY COMMUNITIES.

According to law, a company has several things which it may do under such circumstances. One, it could simply close its plant and move out of the state, which we certainly will not do. Two, it could accede to these unrealistic demands and slowly commit economic suicide. This, we will not do.

In the meantime, the Company has firm fixed price contracts with a great many departments of the government. These are competitively bid fixed price contracts, and we are bound legally and morally to make certain deliveries under these contracts.

THE COMPANY WILL OPERATE THIS PLANT TOWARDS THAT END WITH THE IN-UNIT EMPLOYEES WHO HAVE COME TO WORK, TOGETHER WITH OVER 3,000 LOYAL OFFICE WORKERS, ENGINEERS, SUPERVISORS, TECHNICAL WORKERS AND OTHERS WHO ARE CERTAINLY DOING THEIR VERY BEST TO MEET THESE SCHEDULES AND THEREBY INSURE FUTURE WORK FOR THIS COMPANY AND ALL OF ITS EMPLOYEES.

HERE'S WHAT OTHER LOW-PRICED CARS HOPE YOU'LL DO WITHOUT!

(BUT HOW THEY WISH THEY HAD 'EM)

CHEVROLET

NO WONDER MORE PEOPLE ARE BUYING CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

CHEVY'S ROOMINESS
You'll find Chevrolet seats are up to a full 5.7 inches wider than those of the other leading low-priced sedans. And Chevy gives you even more head room than most of the highest priced sedans.

CHEVY'S BIGGER BRAKES
Chevrolet's new Safety-Master brakes are built for up to two-thirds longer life, with more lining area than any other low-priced car.

CHEVY'S FULL COIL RIDE
No other leading low-priced car cushions you with coil springs at every wheel.

CHEVY'S FRESH STYLING
You don't have to look twice at Chevy's clean-swept silhouette to know it's a new car. And that's bound to mean a higher allowance at trade-in time.

CHEVY'S BIGGER SAVINGS
A pair of Chevrolet 6's proved this emphatically—coming in first and second in their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run. And the winning mileage was a whopping 22.38 m.p.g.

CHEVY'S HIGHER TRADE-IN VALUE
The National Automobile Dealers Association Official Used Car Guide Book shows that Chevy consistently brings a higher trade-in allowance than any other low-priced car.

CHEVY'S ADVANCED-DESIGN ENGINES
Chevy's the only car in its field that gives you oil-bushed hydraulic valve lifters on all standard engines for smoother, quieter performance. It's the only American car at any price with a high-performance V8 that packs more than one horsepower into every cubic inch of displacement. And you get nine engines in all to choose from... every one of them with the convenience of automatic choke.

Make sure you get the most for your money—see your local authorized Chevrolet dealer!

FOLKS and THINGS About Town by Ben

The peach growers are afraid that the frost has gotten into their orchards and will cut their estimate in half. It could be a big loss to Chilton County to have the peach crop this year has been estimated at five million dollars.

A swimming instructor at City Park now and the young people are enrolling in swimming classes. Bulger, who is park director, wants all the "young fry" to come down but cautions them to be careful of the park, its facilities, and swimming classes stop them from getting into the water. A lot of those swimming lessons is $3.00 and that includes everything, even the pool.

AT-ONS has another of its Grand Sales going on. We have some shorts and some of the last one. They were not we need something to wear. Even though it's not that hot. This week we are going down and buy some something to wear with.

ELMORES has the growing of sweet, beautiful flowers in full bloom and scent the countryside something that all the big cities had the flowers that are growing in the county they could make a lot of money. Euphy, the things are in such quantity lose their value.

MY boy is very polite" said his father. "Just the other day he pointed out an empty seat to a dear old lady and then he said, 'Thank you, ma'am, for it."

HAD to hear that Millard and Lancaster are back in town. He has been in Tuskegee for four years and Clanton. Wonder if Millard is quick on the quip as ever?

WILL never find finer folks than the Harveys at the Clanton. Full of people and ready to make friends are the kind of people you know. If you haven't met you'll find a warm welcome whether you are buying or not.

Who Will Wear The "Miss Peach" Crown This Year In Chilton

HEFLIN ELECTED VEEP; ALABAMA JUNIOR CHAMBER

AT Convention in May James Duke Hefflin, assistant cashier at the Peoples Savings Bank in Clanton was elected unanimously as vice-president of the VII District of Alabama Junior Chamber of Commerce.

This includes Clanton, Marianna, Montgomery and Greenville as his territory and he will visit the clubs in these towns throughout his tenure of office.

Clanton Jaycees can rightly be proud of "Jim" because it is their first bid for any State office and they won it, hands down. Jim says there was some slick politicking going on down there and not to be outdone, Clanton did its share. Congratulations to Jim and the Clanton Jaycees.

HUTCHINSON TO SPEAK AT YOUTH RALLY

The Clanton-Youth Association Youth Rally will meet Saturday night, June 6, 1959 at the Concord Baptist Church. The speaker will be Dr. J. Gilbert Hutchinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Clanton.

The Youth Rally is for the young people of this county. However, you are invited regardless of age.

Special music, fellowship, and refreshments awaits you at the Rally.

ADDITION TO CHILTON'S HOSPITAL

ABOVE you see workers beginning the construction of a 10-room addition to the Chilton County Hospital. According to information the rooms will be private and will increase the capacity of the hospital greatly. Work is scheduled to be completed on the structure by September 1 of this year. The new rooms will connect with the surgical wing on the north end of the Hospital according to Administrator Sudduth.

A real treat is in store for some Chilton County girl who is single and 16 years old or older.

She may be the 1959 Chilton County Peach Queen.

The lucky young lady who will serve as Peach Queen for 1959 will be named Saturday afternoon, June 27 the final day of the Chilton Peach-Trade Days Celebration.

Starts Monday

And starting next Monday, the first day of the Peach-Trade Days Celebration, persons throughout the county will have a chance to pick this year's queen by popular vote.

Starting Monday, ballots for the peach queen's contest will be available at merchants who participate in the celebration. Each ballot is worth 10 points and the girl with the most points at the end of the contest will be the winner.

Fly To Washington

She will be crowned on the stage of Happy Hal Burns' Rambling Ranch Studio, which will be located at Shelton Motors in Clanton, and later will fly to Washington to present the prize basket of peaches to the Alabama Congressional delegation.

The 1959 Peach Queen also will make appearances on television.

Happy Hal Here

During the entire three weeks of the celebration, Happy Hal Burns will be broadcasting from his Rambling Ranch Studio from locations in the county. Then, on Saturday afternoon, June 27, he will offer a free stage show as well as give away $3,000 in gifts.

Prize Bucks The Ticket

These gifts will go to persons with Prize Bucks, which will be available to participating merchants. The more Prize Bucks a person has, the bigger and better his or her gift will be.

You Can "Vote"

Attached to the Prize Bucks are stubs that are good for the Peach Queen's contest. A person should write the name of his or her favorite candidate on the back of the stub and deposit in the box where a purchase was made. Each ballot is worth 10 points.

The girl with the most points will be the 1959 Peach Queen.

PEACHES IN THE POOL

NEEDLESS to say the swimming pool at Clanton City Park was officially open as of Monday, the 25 of May. Ushering in the swimming season are shown here a pool full of comely lassies that should add much to the attraction to swimming in this vicinity.

V. L. Bulger, Superintendent of the Park announces swimming lessons are available to those who are interested. Several different courses in beginner and advanced swimming is being taught by competent instructors.

This photo, taken by our News photographer, Mr. Sennie Scott is the first of a series of similar pictures giving you a better and more complete knowledge of just what is going on at your City Park.

Tennis has been scheduled at night when it won't be so hot. People of all ages are welcome to learn to play tennis or practice what they know. This includes the other games offered also. Tournaments in all these games and sports are being planned for the end of summer. So plan to enter now and you'll have time to practice or learn how to play.

An announcement will be made later about when the pool will be open at night. Watch for other special announcements, too.

New swimming lessons will start June 15. Please call the pool to register for swimming or life saving for synchronized swimming classes.

TEMPLE TO SHOW TOP GOSPEL FILM

A dynamic Gospel film, "Center of the Apocalypse" will be shown at the Temple Assembly of God on Sunday night, June 7.

This film was selected as the most outstanding Gospel film of 1958.

In the first four months after production it was shown in over twenty hundred churches.

"Center of the Apocalypse" is a biblical, heart-revealing call to the rank and file of a careless church. It lays bare the human soul and hearing its desperate cry, boldly proclaims God's answer.

Rev. Nelson E. White, pastor, invites you to enjoy this presentation. Service time begins at 7:15 p.m. The film is 73 minutes in length.

MISS GLASSCOCK TO GO TO BIRMINGHAM TO RECEIVE CALFAWARD

Margaret Glasscock, 10 year old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. "Red" Glasscock of Thorshy, will be making a trip to Birmingham soon. She is going to receive the Birmingham News - Post - Herald WAPI calf award for Chilton County. Margaret showed the Grand Champion at her county show. Then exhibiting her prize animal at the Birmingham Stock Show, she won a $100 award. Her parents will go with her for the big event.

Saturday, June 13, is the big day. There will be a barbecue and a party at Kiddieland Park with free rides for all the county winners, their parents and advisors.

William P. Lindley, Managing Editor of the Birmingham Post-Herald, will welcome the young cattle farmers and other guests to Chiltonians - DEGREES FROM UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

TO CHILTONIANS - DEGREES FROM UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

CHILTON County was one of 64 counties represented at University of Alabama 128th commencement exercises, May 30-31. President, Frank A. Rose conferred 1,270 degrees and Edward Delos Churchill, chief of surgical services, Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, made the commencement address.

Those getting degrees from Chilton County were: Louise Gadden Reid, MA. Helen Wyatt Seitz, Diploma in Nursing. Charles Reynolds Jones, MA. Johnny Hildon Otis, MA.

C.H.S. TO HAVE SUMMER BAND

A summer band program will be given this year starting Monday, June 15. All students who have signed up and others who want to take) report to the band room June 15, at 9:00 a.m.

A program will be given to beginners if there are enough who want to take. Any parents who want their child to learn to play a band instrument come to the band room June 15 at 8:00 a.m. Information of the band and its instruments will be given at that time. LaMar DeLoach.

Fight Leaves One In Hospital, One In Jail

J. MATT JOHNSON DIES AT AGE 76

J. Matt Johnson, age 76, died at the Chilton County Hospital Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. He suffered a stroke last Sunday afternoon at his home. He will be buried today (Thursday) but no further arrangements had been made.

LESTER MIMS DIES AFTER CAR WRECK

Lester Mims, age 51, died at Chilton County Hospital Wednesday morning at 3:10 a.m. He had been hospitalized since a wreck on the Selma Highway Saturday night. Funeral services will be held from Temple Assembly of God Church Thursday afternoon at 3 p.m. Nelson E. White, officiating. Spigener Funeral Home will be in charge.

ATTENDS VA CONVENTION AT MOBILE

E. A. (Red) Fulmer is attending the National Convention of Veterans Affairs at Mobile this week. Red carried some of Chilton County's peaches to the convention. They were furnished by the Chilton County Peach Growers Association.

State Department of Veterans Affairs Director C. C. Horton and members are hosts.

WYLLIE Joseph (Red) Barron is in the Chilton County Hospital with gunshot wounds suffered when he and Robert Myrick got in a fight the past week end. Myrick was cut slightly in the affray.

According to records in the Sheriff's office the men had been riding around and decided to go to Myrick's house and get some fishing worms when the quarrel started.

Barron is in the Chilton County Hospital and Myrick is in county jail, and Wednesday morning had not posted bail.

HAYES SELLS OUT TO STOKES

I have sold all my interest in the Hayes Chevrolet Company to Mr. James H. Stokes. I take this opportunity to express my deepest appreciation to all the wonderful people employed by me, and to the fine customers that made this possible.

Hayes Chevrolet Company a successful business for the past 26 years. I shall always be indebted to each of you.

J. W. "Dick" Hayes

CARD OF THANKS
We thank you for your expressions of kindness in our loss of our husband and father. Your sincere prayers, words and cards, your flowers, visits and interest are deeply appreciated.

Jubilee Homecoming

SHOWN here in the Jubilee Homecoming ceremonies at Refuge Church on May 24 are left to right: E. J. Deason, pastor; M. Lockhart, Associational Missionary; J. L. Adams, former pastor and Stanley Lockhart licensed preacher. In the background on the left is Bud Maddox, Odus Mims, extreme right, L. L. O. Mims, Odell Minor, Howard Mims, A. H. Mims, and J. S. Easterling, all deacons in the church.

In case you're wondering who the little sign in the window it, it's Wendell Mims, son of Mr. Odis Mims.

Black At Local Church Of Christ

The Clanton Church of Christ announces a series of Gospel meetings beginning Sunday, June 7th and continuing through June 13th. Mr. V. P. Black of Mobile, Ala. will be the young speaker. Services will be at 7:30 each evening. The Church of Christ extends a cordial invitation to all to attend.

LOCAL MERCHANTS ARE WELL REPRESENTED IN CHILTON COUNTY NEWS

He just had to get his picture "took". The unprecedented ceremony was begun 20 years ago when the Rev. M. Lockhart was pastor of Refuge. It was voted to be a standard procedure every 20 years.

Included in the material read into the cornerstone at this opening was a copy of the Association's Minutes of 1938, a 120 year old Bible, said to have come down through the F. N. Minor family, a new roll of the membership which is about 100 members, a copy of the Union-Banner and the Chilton County News with publicity of the event and a few other papers and details.

The church was organized in 1919 and its first pastor was the late Rev. M. J. Parrish. Three of the preachers present at the latest event began their ministry from this very church. M. Lockhart began in 1923, J. L. Adams in 1948 and Stanley Lockhart in October of last year.

The cornerstone is shown in the picture above in the center background and is now set in place. Another 20 years when the ceremony will again take place. An unprecedented event in our church history, but one which may prove someday to be invaluable as a source of historical information. About 100 persons attended the Jubilee Homecoming with preaching and dinner on the ground.

CLANTON'S NEW HEALTH CENTER

MODERN to the very last detail. That is the new Chilton County Health Center. The folks who work with the Health Department in Chilton County are proud of their new officer and rightly so. They worked under a handicap of every insufficient facilities for many years and afforded Chilton County good service even with the handicap.

They no longer have cause to complain. They have new office equipment as well as diagnostic medical facilities which will better serve the people of Chilton County. We all should be proud of, and take advantage of, whenever the need arises, our new Health Center.

COMPLAINTS, COMPLAINTS --

EVERY day we hear complaints from various sources about what the City governing body of Clanton does and does not do. We might add, they are fewer than in most cases. . . the don't do's we mean!

Latest and most prevalent one it seems is one concerning traffic lights and the system of operating those on the fringe of the city.

If we didn't know that without exception the members of our City Council and Mayor Jackson always strive to do what's best we might join in the harangue; but it's a fact they do strive, day and night to better conditions in Clanton and they deserve many "back pats" for their efforts. We might also add, that there are quite a number of citizens who obviously disregard the traffic lights and their intended purpose anyhow so we can't understand the gripe. We don't believe they'd be satisfied completely even if they took down the "offending" signals.

The Chilton County News was a strong supporter of establishing the light west of Clanton below the Grammar School and still believe it may or has already saved more than one life. True, they're annoying at times, but so is a broken neck or dislocated shoulder. The City has a schedule for its lights which it follows. We suggest you either abide by the signal, learn the schedule or take your complaint before the Council. After all, that's what they're up there for.

RAIN AND PEACHES --

NOW, according to the prophets in the vicinity the rain is going to ruin the peaches. It won't be long before they're hollering drought, drought. We do have an opportunity for a good peach crop this year; in fact, we're pretty much set for a good one. We personally like the rain. Of course, we don't have any peaches either; if we did, it would color the opinion somewhat. However, there's nothing we can do about it except accept the fact that we are going to get what the Maker wishes for us. One fellow put it very aptly before when he stated that "He'll send us a good crop and then He will take a little some of it away from us, so we don't get to smart for our own good we suppose". That's a wise point of view. Anyhow, you know what they say about feeding a fellow strawberry shortcake all the time. . . he'll soon get tired of strawberries. Guess that fits in most anywhere!

COMMUNISTS --

A COLUMNIST recently stated that Communism is coming right up to the front door (or is it the back) of America and we're doing darn little about it. Communism is a disease of the mind which deteriorates other parts of the body and soul and leaves a void; an empty shell. It's something we all pretty much take for granted and should be seriously considered. A newspaper stated that Communism, at best, took away the Divinity of Jesus Christ and preached that he was a good carpenter and this was a good example for the working class. Can you understand the magnitude of such a theory? As we said, it's a disease of the mind just as alcoholism is a disease of the mind and body and the sooner we stamp it out the sooner we will begin a world peace fitting to be called peace. This co-existence is not peace, it is chaos!

A Welcome Pledge From Our Gov.; If He Means What It Says

"WARNING" TO LAW VIOLATORS—Gov. John Patterson, pointing to a raid which netted 20 illegal gambling devices last week in Bullock County, promised law violations would be "continually sought and stamped out" during his administration. The Bullock raid was led by State Public Safety Director Floyd Mann. Pictured with a portion of the confiscated one-arm bandits and other gambling equipment are, from left, Patrolman L. C. Mooneyham, Bullock Solicitor Richard Stone, Mr. Mann, State Investigator William B. Painter, Circuit Solicitor Seymour Trammell, and Public Safety Director W. R. Jones, Chief State Investigator W. L. Allen and Bullock Sheriff D. C. Beckham.

MONTGOMERY, Ala.—Speaking out strongly for good law enforcement, Gov. John Patterson this week pledged an ever-continuing "war against gangsters and hoodlums" operating anywhere in the State of Alabama.

The governor's terse statement of policy came on the heels of a surprise raid in Bullock County which netted 20 gambling devices valued at approximately $40,000. Earlier five pieces of gambling equipment worth $10,000 were seized while being transported through Chilton County.

State Public Safety Director Floyd H. Mann led the raid. "This should serve as a warning to anyone in this state who is now violating our gambling laws, or who intends to violate any of our laws," Gov. Patterson said. "Anyone who tries to make a living by violating the laws of this state during my administration is going to be bitterly disappointed."

The governor said state investigators of the Department of Public Safety, cooperating fully with local officials, would continue to be on the lookout for organized crime, and would act immediately to stop it.

All the gambling equipment seized in Bullock and Chilton Counties was confiscated.

Acting on information obtained by state investigators, officers raided a vacant farmhouse near Union Springs last week and found the attic crammed with gambling devices. Discovered were 10 one-armed bandits, nine "horse race" machines and one pin ball machine.

Sheriff D. C. Beckham, Circuit Solicitor Seymour Trammell and County Solicitor Richard Stone assisted state officers in the raid.

About two months previously, state officers stopped a truck near Clanton and found it loaded with five expensive "race horse" machines. The driver was arrested and placed under bond.

"The Department of Public Safety will strictly adhere to the governor's policy to combat organized crime," Mr. Mann said. He promised immediate and continuing action to back up the governor's anti-crime stand.

Gov. Patterson pointed out this week that the policy was in keeping with the promise he made in his inaugural speech to enforce the laws of the state diligently. "During my administration, there will be no room for gangsters to operate in this state and vice and corruption will be stamped out wherever they rear their head," the governor said at his inauguration.

Mims both of Clanton, Whit Mims, Birmingham; 14 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Spigner Funeral Home was in charge.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN
Congressman, Sixth District

Three appropriations bills providing funds for fiscal year 1960 were approved by the House of Representatives last week and sent to the Senate. The bills include $625 million for the State and Justice Departments; $13.3 million for the White House and other Executive agencies; and $675 million for the White House and other Executive Department of Commerce.

During consideration of the bill which contained funds for the Justice Department, an attempt was made to delete $280,000 to finance the Civil Rights Commission until its present authority ends on November 9. Proponents of the proposed amendments argued that the six-member commission has failed to justify its usefulness. Despite this and other protests, however, the amendment was defeated by voice vote.

Renegotiation Bill
Last Wednesday the House approved a four-year extension of the government's authority to renegotiate defense contracts in order to recoup excessive profits on contracts in these fields, such as missile production, where it is impossible to arrive at a fair price for defense items. Only seven members voted in opposition to the measure.

The renegotiation law was enacted during the Korean War and is scheduled to expire on June 30. During House debate on the measure, the chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee pointed out that renegotiation saves the government at least $100,000,000 annually. About 60 percent of this amount comes from voluntary refunds and the other from findings by the renegotiation board.

The bill approved by the House and referred to the Senate permits slight relaxations in renegotiation procedures. However, it does not contain industry-backed provisions to broaden exemptions from the act and allow higher levels of profits.

Dulles Funeral
Last week I attended the funeral service at the Washington Cathedral for our late Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles. The simple but impressive rites were attended by dignitaries, representing at least twenty countries, who came to Washington to pay final tribute to the man, who had worked so diligently for peace among all nations. Nearly 300 persons filled the church to hear the late Secretary's minister in final eulogy read a passage from St. Matthew: "Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God."

As a member of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, it was my privilege to have known the late Secretary of State and to have heard him testify on many occasions. He last appeared before our Committee on January 28 of this year. Through my association with Mr. Dulles, I admired and respected him as an able, honest, and devoted public servant. I am certain history will treat him kindly.

THINGS
We see
and hear
by BOB

WE'RE most sincerely happy to see Bro. Griffin Lloyd is staying in Chilton for another year. Annual conference for the Methodist Church was held in Montgomery last week and Bro. Griffin was re-appointed to the Chilton Church. He has done wonderful things for First Church here and is one of the most sincerely devoted Christians we have ever known. Aside from these and other admirable traits of his, we kinda like he and his fine family. As we said, we're most happy to have them among us.

RIDING around Sunday afternoon and son Ben in the back seat calmly remarked "oh, I lost my roly poly". The action soon started when it was discovered that he had lost it down the back of his Grandpa's dress. Turned out, he didn't like roly poly's as much as he did; Darn little, in fact!

VERY special friend "Pete" Deaton was up for several days last week. He was on emergency leave due to the serious illness of his father in Birmingham but did get by one evening for supper. Enjoyed very much he and his wife Peg, as usual. Pete's stationed with SAC in (or near) Homestead, Fla. They're expecting an addition to the clan before long so it was a harrowing ride for the missus. As a matter of fact, Pete sort of feels that after this trip riding in the rear seat of a B-47 is a joy ride. Can't say as we blame him. There's nothing quite like the stork. Unless it's two storks. . .

ANOTHER "old" friend, Gordon Robertson, just graduated from the School of Engineering at Auburn. His mom says she is too. Looks like he's coming along somewhat in his old man's (no offense Mr. G. L.) footsteps. We hope to hear more of and from him in the not too distant future.

We note that the magazine "Industrial Development in Alabama" carried in it's pages recently an account of the opening of the new Thomas Vencer and Plywood Company in Maplesville. It is operating where the now defunct Streamline Vencer plant used to be and Mr. Hubert Thomas is operator. It's a healthy business industry for Chilton County and one which we will be watching with much interest in the next few months.

SEE where the Dallas County Citizens Council published a list of all business and professional people in Selma who are NOT members of the Council. Is that to indicate that they will be ostracized?

POSITIVE PROOF that the trials and tribulations which we are making for ourselves is taking it's toll on our mental capacity is evidenced in the arguments going on (in the Legislatures, mind you) concerning "A Rabbit Trial" and now it's "The Three Little Pigs" under fire.

We have always maintained that the legislators found strange and mysterious ways to do away with our money, but this is ridiculous. It is serious when our fears, prejudices and hatred for other ideas makes us start taking faulty tales seriously. We've been able to take them with a grain of salt up to now. . . what's happening to us anyhow?

TRANS ATLANTIC
CABLE NOW BEING LAID

Deep-sea operations are underway to lay the first submarine cable system linking this continent with the mainland of Europe. W. R. Evans, manager of Southern Bell Telephone Company, said that when the twin-cable system is completed this fall it will provide 36 additional voice circuits between the U. S. and continental Europe. It will primarily serve France and Germany with some circuits extended to Switzerland, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Spain, and will supplement radio-telephone circuits now in use to these points. A British cableship, the HMST Monarch, is laying the cable between Penmarc, France, and Clarenville, Newfoundland, a distance of 2,400 miles. Public service is scheduled to begin this fall.

Rates have continued to decrease over the years. When overseas service was inaugurated in 1927, a three-minute call from New York to London cost about $75.00. Today, a three-minute call from Clanton to nearly any point in the world costs only $12.00. The cable system, to cost $40,000,000 will be owned jointly by the Long Lines Department of American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and the French Ministry of Posts, Telegraphs and Telephones and the German Federal Ministry of Posts and Telecommunications.

GI LIFE INSURANCE
AVAILABLE

A special provision for mentally-incompetent veterans otherwise eligible for the so-called Service-Disabled Veterans Insurance has been provided by law when the customary deadline period for filing application for this insurance has elapsed the Veterans Administration pointed out today.

New GI life insurance is now available to certain veterans who were discharged on or after April 25, 1951, and who have been found by the VA to have a service-connected disability, Neil R. Smart, Acting Manager, VA Regional Office, Montgomery, explained today.

Application for this insurance must be made within one year after the VA's finding that the veteran is suffering from a service-connected disability.

However, if the veteran is shown to be mentally incompetent from a service-connected disability during any part of the one-year period, application may be filed within one year after a guardian is appointed or within one year after the removal incompetency, whichever is earlier.

Where a guardian was appointed or the removal of the mental incompetency occurred before January 1, 1959, application must be made within one year after that date, Smart said.

The veterans must be in good health except for the service-connected disabilities.

Further information concerning this insurance is available at a VA office or VA hospital contact office.

Origin of the Bible

Religious "higher critics" would rob God of one of His strongest answers to the adversary Satan. Job, according to them, is a fictitious character, conjured up in the mind of a gifted storyteller. Some do concede that the man Job may have lived and experienced some trials in a moderate way, but nothing like the account of the Divine Record will they admit. The book of Job is actually history. Job was no mere allegorical character. Jehovah names him along with His witnesses Noah and Daniel, whose actual existence is unquestioned (Ezek. 14:14-20). At James 5:11 Job's patient endurance of affliction is pointed to as an example or persecuted Christians. Only an actual life character would northern part of what is called Arabia Deserta, lying to the east and south of Palestine. The name took its name from its early settler, Uz, son of Abraham's brother Nahor. Hence Job was a great-grandnephew of Abraham. Jehovah's words concerning Job that "there is none like him in the earth," a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil" seem to locate in the stream of time (Job 1:8). It was a time when nine aside from Job, not even among the Israelites, stood uprightly in the earth for God and feared Him. It appears that such a time would be the 64-year period between the death of Joseph and the birth of Moses (1657-1593 B. C.). At that time the Israelites were in Egypt and had become measurably spotted with religion or demonism. None of them would be Job's equal as to devotion to Jehovah; for God's cause there would be "none like him in the earth."

The belief that Moses wrote the book of Job is supported by strong circumstantial evidence and agrees perfectly with the foregoing as to the time of Job's life and testing. A comparison of the poem of Moses (Ex. 15; Deut. 32) shows whole phrases to be identical, and the portions of Job written in prose bear a stronger resemblance to the language and style of the Pentateuch than to any other writings of the Bible. From the compact beauty and rhythmic expression found in the Hebrew of Job, it is clearly seen that the book was originally written in that language and is not a translation from Arabic. Who was in better position than Moses to gather and write up the information? Moses doubtless learned all about Job's test when he fled from Egypt and dwelt in Midian for forty years which land is just south of Uz. At that time Job was apparently living out his miraculously lengthened life and it appears that he died after Moses returned to Egypt and started the Israelites on their forty-year wilderness trek. Then while passing en route to the Promised Land Moses could check up on the full age of Job and record it and thus finish off the closing verses of the book of Job. Next the contents of the book

Great SHAGGY DOGS!

It's coming to Clanton Drive-In Theatre

claim our attention. After a brief statement regarding Job's integrity, his family, his possessions, and his sacrifices, the dignified heavenly courts of Jehovah are thrown open to the gaze of eyes of faith. On a day of reporting by the sons of God the rebellious challenger Satan puts in an appearance also. In response to God's calling attention to integrity-keeping Job the Devil slandered back: "Doth Job fear God for naught? Hast not thou made an hedge about him?" He charged that faithful creatures served only for what they got out of it, that God bribed them and then hedged them about so that Satan was not free to put them to but them to the fiery test. Jehovah met the issue squarely: "Behold, all that he hath is in my power." Satanic calamities came in rapid succession: Job's oxen, asses, sheep, camels, and many of his servants were stolen or destroyed; a windstorm felled the house where in his children dined and slew them. But Job's integrity was unshaken. (1:1-22) For a second time the scene shifts heavenward. This time it is Job's flesh that Satan wishes to afflict. Again Jehovah takes up the gauntlet and Satan forthwith uses his power by smiting Job with an ulcerous disease, diagnosed by many as elephantiasis, the most dreadful kind of leprosy. What devilish cunning then this, to choose a disease regarded as a visitation from God! Then it was that Job's "friends", Eliphaz, Bildad and Zo-

ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

"IT SEEMED THAT UNSEEN HANDS GUIDED ME"

I received a letter the other day from a man in far-off Singapore. He had an interesting story to tell me. I believe you will receive encouragement from his words. He writes: "Every day and night for two years I suffered constant pain. It all began with a fall I had. As the pain became worse I could not stand straight and my right leg became almost an inch shorter than my left leg. In an attempt to relieve the pain for even a minute, I would have to move my entire body to different positions."

"One afternoon, while lying in bed and suffering severely, the pain was so great that I cried out to the Lord. I asked him to have mercy on my soul and my body, and to relieve me of my suffering."

"God's convicting Spirit came upon me. I suddenly realized that I was a sinner. It seemed that unseen hands guided me. Something told me to kneel down by my bed."

"I knelt down and immediately began pouring my heart out to God, asking him to have mercy on my soul and forgive me of my sins. He answered my prayer! Suddenly I felt the load of my sins being lifted. Joy and peace flooded my soul."

"But my body was still racked with pain. I called upon God again, and I was conscious of someone very near in my room. I prayed to God, asking him to heal my body."

"As I continued to pray, the power of God came upon me, and a wonderful feeling spread over me. In all my life, I had never felt so free and wonderful."

"A few minutes later, when I found that I could straighten up from the bed without any pain, I couldn't hold back my tears. So I just wept before the Lord!"

"It has now been four years since God saved my soul and healed my body. Today I am enjoying perfect health. My legs are normal. I have dedicated my life to the Lord to serve him because, truly, God is a good God."

"Isn't it wonderful what the Lord can do! He is our ever-present help in time of trouble. God is everywhere. God is always near, eager to forgive us of our sins. He is ready to heal us of our bodily ailments if we will believe and have faith in him."

"This man from Singapore is a fortunate man. The very presence of God in his room was so strong that, as he says, he was led 'by unseen hands' to kneel in prayer and ask for deliverance."

"Such letters as this from Malaysia—on the opposite side of the world—cheer our hearts. Yes, God is a good God, ready to save, eager to heal. All he asks of us is that we search our hearts and believe!"

FOR MORE EGGS KEEP POULTRY COOL IN SUMMER

HIGH temperature can be a considerable menace to a good poultry operation.

Extremely hot weather not only reduces egg production, it can cause serious mortality rates, says API Extension Poultry Specialist S. L. Davis. And this is often the case if steps are not taken to reduce high temperatures inside the poultry house. The Specialist points out that fan foggers are proving helpful in reducing heat losses in some parts of the South. Large exhaust fans, which pull the air through moistened, absorbent material stretched over windows, are being used. According to Davis, a fan fogger unit consists of a 24-inch fan driven by a one-fourth horsepower, enclosed, electric motor. These units are distributed throughout the poultry house with one to every 6.0 to 1,000 square feet of floor space. Water flowing through the fogger nozzle at normal farm pressure—an output of 1½ to 2½ gallons of water per hour—will produce a very fine mist. The foggers are located about six feet above the ground and are turned on when the temperature reaches 90 degrees.

Whenever you use cleaning fluid—even a little—use it outdoors or in a well-ventilated room.

BIG FOUR OFFER S MULTITUDE OF BARGAINS

Meet Mr. Ralph Norman and Mr. Dave Norman new owners of the BIG FOUR HARDWARE CO., who are offering great savings in all departments of their large store each month.

Ralph Norman the Senior member of the firm is married, has two daughters and one son, and of course, a lovely wife. They all reside here in Clanton now and hail from Ft. Deposit, Alabama, where the Normans still operate a large store.

Dave Norman has a wife and one son. He too as we said, comes from Ft. Deposit, Alabama, but is now a full fledged Chilton Countian.

The Normans have put new life into the Hardware Business offering countless savings each month through advertising in the newspapers and direct mail advertising. Right now they are pushing Frigidaire appliances and it is a good time to replace that old Refrigerator, Deep Freeze, Washing machine or whatever you need in the appliance line. They can save you CASH.

Too, they have everything you need in the hardware line Garden tools, paints, fishing equipment and supplies and things too numerous to mention.

Mr. R. A. Hayes has joined with the BIG FOUR HARDWARE COMPANY and is ready to serve you in all your building needs.

FHA financing on home improvements or on that new home you have dreamed of.

Horace Jones and Douglas Dobbs roundout the personnel of the BIG FOUR HARDWARE COMPANY. They await your bidding and are ready to serve you in all hardware and building material supplies.

WHY GO ELSEWHERE WHEN YOU CAN BUY IT AT HOME?

NOW YOU TAKE HARDWARE FOR INSTANCE . . .

PRACTICALLY anything you want can be found in Chilton County so why go elsewhere looking for bargains that aren't there?

Whether it's hardware or women's wear you'll find it at your local merchants' store. It's a fact that more goods can be handled by your local merchants if more people by the goods they have to offer. It is always unfair to you, your family, your community and your merchant if you sell him down the river for a bargain at another time or another place.

These are practical reasons. There are other reasons too; like the fact that the local merchant appreciates your business enough to tell you so and tries in every way to serve your wishes and anticipate your needs.

THIS IS THE "BEFORE" PICTURE

SHOWN here is the building directly east of the County Courthouse which up a few weeks ago housed the Chilton County Health Offices. The building, known as the Old Potts Building was owned by J. M. Potts, a local groceryman, in 1915. When Potts and his wife died the property went to Martin Nix and Jones who in turn sold it and the County bought the property for $4,000. Since the Health Offices have new quarters now, the Soil Conservation Service here in Chilton has taken over the old wing of the building which also houses County Agent and his assistants.

AND THE "AFTER"

HERE you see the all new Health Center for which an Open House is scheduled for Sunday, June 7th. To make a long story short, all the room and facilities they lacked in the old building they now enjoy in their new quarters and it is apparent that the results will be a great boon to the health of every Chilton County.

The Chilton County Health Department, the County Board of Health and the County Board of Health Control announce to the citizens of Chilton County that the Open House will be held at the new Chilton County Health Center, Sunday afternoon, June 7th, hours 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. The Health Center is located at the corner of First Avenue and Fifth Street in Clanton. The public is invited to inspect this modern Health Center during open house Sunday afternoon, June 7th.

Staff

The Staff at the new Health Center consists of Dr. Charles S. Cotlin Jr., County Health Officer, Mr. Charles C. Gay, Jr., County Sanitation Officer, Mrs. Carrie Mae Woods and Mrs. Myrtle Lowery, Public Health Nurses, Mrs. Nell Simms, Secretary and Mrs. Doris Gay, Health Attendant.

CHILTON'S OWN STYLE OF GREY LADIES

IN larger cities Grey Ladies are a fairly common sight around hospital wards and the like. They are women who administer to the ills of humanity.

Recently a school of instruction was begun at Chilton County Hospital enabling voluntary workers to learn more about nursing and thus become more proficient in assisting the sick and afflicted.

Leading the course are Mrs. M. A. Lockhart and Mrs. Pauline Jones, who are both Registered Nurses. "Graduates" of the course will receive certificates and pins will be on call, at their convenience to assist in the duties at Hospital.

Classes are held every Tuesday 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. and 8:00 to 10:00 p.m. Anyone who wishes may attend this very enlightening course. In the above picture a nurse is instructing a student interested in the course.

MISS BAKER TO WED

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Baker announce the engagement of their daughter, Audrey to Randall Veazey, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Veazey of Maplesville.

Grandparents of the bride-elect are Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Baker, all of Clanton, Ala. Mr. Veazey is the grandson of Arthur Leroy and the late Mrs. Aman Leroy.

The bridegroom is attending Alabama College.

The wedding will be at the Marbury Baptist Church on June 7th.

METHODIST WSCS HELD MEETING

The Clanton Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service, held their monthly business and program meeting on Monday, June 1st at 3 o'clock in the Carlisle Miller Classroom.

The vice-president, Mrs. G. H. Tucker, presided, in the absence of the president. She opened the meeting with prayer. The usual recitation of business was taken, with various reports being made. Minutes read and new business discussed.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Emma Blankenship and Mrs. Tucker gave a talk explaining the Symbol of Quardrennial Year.

The meeting was dismissed with the meapah benediction.

The Circles will meet in Monday, June 8th in the following homes: Circle 2 with Mrs. Omar Reynolds at 3 p.m.; Circle 3 with Mrs. J. F. Appers, 3 p.m.; Circle 5 with Mrs. M. C. Henley at 7:30 p.m.; Circle 6 with Mrs. Charles Price at 3 p.m.; Circle 4 will meet on Tuesday with Mrs. Ervin Dailey at 9 a.m.

HARRIS MADE CHAIRMAN OF A.I.E.E., MONTG.

Marlin Harris, electrification advisor of the Central Alabama Electric Cooperative, was recently installed as chairman of the Montgomery chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers at the Jefferson Davis Hotel. The organization includes electrical engineers from Central Alabama counties.

Present were presented by Harris to the five past chairmen present including Chester Wingard, manager of the CAEC.

Harris joined the staff of the CAEC in December, 1955. Previously he had served as project engineer in farm implement designing in Detroit and spent five years in the Air Force working with electro-mechanical equipment as project engineer.

Reared on a farm near Jacksonville, Fla., he is now a part time farmer operating a 500 acre farm near Mt. Creek, Ala. He is married to the former Miss Kate Timmerman of Montgomery. They have two boys, age six.

Active in Kiwanis Club affairs he is at present serving as the local organization's president. He has held offices in the club since becoming a member in 1956. He also takes an active part in the First Baptist Church.

BELL TEL NEWS RECEIVES CITATION

The Bell Tel News, the miniature newspaper which Clanton receive monthly with their telephone bills will be presented an "Award of Excellence" this week at Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The citation is part of the International Council of Industrial Editors' 1958 Awards Program, said W. R. Evans, Southern Bell manager here.

The award is based on the content and appearance and on the job that the publication does in promoting understanding of the Company. More than 840 publications from the United States, Canada, Hawaii and the United Kingdom were judged.

SINGING TOPS IN SHILOH NEWS

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. John Devaughn on the splendid job he did as chairman of the singing at Shiloh Sunday. This was one of the largest and best singing and listening groups ever assembled here and the singing was very beautiful.

A dedication was made to the Clarence Billingsley family of Frattville. They were unable to attend due to a serious accident they suffered the first of the year. Clarence served as chairman of our singing for several years. We missed them.

The program was opened with prayer led by the pastor, Rev. A. V. Bice. Mr. Devaughn sang a number and then each of these directors sang numbers: E. E. Steward, C. D. Stalneck, T. E. Blackman, J. D. Burk, S. A. Odum, Floyd Eades, Jack Jones, Alvin Collins, Orbie Devaughn, J. J. Boone, O. L. Devaughn, Johnny Minor, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hammonds, I. D. Huett, Lee Grant, Mrs. Lee of Montgomery, S. B. Miller, Lawrence Hayes, James Boswell.

Virgil Smith, A. O. Boswell, J. E. Robinson, Mrs. V. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Boone, Ed Langston, Mrs. Garrison, Little A. O. Boswell.

We enjoyed several numbers rendered by the Liberty Hill quartet, Clanton; the Mapleton FFA quartet of Maplesville; Gospel Travelers of Bessemer; and duets were sung by Misses Carolyn and Nane Jo Owen, and Misses Jean Deamus and Mary Ann Watson.

Pianist for the day were: Misses Ann Williams, Nelma Jo Booknold, Carolyn Stewart, Martha Jo Adams, Mrs. Stalneck, Mr. A. O. Boswell and Mr. Lee Grant. The program was closed with prayer led by Rev. C. P. Haggard.

We thank everyone who contributed to the beautiful lunch served at the noon hour or in any way to help make this a very enjoyable day of fellowship together. We especially thank Mr. John Devaughn for the efficient manner in which he guided the program throughout the day.

Several faces were missed who are regular attendants to the singing, but we hope to have them present next year on the second fifth Sunday of the year.

Social Happenings

Misses Joan and Becky Mims daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mims of Mobile are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sims.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Cole have gone to Savannah, Ga., to visit relatives. She is feeling much better at this writing.

We were sorry to hear of John D. Smith's return to Veterans Hospital for more treatments, and we are praying that he will get to be back home before too long.

Mrs. Bonnie Price is very ill at the home of Lonza Oaks. Let's be much in prayer for her.

Our singing will be Sunday, June 14th. Bro. Cooley will give a 30 minute sermon, and will be the song chairman, with Charlie Riggs assisting. The old songs will be sung. Time 10 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Miss Gwen Moore, and Miss Myra Cummings went to Montgomery Sunday to visit relatives.

We were happy to see Billy Carl Rowe and his wife in church on Sunday. They are visiting his mother and other relatives here.

Mrs. Dolly Metlon is still on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. U. E. Riggins and son Mark of Chicago are visiting his mother, Mrs. Minnie Riggins and family also the J. D. Price family.

WEEK JUST PAST AT THORSBY

Mrs. Estelle Hay

Fishing is Fine. Mr. H. E. Smith who is now manager of Conways pond tells us that fishing is fine out there. Several people have caught some real large fish, weighing from 5 to 6 pounds. Mr. Smith had one in town last week that weighed 5 lb. 15 ounces. It was a Largemouth Bass.

Missionary to Be At Thorsby

Rev. Fred Holbrook, a return Missionary will speak at the First Baptist Church in Thorsby Sunday July 5th, morning and evening services. His wife and two boys will be with him. The Holbrooks will return to Mission Field in late summer or early fall.

Card of Sympathy

This column expresses sympathy to Mr. Earl and Wiehert Marcus in the loss of their mother, Mrs. Ellen Marcus, wife of the late Posey Marcus, of Clanton. May the Lord smile on them in their loss.

Brenda is 9 Years Old

Brenda Marrold, daughter of Mrs. Imogene Marrold Higgins celebrated her birthday Saturday. 10 Old Age Pensioners Now In Chilton County than 193 per cent of Al-age pensioners also were old age, survivors, and insurance benefits in according to figures releasby Pensions and Security

over Alvin T. Prestwood, this same month insurance were being paid to 52 per the families receiving aid dependent children.

of these figures are higher when a similar was made in 1958. "Prest-wood, pointing out the liberality of the OASDI program in has contributed to increased coverage and benefits.

OASDI Benefits

How the number of old people benefiting under both programs has risen is shown by the fact that only 24 percent of Alabama's old age pensioners received OASDI benefits early in 1955. Following liberalization of the federal law the previous year, as well as adoption of more liberal old age pension policies in Alabama in 1955, the number with both benefits represented 104 per cent of old age pensioners in 1956. This year,
pensioners in 1956. This year,
pensioners in 1956. This year, that the Social Security laws were amended in 1956 as well as in 1958.

Aid to Children Rises

The number of concurrent recipients of OASDI and aid to dependent children has risen somewhat, but not as sharply as the number of pensioners receiving Social Security benefits. The climb has been from 39 percent of dependent children families with OASDI in 1955 to 52 percent this year.

The Commissioner pointed out that the Department of Pensions and Security, at the request of the U. S. Social Security Administration, has reported each year on the number of persons concurrently receiving aid under an assistant category and OASDI benefits.
For the most part, however, he said that the joint coverage is in the old age pension and dependent children case loads.

Over 19,629 Pensioners

In March, 1959, when the study was made, there were 19,629 old age pensioners, 1,194 families with 5,784 dependent children, 29 blind persons, 362 totally disabled and 2 children in foster care receiving
OASDI benefits.
Prestwood said that current estimates place the number of old people in Alabama at 245,000. He said that 417 of each 1,000 population now (Dec., 1958) receive an old age pension and 457 of every 1,000 receive (June, 1958) OASDI benefits.

310 Old Age Pensioners In Chilton

In Chilton Co. in March, 1959
there were 310 Old Age Pension recipients receiving OASDI benefits, which was 237 percent of the caseload. In Aid to Dependent Children cases there were 14 families with 40 children receiving OASDI benefits, which was 89 percent of the total caseload.

The Commissioner expressed belief that the wider coverage and more adequate benefits of the OASDI program would make the benefits available to a majority of the working people who reach 65 in the future. He expressed confidence that not as many aged dependent parents as are probably eligible under 1958 amendments have applied for benefits. He pointed out, also, however, that there remain many old persons in Alabama who not only do not receive OASDI now, but who will never be eligible for it.

-- THE EDITOR

CLANTON, Alabama--The county school superintendent's office is all set for another big year of issuing work certificates for boys and girls who plan to do summer work in "peaches".
Miss Louise Foshee, supervisor of school attendance, said more certificates were issued last year than ever before, but she added that the 1959 crop of both peaches and teenagers promises an even bigger year.

Peach packers normally use many boys and girls who are 16 and over, and there are also some jobs which are legal for the 14's and 15's.

16 - 18 Get Certificates

But all workers 14 through 18 need to get an employment certificate before going to work. This certificate should be kept on file by the employer as long as the employee is working.

40 Hrs. Per Wk. for 14 & 15

Miss Foshee said federal child labor laws limit the hours which can be worked by 14's and 15's in the packing houses. They cannot work after 7 p.m. or more than 40 hours a week; nor can they work while school is in session.

These restrictions do not apply to those under 16 working in the orchards or doing other farm work.
Only restriction in regard to them is that they not be employed during school hours.

No Hazardous Jobs for Child

Those 16 and over can legally perform most peach-packing jobs.
There are, however, some occupations which have been found to be hazardous by the U. S. Labor Department, and these may be done only by workers 18 years old or more.

Hazardous occupations include truck driving and helping, operating fork lift trucks or any type of elevator, and operating a power-driven woodworking machine such as an automatic lidding machine.

Miss Foshee issues the employment certificates at her office in the County Board of Education.
For more information, see her there or telephone 69.

SUBSTATION AT VERBENA FOR ALABAMA POWER CO.

The Alabama Power Company has work in progress to extend its transmission lines and add a substation at Verbena. Growth in the Verbena area as well as along the Coosa River has been continuing for a number of years and the number of customers who are now using many appliances to "Live Better Electrically" indicate that future use of electricity in this area will continue to increase.

Other Improvements Considerable line work is necessary for the connection of this new substation to the distribution lines. Other improvements are being made on the lines in South Clanton, as well as West End and along Fourth Avenue West of Tenth Street.

Interruption in Service So that all of this work can be done safely it will be necessary to have a series of outages in the lines affected to replace some conductor's and install additional switches. Advance notice for each interruption will be placed in the local newspapers outlining the locations affected and the length of time the power will be off in various areas. Major power customers will be sent card notices ahead of time. The necessary work will be well planned and promptly executed so that customers will be inconvenienced as little as possible.

New Line A 44,000 volt transmission line is being built from the Lay Dam - Vida line starting at a point South-west of Clanton to the new substation site near Highway 31 and just North of where Chestnut Creek crosses the highway. This new substation will supply power for the customers in Verbena, Marbury Mountain Creek and those on the lines from Verbena to the river, as well as the customers in this area.

LITTLE LEAGUE - JAYCEES KIWANIS WINS OVER LIONS AND BRAVES

Tuesday night, June 2nd, the weather permitted the Little Leaguers, to play the first complete games of a doubleheader this season.

In the first game between the Jaycees and Lions, the Jaycees won by a score of 18-3. Pat Myers pitched for the Lions, struck out nine men and walked only two while his team made three errors and collected five hits and eight runs off Mike Johnston, the Lions hurler, who struck out three Jaycees and walked five, with the team making fifteen errors.

Hits for the Jaycees were made by: pitcher, Perry Fulmer, who doubled in the fifth, leftfielder, Alton Owens, who singled in the fourth and doubled in the fifth, and catcher, Robert Presley, who singled in the fourth. The only hit for the Lions was a single made by leftfielder, Sonny Jacks in the third inning.

Second Game In the second game of the double-header between the Methodist Braves and the Kiwanians, the Kiwanians won by a score of 5-1. The five hits on the Kiwanians team were made by catcher, Mike Cox, who singled in the first, infielder, Mike Culver, who doubled in the seventh, shortstop, Mike Culver, who doubled in the fourth and again in the seventh, and Roger Crew, who singled in the third.

Don Nelson pitched for six innings, striking out fourteen men and allowing only one run for the Braves. Harold Lawrence, who pitched in the seventh inning, struck out two men.

Wayne Johnson collected both of the Braves' two hits with a single and a double. Joe Maddox pitched for the Braves for six innings and struck out three men.

Donald Langston pitched in the seventh inning. Seven innings were played due to the score being tied 1-1, after six complete innings.

Winning Runs The winning runs for the Kiwanians in the seventh inning were scored as follows:

The Braves pitcher, Donald Langston, walked the first two batters, Mike Roper and Jerry Sandlin. The next batter Donald Nelson was safe on first with a fielder's choice but Mike Roper was out on third. The fourth batter, Doug Jones, walked loading the bases. Then Mike Cox doubled scoring Jerry Sandlin and Don Nelson.

Gets Double Mike Culver, the sixth batter, hit a double, scoring Doug Jones and Mike Cox, but he was tagged out on third himself, trying to stretch his hit into a triple. Then Ronald Hay hit a fly ball to the third baseman for the last out, making the final score 5-1 in favor of the Kiwanians.

HILLCREST CHURCH NOTES by Mrs. Joe Davis Services were well attended on Sunday, both morning and evening services.

The GA's met Monday night with Mrs. Joe Davis. The Sunbeams met Monday night with their leader, Joyce Jones. Rev. J. B. Mazzell left Monday morning about 4:00 with Rev. Ed Wilkins from Clanton to go to the Seminary in New Orleans.

Rev. J. B. Mazzell had a wreck with his car Friday afternoon near Lemmon. He was not hurt.

WAS YOUR GRANDDADDY A CIVIL WAR HERO

WANTS TO KNOW

Nationwide search for descendants of the Civil War soldiers, on the first Congressional day of Honor presented by the United States has been launched by the District of Columbia War Centennial Commission. J. Sedgwick, chairman, said the first step in a plan to proper recognition to the Civil War heroes who originated the nation's highest honor for valor. This will be done during ceremony on the date marking the centennial of the act instituting the

TO YOUNG MEN OF DRAFT AGE

(The draft has been extended for four years, until July 1, 1963. This means that the young men of the country must continue to expect to serve in the military forces. This article is the last in a series of eight outlining the basic responsibilities and rights of young men under the draft law--THE EDITOR)

Alabama's Selective Service Director Walter M. Thompson, Jr., today explained several ways in which the young man may fulfill his military obligation.

Thompson said that at age 17, and with his parent's consent, the young man could choose a wide variety of ways to begin the discharge of his total active duty and reserve obligation of his military service. He may enlist in the regular forces for three to six years. He may enter a number of reserve or National Guard programs. He may even volunteer, with parental consent for induction for two years.

Even after he registers for the draft at age 18, he has ahead of him about five years in which to choose his own time and method of discharging the military obligation. As he gains more education, these opportunities widen to include various military programs leading toward a commission.

But if he does not make his own choice, Thompson said, at around age 23 he may expect induction if he is acceptable and not deferred or exempt. And even though he may be unacceptable, or deferred or exempt when his normal turn to serve comes, he may be put in Class I-A if at any time up to his 35th birthday he loses the deferment or exemption, or the cause of his disqualification is removed.

If he should be reclassified into Class I-A before age 26, and is not a father, he would probably be the oldest man available and acceptable in his local board and, therefore, the first to be called.

Because of the need for manpower in the Armed Forces, seven percent of ten men under present conditions have entered service voluntarily or by induction before age 26. The other three out of ten are almost all disqualified men. Of the qualified men, more than nine out of ten have entered service before age 26. The few remaining are those who went over age 26 in a deferred or exempt status.

J. MATT JOHNSON DIES AT 75 YEARS

Mr. J. Matt Johnson of Clanton age 75 years, died at the Chilton County Hospital on June 8, at 10:55 a.m. He was born in Chilton County on September 14th, 1883.

Funeral services were held at the First Assembly of God Church on Thursday, June 6, at 4:00 p.m. Interment at Clanton Cemetery. Rev. W. F. Taylor assisted by Rev. Tom Greenwood, officiated.

pallbearers: Richard and Jimmy Wayne Easterling, Don Minor, Don Baker, Ralph Vines, Charles Hudson.

Honorary Pallbearers: Jimmy Bell, M. C. Godwin, D. Teel, Pat Hamilton, Jimmy Taylor, Grady Hefflin, Reddie Taylor, Gene Wyatt, Ed Mullins, Omar Reynolds.

Flower ladies: Marie and Carolyn Wesson, Pat Glenn, Diane Moates, Linda, Lou, Margaret, Pauline, Analee Mims, Sarah, Wilma and Lucile Easterling, Frances Payton, Norma Lou and Glen-da Sue Coggins, Louise Patterson, Willodean Johnson, Ella Mae Wright.

Surviving relatives include the wife, Mrs. Myrtle Johnson of Clanton; 1 daughter, Mrs. Hazel Easterling of Clanton; two sisters, Mrs. Dora Easterling of Clanton; Mrs. Bertie Mims of Clanton; 2 brothers, Mr. C. C. Johnson of Clanton; Mr. J. J. Johnson of Clanton; 3 half-sisters, Mrs. Virgie Glendon of Clanton; Mrs. Lennie Mae Adams of Montgomery, Mrs. Clara Mae Smithman of Clanton; 3 half-brothers, W. J. Easterling of Clanton, Esau Johnson of Clanton, Josie Johnson of Clanton; 4 grandchildren.

Funeral Home was in charge.

By 1963, government manpower experts estimate that of all qualified men, will have entered service by age 26. Higher standards now in effect disqualify more men. Virtually no non-fathers, qualified and available, are now "reserving" service or will do so through 1963.

HAPPY HAL BURNS TO BROADCAST IN COUNTY

HAPPY Hal Burns, popular radio and television personality, is coming to Chilton County to help advertise Chilton County peaches. Starting next week, Burns will be broadcasting from locations in Chilton County in connection with the Chilton County Peach - Trade Days Celebration. His Rambling Ranch Studio will be located at Shelton Motors in Clanton the final week, June 22-27.

Chilton County Health Center Holds Big "Open House"

On Sunday, June 7th, between the hours of 3 to 5 p.m., approximately 200 people from over the County and visitors from Montgomery, Perry, Elmore, Walker, Jefferson, Bibb and "Cousin" counties, visited the new Chilton County Health Center. This was the day for Open House and as the visitors arrived they were given a guided tour by members of the staff which included: Dr. C. S. Cottin, Jr., Mr. C. C. Guy, Jr., Mrs. Myrtle Lowery, Mrs. Carrie Mae Woods, Mrs. Nell Sims and Mrs. Doris Gay. A very gracious and hospitable group of people.

The visitors were shown the offices, the examining rooms, the x-ray room and the laboratories. All the various parts of the County Health service which has as its goal "Preventing Disease, Prolonging Life, and Promoting Physical and Mental Efficiency" were explained to the visitors as they toured.

The Health Department of any County is a very vital program; that it provides the necessary facilities for immunization, and care for all the people and the New Chilton County Health Center is one to be proud of.

The Chilton County Hospital Auxiliary members had been asked to be on hand at this auspicious occasion and they had prepared refreshments.

The waiting room which is very modern indeed, for both white and colored patients, was the setting for tea hour.

Flowers which had been sent by various individuals and business firms were placed at various points which made the building even more beautiful. Arrangements of glads, mums and carnations and several potted plants were sent by the following: Isabella Home Demonstration Club, Mercantile Paper Company of Montgomery, Clanton Laundry, Ward's Flower Shop, Mr. Lawrence Whitten, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Tingle, Elmore County Health Department and the Lawrence Whitten Architect Firm.

The refreshment table was covered with a linen cut-work cloth, the centerpiece was a crystal punch bowl on a crystal tray, encircled with gardenias, and silver trays holding assorted party cookies and dainty paper napkins completed the table.

The punch was served to the visitors as they completed their tour of the building by Miss Marietta Probst, Miss Linda Wade, Miss Mary Kate Tucker and Miss Kathy Wade.

The Auxiliary members who helped to plan and arrange for this occasion were: Mrs. O. H. Armstrong, the Auxiliary President, Mrs. Jerry Bodden, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. R. M. Tucker and Mrs. W. A. Willis.

WHILE the nation's milk cow population showed a small drop from last year's total, sheep numbers have gained, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Then there was a big fall out of the boys, and for a while there was little observance of the price fixing arrangement.

From here on out, the matter got very foggy indeed. It seems that although he had no connection with the lady's blouse business in any way, one Harry Strasser, a convicted dope peddler, and alleged to be a former associate of Louis Buchalter, former head of Murder, Inc., somehow got into the act and was quite busy in negotiating a new deal all around in which all the disputing associations and the union got friendly once again.

Under the new arrangement, by some curious quirk, the union entered into agreements with the Greater and National groups which provided among other things, the allocation of the National group members work among the members of Greater and State Belt groups.

Thus, according to Justice Dept. the union took dominant role in enforcing allocation and price fixing provisions of the agreements.

Dave Dubinsky had raised a howl about Justice Dept. making all this public.

He perhaps believes that the alleged price fixing situation in the blouse industry is a skeleton that should be kept fully clothed.

Time Is At Hand For Chilton County's Big Peach-Trade Days

The big 1959 Chilton County Peach-Trade Days Celebration is under way.

The three-week celebration, leading up to the big final week, June 22 through June 27, got under way at Jemison Monday.

It moves to Thorby next week and then comes to Clanton, Monday, June 22.

During this time, merchants from throughout Chilton County will be giving Prize Bucks which will be good for $10.00 in prizes, as well as points toward selecting the 1959 Peach Queen.

Merchants in Jemison and Thorby started passing out the Prize Bucks early this week and many Clanton merchants will have them available before the week is out.

Persons voting for the peach queen merely write the name of their favorite candidate on the back of the stub of the Prize Bucks. This year's queen, thereby, will be chosen by popular vote.

She will be crowned Saturday afternoon, June 27, from the stage of Happy Hal Burns Rambling Ranch Studio, which will be located at Shelton Motors the entire week of June 22-27.

The Rambling Ranch Studio is in Jemison this week and will be in Thorby next week. Daily radio broadcasts are being made from the mobile radio studio. Burns will broadcast an hour a day over WKLF in Clanton the final week of the celebration.

In addition to the radio broadcasts, Burns will also salute Chilton County on his Saturday morning television programs over WAPI-TV for the next three Saturdays. A free stage show from the stage of the Ranch Studio will be offered each Saturday afternoon, at which time many gifts will be awarded.

Officials emphasize the fact that this year's peach queen will be chosen by popular vote and that no girl 16 years or older and single is eligible.

No doubt, many of last year's contestants will be named as candidates this year and, as a reminder, here are some of the girls who competed in 1958: Audrey Baker, Maplesville; Brenda Kathy Branch, Clanton; Maryetta Probst, Clanton; Elizabeth Mims, Clanton; Linda Miller, Clanton; Caroline Dickinson, Clanton; Joyce Cobb, Jemison; Sandra Champion, Jemison; Sederia Mae Payne, Maplesville; Charlotte Smith, Stanton; Jackie Edwards, Maplesville; Willie Grace Short, Maplesville; Nancy Daniel, Maplesville; June Hicks, Maplesville; Isabella Smithman, Maplesville; Barbara Ann Silas, Clanton; Rebecca Baker, Verbeena; Angelyn Frucci Verbeena; Gwen Frucci, Verbeena; Donna Gentry, Thorby; Ann Booser, Clanton; Ploury Thornhill, Clanton; Fatsy Flournoy, Clanton; Ann Gurr, Jemison; Janice Woods, Clanton; Diane McGinty, Clanton; Brenda Higginbotham, Maplesville; Ann Spicer, Clanton; Laura Ann Dennis, Maplesville; Judy Nelson, Thorby; and Juanita Carter, Clanton.

As has been the custom in the past, this year's Peach Queen will be flown to Washington to present the prize basket of peaches in the peach exhibit Saturday, June 27 to members of the Alabama Congressional delegation.

doctors will address the afternoon scientific sessions. Dr. J. Garber Galbraith, Professor of Surgery and Head of the Division of Neurological Surgery, Medical College of Alabama, Birmingham, will talk on "Diagnosis and Treatment of Cerebral Aneurysms."

"The Prevention of Cardiovascular Emergencies" will be discussed by Dr. Edgar Hull, Professor of Medicine and Associate Dean, Louisiana State University Medical School, New Orleans, La.

The group will hear Dr. Bruce Logue, Atlanta, Ga., speak on "Subtle Signs and Symptoms of Congestive Heart Failure." Dr. Logue is Professor of Medicine, Emory University Medical School and Cardiologist, Emory University Hospital, Atlanta.

Advance registration and dinner reservations are now being taken at the Alabama Heart Association headquarters, 2912 7th Avenue South, Birmingham.

AMEN, AMEN, AMEN --

Right now, while there is still time remaining before Flag Day in which to fix the pole, buy a new rope, get the flag cleaned (for free, you know), we would like to pass on the highlights of a speech of Charles H. Brower, president of BBDO to Treasury officials in Washington a while ago and as printed in the libertarian magazine, USA:

"Among the great skills that we Americans boast is our ability to package things. . cars and furniture and even life insurance.

"Finally, I am afraid, we are learning how to package people. They will shortly be coming bright and shining from our collegiate assembly lines. They will be shaped on one side by taxes and on the other by benefits. All impurities, such as ambition, discontent, curiosity, desire and pride, will be carefully removed. . and replaced by security and welfare.

"Yes, we are soon going to be packaging people and we are going to homogenize society. Furthermore, we are going to save millions of dollars on statues. For statues are erected - not to committees or bureaus - but to great men and women. And in a homogenized society the cream will never come to the top. .

"... Our greatest dangers do not threaten us from across the sea. Our greatest dangers are within ourselves. For our creed of rugged individualism has degenerated into an individualism that is no longer rugged. We know how to ask, but we have forgotten how to give. We know what we are owed, but we have forgotten what we owe. .

"Today there is a sign beside the Parade Ground at West Point which reads: 'Visitors are reminded to stand and remove their hats when the flag passes by in review.' But once we didn't have to be told.

"Today new buildings are going up all over the land, with flagpoles not even included in the architects' plans. On the older buildings the halyards hang limp and flopping. Yet the flag used to fly from tens of millions of homes whenever a holiday provided a reasonable reason.

"All right - I am flag-waving! And in a day when courts have to rule whether or not an American must take an oath of loyalty to his country - patriotism may seem somewhat corny and outmoded. But I will point out that patriotism - love of country - was almost the sole motivating force of those whose memory we honor and cherish in this country. Name me such a man and I will be able to point out at what sacrifice of time and money - and even life itself - he served his country."

As we said, there is still time to prepare for suitable recognition of Flag Day - even to buying a new flag. And do not feel badly about the inability to purchase one with 49 or 50 stars. With any number - from 13 upward - the American Flag may be flown proudly - and legally - so long as it is in presentable condition. And even Old Glory with 50 stars can never mean so much to us as a presentation flag or one that was cherished - and displayed - by our forebears.

Dear _____

I am concerned about the effect continued inflation will have on my future and about the threat it poses to our country. If the government keeps spending more than it takes in, we will have more inflation and prices will keep rising.

If this happens--

- ☐ My savings will be worth less
- ☐ My insurance will be worth less
- ☐ My pension will be worth less
- ☐ My income will buy less
- ☐ My social security will buy less

I hope that you will vote only for essential expenditures so that we can avoid further inflation and keep the dollar sound.

Sincerely,

TIME FOR LEADERSHIP --

IT IS unfortunate our President is not more adept at explaining and defending what we think is his position on inflation.

He has allowed his political opponents to make his insistence on a balanced budget appear to be mere stubbornness, when we are pretty sure he is convinced by now that continuing to spend more than we have is pretty immoral at a time when it takes eight billion of the budget to pay the interest on the debt we have already run up. And when his Administration is readying a crash program to make US Government bonds attractive enough (via increased interest rates) that people, will buy them, we are sure President Eisenhower is as fearful as anyone should be over the continuance of loose fiscal policy.

Questioned at his press conference on the recent assertion of John L. Lewis that the President was on the side of steel management and against workers, General Eisenhower missed an opportunity to make himself clear - and to cut such self-serving demagogues as Messrs. Lewis and Meany down to boy-size. The Presidential reply that his interest in "the big capitalist class . . . is very, very little as compared to what I think about the mass of people that do work with their hands and minds and at their typewriters and everywhere else to produce their wealth" not only evades the issue of what is best for the whole American people but could mean that he does discriminate in his own mind between those who get salaries and those who get wages.

The President did say that "both sides have to exercise self-discipline or this country is in a bad time." He had talked to business men, he said, "urging that their products be priced just as low as they can make them". That American business, big and little, has been straining every fiber and making unprecedented capital investments to do this very thing in the face of steadily and ominously rising labor costs, should-by now, be pretty well known.

Americans generally are realizing that the wage spiral, plus foreign competition, and our foreign economic aid have priced American manufacturers out of export markets. This is serious enough to mean the difference between prosperity and rough going. But a far more frightening fact-of-life has yet to be faced up to. As matters stand, we are rapidly pricing ourselves out of our own markets as well! Have you noticed those little cars on the roads - or where the "bargains" in the stores came from?

We cannot believe that the President is so naive as to believe the steel struggle is just another wage dispute or that the spiral can be halted and the brakes put on inflation without cutting Government spending far more than he has ever sought to do.

An economic war is on. It's time for the Commander in Chief to blow the whistle.

THE INVISIBLE PICKPOCKET

A recent survey indicates that most Americans--about 72 per cent--are opposed to inflation and to the excessive government spending which causes it. Yet congressmen still get most of their mail from the few who urge more spending.

By undermining the dollar, inflation hurts the individual and weakens the nation. It means that your income buys less for you and your taxes buy less for your government.

You can help stop inflation simply by asking your congressmen to see that the government operates within its income. A special form is printed on this page for your convenience in contacting your legislators.

Fill in the name of your congressman and check the reason or reasons that you are opposed to inflation. Address it to your senator or congressman at the Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Young Folks Find Paper Work
Precedes Paid Work In Peaches

The Federal Wage and Hour Law establishes certain child labor regulations and, in some cases, wage standards, which apply to the peach-packing industry. For the answer to specific questions about this law, write to Hugh B. Campbell, Wage and Hour Division, Bush Building, Columbus, Ga. -- The EDITOR.

CLANTON, Alabama--Don't let the paper work of getting a job worry you - It's all in the game and doesn't take long.

That's the advice of Miss Louise Foshee to young people who are 14 through 18 and are trying to get jobs in peach-packing plants or other establishments.

In her capacity as supervisor of school attendance in the County superintendent's office, Miss Foshee issues all employment certificates necessary for the teenagers.

"Well, first you get some decent fishing tackle... then..."

WHAT'S IT WORTH TO ME MISTER

IN COLD CASH THAT IS

Publisher Frank R. Mills of the Hoopston, Ill. CHRONICLE - HERALD is a disappointed and disillusioned man - but it helps any, we are sure he will have widespread sympathy from his won fraternity across the nation.

Mr. Mills offered some weeks ago to assist some worthy young man in learning Linotype operation by sending him to school, but reported in his issue of May 6th that he had no takers. Still, hurt and bewildered as he was by the lack of interest in what he felt was a generous and attractive proposal, he said he thought he could understand why:

"In the first place," he wrote, "I suppose we put our requirements too high. We ask for a high school graduate. This is tough. There is little opportunity for a young man to finish school, so we blank out a lot of otherwise sterling actors.

"We ask for someone who can write and spell, and that is a strike-out. Few can spell, and to go to the actual labor of putting words down on paper - not me if it can't be settled over the phone, to heck with it."

Publisher Mills goes on to reflect on his error in asking references, since apparently there are no young men with the courage to ask for a recommendation. Worthy youths, he has decided, have good jobs, are still in school or college or in the armed forces. Remaining are "the stupid, the lazy, the illiterate, the just plain 'no good steady corner and dim'". Of these, he says, "We have a plenty". But, he philosophizes, the latter group may be "exhibiting supreme intelligence, . . . getting by with little or no worry, and no tendency toward virtues."

A week or so later, Publisher Mills reports that he had, after all, received some applications for his offer to train printers, although they are a "sorry lot". The impressive responses, he notes, came entirely from "farm, and small town boys."

"Illustrative of the poverty of effort and intelligence," says Mr. Mills, "I had a two - sentence application yesterday. It read: 'I would like to e you about being a printer. I will have to be paid $1.40 an hour.'"

"So a lad who can't spell wants to be a printer, sets a high value on his ignorance, and tells nothing of his (lack of) ability."

"Another discouraging application reads: 'My husband is looking for a job. What does it pay?'"

Mr. Mills concludes by saying that the general outlook may be best expressed by the title saying "no making rounds, that there's nothing wrong with the 'nuntry a good depression wouldn't cure", but Lord save us from such a drastic correction!"

Any other solution you may have handy will be gratefully received.

But before they can get the final certificate, which she said their employer should keep on file while they are working, they must get two other papers.

These are: The Intention to Employ statement which is signed by the employer, with an indication of the nature of the job he expects to give the boy or girl; and the Health Officer's statement which can be filled out by the family physician or the county health officer.

Miss Foshee said the "Intention" statement was necessary because certain jobs were not permitted and, for 14' and 15's limited hours of work were required.

Except in farm and orchard work 14's and 15's may not work over 8 hours daily, 40 hours weekly, and never after 7 p.m. at night in packing houses.

Most employers have supplies of Intention statement, but any job-seeking teen-ager can play safe by getting copies of both forms from Miss Foshee's office.

She said proof of age was also necessary prior to issuing the certificate, and requested that birth certificates be brought along.

by BOB

We learned of a young fellow named "Lil John Kindlin" who frequented the Bible School at the First Methodist Church last week. Observing that it was a rather odd name we thought perhaps we could correct the translation by offering some help in pronunciation. We even went so far as to ask our boy (who was the translator) to ask "Lil John" about his name, but it still came out "Lil John Kindlin". We don't know who he was, but he sure made an impression on some young minds.

An incident which catches clearly the times we face in the U. S. - these days took place the other morning in the home of a working girl and her husband. Up on arising for the daily grind the little woman went to the refrigerator and lo, there was no bacon and no eggs. She said "well, I'll just make some biscuits then." You guessed it, no flour too! "Well, dear," she said, "if there's not any bread for toast, I'll scream." You know, it's amazing, but not so amusing either. The financial pinch that we are feeling is hurting down to the last of us. We certainly hope that some of the noble minds of our America will come up with a solution whereby the load will lighten a little on the average working family.

Well, we found out who "Lil John Kindlin" is. He's John Kennedy somebody. . . at least we found out that much.

We're on the wagon for certain now. We could have sworn we saw an elephant in Clanton Monday of this week. We would have gotten shoo' nuff excited, but we looked twice and it was grey, just like normal. What we want to know, . . . is what was going on?

Well, thing, are looking up. We had our first Clanton County peach of the season and they're promising we'll tell you. Sorry that top price didn't hold up for long. . . we do think they'll get better again if Mother Nature will just lend a hand. Never too late, you know!

Notice! The News discontinues the "Clanton County Schools" series it has been running, as of this week. Due to the fact that school is out and we think the most remote thing in most of our minds is 'school'. We will continue the series, perhaps with some improvements, in the Fall. Watch for it to start when school resumes.

TOO much of a good thing? We are close enough to the situation to note that Little League becomes an obsession with some young minds and they tend to neglect all else for it. We have often noted that there is nothing that could take the place of the established Little League program in Clanton and Chilton County. Such fellows as Ott Miller, Ralph Johnston, Mutt Wray, Pat Maddox, Bob Poers, O'Dell Headley, Leiland Hudson, Jerry Boddley and George Fulmer, not to mention scores of other fellows are very active in the League and it is without a doubt one of the finest moral boosts Clanton has ever had. There are those young fellows, who, absorbed with the idea of being a member of the team, fall down in other obligations which are literally more important. Primarily, church obligations is what we're speaking of. We are for the League 100 percent and back it every way we are able, but we want to be sure the young fellows recognize their other responsibilities along with playing baseball. We do not want to go into the juvenile question because that is not our point. A talented minority in the young minds is what

A Salute To Those Who Give

We don't know what the average person thinks of these Bible Schools which are annually held at the various churches in the community, but as of this year we have a definite opinion of them.

Up to now we had the Bible School pegged as mostly just a bunch of trouble for the parents and teachers who were willing to give their time to the cause.

First hand experience is obviously the best kind and we can truthfully say we know what we're talking about when we say Bible School does a great deal for the average youngster. We were doubtful of that fact until our young son started coming home this week full of what he was learning. We were definitely surprised and impressed at the things they were teaching him and the things he was absorbing.

There's no doubt some question in the minds of many as to how a Bible School can bring out the best in the children. It is a hard grind for the ladies, girls, men and boys who wish to come home, however, with abundance of new knowledge about Jesus, flowers, songs, making things and various other beneficial things we think it is a definite wonderful thing for the child.

Our boy is a so-called good school tot and he learned a lot in one week of Bible School. He does in a whole year of the type of training. . . We have to endorse it! We think you, too, if you'd take advantage of what it offers.

Our hat is off to Mrs. Williams, head of the First Methodist Bible School this year. All the other ladies like her in church and other churches who so generously and receive little return except the heartfelt thanks of a few parents and the everlasting knowledge that they helped mold some innocent little minds to appreciate and preserve the things of life.

Speaking of BEAUTY

BONNIE SEALE
"YOUR FUTURE"

WHY DO MEN
CHOOSE BEAUTY?

Why do men choose beauty? I am surprised how many men say to me, "Sure, I can see a woman might want to be a professional hairdresser, but I never could understand the men who choose the beauty field! Doesn't it take a certain type of guy to want to be a beautician?" I have a standard answer to that question. IT TAKES A MAN WHO WANTS TO MAKE MONEY! THE FASTEST EVER!

Perhaps you are one of the many men who seem to be going nowhere! It isn't your fault, not by a long shot. But you just aren't lucky enough to afford a profession while earning a college diploma. You got out of school—or out of service—and went to work. You're a worker with ambition, but there just isn't much security in this business. "Skilled" jobs where raises are paid, and there's always a prospect of strike or lay-off.

It's like to get skilled at a trade of work—but how can you do it fast? Again—the answer! THE FASTEST EVER!

COMPARE THE WAIT PERIOD. Suppose you trained for a license in one of the fields related to the construction business. Say, plumbing, electricity, or carpentry. It could take you as long as four years to get your hands on that all-important license! And even then, you'd be pretty well held-down by standard prices per job, so there wouldn't be a ceiling on where you could go financially. Now, compare that four year period with the requirements in the beauty business! You can become a licensed professional cosmetologist in just a few months! That's right—You're ready to make money before the end of your first year!

COMPARE THE "TAKE"! I mentioned that business of your earnings. Isn't that true in standard prices and ceiling on the beauty shop business too? Of course, you'll observe certain price structures—that's just good business in any business. But the man who develops his own skill will be a hair-styling expert can write his own ticket for success! The Professional hair-dresser becomes an artist—and, like any artist, his work takes on extra value as his reputation grows. If you're twice as good as the next fellow—you'll make twice as much money!

GIVE IT A WHIRL! Come in and tell us what you want out of life—whether you're a man or a woman, a teenager just stepping out of school or a mature individual who's tired of "steady jobs" that are dead-end streets! We treat everyone's problems individually, mapping out a plan of action that's exactly right for you. (We'll help you work out your tuition-paying plans on an individual basis too.) We'll give you a first-hand look at this school that's famous for getting folk off to the right start fast!

And come in soon—we're anxious to get acquainted with you. Our location is 422 South Court, Street, Montgomery, Ala. OVERHEARD IN THE LOCKER ROOM:

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

During consideration of the Defense Appropriations Bill last week considerable debate flared up in the House of Representatives over the awarding of defense contracts to companies employing retired generals and admirals. Several members charged that former military officers of high rank are in a position to influence defense orders.

A member of the House Appropriations Committee, which had reported the bill, conceded that some corrective action was necessary to prevent "influence" in connection with defense contracts, but he cautioned against hasty legislation.

Nevertheless, an amendment was proposed to bar retired officers from being employed by defense contractors for five years after they leave active service. It appeared that the amendment would be adopted when it was tentatively approved by voice vote, but it was later defeated on a teller vote of 125 to 147. Defeat of the amendment was influenced, however, by the announcement that a House Armed Services subcommittee will investigate abuses resulting from high ranking officers stepping out of the service and into key jobs in the defense industry.

Bomarc Missile

Further controversy arose in the House in connection with the same legislation when an attempt was made to delete from the defense bill $200 million to be used for production of the Air Force's Bomarc anti-aircraft missile. Apparently in an effort to force the Defense Department to make a decision between the Bomarc and the Army's Nike-Hercules missile, the House Appropriations Committee had already reduced the Bomarc funds by $162 million before the bill was presented to the House. It was pointed out that Defense Department spokesmen had emphasized that the Air Force missile is an important part of the overall defense against manned bombers. When a vote was taken to delete the Bomarc funds, the amendment was defeated by more than a three-to-one majority.

A move to increase the Army's strength by 30,000 personnel was also defeated during the House consideration of the legislation.

Defense Funds

The defense bill—which is the largest appropriation measure considered by Congress each year—passed the House on a roll call vote of 392 to 3. This legislation includes a defense funds totaling $38.8 billion for fiscal year 1960. The total is approximately one billion less than the amount appropriated for the current fiscal year and almost $400 million less than the President had requested.

Holt Lock and Dam

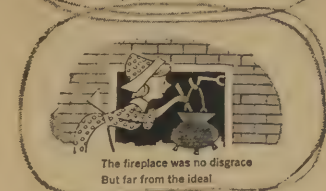

Efforts to begin the final planning phase of the Holt Lock and Dam on the Warrior-Tombigbee Waterway above Tuscaloosa were enhanced considerably last week when the House Appropriations Committee approved $150,000 in advance planning funds for the project.

Construction of the Holt facility to replace four obsolete locks and dams was recommended by the Corps of Engineers and the Secretary of the Army last fall. However, funds for the project were not included in the federal budget that was presented to Congress earlier this year.

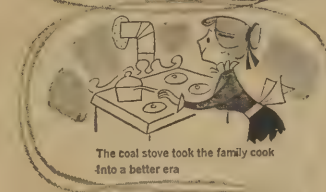

Since the House Appropriations Committee has added the funds to its public works bill, the prospects for final congressional approval are now extremely good.

To prepare a meal

The fireplace was no disgrace
But far from the ideal

The coal stove took the family cook into a better era

And in the Gaslight Age it seemed Perfection was much nearer

But times do change—the modern range is flameless, clean and fast.

It's ALL-ELECTRIC cooking now
A better way at last!

Better Kitchens Today the All-Electric Way

It's Fun to Cook—Electrically

Got a new recipe? Try it on your electric range! For quiet family meals or elaborate entertaining, your all-electric kitchen makes cooking a real pleasure. And your guests never argue about who's to dry the dishes . . . you have an electric dishwasher.

It's Cooler—It's Flameless It's Smoke-free

Your all-electric kitchen is so clean—so cool—so inviting. Walls and curtains stay so much cleaner! Cooking utensils keep bright with less scrubbing. Electricity is the biggest bargain in your family budget.

The Only Water Heater You Can Put Anywhere Is ELECTRIC

Because electric water heaters are flameless, they require no vent or chimney. Heating elements are unexposed so electric water heaters are safe to put wherever most convenient in your home.

Counter-top models fit in with kitchen counters and also are ideal for laundries. Square or round tall types can be installed in closets, pantries or alcoves. Seldom, if ever, will you be out of hot water with a new ever-ready, automatic electric water heater!

Miss Peggy Pickering, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pickering of Plantersville, was honored at a bridal party at the home of Mrs. Raymond Schiffer, Selma, Tuesday night, June 2. Miss Pickering will be married at an early date to William Peak.

FHA'ers Go To Montevallo.
Representing Dallas County High School FHA Chapter at the state meeting on the Montevallo Campus last week were Misses Jean Campbell and Bobbie Martin. Both have outstanding records in FHA work.

The only member of the Dallas County High School FHA Chapter who earned the junior degree in the organization during the year was Miss Ann McKee, daughter of Mrs. Frances Terry McKee and the late Cecil McKee. "Ann" received her pin from Patsy Seymour, past president of the chapter.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Earl Martin, Guntersville, Ala. have announced the marriage of their daughter, Celia Norris, to Robert Winton Patrick Jr. son of Robert Winton Patrick of Tifton, Georgia, and the late Margaret Rye Patrick. The ceremony was performed April 22, 1959 at the Riverside Presbyterian Church in Jacksonville, Florida. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Neal Baker Dean of Alexander, Ala., the daughter of Dr. Dean and Mrs. Stella M. Martin and the late Dr. Thomas Monroe Martin of Plantersville.

Both are freshmen at Florida State University where she is a Chi Omega pledge and he is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

They will be at home in Tallahassee, Florida.

Deepest sympathy goes out to Mrs. Dorothy Deavers and daughters of Maplesville, and the loved ones and many, many friends of Cecil Deavers who was accidentally and fatally injured late Saturday night.

The family of late Jeff and Catherine Hicks of Lawley will have their annual reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lovelady next Sunday, June 14th. All relatives and friends are invited. This is a day long looked forward to and a very enjoyable one.

The Barnes reunion held annually at Lawley, on the 4 Sunday in May was very enjoyable. Approximately two hundred people attended. Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Nail, a former pastor of Rehobeth church were there and this made the day more enjoyable for all present. Attending from other sections were: Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gay, Mrs. Ida Shoults Smitherman, Mrs. Dove Shoults and Mr. Robert Howard Smitherman. New officers elected for the coming year were: President, Mr. Roy Latham; Executive, Adams Riffe; Secretary, Anne Pull; Treasurer, Mims. Treasurer reunion "makes me glad to be

'Twas said by one attending this among this group of fine folks—they make you feel so welcome.

On Wednesday afternoon, June 14, Mrs. Charlie Gay will entertain the Plantersville Home Demonstration Club.

Mrs. Letha Aden is retiring after 42 years of service as a teacher in the schools of Wilcox and Dade counties. Principal Joe Baskin presented Mrs. Aden with a gift, a very nice picture of this presentation came out in the "Selma Times Journal." Mrs. Aden taught two years in Wilcox and the remainder in Dallas County; 13 years at Dallas County High at Plantersville. She was principal at Sardis for 21 years, Orville 2, and Carlowville 2. At Plantersville she worked with the plays that were presented at the school and did an outstanding job. Mrs. Aden graduated from Judson and has attended the University of Alabama, Huntingdon and Montevallo Colleges. Mrs. Aden has friends by the score that will miss her, but they are wishing her a happy, happy retirement.

The Dallas County High School principal, Mr. Jos Baskin underwent surgery in a Selma hospital last week. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Historic Church
A Historic Church Fellowship Baptist Church, located five miles north of Valley Creek State Park in the Wildlife Management Area and 20 miles north of Selma, held its annual homecoming June 7.

It has been some 18 or 20 years since regular services were held at Fellowship on the first Sunday in June. Folks come from miles around, from points in Alabama and from neighboring states. Usually 800 to 1,000 are present, arriving at 9 a.m. and remaining until 4 p.m. Dr. W. R. Seymour, Birmingham evangelist, was reared in the community and holds the service. L. G. Walker, Supv. of Education in Perry County conducts Sunday School. A piano that belongs to the church is cared for by Mrs. H. D. Seymour, of Selma, and is taken to the church for the service.

About ten acres was deeded to the church. No one seems to know just when the church was built, but it is thought it was in the late 1700's. There is a large cemetery and many are the old headstones that reveal its long-time history. One stone shows that Robert G. Reid was born in 1784. There are names that are known in other communities, such as: Martin, Wright, Reedy, Peoples, Seymour, Hopkins, Friday, Hooks, Campbell, and others. A caretaker looks after the property during the year. Near the church is a spring that has been concreted and made into a baptismal pool. Built on slight slope, there is a space under the church at the back, several feet high. Here saddles and wagon seats were put out of the rain during service in the horse and buggy days. No buggies are left for miles around and the old church, alone, is reminiscent of a way of life that is past.

During the day a Testament was presented Mr. Semmie Hopkins for seeing after the cemetery, the building, making tables to spread dinner on, etc. Assisting Mr. S. Hopkins in his work is Mrs. Kay Jones, and he was presented a Testament also.

Gifts Presented
The youngest member, Mrs. Norma Jean Sherrer Nichols was presented a special Testament. The youngest child Tammy Cherie Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cherie Nichols was presented a special children's book. The oldest mother present, Mrs. Etta Rush, who is 83 years of age, presented flowers.

A Bible was presented Mrs. Jennie Reedy, who was the oldest person present that had not been presented a Bible at this annual affair.

Choir of 50 Years Sings
One of the highlights of the day came when a choir organized 50 years ago, and of which S. F. Hopkins is chairman participated in the services.

It was an enjoyable day with such an abundance of all good things to eat.

Mrs. Mary Hicks and Miss Taber Atchison visited Mrs. Dessie Lawrence and Mrs. Billy Kennington in their new home at Lawley last Wednesday. They also visited Tabernacle Church and cemetery while there. Mrs. Hicks was once a member of this church, and nearly all of her loved ones are buried here. Mrs. Hicks attended this church during her early life, but after her marriage she joined the Rehobeth Baptist church at Lawley where her husband was a member.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Weaver returned to the Veteran's Hospital in Birmingham, Tuesday morning for his regular check-up. Mr. Weaver has not been doing too well recently.

PATTERSON SAYS "NO" TO PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Governor John Patterson in Montgomery today made the following statement about Senate Bill 230, introduced by Senators Dumas and Andrews last Friday in the Alabama Legislature:

"Birmingham Senator Larry Dumas and black - better 'Snag' Andrews introduced a bill in the Legislature last Friday proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Alabama to take away the power of the State to levy and collect ad valorem taxes for the support of state agencies and schools. I was shocked to learn that such a piece of legislation had been introduced and I am certain that several of the other senators, namely, Senator Cofor of Mobile; Senator Wyatt of Ashville; Senator Wilson of Havana; Senator Givhan of Safford; Senator Archer of Huntsville; Senator Elders of Demopolis; Senator Clark of Eufaula; Senator Colson of E. Deposit; Senator Leonard of Talladega; Senator Roberts of Fayette; Senator Crawford of Marion and Senator Goffrey of James town, who signed the bill along with Dumas and Andrews, were not sufficiently informed of the grave consequences that such a bill would bring to the people of this state, if passed."

"The State of Alabama collects each year in ad valorem taxes for State use approximately 16 1/2 million dollars. Of the total amount of 16 1/2 million dollars collected each year, 2 1/2 million dollars goes to pay the widows of Confederate veterans and old age pensioners, 6 million dollars goes into the General Fund to support the various state departments and services rendered to the people of the state and 7 1/2 million goes to the schools."

USE extreme caution and follow manufacturer's instructions when using pesticides.

YOUR Health

POLIO INFECTION

Some contradictory facts there is less likelihood of polio infection in areas where sanitary and hygienic conditions are less advanced. Most persons over 15 years of age have had a slight attack of polio without ever knowing it. This produces antibodies - in the blood which held to resist paralytic polio. In areas of high infection, immunity is acquired in the youngest age groups.

So, by school age most children of such communities have acquired effective resistance. But where hygienic conditions are first-rate, infection may be delayed and immunity may not be acquired until much later in life. Under such conditions, poliomyelitis becomes increasingly common in persons of school age and older. In its epidemic form, poliomyelitis has been in many ways a by-product of the higher living standards and public health progress of recent years. With the advent of the Salk vaccine which, when properly administered, is from 60 to 90 per cent effective, the picture has improved.

During the 1958 Detroit epidemic of polio, the paralytic cases were concentrated among preschool children in the areas of poorest living conditions, greatest crowding, most abject poverty, and lowest level of polio immunization. Medical progress culminated in the Salk vaccine has reduced polio to its lowest levels in many years. Unfortunately, with this epochal preventive measure available to all, everyone does not avail himself of it.

The conquest of paralytic poliomyelitis is believed possible through immunization of all persons under 40 years of age. From 1950 through 1954, the polio rate in this country averaged 25 per 100,000 population; since the Salk vaccine it has dropped to 3 1/2 per 100,000.

IN 1940 U. S. farmers averaged one tractor for every four farms and had two work animals per farm.

SUMMER ACTIVITIES AT JEMISON

Mrs. Geo. Naish Cofor - Mims

Miss Doris Marie Cofor and Jimmy Mims were united in marriage at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the Jemison Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William (Bill) F. Cofor; Mrs. Irene Mims and the late Marion Mims of Clanton.

Standards of white gladioli were at each side of the altar, flanked by wrought iron candelabra holding white candles.

Miss Ann Guy accompanied Miss Gloria Robinson, cousin of the groom, when she sang. Through the Years Miss Guy played the wedding marches.

Candles were lighted by Miss Rosa Cofor, sister of the bride. She was wearing a white linen sheath.

The couple marched down the aisle and were met at the altar by Rev. Louis Brasher, who performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was wearing a gown of white starched lace, shrug jacket over blue offset. Heavy lace covered the neck line and formed a cummerbund laced with blue skirt. She used a white half hat of flowers and her corsage was a purple-throated orchid.

Only members of the two families were present.

Mrs. McNeill Hostess

Mrs. Irbly McNeill was hostess to Circle One of WMU at her home Monday afternoon at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Herman Shirley, Circle Chairman, called the meeting to order.

Mrs. C. R. Peterson was in charge of the program. Fastening Youth Organizations of WMU.

Mrs. George Naish read the scriptures: Deut. 6:7, Prov. 22:6, II Cor. 12:14, Eph. 6:4, I Tim. 3:4 and Titus 2:4, then led in prayer.

Mrs. S. H. Beard, Prayer Chairman of Chilton-Unity WMU Association, was present and spoke to the Circle. She suggested forming an Intercessory prayer league and having family prayer.

Mrs. Louis Brasher, Intermediate GA Counselor, told of the requirements for making steps in this group.

Mrs. V. O. Lenoir, Sunbeam Counselor, gave a report of her work. Her little daughter, Janelle, gave the Sunbeam Watchword and Rally Cry.

Mrs. Eula Cost, WMU president presided for Day of Prayer for State Missions, June 18th.

Mrs. H. C. Reeves made a talk on YWA and displayed a poster she used to emphasize the emblem.

The hostess served sandwiches, cake and cold drinks.

Training Union Program

The Junior group presented the open assembly program Sunday night for Training Union.

Song, The Light of the World is Jesus.

The center of interest was a poster of a rainbow, at each end of rainbow were flowers and small children pictured. The topic, God's Beautiful World. A trio, Richard Guy, Harry Hale and Michael Chandler sang, Somebody Touched Me.

Mr. W. J. Stephens welcomed everyone, then read verses from Proverbs and Eccl. Mr. William Vines led in prayer.

These members read Scriptures: Joe Brasher, Ste Stephens, Harry Hale, Sidney Chandler, Patricia Vines, Mickey Crowson and Michael Chandler.

Sunday School Program

All departments of the Sunday School of the Baptist Church met in Open Assembly Sunday morning.

Mr. William Vines, supt., welcomed all. The topic for talks, Masterpiece of Creation, - Man.

Mr. J. A. Chandler read Gen. 1:27, 2:2 and 5:1, showing the origin of man.

Mr. W. J. Stephens told of the nature of the created.

The Brotherhood Quartet sang, God's love is Real to Me.

Recent Bride Honored

One of the loveliest social events of the season was Sunday afternoon, when Miss Velma Price entertained at a tea shower honoring Mrs. Kelly Don Ellison, nee Lois Ann Woodley.

The home was made more attractive with bouquets of orchid dahlias.

Miss Price greeted the guests and presented the receiving line, Mrs. Sam Woodley, the honoree and Mrs. Henry Ellison, mother of the groom.

Miss Rosa Cofor registered the guests. Miss Martha Jo Willis, Miss Evelyn Porter and Miss Linda Burnette, young friends of the honoree assisted in the dining room.

Two From Isabella Received FFA Degrees

The tea table, lace covered, was set with an arrangement of pink snapdragons and ferns. The color scheme of pink and green was further accented in the punch and individual embossed cakes.

Hostess for the tea with Miss Price, Mrs. J. J. Reeves, S. W. Cost, Charles Burnette, R. C. Peterson, Jim Woodley, Raymond Woodley, B. C. Lenoir and Bonnie Willis.

There were many lovely and useful gifts displayed.

Coming and Going

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Powell of Birmingham spent Saturday with her family, the K. V. Lowrys'. Her brother, Robert returned home with them, having spent a week!

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny McKinney and Paul of Clanton spent Sunday with her mother and brother, Mrs. A. C. Branton and Larry.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Duran and little son Mike of Huntsville were recent guests of her parents, the Elton Cobbs.

Velera Nell Pate spent the week of May 24th in Montgomery with her aunt, Miss Roma Lee Pate, Gerald Pate spent the week of June 1st with her. Mr. J. E. Pate spent last week here with his son and family, the Lester Pates.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Glass spent a very pleasant vacation in New Orleans, visiting her sister, Mrs. Louis F. Perre and family. They toured French Quarters, spent Memorial Day at Pontchartrain Beach, visited Chalmet Battle Ground and National cemetery, spent one day fishing in Jordan River. On returning they crossed Lake Pontchartrain in 24 miles.

Sunday evening guests of the Milton Crowsons were Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Wells, Larry and Charles.

One member from the Isabella FFA chapter attended the State Convention of Future Farmers of America held in Auburn on June 4, 5, and 6.

Jimmy Nabors and James Higgins received their State Farmer Degrees, the highest FFA award a member can receive on the state level. The award is based primarily upon the supervised farming program conducted by an FFA member while taking vocational agriculture. Also considered is the leadership activities in which the member participates while taking high school vocational agriculture.

Jimmy Nabors represented the local chapter as official delegate for the Isabella FFA chapter.

Both boys receiving this State Farmer Degree had very successful Supervised Farming programs. Their projects netted them over $500, which is a requirement for this degree. Jimmy Nabors in his first year of agriculture carried 1 acre of cotton, 2 acres of cotton and 1 beef calf as his productive projects. His second year he carried 2 acres of cotton, 1 acre of corn, and 1 beef calf. His third year he is carrying 6 acres of corn and 1 sow. All these projects were carried out well, plus his improvement projects and supplementary practices. He is also active in the community and school affairs.

James Higgins in his first year of agriculture carried 2 acres of cotton, 1 acre of corn, 1 market hog and 1 acre of watermelons as his productive projects. His second year he carried 1 acre of corn, 4 acres of cotton. His third year he has 3 acres of corn, and 4 acres of cotton as his projects. James carried a large number of improvement projects which helped to increase the values of their farm plus supplementary practices that gave him experience in the different skills of agriculture. James is a very active community and school worker.

Jimmy Nabors is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Nabors. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Higgins, Sr.

The boys wish to thank their parents for their help in obtaining this FFA award. They also wish to thank Mr. Gordon Conway, farm agriculture teacher at Isabella, who was instrumental in giving them advice in this program.

FARM investment in the next 20 years may go as high as $500,000 for some key enterprises.

PASTURES should be sprayed with 2-4-D when weeds are growing fast. One pound of 2-4 - D per acre in about 200 gallons of water will control litterweed, dog fennel, marsh elder, and most other broadleaf weeds.

USE a sanitizer in your wash.

SO-CALLED minor elements include iron, zinc, copper, manganese, molybdenum, and nine. These are usually needed in small quantities.

ESSENTIAL SERVICE CLASSIFIED WITH LUXURY

WE Don't think that an essential service like your Telephone Service should bear an Excise Tax at the same rate as applied to luxury items, such as furs, night club checks, and jewelry! Do YOU?

That's what the 10% Federal Excise Tax on your Telephone Service amounts to!

Excise taxes on telephone service were placed and increased during World War II for two reasons:

1. To raise money for our War effort, and
2. To discourage the use of Telephone Service at a time when the Defense effort needed so much of this commodity.

Neither of these conditions exist today - the War has been ended for over 12 years, and today we've got available all the service anyone can want!

THE GIRL who married dear old dad has just had her "day" and now it's almost time for dear old dad himself. Father's Day, in case it's slipped your mind, is Sunday, June 23. If you're like a lot of people, you sometimes run out of ideas as to what to give him. Well, here's a thought. Why not give dad something that'll bring him pleasure all year long? An Extension phone of his very own right where he wants it. By his bed, in his den or perhaps his workshop. There's a wide choice of colors to match any room. And extension phones cost only pennies a day.

FLAGMAKERS' HEADACHE! I don't think I'd care to be a flagmaker these days. No sooner does Alaska change our flag, than along comes Hawaii! However, 50 stars won't become official until the Fourth of July following the admission of Hawaii as a state. Meantime, flagmakers hope the switch won't come until July 4, 1960, giving the industry a year to dispose of quite a few outmoded flags! You see, no U. S. flag is ever legally outdated. Forty-eight-star, forty-nine-star, even Civil War flags can be flown until they wear out.

No rest for this Chevy... round the clock the engine never stops!

At Washington's bustling National Airport, Allied Aviation Fueling counts on its radio-equipped Chevy to get crews and tank trucks to the right planes at just the right time. Aside from occasional time out for the usual service, its Thrift-master 6-cylinder engine has been running 24 hours a day for the past 3 months!

Once you've got that kind of endurance working you don't worry much about lost job time. Breakdowns go out of style the day your Chevy goes into action.

The fact is, Chevrolet trucks are dead set on dropping the word "downtime" right out of the English language. And they just might, if precision engineering and top-quality materials have anything to say about it. Chevy trucks are put together to stay together-incorporating the most advanced chassis developments, the most efficient 6-cylinder and V8 engine designs. They're built to last, built to keep Chevrolet's hard-earned reputation for reliability flying high.

Going into the real heart of Chevrolet advantages is where your dealer comes in. He'll show you, in feature after feature, that you can't buy more truck dependability - in any weight class - at any price.

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!

CAR LIFE

THE BEST CAR BUY IN THE U.S.A.

After testing all cars, the editors of CAR LIFE, America's foremost motoring magazine, chose

RAMBLER

HERE'S WHY: "Rambler is a well-made, efficiently designed, comfortable car with outstanding structural strength and rigidity, smooth, quiet economical operation, outstanding maneuverability in traffic and parking, satisfactory roadability, ride and handling, competitive performance, good operating economy and very significantly low ownership costs—in short, it's our choice for overall best buy among U.S. cars."

COST: "... has a lower initial price, and on the basis of present figures will retain a greater percentage of its original cost than any other car anywhere near its price."

STYLING: "... has developed in just three years into one of the most attractive cars on the road."

BODY DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION: "Most evident is the solidity of the unit-construction body. On the road there is never a trace of annoying body shake or vibration."

INTERIOR: "... an extremely comfortable car for all six passengers because the centers of both front and rear seats are not crammed down close to the transmission housing and driveshaft tunnel."

HANDLING AND ROADABILITY: "... amazingly responsive and maneuverable at moderate speeds."

QUALITY: "... gets high marks in quality of manufacture."

Your Rambler dealer will be glad to give you a reprint of the complete article.

To be held June 23, 1959

Notice is hereby given that the County Board of Education of Chilton County, Alabama, will sell at Public sale on sealed bids $40,000 principal amount of bearer, coupon Capital Outlay School Warrants. The Warrants will be of the denomination of $1,000 each, will be dated February 1, 1959, and will mature on February 1 in years and amounts as follows: $3,000 in each of the years 1960 and 1961; $4,000 in each of the years 1962 to 1967, inclusive; and $5,000 in each of the years 1968 and 1969; subject, however, to prior redemption at the option of the Board on February 1, 1964, or any semiannual interest payment date thereafter, at par plus accrued interest, plus a redemption premium of one per cent of the principal amount for each year or fraction of a year from the stated redemption date to the maturity date of the Warrants to be redeemed, but not exceeding one year's interest thereon, after notice of such redemption given by publication one time, not less than thirty days before the redemption date. In a newspaper published or circulated in Chilton County, and also in a daily newspaper published in Montgomery or Birmingham, Alabama.

The Board will designate as the place of payment of the Warrants and coupons such bank as the successful bidder may designate, subject to approval of such bank as a suitable place of payment by the State Superintendent of Education.

The Warrants will be preferred claims against and payable solely from the proceeds of a special three-mill County school tax. Bidders are invited to name the rate or rates of interest that the Warrants are to bear, and such interest will be payable semiannually on the first days of February and August in each year, first interest payable August 1, 1959. Not more than two interest rates shall be named, and only one interest rate shall be named for Warrants maturing in any one year. No bid of less than 99% of par will be considered. Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for $800.00. All bids and certified checks must be submitted to the County Board of Education of Chilton County at the office of the County Superintendent of Education of Chilton County, in the City of Clanton, Alabama, not later than 2:00 o'clock P.M. Central Standard Time, on the 23rd day of June, 1959, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened. All certified checks will be returned except that of the successful bidder, which shall be retained by the Board to assure his acceptance of and payment for the Warrants. The Warrants will be delivered within 20 days after the date of the sale. The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

The Board will furnish, at its expense, the unconditional approval legal opinion of Dumas, O'Neal & Hayes, bond attorneys, Birmingham, Alabama, and printed Warrants.

S. S. BENEFITS HOW THEY EFFECT YOU

"YOU don't have to stop work entirely in order to draw social security benefits," Carl Dahm, manager of the Birmingham Social Security District Office, states. "Many older workers are losing benefits because they do not understand the retirement provision of the law."

Mr. Dahm, explained that workers who have reached retirement age (62 for women and 65 for men) and who are fully insured under the program may receive benefits for all months in a year if their earnings do not exceed $1200. They are considered to be fully retired under the Social Security Law. Workers who earn over $1200 but less than $2080 may receive benefits for some months of the year. They are considered to be partially retired and lose one month's benefit for each unit of $80 that they earn in excess of $1200. For example, a worker who earns $1600 is eligible to receive social security benefits for seven months of the year provided he is over retirement age and fully insured during the entire year.

"Even if you earn over $2080, you can still get payments for months you don't work," explained Mr. Dahm. A benefit payment can be made for any month you neither work for wages of more than $100 nor render substantial services in self-employment. Income you may have from insurance or investments is not counted as earnings for social security purposes. After age 72, you may receive payments regardless of how much you earn.

LOAN TO LAYMEN AT HOWARD

THE Larry Strickland Memorial Fund has been established for loans to laymen at Howard College in Birmingham preparing for full-time religious educational work.

Young Strickland, student at Howard College, was killed in an automobile accident, March 29, 1959. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Strickland. Henry Strickland is associate in Alabama Baptist Sunday School Department in Montgomery.

Eligible students will be Protestant laymen dedicated to full-time religious work, with at least one year of college work. Loans, with an agreed rate of interest, will be repaid within a year after the student has discontinued his education.

The principal of the fund may be increased by additional gifts sent to the Baptist Foundation of Alabama, P. O. Box 570, Montgomery 2, Alabama.

FARM fires start from: defective chimneys; sparks on combustible roofs; inadequate lightning protection; carelessness with matches; spontaneous ignition of stored crops; improper use of gasoline and kerosene; unsafe stoves and furnaces; and misuse of electricity and appliances.

In order to receive payments, you must get in touch with your social security office and file an application. The address of the office that services this area is located at 1710 First Avenue, North in Birmingham, Alabama.

Fast Action By Clanton Fire Department Averts Possible Store Damage

TUESDAY afternoon about 4 o'clock the City fire department was called to answer an alarm on busy highway 31 right in the center of Clanton.

The fire was blazing in a 1957 International Propane gas truck owned by Suburban Gas Company of Clanton.

According to Johnny Vines, manager of the local branch this is what happened:

Leonard DeVaughn, driver of the truck parked in the alley between Suburban and The Fashion Shop. When he stopped he said he noticed a sizzling sound like a tire going down. Suddenly a "who-o-sh" was heard and the engine of the truck broke into flames. DeVaughn rushed into the store and called the fire department.

Johnny Vines in an interview Wednesday morning stated that they appreciated very much the prompt action of the fire department. Damage was estimated by him at around $400 or $500 depending on extent of damage to the truck engine. He also stated that there was no danger of an explosion from the truck under the circumstances but that everybody acted wisely in keeping a safe distance.

People were clearing out of that area post-haste, but we again commend the Clanton Fire Department for their very prompt converging on the scene and their most efficient way of handling the emergency. Widespread damage that could have resulted was put down by action and readiness of the volunteer firemen.

Cecil Deavers Killed In Freak Accident Sat.

LATE Saturday night Cecil Deavers was killed by a bullet from a 30-30 rifle in the driveway of his home at his place of business on Highway 82 west of Maplesville.

He had some trouble with some customers and had got his rifle.

Deavers operated Woody's Truck Stop and according to the Sheriff's office had the rifle in the car with him at the time and they are of the opinion the death was accidental from evidence gathered at the scene of the tragedy.

The 1956 Ford he was in at the time has been brought to Stokes Chevrolet Company for further investigation and examination.

He is survived by a wife and two children.

ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

GOD MAKES THE DIFFERENCE

Arnold Raymond Johnson was born in Huntington Station, Long Island, New York, September 20, 1940.

His temples were crushed and his head was misshapen. There was a large lump on the back of his head.

He weighed only 4 1/2 pounds and had to be kept in an incubator for nearly 20 days. People traveled many miles to see this "incubator baby," who wasn't given much chance to live.

A blood clot at birth caused damage to the child's optic nerves. The future of this child certainly didn't look very bright.

At the age of seven months, Arnold got hold of a bottle of liquid and spilled it up his nostrils. His father sucked on the child's nose and kept him in a homemade oxygen tent until he revived.

When the baby was eleven months old, a gasoline kitchen stove exploded. The baby, in a walker, was headed toward the kitchen but didn't quite get there before the explosion. Although his mother was thrown across the room, the baby was only tipped out of his walker.

At the age of two, Arnold got convulsions after someone gave him a piece of chocolate candy to eat. The candy apparently went down the wrong pipe. Arnold's father, carrying the child, ran for blocks for a doctor, who wasn't there. At the doctor's office, Ar-was revived by his father who administered artificial respiration for 20 minutes.

When in the first grade, Arnold was sent home by his teacher who reported that he had a terrible throwing arm. He could not see his own outstretched hands, must have been blackboard at school.

After reading all this, no doubt it is possible to give up Arnold Raymond Johnson as a lost cause. But, consider this:

Today he is heavyweight wrestling champion of his high school. The coach wants him out for football because he has a "terrible throwing arm." He is second best in the shot-put, outstanding in the javelin, and excels in just about any sport you can name. In addition to his rugged 180 pounds and tremendous shoulders, he is six feet two inches in height, has light blue eyes, gold blond hair and a very fair complexion. He is popular with his fellow teen-agers, boys and girls alike.

How is this possible? It is possible because with God all things are possible. Nothing is too hard for the Lord. God makes the difference. God healed Arnold Raymond Johnson January 14, 1951, at our Crusade in St. Nicholas Arena in New York City.

God was Arnold Raymond Johnson's only hope. God did not fail him, "for he is faithful that promised."

talking to him. A little ways down street the little girl turned to her granddaddy and said: "What did you get that man in jail for?"

ELLOW called the police, after night on the town, to report his steering wheel to his car had been stolen. An hour later he received a call from the police telling him that it wasn't his. He had found the steering wheel. It was just where he supposed to be in the front of the car. They asked him if he had written so long to

BAPTISTS GATHERING AT GLORIETA

THE Glorieta Baptist Assembly bringing thousands of visitors from about 30 states to New Mexico opened Thursday in the Sangre de Crista mountains south-east of Santa Fe.

Some 100 Baptist church leaders from 27 states were on hand for the first week of the 12-week summer conference. The assembly continues through August 26.

The present training union week will be held for each of the next three weeks and attendance is expected to increase to 1200 and then 1300. Thereafter, attendance will be about 1300 each week.

Glorieta is 18 miles south - east of Santa Fe on U.S. 65. The campus occupies 1300 acres. The campus for nearly two miles along the highway.

Attending the first training union week conference are
Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Adams, Mil-

the First Baptist Church of Clanton.
Also, representing the First Baptist Church of Clanton on the summer staff at Glorieta are Misses Janice Wood and Elizabeth Mims.

fingers all the time. The doctor asked him why he did this. He told the doctor he did it to keep man. "It works pretty good, doesn't it?"

SOFTBALL - LOCAL TEAM LOSES TO PEPSI COLA

The Standard Oil of Clanton
Softball Team lost a doubleheader to the State Champions, Pepsi Cola of Tuscaloosa last Saturday night at the City Park. In the first game Clanton lost 2 to 0 while Paul Morrison pitching for Pepsi Cola striking out 14 men and only faced 23 men in 7 innings giving up one hit and walking one man. Don Merritt faced 31 men for Clanton giving up 2 hits and two runs.

Starting one the mound for Pepsi the second game was Wilson and was replaced by Morrison in the last 2 innings. These two pitches faced 33 Clanton men giving up 5 hits and 3 runs. Carl Guin pitching for Clanton gave up 3 hits and 5 runs.

Lucky Bucks Highlight Chilton Trade Days

Peaches...peaches...and more peaches!

Everybody's talking about peaches. THAT time is here again.

It's Chilton County Peach-Trade Days Celebration time and some big things are in store for persons in the county.

Big Day, Saturday 27

The big day will be Saturday,
June 27, but there is still plenty of time to take part in celebration events.

For instance, voting has just begun in Clanton for the 1959 Peach Queen.

Between now and June 27 persons buying goods at participating stores will receive Prize Bucks, which are good for many valuable prizes as well as 10 points each for a candidate for peach queen.

Popular Vote

The 1959 Peach Queen, being chosen by popular vote for the first time, will be crowned Saturday afternoon, June 27, for the stage of Happy Hal Burns' Rambling Ranch Studio, which will be located at Shelton Motors in Clanton.

Apparently it will take an all-night job to count the votes Friday, June 26, because there are 50,000 ballots out in Jemison,
Thorsby and Clanton.

Hurry Girls

Any girl 16 years of age or older and single is eligible. All she needs to do is get her friends to write her name on the back of the stub of one of the Prize Bucks and drop it in the ballot box.

The girl with the most votes will win and will fly the winning back-et of peaches to Washington, as has been the custom in past peach celebrations.

invited to attend.

FEDERAL - EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The Fifth U. S. Civil Service Regional Office is accepting applications for general supply officer at $4980 to $7030 and Messenger at $2960 to $3255 a year. Applications for Messenger will be accepted from Veterans only as competition in this examination is restricted by law to Veterans.

Applications for General Supply Officer must be received or postmarked by July 2, 1959, and will be graded on the basis of experience or a combination of experience and education. A written test is required for Messenger and applications must be filed by July 13, 1959.

Persons interested in these positions may get application forms or information as to where such forms are available at the local Post Office.

5 POLIO CASES; NONE VACCINATED

TWO cases of polio reported during the week ending June 6 brought this year's total to five.
The State Health Department said that five cases had occurred during the same period last year.

Four of the 1959 cases are paralytic. None of the victims, the non-paralytic case included, had received Salk vaccine. Ages of the victims were listed as five months, 19 months, four years and 25 years,
two being four year olds.

Two of the 1959 cases have occurred in Walker County, two in Mobile and one in Calhoun.

THE OTHER GUY --

ACCIDENTS killed 655 "other guys" during the Fourth of July last year.

Three hundred and seventy "other guys" died in traffic, 192 by drowning and 93 in miscellaneous accidents.

Not one of those 655 thought an accident could or would happen to him.

The "other guy" is all of us. No one is immune from accidents. Or rather, everyone is immune to the extent of his own caution or common sense.

This Fourth of July -- like last year's -- will be a three-day weekend holiday for millions of Americans. The National Safety Council has warned that motorists will clog highways and funseekers will jam parks, lakes and picnic grounds. The time will be ripe for some kind of accident.

Don't you be one of the "other guys" this Independence Day.

TAXES BE HANGED --

NOW they're trying to hang a 3% tax on forms of advertising. It not only seems unconstitutional it seems downright unfair. We speak for the weekly newspaper when we say that there is no fairer pricing in any line of business than that of the weekly press and we fail to see the purpose of the Legislature in choosing that particular field for a 3% tax. Since subsidies, grants, etc. are so popular in this day and time we'd like to propose a few of those thrown in the direction of the hometown press rather than forever and eternally battering them with additional, infernal, unjustified and impractical taxes and "extra" charges. No, the weekly press doesn't want any handouts from the government, it understands fully what they mean; it just wants a fair shake in its unceasing efforts to inform and represent it's people.

WILL WE OR WON'T WE --

THE FOURTH of July is but a few days away. Ever since we can remember there has been a harangue over whether or not the stores will close, open or do business on the Fourth of July.

It is pertinent, we think, to the good of the business community, that we have a definite understanding about this closing-opening stalemate. Shall we all open and do business? Should we all close and go fishing or picknicking? Or should we all do the one we think best for our business? Clanton, as well as other towns in the County has always had a sore spot concerning "competitive opening and closing".

It is the duty of the merchants and the Chambers of Commerce to decide on this matter and announce their decision to the buying public before the Fourth is upon us. We await some action!

PEACH Packing Beauty -- Helen Pate, of Randolph Rt. 1, is one of the nominees for 1959 Chilton County Peach Queen. Miss Pate is employed as a packer at A. D. Headley Peach Farm during the packing season. The queen's contest is being held in connection with the 1959 Chilton County Peach-Trade Day Celebration. The winner will be announced at Clanton Saturday, June 27.

JUST A LITTLE HINT --

SUNDAY is Father's Day all across the land. The proverbial breadwinner takes his rightful place in the family circle on this, his day of days and is honored by every member of his "tribe".

It would be enjoyable as well as appropriate if the good things that are hoped and done this Sunday would somehow have a lasting effect throughout the rest of the year.

Anyway, treat Dad right come Sunday because as sure as the Sun rises you'll be asking for a helping hand or a handout come Monday. Happy Father's Day!

"INQUIRE BEFORE YOU RETIRE" SIR

One of the goals of the Social Security Administration is to pay benefits as promptly as possible to those persons entitled to payments. Carl Dahm, manager of the Birmingham office stated today that it is necessary for the person claiming benefits to make inquiry for payments at his local social security office. A worker should inquire for payments before he retires if he knows he will retire on a certain date. This will give the Social Security Administration and the person claiming benefits time to get the information and evidence together to establish his rights to the payment before the time his first check is due.

Generally, evidence will be required to prove the age of the retired person and the age of his wife. This may be a birth certificate or other record of age that is old and reliable. Also, evidence of the worker's earnings in the taxable year that ended before he plans to retire is necessary. This may be a copy of the income tax return for self-employed persons or the W-2 forms for wage earners.

Dahm also stressed that for prompt payment of your first Social Security check, inquire before you retire at your Birmingham social security office.

MR. BROWN IS BURIED AT VERBENA

Mr. Samuel George (Ell) Brown of Rt. 5, Clanton, Ala., age 80 years died at the Chilton County Hospital on June 11 at 11:32 a.m.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN
Congressman, 6th District

Funds for five Alabama waterway projects were included in the Public Works Appropriations Bill passed by the House of Representatives last week.

As approved by the House, the bill carries funds for the Columbia, Jackson, Holt and Walter F. George Locks and Dams, in addition to an appropriation for flood control purposes near Montgomery.

For the Holt Lock and Dam, which is to be located on the Warrior River near Tuscaloosa, the bill includes $150,000 for advanced planning. The measure also earmarks $8,000,000 for the Jackson Lock and Dam, one of the vital links in the development of the Warrior-Tombigbee Waterway.

Millers Ferry Project
A non-budgeted item of $200,000 for advanced planning of the proposed Millers Ferry Lock and Dam on the Alabama River, requested by the Alabama Congressional Delegation, was not included in the House bill. We are hopeful, however, it will be added by the Senate. If so, every effort will be made to retain it when the bill goes to a conference committee.

Total Projects
The House approved Public Works Appropriation Bill contains a total of $1.17 billion for planning, construction and operation of 30 flood control, navigation, and reclamation projects across the nation.

An attempt to send the measure back to the Appropriations Committee with instructions to cut each item by five per cent failed to pass the House on a vote of 149 to 251. On final passage, the bill was approved overwhelmingly with only 20 negative votes.

Although the President has voiced strong opposition to the beginning of any new public works projects, the House measure provides funds for the construction or planning of 31 new starts.

Water Pollution Control
Another bill pertaining to the water resources of our nation was also approved by the House of Representatives last week. This measure, known as the Water Pollution Control Bill, provides funding for a nation-wide pollution control program.

Under the program, grants are made to assist municipalities in the construction of waste-treatment facilities to prevent the discharge of untreated sewage into our rivers and streams. During the two years the program has been in operation, it has resulted in construction which is expected to clean up approximately 14,000 miles of streams throughout the United States.

The House-approved measure raises the maximum federal grants for sewage plants in any one fiscal year from $50 million to $100 million and increases the ceiling for the total program from $500 million to $1 billion. In addition, the maximum federal contribution to any one sewage plant is raised from 30% of the construction cost or $250,000, whichever is smaller, to 30% or $500,000.

Texas Newsmen Select Chilton County News One of Alabama's Top Weeklies

IN COMMUNITY SERVICE AND AID TO EDUCATION

DAUPHIN ISLAND, ALA., June 12--Thirty-two Alabama weekly newspapers received awards for excellence in a number of phases of journalism at the Alabama Press Association's annual awards banquet here tonight.

Sponsored by the Alabama Press Assn., the contest was judged by Texas newspapermen who selected winners in nine categories of the competition.

Alabama publishers submitted more than 200 entries as they competed for awards for general excellence, best editorial, best original column, best use of illustrative material, community service, best typography and makeup, best sport or news photo, best news story, and best service to education.

Newspapers were divided into two divisions according to population. Division A was open to newspapers in municipalities with a population of under 3,500 and Division B to weeklies in municipalities with a population of more than 3,500. Daily newspapers were not eligible.

Announcement of the winners kept secret until tonight--highlighted the three-day summer convention of Alabama newspaper publishers and persons associated with the industry.

Many publishers of winning papers were on hand to receive their awards in person. Handsome bronze plaques sponsored by daily newspapers and associate members of the A.P.A. went to all first place winners.

The awards by categories went out as follows:
GENERAL EXCELLENCE, Div. A -- Moulton Advertiser, first; Union Springs Herald, second; Washington County News, Clanton, third; Div. B -- Lee County Bulletin, Auburn, first; Enterprise Ledger, second; Sylacauga Advance, third.

BEST ORIGINAL COLUMN, Div. A -- Thomasville Times, for its "Rambling Roses and Flying Bricks" column, first place; Monroe Journal, Mopreoville, "From the Horse's Mouth", second; Sumter County Journal, York, "Hilites", third.

On Sunday the Durwood Teels, the Jakw Teels, Mr. Morris Moates and other members of his family visited him.

Mrs. J. A. Lawrence and Mrs. G. H. Taylor took the Chevrolet of Chilton County High School to Montgomery on Monday, to be fitted for their Fall outfits. They are: Joyce Lawrence, Mary Kate Tucker, Roba Sue Coggins, Joan Lockhart, Leland Baker, Glenda Sue Coggins, James Harold DeLoach and Jimmy Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Tingle and family are moving to Atlanta where they will make their home. All of their many friends in Clanton and Chilton County regret losing them very much but wish for them much happiness and success in their new surroundings.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tucker, Benjie and Terrie and Mr. and Mrs. James Andrews visited Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Payne in Montgomery on last Saturday.

Rev. Griffin Lloyd left Monday of this week for Atlanta where he is attending the E. Stanley Jones Workshop on Communications at the Protestant Radio and TV Center at Emory University.

We are happy to have Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Lancaster living in Clanton and we sincerely regret to report that he is critically ill in the local hospital.

We welcome to Clanton Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Green, they have moved here from New Orleans and he is employed with Southern Bell Telephone Company.

Little Miss Nikki Stokes is visiting her grandmother in Birmingham.

Misses Minnie Mae Swanner and Willie Hancock spent the long week end in Jacksonville, Fla., visiting Miss Pat Collins.

Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Earl Stringfellow and daughter, Judy from Harlingen, Tex., are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ocie Mims and other relatives here. They will be here for two weeks.

Mrs. Willie Bean and Judy are leaving Thursday for St. Petersburg, Fla. where they will visit with Mrs. Lloyd Jones a daughter and sister and Mr. Jones.

Misses Kay, Lynn and Joyce Pedgett from Birmingham returned to their home Saturday after a two weeks visit with relatives in Clanton.

SCHEDULE FOR DOG VACCINATION

Dr. Thomas Hayes and Dr. L. J. Davis, announce that on days three, five, seven, nine, eleven, thirteen, fifteen, seventeen, nineteen, twenty-one, twenty-three, twenty-five, twenty-seven, twenty-nine, and thirty-one, dogs of age and older are required by law to be vaccinated against rabies. We have had one case of rabies in the County the past month. It should be a personal interest to each individual to have his dog vaccinated. Below is a list of places where the law will be held.

The price will be $1.00 per dog until September 1st, when it will be $2.00. Local Vets ask that you meet at your most convenient location.

Rabies Clinics will be held the remainder of this month at places and times indicated below.

NOTICE OF SALE OF SCHOOL WARRANTS
To be held June 23, 1959
Notice is hereby given that the County Board of Education of Chilton County, Alabama, will sell at Public sale on sealed bids $40,000 principal amount of bearer, coupon Capital Outlay School Warrants. The Warrants will be of the denomination of $1,000 each, will be dated February 1, 1959, and will mature on February 1 in years and amounts as follows: $3,000 in each of the years 1960 and 1961; $4,000 in each of the years 1962 to 1967, inclusive; and $5,000 in each of the years 1968 and 1969; subject, however, to prior redemption at the option of the Board on February 1, 1964, or any semiannual interest payment date thereafter, at par plus accrued interest, plus a redemption premium of one per cent of the principal amount for each year or fraction of a year from the stated redemption date to the maturity date of the Warrants to be redeemed, but not exceeding one year's interest thereon, after notice of such redemption given by publication one time, not less than thirty days before the redemption date, in a newspaper published or circulated in Chilton County, and also in a daily newspaper published in Montgomery or Birmingham, Alabama.

The Board will designate as the place of payment of the Warrants and coupons such bank as the successful bidder may designate, subject to approval of such bank as a suitable place of payment by the State Superintendent of Education.

The Warrants will be preferred claims against and payable solely from the proceeds of a special three-mile County school tax. Bidders are invited to name the rate or rates of interest that the Warrants are to bear, and such interest will be payable semiannually on the first days of February and August in each year, first interest payable August 1, 1959. Not more than two interest rates shall be named, and only one interest rate shall be named for Warrants maturing in any one year. No bid at less than 99% of par will be considered. Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for $500.00. All bids and certified checks must be submitted to the County Board of Education of Chilton County at the office of the County Superintendent of Education of Chilton County, in the City of Clanton, Alabama, not later than 2:00 o'clock P.M., Central Standard Time, on the 23rd day of June, 1959, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened. All certified checks will be returned except that of the successful bidder, which shall be retained by the Board to assure his acceptance of and payment for the Warrants.

The Warrants will be delivered within 20 days after the date of the sale. The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

The Board will furnish, at its expense, the unconditional approving legal opinion of Dumas, O'Neal & Hayes, bond attorneys, Birmingham, Alabama, and printed Warrants.

gy, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Owen and Miss Frances Owen of Clanton, were a special and happy occasion for the Owen family. It was the first time they had all been together in three years. They had supper at Log Cabin Beach Saturday afternoon. Some of the very enjoyed swimming.

These names were omitted from the list of those attending the week reunion June 7th: Mrs. Durbin and Miss Louise of Clanton, Mr. and Mrs. David and M. of Isabella. We are glad to make this addition. Sorry they were omitted last week.

BIBLE SCHOOL CLOSED AT MACEDONIA

Bro. Williams brought two inspiring messages which were to encourage the revival. The week ended August 17, with Rev. W. H. Richardson in doing the preaching. Let each of us pray that our revival will truly to a revival of the spirit that each of us will be drawn closer to God and each other, that we will visit the lost of our community and help them to seek their Saviour.

Bible School Closes
Our Bible School closed Friday night with the commencement consisting of scriptures, songs, etc.

CROWNING THE LAST YEAR'S PEACH QUEEN

The former Miss Martha Bell queen of the peaches is shown crowning Miss Janice Wood in last year's Peach Queen ceremonies. Miss Bell is now Mrs. James Jones. We didn't get the names of the other ladies who seem to be members of the Queen's Court but they are a mighty fair proof that Chilton County girls are prettier than her peaches.

that the children had learned during the week. Display of articles made enabled the parents to see all the children's handwork. There was an average of $8 present. Mr. Briggs Lee Gibson, principal Rev. Williams taught the book of John to the adults.

Friday afternoon the Juniors and Intermediates were entertained with an ice cream party by their teachers, Mrs. Emma Ward, Mrs. Fronzelle Langston, Mrs. Lee Rhodde and Mrs. Proctor Davenport at the home of Mrs. Davenport.

MARBURY FFA GOES DEEP-SEA FISHING

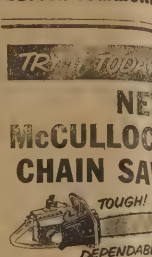

YES, boys we did catch them, and had fun doing it. After camping, cooking and eating, with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Manning supervising, in the Florida Girl Motel, some of us went fishing in some waters near Destin, Fla., with coach Lester Horn. Inca on the morning of May 26th, after little sleep, we boarded the Florida Girl boat.

It seemed we would never reach the fishing point, but after 2 1/2 hours and about 40 miles out, we wiggled out hooks and started catching them. Sleepy eyed, C. J. Riobon pulled the largest eatable fish. The fish was a 15 pound red grouper. Cecil Fisher caught his part of the fish, but the good and bad part of it was he said "he didn't fish. Catching the largest number of fish was Bill Abbott and Ross Peek, because Bill and Ross were fishing while some of the other boys were sleeping, and enjoying the sea breeze and ocean waves. Mr. Manning and Coach Horn pulled in some nice red snappers.

We thank Mr. and Mrs. Manning and Coach Horn for taking us deep sea fishing.

Foods of the Future

PUSH BUTTON MEALS?

By dropping coins in a slot and pushing various buttons, you soon may be serving yourself complete meals—with hot and cold selections on one plate—from "automatic chef" vending machines.

And other buttons will offer selections of hot and cold drinks!

Vending machines that will quickly thaw and heat precooked foods, and dish them out to you, are now in the testing stage by leading manufacturers.

More new and interesting ways of serving foods will be developed in the near future, but changing styles won't change America's preference for the two "old favorites"—BEER and ALE.

TO SPEAK BEFORE SENATE REGARDING MENTAL HEALTH PROBLEM

DR. William C. Menninger, president of the Menninger Foundation and world-renowned psychiatrist, will speak before a joint session of the State Senate and House here on June 26.

Dr. Menninger, who was invited here by a joint resolution passed unanimously by both state governing bodies, will talk on the growing problem of caring for mental patients. A member of many professional groups, he represents the largest training center for psychiatrists in the country.

Dr. Menninger will speak in the House chamber Friday morning. A luncheon in his honor will be held at the Jefferson Davis Hotel following his talk.

In commenting on Dr. Menninger's visit, former Senator E. W. Skidmore, chairman of the Legislative Committee of the Alabama Association for Mental Health, said: "It is a great privilege to have someone of Dr. Menninger's stature come to Alabama to speak before our Legislature on this important matter."

Mr. Skidmore called attention to what he termed "a gigantic problem in our state." He said that measures must be taken immediately to "stop the tremendous economic and human wastage which is the result of inadequate treatment of the mentally ill."

He noted that Partlow State School and Bryce Hospital, Tuscaloosa, and Searcy Hospital for Negroes, Mt. Vernon, are "inhumanly crowded and pitifully understaffed."

He also pointed out that Alabama is 47th from the top of the present eight to nine years, psychiatrists state.

Up for passage at the present time are House Bills 359 and 360 calling for a 10% tax on liquor and a one cent tax on bottled or canned beer.

He added that such a program would save the state hundreds of thousands of dollars each year by rehabilitating patients in one-tenth the time required now.

Colored Babies

A MORE COLORFUL LIFE

In our business, we've learned that color makes a psychological difference. This is true of the beauty salon it self, where certain colors not only suggest femininity, but also contribute to the customer's sense of well-being and relaxation. But color in the hair creates a magic all its own. By brightening a woman's hair-color, we often find we brighten her whole personality. The "mousey" little girl feels braver and more self-confident with red-gold locks... and she shows it! But the man or woman who applies the hair-color is also leading a colorful life.

NO MORE DRAB DAY-TO-DAY LIVING!

If you're "just plodding along" at a job you don't particularly enjoy, waiting for each week to end so you can collect the same dull, uninteresting paycheck, you're missing the "color" in life! Many a man or woman who felt just that way has come to us - and by stepping into our classrooms, they've stepped into a new life. The beauty field is never dull or drab - and there's no "rut" on paychecks either! WE SALUTE THE PEACH INDUSTRY
WE'RE comparatively new in Chilton County, but already we've gained hundreds of new friends and customers and among some of our best are Peach men and their families. The peach industry is a large one in Chilton County. We can see and appreciate the homage paid to the Peach because it's income greatly aids our economic welfare. We salute the peach and it's growers, packers, shippers and even, by golly, the 'eaters'. There's nothing quite like a Chilton County Peach.

DOWN LIVE

ALABAMA is participating in the nationwide Slow Down campaign. The purpose of the program is to enlist as many citizens and organizations as possible so that motorists and pedestrians may be informed of the dangers of carelessness and excessive speed during these summer months when the streets and highways will be crowded with vacationing motorists in addition to the regular traffic.

This Slow Down and Live program which began on Memorial Day weekend in September. The Memorial Day weekend ran concurrently with the first two days of the Slow Down and Live campaign. During the fifty-four hours of the Memorial Day weekend, a new record of traffic deaths was recorded. Three hundred and ten for the nation and six for the State of Alabama.

Floyd H. Mann, Director of the Department of Public Safety, and all members of the Department of Public Safety, will be working every day with the objective in mind to help reduce deaths during the summer vacation period.

Mr. Mann said that if we are to do a good job on accident reduction, we must all work together. But with the continued support of radio, television and the newspapers, outdoor advertising and the assistance of the motorists and pedestrians, we can achieve our objective and reflect a saving of human lives during this Slow Down and Live campaign in the State of Alabama.

The Director said that when we turn to the accident records to see how much we have done to improve our safety record, we

IN PEACH PACKING HOUSES — DOES THE $1 MINIMUM WAGE APPLY IN CHILTON COUNTY

CLANTON, ALA.—How about the $1 minimum wage? Does it apply to all Chilton County peach packing houses?

Hugh B. Campbell, supervisor of the Columbus, Ga., wage-hour office, says the answer to that question isn't so simple. It depends on what county the peach packing houses are in, but on two tests which should be applied.

The tests involve population figures and/or source of the fruit received by the packing house. Campbell said the tests can be best understood by using Clanton and Thorsby in the example.

At Clanton

He said the population test made packing houses subject to the dollar minimum if they were in (or within an airline mile of a city of 2,500 or more, by the 1950 census. In Clanton, with a 1950 population of 4,640 peach plants don't get the exemption and should pay no less than $1 an hour. No other test is needed there.

At Thorsby

In Thorsby, with a population of 828, peach packing plants meet the population test for exemption, but it's necessary to go a step further to see if they are really exempt.

If plants in Thorsby, or in similar small towns and rural areas, get 95 per cent of their peaches from a radius of 15 miles of the streets and highways of Alabama.

Mr. Mann said today that many of the summer vacation drivers can avoid traffic accidents by making the "Slow Down and Live" slogan their motto when driving on the crowded streets and highways. If we will remember the safe driving motto it will help us curb the hurry complex, cause us to avoid dangerous driving habits and excessive speed.

The Director suggests that you consider the need for safe driving so that you may protect yourself and others from the hazards of dangerous driving.

1. Drive at a speed that you can stop if necessary.
2. Slow Down before you enter curves and intersections.
3. When driving at night, drive within the speed the law and range of your lights.
4. Drive with the traffic. Cutting in and out of traffic causes accidents.
5. When you are tired, stop and rest.
6. Adjust your speed to the road, the weather, your physical and mental condition, and the posted speed limits.

He concluded his remarks by saying, "Excessive speed kills—why not 'Slow Down and Live'."

plant, they are fully exempt and don't have to pay the minimum wage.

The dollar minimum applies to plants in such small towns and rural areas only when they receive over 5 per cent of their fruit from outside the 15-mile radius, Campbell said.

Affects Office Workers

Campbell said this exemption doesn't apply to office workers, clerical and maintenance workers. These came under the minimum without regard to the two tests.

Another exemption, not restricted by these two tests, makes overtime pay legally unnecessary for 14 workweeks in each year for packers of fresh fruits and vegetables, he said, and added that this generally covers the entire peach season in Chilton County.

Campbell said his office can supply additional information about wage-hour exemptions or about federal child labor regulations. His office is located in the Bush Building in Columbus.

year 37,000 lives were lost in the traffic accidents that occurred in the United States. Eight hundred fifty-five of them were killed on the streets and highways of Alabama.

LITTLE LEAGUE GAME OF JUNE 5TH

Kiwanians Win 8-4
In the first of the two Little League ball games played Friday, June 5, the Kiwanians defeated the Lions by a score of 8-4. The Kiwanians had only two hits, a single by Don Norman in the second inning and a double by Roger Crew in the fourth. Most of the eight Kiwanis runs were due to the twelve walks off the Lions' pitchers, Woody Fulmer and Randall Tapscott who replaced Fulmer after two and two-thirds innings of play. Pitching for the Kiwanians was Don Norman, who struck out two batters, including Sandy Sandlin, in the last inning and was named the game's most valuable player.

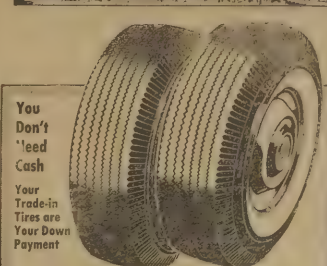

Jaycees Win 5-4
In the second game the Braves lost to the Jaycees by a score of 5-4. The Jaycees collected seven hits off the Braves pitcher, Donald Langston, who struck out ten of the Jaycees batters. Allen Owens pitched for the Jaycees, striking out six men and allowing five hits, all of which were single made by Gene Martin, Pete Blackwell, Richard Maddox, and two by Jim Smith.

BAILEY PARTICIPATES IN OPERATION INLAND SEAS

WILLIE D. Bailey, steward second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bailey of Route 1, Box 55, Stanton, Ala., husband of Mrs. Elizabeth Bailey of Portsmouth, Va. serving aboard the destroyer USS Waldron, is participating in "Operation Inland Seas," a cruise of 28 United States Navy warships to cities in the Great Lakes this summer.

The Navy fleet, which includes destroyers, a heavy cruiser and an amphibious force of seven ships, will visit 27 cities in the seven states bordering the Great Lakes. The ships will enter the Great Lakes on June 23 and return to the Atlantic Fleet in late July.

Bible Study
Don't forget every Wednesday night. Study at the Church. Come and bring your Bible and study with us.

Home from Hospital
Mrs. George Shoults reports that Mr. Albert Garner is home after a few days in the hospital in Selma. Mr. Garner looks well and says he's feeling fine. Mrs. Elsie Mae Shoults is also home. She came home last Thursday after 6 weeks stay in the hospital. Mrs. Shoults is feeling very well and is able to be up some of the time. We hope it won't be long until she is able to be about her work. The many friends of Mrs. M. C. Moore are still hoping and praying for the Lord to heal her body. Some things are impossible with man, but all things are possible with God.

Attends Homecoming
Mrs. George Shoults is attending the homecoming at Pensacola, Fla. She will be home next week.

Mrs. Cleave Latham, Mrs. Ira Hambrige, Mrs. Thelma Hathcock, Mr. John Foshier, Alene Mitchell, Anton and Barbara J. Lawrence, Marie Ratliff, Rena Joyce, Johnny and John McAfee. They all reported a very good time.

Attends Funerals
Those attending the funeral of Cecil Deavers last Tuesday afternoon at Sardis Baptist Church were: Mrs. Hazle and Linda Harrison, Mrs. Gladys Latham, Mrs. Polly Latham, Mrs. Thelma and Cleave Hathcock, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Maddox and Mrs. Maudine Grover and Mrs. Robert McAfee.

Visiting
Mrs. George Shoults is visiting her parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawley over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Harrison and family visited Mrs. George Shoults parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stokes on Gray Hill, Ala. over the week end.

Joyce McAfee reported a very nice visit in Indianapolis, Ind., last week, where she visited Miss Dixie Williams and Mrs. Helen Wall.

Mrs. Elsie Mae Shoults visited in Selma last week.

At church Sunday. Won't you please come to church, your church needs you and you need the church. Remember Bible Study on every Wednesday night. Bring your Bibles and study with us. Next Sunday is our regular preaching day. Everyone come and worship with us.

In Hospital
Mrs. George Shoults is doing nicely since her operation. Her friends hope she will be able to come home soon.

Mr. Albert Garner went to the Doctor in Selma Saturday for a check-up. The Doctor put him in the hospital, so that he could be better.

Mrs. M. C. Moore's in the Selma Hospital in critical condition. All Christians join us in prayer for Mrs. Moore that the Lord will heal her body. There are diseases that are beyond the control of doctors, but there has never been a case so hard for the Master.

Neighborhood
Last Friday afternoon Mrs. Bessie Garner, Mrs. Willie Hathcock, Mrs. Gladys Latham, Mrs. Sarah Latham, Mrs. Robert McAfee, Mrs. Fannie Lawley and Mrs. Dube Latham, all went down to the home of Mrs. George Shoults and gave her house a good cleaning up, washed and ironed and carried Mr. Shoults and boys their supper. Mrs. Shoults has been in the hospital for about six weeks.

Visiting
Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Mitchell and son Tim of Jackson, Miss., spend last week end here with Mrs. Mitchell's mother, Mrs. Willie Hathcock. They also visited Mr. Mitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mitchell at Maplesville.

After visiting here for three weeks with relatives Mr. and Mrs. Shoults.

INDUCTION CALL FOR JULY 312

State Director Walter M. Thompson, Jr., said today that a total of 312 men would be called for induction during July to fill an Alabama Selective Service quota of 121 men.

The July national call is for 8,000 men.

Thompson said the Alabama call would include volunteers, delinquents, and registrants in Class I-A, and I-A-O, without children. Individual county calls are based on those available registrants examined and acceptable, and those volunteering for induction.

The call, county-by-county, includes: Autauga 2, Bibb 1, Chilton 2.

RABIES REPORT POSITIVE; BE ON ALERT

SEVEN cases of animal rabies were recorded in Alabama during May. The State Health Department said today that this is the lowest number of cases reported in a single month in several years.

The May cases were reported by Jefferson County which had four dogs, Chambers County with one dog and Dale County with one dog and one cow.

SAYS DEPT. OF PENSIONS-- AID TO AGED ENDANGERED BY PROPOSAL

The proposed legislation to take the State out of the ad valorem tax field would cause thousands of old people and the other needy in Alabama to go hungry, Pensions and Security Commissioner Alvin T. Prestwood said today. "The major portion of the ad valorem tax revenues that go to the general fund and the revenues that go to old age pensions from the Confederate pension fund would be taken away from the aged and other needy people," he declared.

Prestwood said that the Department presently budgets more than $2 million for old age pensions out of the residue in the Confederate pension fund which is derived from one mill of the State's ad valorem tax. This brings in nearly $4 million in Federal funds or a total of about $6 million, for the State's aged, Prestwood added.

The Commissioner made it clear that under Title 49, Section 17-26, the residue in proceeds from the levy of the one mill tax for Confederate soldiers and their widows is appropriated for the old age program.

Prestwood pointed out, however, that this would not be the sole loss to the aged and the needy because the Department of Pensions and Security depends heavily on the general fund for appropriations for the needy. He said that the approximately $6 1/2 million which the general fund receives annually from ad valorem tax could represent in the main a loss to the Pensions and Security program, including the old folks.

The week end visitors of the Sanford Cole family were T. D. Cole of Albertville, Mr. and Mrs. Rulin Hill and daughters of Thomsville, Ga.

We congratulate Ivan Smith and Fred Blackmon on the scholarship they received from Montevallo.

WE SEE where the parents of former pastor in Chilton County Marvin K. Vickers were in an automobile accident last week and were injured seriously. Mr. Marvin was a well-liked, energetic young minister when here a few years ago with First Methodist Church in Clanton. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Vickers of 214 Third Ave., Atmore, Alabama are no doubt known by many Chilton Countians who will want to wish them a speedy recovery. The accident took place on Highway 31, South of Montgomery where Mr. Vickers apparently lost control of his car at a portion of the roadway under construction. He suffered facial lacerations and Mrs. Vickers suffered head injuries along with lacerations of the face and elsewhere. Hope they're well and about soon!

ACCORDING to the Congressional Record, Congress is in the process of "giving away" $15 billion through the "Bankers' Bond Giveaway Bill" by "transferring" reserve funds of the Federal Government. Hon. Wright Patman of Texas in the House of Representatives indicates in no uncertain terms that this same "giveaway" deal could lighten the national debt by the same $15 billion. We consider the two, and can only come to the conclusion that our national debt needs seeing to. How much is $15 billion anyway? Sometimes we wonder if our Congressmen have any more idea about how much it is than we do.

COPY AND THE NEWS --

SEVERAL times lately the News received copy from sources other than direct "from you to us" source, and, delayed enroute, it did not reach us in time for publication. One particular incident in mind was a recent article on the UDC, Jefferson Manly Faulkner Chapter. The release, when received by our copy editor, was too late for that week's publication and the event it covered was so dated as to be useless the following week. We would appreciate very much a direct source for any news item to insure publication. We cannot publish something we do not have and we certainly feel that the sender thinks we disregard their important notice. We never disregard news items. . . we examine them thoroughly for benefit to our readers. Please cooperate with us so that we may serve you to the "Nth" degree.

THEIR DREAM

For the Love of Liberty --

THE flag of the United States changes to keep pace with a growing nation. But the ideal it represents remains unchanged—a free nation of free citizens; government by consent of the governed; a government of law rather than of men; government of the people, for the people.

The ideal shines brightly, beckoning to people the world over who cherish liberty. Yet we who inherited freedom as our most precious birthright guard it but indifferently. Though we would protect it with our lives against foreign enemies, we trade it away cheaply among ourselves. Bit by bit we hand freedom over to the government in exchange for laws hopefully designed to preserve or provide temporary material advantages. We barter liberty for protection from predatory individuals or groups; we swap it for subsidies which burden us with taxes and shackle us with restrictions.

Our ancestors willingly accepted privation to be free of government bondage. We willingly accept the yoke of government for the promise of a full belly and easy life. From us our children will inherit a cheapened remnant of freedom—along with the bill for our shortsighted selfishness.

There is a well-quoted aphorism on government truth, while it is by no means a complete or perfect truth, deserves careful consideration by our legislators in their law-making and by us in the demands we make upon our legislators: That government governs best which governs least.

WE appreciate very much the comments of the judges in the recent "Better Newspapers Contest" concerning the two places won by your Chilton County News. In the Community Service division the judges said: "The editor's play, both in news and art, of the County's annual peach crop was outstanding. The News also had a deserving entry in its campaign of service to its community with a well-planned drive to send a small child to a heart specialist in a far-away city." (The Wanda Limbrick Story). In the Service to Education category the judges said: "The News shows how a paper can take a cause and develop a program. Without a doubt, the News rendered great service to its community by informing its people of the need for more money for its schools. Had the News been silent on the tax program, it is quite likely that it would have failed. The News showed in words and in pictures the necessity of a 1-cent sales tax. The informed public voted accordingly." The News is proud of these honors bestowed upon it and pledges its continued support of public causes and the furtherance of the peoples right to know.

We see
and hear
by BOB

MR. L. E. Diefenderfer, on a recent visit to a daughter's in Illinois, found a slick chick from Alabama. Before we have to explain to his wife about this "chick" let us hasten to add that it was the cackling kind. In fact it was frozen. Seems Mr. Die's daughter sent him to the market to get some fryers and he came home with the birds. She called his attention later to the fact that the chickens were frozen and packed in Leeds, Ala. (Marshall Durbin we presume). We heard of another fellow out in California who ran across some chickens from Chilton County (the frozen variety also). These Chilton Chicks are getting around almost as much as Chilton's Peaches. Is there a difference?

THEY always tell us that skinny folks "do better". What we want to know is what they do better? They don't necessarily sleep better and they obviously don't eat better. . . what else is there?

LADY told us Saturday that 54 years ago, when she was a secretary (or stenographer) for the Birmingham Electric Co. she eloped with her beloved and they were married. She apparently never went back. She refused to tell us her name, but we figured some of you might know who this story fits and fill us with a few details.

WE received a note this past week-end from the Jemison Postmaster who apparently has something less than love for us. It stated: "Chilton County News a day late this week. Whose fault? -s- P. M. Jemison, Ala." We have a lot of friends up around Jemison way. We're only sorry that we cannot number the party mentioned one of them. It wouldn't be so noticeable, but the five or six times a year we're a day late she never fails to remind us of the fact. Her concern, though insincere, is appreciated, but we have ardent readers who keep us reminded of the fact pretty well. . . as if we need such a special occasion, such as last week, calls for special measures, and it took the News crew around the clock teamwork to produce the "Peach" edition.

It might also be mentioned that when the News on Wednesday night bound our copy the News crew one of the crew takes the paper to Thorby and Jemison as well as the Southbound to Cooper, Verbena, Billingsley and Maplesville so that our readers will get their paper on time. We do this no matter what time the day or night because it is our job. We appreciate any and all help we can get from the Postal employees when it comes to getting the News into the hands of waiting readers. It is only when the News has a breakdown or a special edition throws us late that we are a day late. There is absolutely never a time that we do not either put the mail on the train or take it ourselves unless it is physically impossible. No matter who thinks so, we don't sit around on our mailbags and wait for the train to pass us by. It's a race all the way and we don't need reminding when we miss it. Much obliged!

WHO'S your favorite "Peach"? This week-end will mark the climax of 1959's peach festivities in Chilton County and we certainly feel that the peach crop in general never received better publicity and attention than it did this year. This year's event could start a precedent and possibly would be better for all concerned. There are a few details which we don't agree with, but all in all we think it did the job and made every body happy. Don't forget that this Saturday is the big day here in Clanton when the Queen will be chosen to fly the choice peaches to Washington and a government official. We just don't see how you can afford to miss Saturday, June 27th in Clanton!

FATHER'S Day seemed a rather uneventful day didn't it? Just like any other day of the year, except of course. . . you were there!

Policeman Clifford Parrish is doing a bit better in keeping the speeding down in Clanton. It seems to be a problem at times and it actually should incur some stiffer penalty than has been given up to now. You can't teach a horse not to like sugar by feeding him sugar!

Buel and Duet Assigned To Company C, At Fort Jackson

Jun Private Duet W. Burdette and Jun-Private Buel W. Burdette, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Barney B. Burdette, Rt. 1, Verbena, Ala., have been assigned to Company C, 8 Battalion, 2nd Training Regiment

DUET BURDETTE

BUEL BURDETTE

At Fort Jackson, S. C., for eight weeks of basic combat training. Upon arrival at Fort Jackson, they were issued clothing and given a complete physical examination and a comprehensive battery of aptitude tests.

As part of their basic training they will be taught rifle marksmanship under the Army's new Training program. In Training, they will learn to use an M-1 rifle by firing at pop-up targets on terrain which duplicates combat areas.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN
Congressman, Sixth District

A bill liberalizing the pension system for veterans with non-service connected disabilities was approved by the House of Representatives last week. The measure passed on a vote of 226 to 34.

The House-approved legislation establishes a sliding scale system of payments, based on financial need, to take the place of the present straight-rate pension program for veterans and their dependents. Provisions of the bill do not apply to those veterans with service connected disabilities.

Higher Payments

Under the new plan, veterans who qualify will receive payments ranging from $40 to $60 monthly, depending on their outside income. Widows will be eligible for pay-

They will also be taught drill, tactics, camouflage, military courtesy, first aid and other basic subjects. They will learn how to throw a grenade, fire in pitch darkness, crawl under barbed wire with machine gun fire overhead, and defend themselves in simulated chemical, biological and radiological warfare situations.

During their seventh week of training, they will march 13 miles with full field pack to a bivouac area to spend a week living in the field and learning to integrate the skills they have been taught.

After completing basic training, they normally will receive a two-week leave before reporting for their next assignments.

ACROSS THE
EDITOR'S DESK

WE recently received the following note from Mrs. P. E. Tatum of the Pine Level Community: "Editor, Chilton County News. Wash to take this space thanking all my neighbors and friends for the assistance in any way before going to St. Margaret's Hospital, while there and since I came home. Especially do I want to thank Mrs. Percy Roy and Mrs. Jesse Post. -s- Mrs. P. E. Tatum."

NEVER wash furniture woods with hot, soapy water unless you are certain that the finish is waterproof and free from any surface breaks.

USE a steam iron to raise the nap of a carpet that has been matted down by furniture legs. Hold the iron down near the nap, but do not touch it.

ments from $25 to $75, in addition to $15 monthly for each dependent.

The bill also raises the outside income limit from $8,180 for single veterans and $2,700 to $3,000 for veterans with dependents. An estimated 100,000 veterans who are not now on pensions because of their income will qualify for the new system, and 70 percent of those already on the pension will receive higher payments.

The measure, which applies to veterans and dependents of World Wars I and II, and to Korean War veterans, does not lower existing pensions. Although the bill will be costly in its first years of operation, it is expected to save in the long run. The bill must now receive adequate consideration.

Debt Limit Raised
President Eisenhower was successful in obtaining House approval at last week of his proposed increase the national debt limit for House to $200 billion. The legislation passed by the House vote of 255 to 117, the temporary limit will be raised from $200 billion to $295 billion but will be back to the lower figure on July 1, 1960.

Although the President has requested a five-billion-dollar increase in the permanent debt limit, House bill provides for an increase of two billion dollars over the present ceiling of $283 billion.

The Administration admits that the increases were necessary in order to enable the government to get through the low tax collection period in the months of July and August.

Foreign Aid Authorized
For operating the mutual security program in the fiscal year 1960, the House has authorized a $3.5 billion. This legislation was reported by the Foreign Affairs Committee, contains approximately $366 billion for the foreign aid program. Although the President had requested a $3.5 billion increase, the authorization bill sets the amount at $3.5 billion. It is on funds to be expended in various phases of the program, appropriation bill carrying funds for the mutual security program must still be considered.

An amendment I offered to reduce the bill by $100 million, the only reduction made by House of Representatives in authorization legislation, was approved by a two-to-one margin.

LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL NEWS

In the first of the two Little League ballgames played Tuesday night, the Jaycees beat the Kiwanians by a score of 7 to 4.

"CO-OPERATION PLUS"

AS you can see the Civic Clubs are in complete cooperation when it comes to hospitality and bringing new business to Clanton. Recently the Civic Clubs have had painted large signs and placed on the highways leading to Clanton advertising to the world they are welcome here. The Clubs and their meeting dates and place of meeting can easily be read in the picture. (NEWS PHOTO BY SCOTT)

Pitching for the Jaycees was Perry Fulmer who struck out nine batters, walked four and allowed six hits with his team making only one error. Two of the Kiwanians were doubles, both of which were made by the second baseman Ronald Hay. Two of the ten Jaycees hits were also doubles, one of them being made by shortstop, Jerry Fulmer in the third inning and the other by Donald Popwell in the fourth.

Second Game

In the second game of the doubleheader the Braves lost to the Lions by a score of 9 to 6 due mainly to the teams five errors. The Lions pitcher Cecil Wade struck out ten batters and allowed four hits, all of which were singles except for a double by Joe Maddox in the fifth inning. The Lions collected seven hits off the Braves pitcher Donald Langston and Joe Maddox, who replaced Langston in the top of the fifth inning.

B. P. W. CLUB HELD MEETING

Friday night, June 12, 1959, 7 p.m., members of the Chilton Co. B. P. W. met at Bob's for their regular meeting. The President, Miss Ruth Hicks, opened the meeting and entered into a short business session. The President then asked that all present enter into a "Let's Get Acquainted". Mrs. Hicks asked all "New" members to stand and be introduced. (Six) 6 new members had been added to our membership at the May meeting. During the introduction a short sketch was given about this person.

Then all old members were asked to stand as their names were called and our President told the highlights about this person. Then the 8 visitors to the Club were asked to stand and give their names, clubs to which they belonged and their locations. Jobs they held, etc. Then the President gave them a welcome to Clanton and the Club, and asked the Club to join with her in giving the 7 ladies from Montgomery and one lady from Bessemer, a very hearty welcome.

Dinner was served and quite a bit of informative information passed along among the members.

After dinner six ladies from Montgomery put on an "Emblem Program" for the Club. This was informative and very enjoyable. This program was arranged by Mrs. Marjorie Sewell, Treas. and Chairman of Public Relations of the Clanton Club.

Young Stanton Cripple Dies

Miss Beara Aurelia Jones, age 39, died at the residence Sunday morning at approximately 3 a.m., June 14, 1959. Beara lived her entire life just outside the town of Plantersville, Ala. She was born there about 20 miles east of Clanton, Ala., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James and Maude Vinson. This home being in Clanton County. When one year old Beara's family moved to the home, approximately 1 mile from the town of Plantersville, where she resided until her death.

Beara attended elementary and high school in Plantersville and was a graduate of Dallas County High School. Beara made straight "A's" during her schooling. She was awarded "English Medal" and was Valedictorian of her class in 1938. Beara was stricken with "polio" in 1936 during her sophomore year. She was confined to her bed for a long time. During this time Miss Mimmie Lee Cox, who was the teacher of her class, came to her home and stayed with her. Miss Cox carried her daily to school. Teachers from the high school came to Beara's home and gave her test and final examinations.

When Beara joined the Plantersville Baptist Church, serving in every capacity, helping where help was needed in her church and community. Some times on her own and some times using a wheelchair. Beara was a very religious and attended church just as long as her health permitted.

Rev. R. W. Stuckey was a great consolation to Beara visiting so often and talking with her and while Beara's brother E. P. was in service for 39 months Beara and her mother made their home with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fischer at Vine Hill community on Plantersville road. During this 39 months Beara worked faithfully with the Baptist Church in Jones, Ala., where her sister, Mrs. I. A. Fischer and her husband worshipped. Beara gave of her time and talents and taught a Sunday School Class during this time at the Jones Church. Her best and most active years of service it seems was to this church at Jones and during this time the Rev. R. W. Stuckey was her pastor and friend. After E. P.'s service terminated and he returned home after one week the family were back together at the home where they now reside.

Beara was such a pleasant, lovely person, always smiling and bearing her cross with faith and understanding. Her mother has been her constant companion throughout the twenty-three years of "Polio Afflictions". Never complaining, always smiling, always lovely.

E. P. together with his wife and family lived in the home with his mother and sister. They have done everything possible to help with Beara and have given of their time and love in every way, administering to Beara's wishes and trying to make life easier. Mr. E. A. Fischer lived not too far and was so attentive and good to Beara and the family. It has been said of this family "that their entire lives were that of Christians - every act and every word expressing the deep love existing between

TEMPLE RE-ELECTS REV. WHITE

The Temple Assembly re-elected its pastor, Rev. Nelson E. White, with a unanimous vote of 63 yeas, cast. Rev. White has just completed two years at the Temple. The body passed a resolution calling him as pastor for the next two years.

All the church and Sunday School officers were re-elected. These include secretary - treasurer Jack Mims, Sunday School Superintendent, E. V. Mims, Assistant Superintendent, Bernice Mims, and Sunday School secretary Alvin Bridges.

During the past two years the church has enjoyed a marked progress spiritually, numerically, and financially.

The members of this devoted, loving family.

Beara was completely bedridden the last three (3) years and four months of her life. She grew much worse on Friday night before her death early Sunday morning.

Surviving are her mother, Mrs. Maude V. Jones; her two brothers, E. P. Jones of Plantersville and Martin Jones of Jones, Ala.; her sister, Mrs. Nettie B. Fitchel of Plantersville. Funeral services were conducted from the Baptist Church in Plantersville Monday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. Officiating jointly were the Rev. R. W. Stuckey of Iversville, Ala., Rev. J. R. Robinson, Nottulsga, Ala., Rev. W. D. Holladay of Plantersville and the Rev. George Weaver, pastor of the Plantersville Baptist Church.

Active pallbearers: Deacons of the Plantersville Baptist Church, Henry Houston, Oliver Bearden, James Shewert, John Wiley Herod, Cherry Nichols and Tom Martin of the Christian Church.

Honorary pallbearers were: Prof. I. P. Haskin, Willie King, of Selma, Charlie Gay, Sr., Charlie Johnson, Col. Miles Hardy of Selma, W. C. Herrod and Grady Herrod.

Flowers were handled by Mr. Grand Carroll. Mr. Carroll was assisted by Mrs. John O'Neal, Mrs. Lester Sherr, Mrs. Grand Carroll and Mrs. Boris Levin. The many, many flowers were beautiful.

The choir of the church sang and Mr. Marie Little was at the piano.

VISITORS AT MT. PLEASANT JUST RECENTLY

The Junior Sunday School and BTU classes of our church was honored with a barbeque picnic at the home of J. Reid Thompson by his daughter, Betty Jo Thompson. There were 14 present. A wonderful time was had by all those present: Martha Moore, the Seales children, Linda Morgan, Mrs. Sue Smith, the Junior Sunday School teachers, Mrs. C. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Thompson, Kathy Don Thompson. Games were played, weiners roasted and barbecued hamburgers and drinks, ice cream and cookies. We certainly had a fine time and hope we will get to do this again soon as it was nice just to be together with the Thompson family, as they are the entertainers deluxe.

We send our heartfelt sympathy to the family of Jim Foshee in the death of wife and mother, Mrs. Jim Foshee. May the Lord bless and comfort this family in their hours of sorrow. Mrs. J. Foshee was a wonderful person and a true Christian. We will miss her. Mrs. Leslie Daniel and granddaughters called on Mrs. C. Higgins Sunday.

Mrs. Herbie Mims spent the day with Mrs. Higgins Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith and Ivanna, attended a picnic with the Campbell family Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Edwards of Birmingham and son Barry spent the week end with relatives, the Moore family.

Word has been received that Mrs. Jessie Eiland is much improved, she is in the Lloyd Nova Hospital in Birmingham. Let's be much in prayer for her a speedy recovery.

We send congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Rayford Caton (Betty Ray) who were married some weeks ago. May they have a long and happy life together.

Mr. Floyd Cole has returned to Saudi Arabia. He will be there for another year. We wish him the best of luck on his return to his position.

Sick List

Those on our sick list and prayer list: John L. Smith, Mrs. Jessie Lee Eiland, the Jim Foshee family, Mrs. Bonnie Price, Mrs. Dolly Melton, and Mrs. Cole.

The WMS met at the church for a day of prayer, Tuesday. They also brought prayers for the Troy Children's Home. There were much better. Mr. and Mrs. Garland Foshee, of Maplesville, spent a couple of days last week with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smoke at their camp on the river. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mims and Glenda visited the Smokes at their camp for a while Sunday afternoon. Rev. Lane and Mrs. Charles Mims and Glenda visited the Smokes for a while on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Mayfield, Freddie and Toby and Mrs. Velma Jean Culp were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Smith, Joe, Jim and Robin. Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Smith and children and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Smith visited Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Mims and children for a while Sunday night.

Mrs. J. T. Williams and Debbie attended the Mc-Craw-Ramsey wedding at Mulberry church on Sunday afternoon.

COUNTY FHA CLINIC HELD ON JUNE 9TH.

The County-wide FHA Clinic was held June 9th in the Home Ed Building at the Chilton County High School. There were five chapters represented. The meeting was called to order by the Clanton Advisor, Mrs. Williams. The Prayer song was led by Carolyn DeVaughn. Mrs. Williams gave us some good thoughts by reading two poems to us.

Then each person introduced themselves to get acquainted. We talked about the meeting last year and decided to do this one a little different. Everything was discussed among the whole group. Some of the things were: The importance of Keeping a File, the projects we had each year. The meeting was then adjourned.

Those attending the Clinic were:

Maplesville
Joyce Chambers, Treasurer; Norma Riffe, Parliamentarian; Jackie Edwards, Vice-President; Dorothy Chapman, President; Martha Jo Mitchell, Reporter; Mrs. Martha Cowan, Advisor.

Isabella
Mary Evelyn Jones, President; Patricia Hayes, Vice-President; Mrs. Mary Louise Wilkins, Advisor.

Verbena
Ruth Davis, Secretary; Mrs. Melba M. Calloway, Advisor.

Clanton
Faye Bailey, Secretary; Glenda Sue Coggins, President; Carolyn DeVaughn, a member; Linda Brown, 2nd vice-President and State Reporter.

Jemison
Miss Mary Dean Ashworth, Advisor; Frances Kimbrell, Treasurer; Carolyn DeVaughn, Acting Secretary.

After attending Baptist Training Union Week at Glorieta, New Mexico, they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Higgins, Sharon Ann, Linda, and Keith in Los Angeles. Mr. Higgins is a native of Thorby, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Higgins. The sightseeing of the Adams family included Santa Fe Ski Lift, Palace of the Governors, and Indian villages in New Mexico; the Petrified Forest, the Painted Desert, and Grand Canyon in Arizona; Hoover Dam and Las Vegas in Nevada; Will Rogers Memorial Museum, Chinese Theatre, Hollywood Bowl, Marineland, Knott's Berry Farm, Disneyland, and Yosemite National Park in California; and Monarch Pass in Colorado. In Memphis, Tenn., they saw relatives of Mrs. Adams. They returned to Clanton Monday, June 22, after traveling almost six thousand miles.

ARE YOU LETTING YOUR LIGHT SHINE?

A famous man once purchased an old abandoned farm house which was situated on the slope of a mountain in a sparsely settled area. The man and his wife wanted seclusion from the world, and this place offered it. No noisy neighbors to pry, no noisy traffic, no neighborhood children to trample in the flower garden! They truly wanted to be alone.

But after the man and his wife had repaired the house and had become settled, they both admitted reluctantly that things were "too quiet." They were bored.

"Let's take a walk down into the valley and see what's down there," said the man. So he and his wife started exploring their "neighborhood."

When they got down into the valley, they came, quite suddenly, upon a tiny house situated on a slight rise on the side of a ravine.

"Hello," they called. No answer. "Anybody home? Yohoo!" they cried and pounded on the door.

They were met by a little old lady, hobbling with a cane. "Clory bell" the old lady said, "and welcome to my little home. Be yours the window with the light across the valley?"

The man and his wife admitted that it was particularly when the old woman had seen "Yer light sure has meant much to me."

Joined in Marriage

A TWILIGHT ceremony on Wednesday, June 10th, at 6:30 o'clock, marked the marriage of Miss Audrey Mae Baker and Randall Veazey. Miss Baker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Baker of Isabella community. Mr. Veazey's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Veazey, also of Isabella community and Clanton.

The couple exchanged their vows at the Mulberry Baptist Church before a beautiful setting illuminated by a myriad of tall white tapers. The arched screen, gracefully woven with wedding greenery, was outlined with burning tapers, and centered with a sunburst arrangement of white lilies, chrysanthemums and gladioli. On either side were placed floor standards filled with similar flowers.

White tapers, nestled in wedding greenery, burned in the church windows.

Officiating at the ceremony were the Rev. L. D. Brookshire and the Rev. L. E. Daniel.

Music for this occasion was provided by Miss Tramm Stuckey, pianist, who also accompanied the prospective groom as he sang "Because" and "O Promise Me".

Mrs. James J. Langston attended the bride as matron of honor. Her bridesmaid and bridesmaid were Mr. James Baker, cousin of the bride, Miss Shirley Scott, Miss Barbara Price, cousin of the bride, and Miss Annette Veazey, cousin of the groom. Their frocks were in color and design, fashioned of rich light blue tulle, these frocks were styled with waist-length skirts, fitted bodice with low neckline and cap sleeves. The waist lines were accented with wide swathes of matching material, which crossed in the front, extending into a flowing hem-length panel in the back. They were decorated with long, thin, fingerless gloves, and carried a cascade of Better-Times roses mounted on a fan of maline. Their blue, coral veils were attached to matching braided bandes.

Little Miss Brenda Kay LeCroy, cousin of the groom, was flower girl. Her frock matched those of the other attendants. She wore blue flowers in her hair and carried a pink basket of rose petals.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of white tulle, fashioned with a low neckline. The snugly-fitted gown featured a yolk and long, flowing sleeves of the Chantilly lace. The full gored skirt was pleated to the enlorgued which came to a point in the back. A fan-shaped insert of Chantilly lace accented the soft white tulle. The soft white tulle was a beautiful contrast to the bride's long veil.

The bride's long veil of illusion was attached to a coronet of seed pearls and lace. She carried a white tulle bouquet with a white orchid showered with streamers and white satin ribbons.

Candle lighters were Marvin Baker and Kenneth Veazey, both of the bridal couple.

Mr. Veazey served his son as best man.

Ushers were James J. Langston, E. C. LeCroy, W. A. LeCroy, and J. P. Jones.

Miss McCraw Weds Ralph Ramsey

On Sunday, June 21st at 3:00 p.m., Mulberry Baptist Church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Jean McCraw and Ralph Ramsey. The Rev. L. F. Daniel officiated the double ring ceremony. The bride was married before an altar of wedding greenery, with tall white tapers, in front were garlands and other flowers, added to the beautiful scene. On the floor were placed three large ferns. The wedding greenery and burning tapers were centered with a sunburst arrangement of white chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Best man was provided by Mrs. Molly Smith, who also accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Grace Reid, as she gave away the bride.

The bride's dress was a pink carnation corsage.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white Street length dress of tulle with a low neckline, and short sleeves, with a full pleated skirt. Her hair was a small white lace hat. She wore a white orchid.

Ma. Corker, friend of the groom served as best man.

Ushers were: Ed Willis, brother-in-law of the bride, and Joe Willis, well-known cousin of the bride.

Miss McCraw chose for her wedding a pink carnation corsage. She wore a pink carnation corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Isabella High School, and is now employed at Philbur McBride Drug Store in Selma. The groom is in the Air Corp. at Crag Field in Selma.

The couple will reside in Selma, where they have their trailer all set up for house-keeping.

A Resolution

BE IT REMEMBERED That at a regular meeting of the Chilton County Bar Association on the 21st day of April, 1959, the following preamble, with resolution, was adopted by unanimous acclaim:

Whereas, Mr. Joseph A. Jackson and Mrs. Myrtle H. Wilson, the owners and operators of the Clanton Drive-In Theatre, recently presented for public showing, at said Theatre, an outstanding motion picture entitled "I Want To Live"; and

Whereas, Mr. Jackson and Mrs. Wilson, in their presentation of said picture, have demonstrated a high degree of artistic and technical skill, and have provided an opportunity to observe the legal aspects of said motion picture;

Whereas, Mr. Jackson and Mrs. Wilson generously extended an invitation to all the members of the Chilton County Bar Association to attend the showing of said motion picture as their guests;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the members of the Chilton County Bar Association hereby make known, by this resolution, their grateful thanks and appreciation for the service rendered to the Bar, and the people of this County, by the public spirit demonstrated and the generous invitation given by Mr. Joseph A. Jackson, and Mrs. Myrtle H. Wilson for their efforts in appraising the Bar of merits of the motion picture, "I Want To Live" and in making it possible for the Bar to enjoy the benefits of this film, and be it further resolved that copies of this preamble and resolution be forthwith delivered to the press of the State of Alabama.

I hereby certify that the above foregoing is a true, correct, complete, and accurate copy of said resolution, as same appears on record in the minutes of the Chilton County Bar Association.

Robert L. Bowers, Secretary, Chilton County Bar Association.

The members of the Edith Stewart Circle of Clanton First Baptist Church, held their June meeting, on Monday night, June 15th, at the home of Mrs. W. A. LeCroy.

The meeting was called to order with Mrs. Nan Taylor presiding and the devotional message, "Sacrifice of Praise", was given by Miss Bonnie Guffin.

The program was a study of "Thailand" and Mrs. W. A. LeCroy was in charge. Others taking part on the program included Mrs. A. L. Farley, Mrs. Reese Mullins, Mrs. J. W. Yeager and Mrs. Nan Taylor.

The program was concluded with a prayer for Thailand offered by Mrs. Herman LeCroy after which a social hour was enjoyed and the hostess served delicious refreshments.

The meeting was dismissed with the mid-ch.

TOPS IN JEMISON SOCIAL BRIEFS

by Mrs. George Naish

A Daily Vacation Bible School was held at the Jemison Baptist Church, June 1-5. Seventy four children and workers were enrolled for the week with an average attendance of 66. The Mission offering was $16.56. Commencement was held Saturday night of that week, certificates awarded to children and workers.

Int. - Jr. GA Meeting

The Intermediate and Junior GA met together at the Baptist church Thursday afternoon to observe the Kathleen Mallory Season of Prayer for State Missions.

YWA Meeting

The YWA's meet at the church Thursday night, June 4th at 7:00 p.m. On account of the secretary-treasurer having married and moved away, a new one was elected. The Counselor, Mrs. Leo Shaw, served hot dogs with all the trimmings, prepared in the church kitchen.

Training Union Supper

Thursday night, at 7:30, was the time for the Adult Training Union social. A chicken barbecue supper was served. They gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Chandler. Mr. Chandler, Mr. Hale and the pastor, Rev. Brasher did the barbecuing, with Mrs. Hale and Mrs. Chandler finishing with baked beans, stew, hamburger for the children, tea, coffee, and pound cake. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Alford Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Reeves, Rev. and Mrs. Louis Brasher, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stephens, Mrs. Essie Aldridge, Mrs. Geo. Naish, Mrs. Eula Cost, Mrs. Herman Shirley, and the children of the couples present.

Waters-Shaw Marriage

An event of cordial interest here and other points was the marriage of Barber Waters of Bardston, Ky., and Ronnie Shaw of Jemison. Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Shaw, Jemison. The ceremony took place Saturday evening, June 6th, in the Baptist church with Dr. Bernstein officiating at the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music and the wedding march were provided. Miss Wanda Shaw, sister of the groom, sang. Because Mrs. J. L. Briscoe was the brides honor attendant. Sgt. Briscoe was the best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was dressed in a lovely gown of white lace, brought from Frankfurt, Germany. It was made over satin, strapless, topped with a fitted jacket, the fitted sleeves forming points over the hands. Her shoulder length veil fell from a cap of lace edged with pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis. The bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church parlors. The bridal table, covered in pink was over laid with lace cloth brought from Germany. The tiered white wedding cake, embossed in pink flowers, marked the center of the table. It was mounted on a mirror plaque encircled with greenery. The couple left after the traditional cutting of the wedding cake, for points South and are now living in Jemison. Mr. Shaw is employed in Birmingham. Mr. Leo Shaw, Miss Pat Shaw and Miss Wanda Shaw, the groom's father and sisters attended the wedding.

ALABAMA'S DR. HILL TO BE HONORED

SON WILL ACCEPT POSTHUMOUS AWARD

THE Society for Vascular Surgery today will add new luster to the memory of Dr. L. L. Hill of Montgomery, one of Alabama's great physicians and the first surgeon in America to successfully suture the human heart.

In ceremonies here recently Dr. Hill (1882-1946) will be honored posthumously with a plaque commemorating his "pioneering contributions" to cardiovascular surgery.

The plaque was accepted by Dr. Hill's son, United States Senator Lister Hill.

In accepting the plaque honoring his father, Senator Hill will recall that in 1902 Dr. Hill accomplished a medical "first" in this country when he successfully sutured the knife-pierced heart of a 13 year old Negro boy. This milestone in American surgery took place in Montgomery on a kitchen table in a crude wooden shack under the flickering light of two kerosene lamps.

Dr. Hill was graduated at 19 from New York University Medical College in Philadelphia, after which he spent a year at Wyeth's New York Polyclinic School, and then studied for some months under Joseph Lister at King's College Hospital in London. In 1881 after his graduation in New York, he was admitted to the practice of medicine in Alabama. He died in 1946 after ministering to the sick and suffering in his home state for more than 60 years.

10th, from 3 to 5. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. Marvin Dawson, Mrs. J. O. Cobb, Mrs. Curtis Satterwhite, Mrs. Luther Giles, Mrs. Dick Barnette, Mrs. Elton Cobb, Mrs. V. Miller, Mrs. Willie Shaw, Mrs. Horace Carden, and Mrs. Preston Shaw, each had a pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Simmons welcomed the guests and presented them to the honoree and Mrs. Leo Shaw, mother of the groom. Miss Pat Shaw, sister of the groom, presided at the Brides Book. Many lovely and useful gifts were displayed including the hostess gift, a steam iron. The honoree presented her hostesses with a bottle of Fabrege perfume.

CLANTON CITY PARK NEWS

Girls, there is still room for you to join the Softball League, so come down on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 4:00, so we can get in some good practice. All ages are participating and we can use all of you.

Crafts are under way now, which is held every day at 1:00. You can make things of leather, such as belts, purses and billfolds. We have material for making bracelets, necklaces, and for splatter painting and molding. This has been planned for different ages also. Tennis lessons are being held at 7:00 on Monday and Thursday night. There has been a good turnout so far. If you have a tennis racket bring it, but we do supply rackets and balls for those who don't have them.

To those who are interested, synchronized swimming is offered this year. This is on Tuesday and Friday afternoons at 5:00. If we have a water show at the end of the year we need to start making plans now. Come or call us at the park about lessons.

The pool will begin opening at night next Tuesday and Friday at 7:00 to 9:00. Beginning on June 22nd.

APPLY wax in thin coats on linoleum, and let each coat dry thoroughly before you apply another. This helps to avoid accidents caused by slippery floors.

Chevy Gives You Smarter Style Today...

FOR HIGHER TRADE-IN TOMORROW!

Don't take it from us—take it from independent experts and from facts and figures that are now a matter of record. POPULAR SCIENCE sums up Chevy's unmistakably modern style this way: "The fact is, in its price class Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling..." This is one more reason your new Chevrolet will bring a higher allowance at trade-in time, as Chevy has over the years. A look at last year's used car prices* shows Chevrolet averaged up to $128 more than comparable models of the other leading low-priced two.

*Guide Book figures of the National Automobile Dealers Assn.

PLUS 5 MORE BIG BESTS OVER ANY OTHER CAR IN CHEVROLET'S FIELD!

Best Brakes. Chevy showed the best brakes of the leading low-priced three in repeated highway speed stopping tests conducted by N.A.S.A.C.* No wonder. Chevy's brakes, built for up to two-thirds longer lining life, are the biggest in its field.

*National Association for Stock Car Advancement and Research.

Best Engine. Every motor magazine has given Chevy's passenger car and Corvett V8's unsolicited praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "Indeed, this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

Best Economy. No doubt about this: a pair of Chevrolet sixes came in first and second in their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run—getting the best mileage of any full-size car.

Best Room. Dimensions reported to the Automobile Manufacturers Association make it clear. Chevy's front seat hip room is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars.

Best Ride. No doubt about this. MOTOR TREND magazine sums it up this way: "...the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class."

NO WONDER MORE PEOPLE ARE BUYING CHEVROLETS IN '59 THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

LET'S GO! It's that time of year again. Everybody getting set for well earned vacations! Whatever you plan to do, here's something to help smooth out any kinks in vacation plans. Long Distance. For instance, why not phone ahead to make sure of accommodations? No fan to be on the road watching the "no vacancy" signs roll by! Then, too, calling ahead to plan get-togethers with old friends is lot of fun. And, naturally, you'll want to check in with the office or possibly home to make sure everything's O.K. while you're gone. For all this help to make a vacation happier, you pay very little. Remember, Long Distance costs less when you call station-to-station with extra bargains after 6 P.M. and on Sundays.

BONNIE SEALE
"YOUR FUTURE"

A RESPECTED
PROFESSION

Because being well-groomed and attractive is one of the greatest basic needs of humanity, the professional hairdresser is an outstanding citizen in his community... and there's nothing new about this! Professional hairdressers were honored members of the court in every ancient civilization on this earth. The beauty profession began before recorded history. You'll find references to hair and hairdressing in the Bible, and Homer! So when you choose the beauty profession, you choose a fine life-working field. And hardly any other career in the world can contribute more happiness to others!

LET'S LOOK AT THAT MONEY AGAIN!

Of course you're anxious to make money, that's healthy and normal. So doesn't it make wonderful sense to choose the work that gives you an opportunity to set your own goals? Once you have learned the basic fundamentals of beauty at our school, the sky's the limit. You move up that money-making ladder just as fast as you want to... and there's no open door on every side! The faster you work, the more money you make. The more customers you serve better than anybody else, the more dollars you can make every day! Let's have a little, you income goes up and up! Yet you can learn the rules of the game in a few months.

YES-LEARN IN WEEKS!

Let's think about that for a moment. Certainly it's now news that "unskilled" jobs can be pretty unsteady... and thousands of Americans know it! Tomorrow a strike or a lay-off can stop that paycheck... and even if it was a pretty disappointing check, you certainly miss it when it stops! Yet entrance into most so-called "profession" takes many years and often, many dollars! Not all of us can afford college, or even a two-year business school. To the man who wishes to marry and support a family or the woman who likes to lift a few small luxuries of life, a four-year period of apprenticeship is endless. Only one career... Beauty-offers you the opportunity of earning your professional license quickly!

Psalms

THE book of Psalms is a collection of sacred poetry of a lyrical order, originally intended to be sung to the playing of stringed and other instruments of music. The Greek Septuagint translation designates this book Psalmi, which indicates songs with musical accompaniment. It is from the Septuagint that English Bible versions borrowed their title for the book, namely, Psalms. The book is sometimes called "Psalter," which refers to the stringed instrument originally used to accompany the singing of the psalms. In Hebrew Bible, Psalms is entitled Sepher Tehillim, or simply Tehillim, which means "book of praises" or "praises." Both titles, that is Psalms and Praises, are appropriate. The tenor of the book, the theme pervading throughout is praise to Jehovah, but many of the psalms are strictly prayers and many more have the tone of supplication.

From ancient times the book of Psalms has been divided into five books, each of which forms a separate collection of Psalms. The division, from Books I to V respectively, is as follows: Psalms 1-41, Psalms 42-72, Psalms 73-89, Psalms 90-106, and Psalms 107-150. Another point of interest here is that the Hebrew Scriptures have three large divisions, namely, the Law, the Prophets, and the Writings. Psalms is the first book in the last-named group, and sometimes the name of the first book is used to stand for the entire group. Hence when Jesus said that all things written concerning him "in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms" must be fulfilled, he was embracing all things written in the Hebrew Scriptures. — Luke 24:27, 44.

The Psalms represents the work of various writers. Supercriptions to the individual psalms identify several of the writers, though these supercriptions do not seem to be always strictly accurate. For example, twelve psalms they ascribe to Asaph, but since at least some of these twelve seem to have been concerning a later time, it may be that the sons of Asaph may be also embraced by the supercriptions. A psalm each is attributed to Heman and Ethan; supercriptions to two of the psalms name Solomon; ;seventy-two are ascribed to David, and a seventy-third supercription mentions his name; one, the ninetieth psalm, is assigned to Moses, and it is likely that the ninety-first is also of his composition. Eleven psalms are indicated as for the sons of Korah. There are a few additional supercriptions that mention no personal names, and thirty-four psalms are without supercriptions entirely. It is a somewhat common error for persons to take it for granted that David composed all the Psalms. The foregoing, however, shows that though he composed more than any other writer he did not write them all. The writers of many of the Psalms cannot be definitely determined.

Neither can it be definitely stated who collected the 150 psalms into one volume. Many suggest Ezra compiled them for use at the second temple, thus completing the "Psalter" that was used in the first temple. David was the founder of the "Psalter," and that he started the collection there can be no doubt. Hezekiah also appears to have had a share therein. (2 Chron. 29:30) The point to remember is that the psalms were composed over a period of more than a thousand years (from Moses to after the return from captivity) by several different writers, and that from David's time onward different collections were made of them. That, doubtless, is why the book of Psalms has five divisions. Each of these was one of such collections. That there were different collectors of these five books explains why some psalms are repeated in the present one book of Psalms. (Compare Psalms 14 and 53; 40:13-17 and 70; 108 and 57:5-11; 60:5-12) In all probability Ezra made the final collection, bringing previous collections into one volume and making it a part of the Hebrew canon.

In addition to the supercriptions naming in many instances the authors, they indicated such things as the style and character of the psalm itself, or its musical setting as to be what kind of chorus it was to be sung, or by what instrument accompanied, its use at the public worship, its dedication, its purpose, or the occasion out of which its composition arose. To illustrate, note the supercriptions for Psalms 3, 18, 34, 51, 60, 88 and 120.

The last cited is the first of fifteen psalms classed as "A song of degrees." Opinion varies as to what is indicated by this classification. The Hebrew word thus translated comes from a root meaning to "ascend" or "mount upwards." It may refer to steps for ascending, or to elevation in general. Hence some ways it indicates that these psalms are to be sung with the highest elevations of voice, others that it refers to the surpassing excellence of the subject matter of the psalms, and still others that it means the choir singing these songs was situated on an elevated place. If steps are referred to, it may be that they were sung by the people as they ascended the steps to the temple on the hill of Zion. One prevalent opinion is that these "songs of ascents" were sung by the people as they journeyed up to Jerusalem, whether as they returned from Babylon or as they traveled templeward for the annual feasts. The journey to the city was generally referred to as an ascent, because of its elevated situation. — See Psalm 122:4; Ezra 7:9.

Some psalms have in Hebrew alphabetic structure in which the letters, verses, or stanzas begin with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet. In other words, the first letter of the Hebrew alphabet, the second line with the second letter of the alphabet, and so on through the Hebrew alphabet of twenty-two characters. This structure is called "acrostic," and was perhaps used to assist the memory of the singers. Acrostics are Psalms 9 and 10 (taken together); they were originally (one psalm), 25, 34, 37, 111, 112, 119 and 145. Psalm 119 is specially distinguished by being divided into twenty-two stanzas of eight verses each, and each verse in a stanza begins with the same Hebrew letter also appears as a heading for that stanza. The twenty-two stanzas are grouped successively under the twenty-two letters of the Hebrew alphabet. Thus the first stanza is headed by the first letter of the Hebrew alphabet, aleph, and each verse of that stanza begins with the letter aleph; the second stanza is headed by the second letter, beth, and with that letter both each of that stanza's eight verses begins; and so on through the twenty-two stanzas. The King James Version heads each of these stanzas with the name of its Hebrew letter, and the Acemcan Standard Version does this, out, in addition shows the Hebrew letter in its written character form.

One expression the reader of Psalms will frequently come upon is "Selah." It occurs seventy-one times. It is a musical expression, and is held to mean a "pause, suspension, or holding back," either of the singing of the psalm for a musical interlude or of both singing and instrumental music for silent meditation. In either event, retirement just expressed more impressively, to allow the full import of the last utterance to sink in. The following citations will give further information as to the times and occasions and places in which the psalms were sung, and also as to the instrumental accompaniment of the singers: 1 Chronicles 15:19-21, 28; 16:5, 6, 42; 2 Chronicles 5:12, 13; 7:6; 20:21, 22; 29:25, 28, 30; Ezra 3:10, 11; Nehemiah 12:27, 40-43; Psalms 95:1, 98:4-6; 105:2; 150: 3-5; Matthew 26:30; and James 5:13.

The book of Psalms consists of the most beautiful and most exalted poetry, lyrical odes and songs ever written. The Psalms are recognized as the perfection of poetry suited to be sung and to express the psalmist's feelings, rather than events as in narrative and dramatic poetry. Some of the psalms, however, are of the latter type, telling a story or having a dramatic element. They are written in rhythmic but unrhymed Hebrew verse. Characteristic of the psalms are its many parallels, that is, the expressing of either parallel or contrasted thoughts or feelings in similar grammatical structures. This adds immensely to the power and flow of rhythm.

But let no one labor under misapprehension that the Psalms is no mere haphazard songs, rich in literary value in emotional expression. They are not written to merely express feelings of individuals, or in situations that may be individual only individual is Christ Jesus.

They contain many prophecies also they foretell situations which would confront his followers. Space does not permit the previews of Christ, but at least note Psalms 22:1, 7, 8, 16, 18; 34:19; 69:4, 8, 9, 21; 78:2 and 118:23. Make no mistake the psalms are packed with prophecy. They are quoted by and his apostles more frequently than any other book of the New Scriptures. To this day they are quoted by preachers because of the marvellously prophetic nature of the Psalms.

FOLKS
and
About Town
by Ben

LOOKED at one of the daily papers last week and staring at the front page was Joe Headley, a former Clanton resident, practicing law and doing very well at it we understand. Headley was by his offices in a few weeks ago while he was through Chattanooga, and he is doing fine and has offices there. He promised to come to Clanton and visit his real sons.

OTHER old timer was here last week. It was Bill Headley, who always makes his visits and renews his subscription to a spell. He is in Miami, Fla., at the moment. Bill first went to the Pullman Company in 1934.

Headley an old timer was a visitor last week. He has an interest in Chilton County and gets around to see every now and then. He is now in the Selma Times-Journal. Another Journal came by to see us a few days ago. It was John Vandenberg. He talked to the boys in town but he was too lazy to go to the store, so he called to see how we didn't get to see him.

IGN on a car going through the other day with a couple of boys. All the regular things like old shoes, tin cans, junk smeared all over the back. "Have Wife and Travel".

THE little boy studied the question asked by his teacher for some time. It was "State some of the things that were shipped to the United States in a given year." The little fellow was having a little time when he got the answer. He wrote: "1942", Non.

YOU folks watch for the coming of the V. J. Day. They have remodelled. There will be a big page after next to give you a little and the bargain.

AYOR, Hollis Jackson, was talking about the turtles at the City plant. The turtles grow quite a large size and crawl the water, mains and the em-pumps discharge the turtles. One case was so bad they tore up part of the line to the machinery operating again, like they say: "If it ain't one it's another."

THE Draftsman was leaving for his home. He kissed his wife goodbye and told her: "Now, if you see any money while I'm away, go to the bank." "Yes dear, what time does the bank close?"

LITTLE LEAGUE FIELD TO HAVE DEDICATION

The Clanton Little League Field will be dedicated Tuesday, July 7th, immediately following the first game of a scheduled double header between the Kiwanis and the Jaycees, and the Methodist Braves vs. the Lions.

The first game starts at 5:00 p.m., and the public is cordially invited.

A special invitation is extended to all former Little Leaguers, managers and officials.

"PIC" HEADLEY CHANGES STORE OPERATIONS

LEWIS W. "Pic" Headley, Pig's Big-Saver in West End announces this week (by advertisement here) that as of July 1 that store will be the West End IGA Super Market.

Mr. Headley states that there will no longer be any delivering or charge accounts... everything strictly cash and carry. They do, however, still have the same friendly atmosphere and staff to serve your grocery needs.

LIFE SAVING CLASSES AT THE CITY PARK; 8TH

The swimming pool will open all day July 4th from 9:00 to 5:30. Plans are being made to start new Junior and Senior life saving classes next Wednesday, July 8th. Please call the pool for registration.

Boys and girls who have reached the age of twelve and are not over fifteen years are eligible to take life saving instructions and qualify for Junior Life Saving Certificate provided they can perform the required skills.

LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL

The Lions were victorious over the Braves Friday night, as they had only fire runs to the Lions eleven.

The Second Game

The second game, between the Jaycees and the Kiwanis, was much closer, as the two teams were tied 4-4 in the top of the fifth inning. "Then J. C. pitcher, Perry Fulmer, hit a home-run in the bottom of the sixth inning making the final score of 5-4, in favor of the Jaycees team, which has yet to taste defeat. Besides the home-run the Jaycees collected ten other hits off the Kiwanis pitcher Don Nelson. Jaycees pitcher, Perry Fulmer, allowed the Kiwanis four hits, all of which were singles, except for a double by Jim Wade in the fifth inning.

LOCAL LIONS PUT ADAMS INTO FRONT SEAT

Other officers filled by new heads were, shown above, left to right: G. L. Robertson, Ralph Johnston, director; Doc Wilkerson, secretary; Ott Miller, 1st vice president; B. L. Adams, president; Johnny Vines (in rear) director; Isaac Byrd, 2nd vice president; Robert D. Lane, Tatt Twister; Wilson Maddox, Lion Tamer. Not pictured is George Smith, Treasurer.

A CO-OP: Chamber Needs People; People Need Inspired Leadership!

THE Chamber of Commerce should be the pressure grudge of the business life of a community. It cannot properly function as a means of mediator between merchants and informant for the public without the cooperation of every business firm, without exception and the approval of the public in general.

THERE are some good ideas coming from President John Ponder Lawrence at this time. Committees on different subjects have been appointed and the only thing remaining is the action of these committees. It is only fair that businessmen be consulted on matters concerning them and their business. It is also just and fair for the president and officers of such an organization to have the cooperation of these merchants and give as well as "expect".

THE Chamber of Commerce is not a President. It is a body of men working for the common good of a community, to which it owes some time and thought considering this body expects public approval and acceptance of individual products. We need a Chamber of Commerce, no doubt about it! The Chamber needs a goal of community service and some of the members are working toward that end... but not enough of them. We need more than a minority membership working for the whole!

MR. Ernest Porter is in Chilton County Hospital after suffering a heart attack at his home in Thorsby this week. According to our information he is in fair condition at this writing.

Scott Honored --

MR. Semmie Scott, Chilton County News photographer was in Montgomery Tuesday of this week with a delegation including the 1959 Peach Queen and her subjects. He was introduced in the Senate and House of Representatives as Chilton County's official photographer and considering his experience this was quite an experience for him... it was the first time he had ever been in the Governor's Office. Look for pictures in next week's News.

COURTHOUSE CLOSED FOR JULY 4TH.

Due to the 4th of July coming on Saturday of this week, all offices in the Courthouse will close at noon on Friday July 3rd, except the Sheriff's Office and Office of Judge of Probate. The Judge of Probate's Office will be closed all day Saturday, but will be open Friday afternoon.

July Is Better Health Month In Chilton

CHOSEN FOR SPECIAL CAMPAIGN

Chilton County has been selected by Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Alabama for a special membership campaign in July.

For the first time, Chilton Countians may apply for individual health coverage without any limitations regarding the individual's employment. Previously, Blue Cross-Blue Shield coverage was available only on a group basis if a person worked where there were 5 or more employees.

New Policies
During July, anyone under 70 years of age in good health may enroll for the newest Blue Cross-Blue Shield coverage... a broad benefit $25 Deductible Contract, a recently introduced "first day" medical rider, and a choice of surgical plans for help with payment of physicians' services.

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the most valuable natural resource of our nation is the good health of its citizens; and

Whereas this great inheritance must be protected and furthered by each individual citizen's care for the health of his family and himself; and

Whereas the procuring of this care is facilitated by the use of prepayment of hospital and medical bills through Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Alabama; and

Whereas this nonprofit, community health organization is fully endorsed and sponsored by Alabama hospitals and physicians, including the Chilton County Hospital and its Medical Staff; and

Whereas all of the above named organizations, and the Farm Bureau, are co-operating in an effort

TO BE CLOSED 3RD

The County Office of the Farmers Home Administration will be closed all day Friday, July 3, in observance of the Holiday on July 4.

82-Year-Old Firm- Chilton's oldest Business closes

CHILTON County has some interesting things in its history and not in the least of these is the Gullage Brothers store in Verdena, Alabama. It is now in its 82nd year of doing business and Mr. Will, now owner and son of the founder Mr. F. A. Gullage, is selling out "because", he says "I want to have some fun before I die." He's now 83 years young!

CHILTONIANS ENROLL AT LIVINGSTON

SUE CULP, Clanton, and John C. Cummings, Jr., Maplesville, are enrolled in Livingston State College for the first term of the summer quarter which began June 8, according to information made available by Dr. D. F. Culp, president of the college.

SINGING AT PLEASANT HILL

On the Second Sunday in July we are going to have an all day singing at Pleasant Hill. Everybody is invited to come and be with us. All singers and listeners are welcome to come and spend the day.

WILKINS FAMILY REUNION JULY 12

The annual Wilkins Reunion will be held at Bethesda Baptist Church on July 12 (2nd Sunday in July). All friends and relatives are cordially invited to attend.

COMMUNION SERVICE

The Presbyterian Church of Clanton will have Communion Service at 11:00 Sunday morning, July 5th.

THE 4TH AND THE FOURTH ESTATE --

WE think the newspapers, both daily and weekly, are doing the right thing informing people of the dangers of the 4th of July and pleading with them to observe all possible precaution while on the open road.
"The disrespect for human life" as it has been called is most apparent on our highways during a big weekend and no amount of words, 'tis true, will save a life.
It is entirely up to the persons involved and whether or not they hold respect or disrespect for their own lives as well as the lives of others. At least try to preserve your own life... that will help greatly.

TO PROMOTE HARMONY AND GOOD WILL --

AS one fellow said, he doesn't mind closing his store for the 4th of July, but he does hate to close and someone drive 12 or 15 miles to do business with him, not knowing he's closed. Some of Clanton's merchants have stated that they were not consulted on whether to close their doors or not for the 4th. That gets back to the Chamber of Commerce and attendance of meetings. If you don't attend you can't know what's going on. The Chamber announced plans of local merchants to close (last week and in this week's News) and we think it is a step in the right direction from the usual indecision accompanying a holiday. Let's know what we're going to do and cooperatively 'do it'!

ATTACKS MUST CEASE--

IT is apparent that something must be done about the incessant and increasing attacks upon women by various perverted individuals. We note that in some states penalty for the crime of rape or aggravated assault carry comparative light maximum sentences. We are not a believer of capital punishment, but we feel that the defendants in the recent Florida case for instance did get their "come uppance". There is no excuse for women to be unsafe on the streets and much less in the privacy of their own homes. It is our confirmed opinion that if we do not take strong measures to halt this disgraceful and unholy blight on our society that we will see an increase even above what it is today. We do not condone such an act in any circumstance and the penalty should be stiff enough as to not only dissuade the wrong-doer from ever doing it again, but to serve as a warning to all other would be thieves. We should establish a stand right now before it gets uncontrollably out of hand. It doesn't have far to go to attain such proportions.

THE NERVOUS DOLLAR --

WE in America, are hanging onto our basic principles of a way of life by the barest threads and it is time to have let side issues overshadow and sometimes overshadow our main objective. We say our primary concern is brotherly love and complete understanding of one another. Practically at the same time we are reacting to situations with only number in mind. Our economic stability is steadily shrinking because we refuse to sacrifice a little to gain the ultimate end of "budget balancing". Stand and tell me you're tired of bearing the load!

A great debilitating force in our midst is the range hold unions hold on America's pocketbook.
Congress is not the only "loose spender" in the crowd.
The demanding higher wages for what they claim to be higher standards of living union members are robbing the hand that feeds them. Inflation can go just so far and it's a long way out now. We've certainly seen nothing done by unions to halt this march to financial ruin. Why will the union masses support a man who is an established and known criminal? Why will intelligent men "strike" on grounds which a child could recognize as stupid and foolish? Why will men raise other men who are merely using them for personal gain? It's true we can't see the forest for the trees and the other side is a long way off. Unions are laws which will govern them and govern them well. States rights are an absolute must to keep government at home in the right place. We simply need more attention to our economic, physical and public welfare by members of the race truly interested in bettering our standards which, by the way, are not measured completely in dollar signs.

THINGS We see and hear

by BOB

ACCORDING to the Sunday front porch chatter of the "chatter" set (overheard through open window) upon inquires from the local brood the neighborhood youngesters stated that "daddy is laying down reading something he was at Sunday School with and mommy is making mustard out of spaghetti." Of course the conversation then lapsed into something a little ridiculous and the chatter continued. It's marvelous, the imagination of little fellows three and four years old. And say, by the way "mommy", we sure would like that recipe. Can't ever seem to get enough mustard... especially from our spaghetti!

A FELLA told us the other day that they had received a check or promissory note or something at the bank from an obviously well respected customer and it was written on a board. Well, we got them one... Mr. James Parr of V. J.
Elmore brought a job to be printed into the News office last week and the copy was carefully drawn off on a piece of a one by six. He didn't have to do that. We know all along that they are making wondrous changes down there remodeling and plan to have Open House on the 16th of this month.
Anyhow, Mr. James got his job and the Chilton County News staff has an ample supply of "Dutchmen" for a spell. What's a Dutchman? It's a wooden peg used in justifying type that should have been set right in the first place!
Well, our need for them is frequent and now we're happy!

SUPPOSE Mrs. Hudson of Verbena thinks we're awful slow on the downtown beat at headquarters.
She gave us some changes in her boys' addresses for the paper and we had to re-call her a few times to get 'em straight.
Seems Lt. Samuel R. Hudson of Texas had a change of address as well as did Lt. Sidney B. Hudson now of Texas. It's just that we wanted them to get the News and get it right. Mrs. Hudson. We're really quite efficient... in some remote cases. Anyway, we'll bet a dollar to a oad of mud that that they get their papers right, now.
That's what we was after, eh?

ANOTHER kindly conversation from porch style while they're playing grown-up house: "how do you keep it so cool in here."
"I have a heater over here, that's why it's so cool." Reverse psychology we reckon! I reverse just how hot it could be... no ain't you cool?

CLANTON hospitality? A Virginia motorist was trying to get into a parking space too close to the corner other Saturday and one of the local gentles started yelling at him. "You're blocking my way in here!" he yelled. "I'm in a pinch because he was delaying him in crossing the street. The street walker was obviously 'under the influence', at least he gave he was. Surely nobody would hope our town such a bad flavor over such a trifling gale. He weren't himself. Hot weather makes tempers... and they usually make fools of us!

PATIENCE, it seems to us, is not merely a virtue of controlling one's actions under any circumstance. It is more important, an inner ability to give in at the proper time. Consistent giving in is not patience... it's lack of spunk! Are you patient or spunk-less? Or neither?

THINGS are rolling right along on preparations for the big "County Fair" in early September. Bud-
Wade, Red Glasscock, Ponder
I. Wrence, Ott Miller and several other fellows are already working and on the project. We think a County Fair, like a Peach Festival is a good thing for Chilton County people. The old-fashioned County Fair is especially an event which we should try to keep alive. It gives us opportunities we cannot find elsewhere and also entertains the public. This day and time, we need a little carefree fun and relaxation of the old fashioned variety. Good for the constitution!

SEE where Chilton County has 35.6% of its bond for 1959 in Series
E and H bonds under the District 4 chairmanship of Mr. Archie O'Brien of the Bank of Thorpe.
Chilton is second in its district only to Perry County as far as percentage is concerned, but Chilton's total is only $280,000; Perry County's is only $90,000. Apparently folks in Chilton believe in Savings Bonds.

ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

ARE YOU LOST IN THE DESERT?

"I did a foolish thing," the young man said. "I turned off a main road in southeastern Utah in hopes of finding a short cut to the Colorado line, although the map distinctly said:
"WARNING: Do not leave main highways in this area. To do so may mean serious difficulty, as this region is remote and may be uninhabited."

"I know now that I'll never do anything so foolhardy again."

"After leaving the main road one thing became quite apparent. The 'short-cut' road ahead was getting narrower and rougher. Soon the car tracks of other travelers began to run out completely. Twenty miles farther on, I suddenly realized that I was in a real desert place."

"As I topped a small rise in the road, my car suddenly lurching forward. I heard a terrific pop and a scraping and grating sound. Immediately, the temperature gauge on my dashboard began to inch upward to the boiling point. I stopped and got out, and my heart sank! I had passed over a large rock which had punctured the tire. The oil was gushing out on the dry roadbed."

"I never felt so alone in all my life," he said. "I listened for some familiar sound. All I could hear were the wind and the gurgle of oil running to the ground."

"I began to pray," he said. "I pleaded with God to help me find a way out of this predicament."

"Later, as I continued to seek guidance, I glanced into my rearview mirror. I thought I saw a glimpse of light! I sat up erect. Yes! It WAS a faint glimmer of light. My heart began to pound with joy. I turned on my car lights, for it was now quite dark, and stood in front of their glare. When the light got nearer I realized it was the Highway Patrol."

"Buddy," the big man behind the wheel said gruffly,
"don't you have any sense? Why did you turn down this road?"
One of the ranchers driving about a mile behind you saw you turn off and knew you'd wind up in trouble. Lucky for you he called us."

"He was worried about your taking this road and reported you to our unit. You just don't go turning off the main roads in this area. Now get in my car and I'll take you back to the main road so you can catch a bus. You'll have to get a wrecker out here for your car tomorrow."

"I thanked God for having delivered me, and promised never again to do such a foolish thing," the man said.

ARE YOU lost in the "desert"?
Do you have a personal problem that makes you feel that you are surrounded by desolation? Then turn to God for help!

Local Union Donates $137.00

The following letter was sent to the local Carpenters' Union from I. S. Levine, County Chairman of Crippled Children and Adults in recognition of their generous donation to that cause through their Local. The News is happy to make public such a gift and strongly urges other Chilton County organizations to do likewise. The need is great ... for a local cause. -- THE EDITOR.

June 23, 1959
United Brotherhood of Carpenters & Joiners of America
Local Union No. 2286
Clanton, Alabama
Gentlemen:

We wish to acknowledge receipt of your check for the amount of $137.00, which you Gentlemen have donated to Crippled Children and Adults.

This check has been duly deposited to the account of the Alabama Society for Crippled Children and Adults and will be used for the crippled children in Chilton County. We would like to take this means of expressing to you, our sincere appreciation for the wonderful spirit you have shown by donating each year for the past many years to help the 315 crippled children in this county. I would like to advise you that last year over $12,000 was spent in Chilton county for services and braces for these children and your donation has played a great part in helping this wonderful cause.

Our load is getting greater and greater each year, as our society adds more services and takes care of many other things for children, so just remember how much your support means to your friends and neighbors, and how much we appreciate what you are doing.

May we invite any member of your Local to please watch for the dates that we have our clinics and try to go attend them, so you can see the fine work that is being done on behalf of these unfortunate children.

Again thanking you, we are,
Very truly yours,
I. S. Levine, Chairman
Alabama Society For Crippled Children and Adults.

Ni-Resist authentic nickel cast

It says here, in a newsletter just received that "It seemed only three people were left in the world following a devastating nuclear explosion. Meeting and talking stock of themselves, they were amazed to learn that they were all Southern Baptists. Immediately they organized, elected a president, vice-

FORT JACKSON

PORT JACKSON, S. C., 12
JUN-Private Leonard R. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart, Maplesville, Alabama, has been assigned to Company B, 19 Battalion, 5th Training Regiment at Ft.
Jackson, S. C., for eight weeks of basic combat training.

As part of his basic training he will be taught rifle marksmanship under the Army's new TRAIN-FIRE, he will learn to use an M-1 rifle by firing at pop-up targets on terrain which duplicates combat areas.

He will also be taught drill, tactics, camouflage, military courtesy, first aid and other basic subjects. He will learn how to throw a grenade, fire in pitch darkness, crawl under barbed wire with machine gun fire overhead, and defend himself in simulated chemical and radiological warfare situations.

During his seventh week of training, he will march 13 miles with full field pack to a bivouac area to spend a week living in the field and learning to integrate the skills he has been taught.

After completing basic training, he normally will receive a two-week leave before reporting for his next assignment.

TOO MUCH CANNOT BE SAID

FLOYD H. MANN, Director of the Alabama Department of Public Safety said today that we are fast approaching another major holiday weekend. Saturday is always our most hazardous day of the week because it accounts for 20 percent of all traffic deaths.
This year the Fourth of July comes on Saturday and we may see another major disaster on our streets and highways.

20% Die on Saturdays

The Director warned that not only is 20 percent of our traffic deaths on Saturdays, but that on all major holidays the accident rate runs 25 to 30 percent above other days. He said whether we celebrate the Fourth of July with a good safety record that will keep families united, and permit the bread winner to return to his work on Monday, or whether we let our holiday turned into a tragic nightmare, will depend on the attitude, driving habits and common courtesy of the road by

JEMISON WITH MRS. GEO. NAISH

Golden Age Citizens
Mr. John Adams, one of Jemison's golden age citizens, is 86 years old. He was born in Coosa county, moved with his parents to Jemison. Mr. Adams was a member of the Methodist minister, gave the land for a church and cemetery and was named for him, Archers Chapel. Mr. Adams was a golden age citizen farmed and served as a salesman in his father's mercantile business. Mr. Adams was employed with the L. & N. Railroad for 37 years. He was retired for 26 years. The home now occupied by Mr. Adams has been in the Adams family for 65 or 70 years. The father of Mr. John Adams was one of the Farmers' Alliance members' union. Mr. Adams will be 89 years old in February, 1960.

39 Choirleaders at Jemison
Choirleaders for Jemison High School for '59-'60 are: Head, La. Martin. Others are: Sue Helen Bean, Gwendy Clegg, Judy Davis, Shirley Rhodes, Evelyn Porter and Joyce Champagne. The group have already begun practice and promise a lot of success.

To Compliments Mrs. Mims
The lovely home of Mrs. A. C. Adams was the scene for a magnificent tea shower, Sunday afternoon, June 28th, complimentary to Mrs. Mims. The guests were: Mrs. Mims, nee Doris Coffey, bride. The guests were: Mrs. George Naish and Mrs. Bill Adams. The group had already begun practice and promise a lot of success.

Receiving line consisted of Mrs. A. C. Bratton, the honoree, mother, Mr. Bill Cofer and Irene Mims, mother of the honoree. The honoree was wearing her dress of white, starched over blue taffeta. A heavy sash, the streamers falling from the hem line of the bouffant skirt. Her corsage was white and blue. A tall white basket of Shasta lilies and dusty miller was used as centerpiece. A low bowl of gladioli marked the table where guests were registered.

marked the table where guests were registered.

Pastel pink crepe myrtle in white containers added to the beauty of the spacious living room. These same flowers combined with a large cluster of blue hydrangea marked the buffet. Pink dahlias were used in the gift room. Mrs. J. O. Cobb served punch, relieved by Mrs. B. C. Lenoir and Mrs. Lennie Cobb.

The tea table, spread with a lace cloth centered with an artificial arrangement of pink roses, baby's breath, dogwood and clusters of pink grapes, mounted on an American Pottery stand. The punch bowl was ornamented at the base with fresh pink roses and flowerettes of blue hydrangea and ferns.

The color scheme of pink and white was further carried out in the embossed cakes, mints and fruited punch.

Mrs. V. O. Lenoir and Mrs. R. C. Peterson assisted in the gift room where many pretty and useful gifts were displayed.

Other hostesses, Mrs. Euell Atkinson, Mrs. Willard Cost, Mrs. Edna McNeil and Mrs. Bonnie Willis.

Jr. and Int. GA Meeting
The Junior and Intermediate GA's met at the Baptist Church on Thursday afternoon, June 25th at 3 p.m.

The meeting was called to order by the Intermediate president, Evelyn Porter.

Song, "We've a Story to Tell" Scripture by June Porter read John's Gospel.

In a short business session, committee missions and a social was held.

Girls separated to study Forward Steps, with Intermediate members assisting Junior members.

Re-assembled for closing prayer, the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison.

Cookies and Cokes were served.

VISITORS AT ISABELLA THIS PAST WEEK

Mrs. J. H. Wells

Mulberry Church
Rev. W. E. Robinson brought a fine message Sunday night in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Daniel. He is in a revival this week at Independent. May be we meet in prayer for him and the services there.

Choir practice follows Prayer Meeting each Wednesday. Everyone is invited to meet and learn to sing hymns together.

The church library is open at all services. Check out a book and enjoy reading it.

Tune into the "Glad Tidings" broadcast Sunday morning at 9 o'clock over WKLF. A fine message awaits you.

The church choir may present the music on Sunday.

Special music in song was enjoyed at the Sunday night worship hour. It was presented by Mrs. L. E. Daniel and Mr. R. C. Veazey.

Mrs. Gordon Conway, Church Reporter.

PATTERSON - SPICER VOWS SAID

MISS Jeanette Patterson and Mr. Robert Spicer were married Sunday, June 21st. She is the daughter of Mrs. Calvin Patterson; he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Spicer. They will make their home in Demopolis, Alabama.

PAMALA DAVIS CELEBRATES HER 8TH BIRTHDAY

On Monday, June 22nd, Pamela Davis celebrated her 8th birthday at her home, where her mother, Mrs. Tate Davis, entertained a group of her friends.

As the guests arrived they were escorted to the back lawn where a game of making little "notion boxes" from popsicle sticks was enjoyed. Then they all went into the house to see Pamela open her gifts and enjoy cake and ice cream.

Her birthday cake was iced in green, decorated with pink and yellow roses and a tiny fan was tied with a cluster of roses by satin ribbon. The cake held 8 candles and the inscription was "Happy Birthday Pam".

Those enjoying the fun and the games included: Martha, Francis, Emily, Donny and Tommy Cooper, Sheila Culp, Vickie Crew, Karen Smith, Brenda Lecroy, Susan Barton, Donna Williams, Laura Ann Klinger, Susan Speaks, Jimmy McKee, Deborah Gore, Barbara Mims, McKee Mims, Gay Bennett, Jimmy and Hal Hayes, Barry Jones, Warren Miller and brother of the honoree.

Mrs. Davis was assisted by her sister in entertaining, Miss Scarlett Ray.

LITTLE BILL HAYES CELEBRATES 4TH BIRTHDAY

Little Bill Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy B. Hayes, celebrated his 4th birthday on Friday, June 26th, when a group of his little friends gathered at his home.

The party was held in the backyard and everyone had a lot of fun playing games led by the honoree's cousin, Mike Culver.

The birthday cake was decorated with cowboys and was served to the little guests and their parents with delicious ice cream.

Little Bill had lots of fun opening his gifts and he presented each guest a horn to take home with them.

Those helping him celebrate included: Allen Littleton, Claude and Joy Bray, Kenny Ellison, Danny Culver, Benji and Terri Tucker, Donnie Finlayson, Bruce and Barry Taylor, and the honoree's sister, Toni.

This delightful affair. The hostess, Mrs. Faye Williams and Mrs. Clifford Jones, assisted Mrs. Williams in serving.

Last Thursday, June 25th, little Miss Janice Muncher, celebrated her 4th birthday, when her mother, Mrs. Richard Muncher, held a lawn party in her honor.

The party table was placed under a huge pecan tree and the table cover was red and white. In the center of the table was a large tiered merry-go-round cake, which Janice's grandmother, Mrs. Reddie Taylor had made. This merry-go-round was iced in red and white with large stick candy making the outside poles and small stick candy making the inside poles which held the little iced animals, on the top of the cake was a nest of ribbon which streamed down to each pole and in the front of the cake was a little entrance gate with 4 candles and "Janice" written on it. Around the tray, which held this unusual birthday cake, was green ivy.

Above the table hanging from the tree, inflated balloons swayed in the breeze, making the feeling of a circus even more complete.

As to the little guests had a grand time playing games and being entertained by two of the honoree's cousins, Miss Sandra Poole and Miss Janice Traywick.

The grandmother's present besides Mrs. Taylor were: Mrs. W. M. Poole, Mrs. J. P. Lawrence, Sr. and Janice's adopted grandmother, Mrs. Mary Will Browder. There were 17 mother's present and the hostess served individual iced cup cakes holding candles and ice cream to the following girls and boys:

Rhonda Patterson, Belinda Lawrence, Jackie Boyers, Barbara Popwell, Vickie Burnett, Marsha Ballard, Vickie Bates, Mary Collins Blackmon, Mary Burnett, Ruth Mary Higgins, Suzanne Salter, Donna Glass, Ginger Alred, Joe Carter, Cal Alred, Tim Marcus, Ricky Lawrence, Lynn and Keith Lawrence, Bruce and Barry Taylor, Bill Maddox, Ken Vinsop, Steve Mims, Bill Hayes, Benny Harris, George Ballard, Larry Bean, Jeff Mims, Marion Foshee, Donnie Finlayson, David Dennis, William Burnett and Steve Smith.

Party favors were marbles and yo-yos for the boys, and little fans for the girls.

CHILTON COUNTY DAY ON TEEN-TIME DANCE PARTY

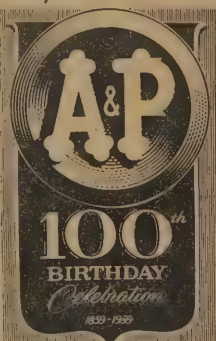

Last Thursday was Chilton County Day on their Teen Dance Party in Birmingham. Several carloads of boys and girls went from over the county and carried some peaches to the folks at Station WAPI, TV. Those who went from Clanton were:

Mrs. R. C. Williams, her daughter, Lynn, Rosette Williams, Jim Mullins, Charlotte Blackmon, Mary Kate Tucker and Randy Rockett.

In Mrs. Gerald Burdette's car, her daughter, Linda, Nelda McKee, Jammie Propst, Johnny Mims and Ellen Kay Wright.

The Dance Party sponsors, award gifts to lucky people, who are caught in the circle when the music stops and on that afternoon the lucky ones were: Miss Mary Kate Tucker, Jammie Propst and Ellen Kay Wright.

July is Better Health Protection Month

in Chilton County

This is your month — the month especially set aside for residents of Chilton County by Alabama's well known Blue Cross-Blue Shield plan — to make it easier than ever before for you to enjoy the benefits of this brand new health coverage.

Therefore, during July, all employment restrictions on membership are being removed. Everyone in good health up to 70 years of age — whether company-employed, self-employed or unemployed — is eligible to apply for Blue Cross-Blue Shield's new $25 Deductible Contract. Dues payments are easier than ever, too, with a choice of paying either bi-monthly or quarterly.

Don't miss this opportunity to provide yourself with the finest value in health protection. This offer may not be repeated and is limited to July only. Decide now to help make every month in your future happier, healthier and more financially secure. Apply for time-proven Blue Cross-Blue Shield protection.

PROCLAMATION

Whereas the health of the people being one of their greatest possessions; and
Whereas helping to protect the health of the people of our city, county, and state, on a nonprofit basis, and at the lowest possible cost, requires a community health protection plan; and
Whereas the Chilton County Hospital is a member of the Alabama Blue Cross Plan; and
Whereas the Medical Staff of the Chilton County Hospital participates in and endorses Blue Shield; and Whereas during the month of July, 1959, in co-operation with the Hospital, its Medical Staff and the Farm Bureau, our citizens are being offered an opportunity to procure this care on a voluntary pre-paid basis;

Now Therefore Be it Resolved:
That we, as Officials of the City of Clanton, Alabama do hereby proclaim July, 1959, as "Blue Cross-Blue Shield Better Health Protection Month".

CITY OF CLANTON
J. Hollis Jackson, Mayor

MEMBERS OF CITY COUNCIL

L. E. Dieffenderfer A. L. Kemp

S. A. Jones

PROCLAMATION

Whereas the most valuable natural resources of our nation is the good health of its citizens; and
Whereas this great inheritance must be protected and furthered by each individual citizen's care for the health of his family and himself; and
Whereas the procuring of this care is facilitated by the use of pre-payment of hospital and medical bills through Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Alabama; and
Whereas this nonprofit, community health organization is fully endorsed and sponsored by Alabama hospitals and physicians, including the Chilton County Hospital and its Medical Staff; and Whereas all of the above named organizations, and the Farm Bureau, are co-operating in an endeavor to make Blue Cross-Blue Shield health protection available to every eligible resident of Chilton County during the month of July, 1959;

Be it resolved:
That we, the undersigned, do hereby designate July, 1959, as Blue Cross-Blue Shield "Better Health Protection Month" in Chilton County, Alabama.

AN OPEN LETTER TO CHILTON COUNTY RESIDENTS

As administrator of Chilton County Hospital, I am fully aware of just how valuable a good health protection plan can be, both to the patient who has it, and to the future of the hospital itself.
During July, Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Alabama will sponsor "Better Health Protection Month" throughout our county. The purpose of this is to give you an opportunity to become a Blue Cross-Blue Shield member.

July, 1959

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF CHILTON COUNTY

I am a representative of the Alabama Farm Bureau Insurance Companies in Chilton County. My organization does not offer hospitalization or medical-surgical coverage in its own name. However, because of its tremendous importance in a well-rounded insurance program, we selected the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Plan to offer with our own program for Farm Bureau members.

Without a doubt, Blue Cross-Blue Shield offers its members the best value available in health protection. The coverage you are being offered is realistic in benefits, sound in approach, and is an all-around excellent buy.

"Better Health Protection Month" is a real opportunity for Farm Bureau members and many other people in Chilton County to become Blue Cross-Blue Shield members. During this special month, all job restrictions on Blue Cross and Blue Shield through Farm Bureau and group membership are being removed.

I hope to have the opportunity of explaining Farm Bureau and Blue Cross-Blue Shield coverage to many residents of Chilton County during "Better Health Protection Month".

July, 1959

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE RESIDENTS OF CHILTON COUNTY

July is "Better Health Protection Month" in Chilton County. As president of the Chilton County Hospital Medical Staff, and in behalf of all its members, I wish to hereby endorse the purpose of this program, as well as its sponsor, Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Alabama.

The future of any community rests on the health and security of its people. To a physician, dependable health coverage means less financial worry on the part of his patients during periods of ill health, and at the same time, assures the physician that he will be compensated for his time and service rendered these patients.

Blue Cross and Blue Shield have helped many thousands here in Alabama. Otherwise, many would not have been financially able to obtain needed health care without creating an additional burden of heavy debt. In addition, the organization has played an important part in making it possible for physicians and hospitals to offer much improved service to those in need of health care.

It is my sincere hope that "Better Health Protection Month" will be a great success in Chilton County.

More than 750,000 persons are now protected by Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Alabama. Many have been members for more than twenty years.

If you are one of those heretofore ineligible to join or if you have simply been putting off this vital means of family protection, we urge you to take advantage of this outstanding membership opportunity.

For complete information on how Blue Cross-Blue Shield can help you, send in the coupon in this ad or contact any of the following men — they will be happy to give you all the facts on this wonderful enrollment opportunity!

- * Mr. Grady Loftin, special Blue Cross-Blue Shield representative at the Chilton County Hospital.
- * Mr. Claude S. Blackwell, Clanton or Mr. J. Archie Ogburn, Thorsby, Chilton County Alabama Farm Bureau Insurance Company representatives.
- * Blue Cross-Blue Shield representatives will have booth locations in Clanton, Thorsby, Jemison and Maplesville on July 11th, 18th and 25th.

SMITH TRADES TEACHERS ROLE FOR STUDENTS

Curry Smith, vocational agriculture teacher at Tabella High School, has traded his teacher's role for that of a student during the early part of the summer.

The Chilton County teacher is among the nearly 600 students doing graduate study in the School of Education at A.P.I. during the first term of summer school. He is studying for a Masters Degree in Agricultural Education.

This advanced work will enable the teacher to stay abreast of the latest agricultural information.
The more efficient teaching techniques that he will study will result in better teaching in his own classroom. Courses studied by the teachers will range from crop irrigation to methods of teaching young farmer classes in the adult education program of vocational agriculture.

RICHARD - EASTERLING IN TRAINING AT FT. LEE

Cadet William Richard Easter-ling, son of Mr. and Mrs. William
L. Easterling, 103-2nd Ave. N., Clanton, arrived at Fort Lee, Va., last Saturday to attend the 1959
Fort Lee ROTC Summer Camp.
He will be participating along with several hundred other students from 21 universities.

At Fort Lee, home of the Quartermaster Training Command, the cadets will get acquainted with army life and obtain familiariza-tion with army operations and equipment. Special attention will be given to marksmanship, map reading, and developing command leadership in each individual. A seven day tactical bivouac under simulated battlefield conditions culminate their training.

In the fall Cadet Easterling will return to the University of Alabama to complete his education.
Upon graduation he will be commissioned a Second Lieutenant in

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM SHOULTS

By Mrs. Robert McAfee
We were very happy to have as our visitors at church Sunday Wayne and Mrs. Harold Lloyd, Capt. and Bobby and Horace, Jr., from Tacoma, Wash. Miss Lucy Smith from Birmingham, Miss Kathy and Libby Lane from Virginia. Also Miss Collette Smith from Selma. Please come back again to see us.

Our Sick List
We are very sorry to report that Mrs. George Shoults had to go back to the Selma Baptist Hospital. Mrs. Shoults had to have her toes removed and the place is not healing as it should. The Doctor saw the need of keeping her in the hospital.

Mrs. Shoults was happy to have her sister, Mrs. Eva Eunice visit her from Montgomery. Mr. Billie Ratcliff is in the Clanton hospital, recovering from a serious accident that happened about 2 weeks ago, caused by tractor. Billie was lucky to come out alive. We ask his friends to pray for him.

Mrs. McMoore is home again in answer to prayers. We thank everyone who prayed for her. Moore. The Lord can do wonderful things for us if we are willing to receive them.

Homecoming
Miss Joyce McMoore attended the homecoming at Randolph. She reported a wonderful day and a good singing.

Smith - Cash
There was a wedding at Friends church Saturday night. Mary Ruth Smith was married to Cecil Cash. Mary Ruth is the daughter of N. E. Smith, near Lawley.

New Baby
Mr. and Mrs. Willard Lawley are the proud parents of a new baby boy. He arrived June 18th. They have named him Donald Franklin. He weighed 7 pounds, 4 ounces.

New Jobs
Lobby McAfee likes his job fine. Last Tuesday Bobby went to work in Selma for Zeiglers. Mrs. Thelma Hatcock and Jean are now working at the Cigar plant in Selma. They like their jobs fine.

Ice Cream Supper
Those enjoying making ice cream at the home of a daughter, last Tuesday night were: Sgt. and Mrs. Johnny Moore and Mike, Mrs. Proctor Davenport, Judy and Joe, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Langston and Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Bo Murphy and Mr. Royce Ray.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Langston and Floyd left Sunday morning for a week at Gulf Shores. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Thacker and Peggy will leave this week to visit their son, Johnny, who is stationed at the Naval Air Station. Mr. and Mrs. Junior Bean and Dianne visited Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bean in Montgomery Sunday. Miss Mariah Freeman visited her cousin in the Nursing Home in Clanton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Oates Sunday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Vinson and children, Mrs. Inez Oates and Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams and children, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Godwin and daughter, Mrs. Lelia Vinson, Mr. and Mrs. John Culp and Karen, Miss Mary Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mims, Mr. Hoyt Freeman, Mr. Millard Smith and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Veazey and children.

The Wards Thursday dinner guests were Mr. Paul Smith and Mrs. W. L. Garner of Maplesville. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Godwin and Kath of Selma, spent Saturday night with the J. W. Veazeys. Miss Barbara Veazey returned home with them.

Miss Mariah Freeman was Saturday night supper guest of Miss Evelyn Nix.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Moore and Patty and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Moore and son, Mike, spent the day Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Bo Murphy in Clanton. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mims and Mrs. Hannel Rasberry and Sharon visited Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mims Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hayes and son of Bessemer spent the week end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jacksons Sunday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Nichols and children of Calera and Mrs. Andy Davenport and children. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rhodes Sunday dinner guests were Rev. Williams and Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Nix.

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the health of the people being one of their greatest possessions; and
Whereas helping to protect the health of the people of our city, county, and state, on a nonprofit basis, is of the lowest possible cost, required a community health protection plan; and
Whereas the Chilton County Hospital is a member of the hospital of the Alabama Blue Cross Plan; and
Whereas the Medical Staff of the Chilton County Hospital participates in and endorses Blue Shield; and
Whereas during the month of July, 1959 in co-operation with the Hospital, its Medical Staff and the Public Bureau, our citizens are being offered an opportunity to procure his care on a voluntary pre-paid basis;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:
That we, as Officials of the City of Clanton, Alabama, do hereby proclaim July, 1959 as "Blue Cross-Blue Shield Better Health Protection Month."

NEW PROGRESS IN HEART SURGERY

POINT CLEAR, ALA. -- "Meeting the spiritual challenge of an expanded budget to meet the hospital costs of cardiac heart disease, the great contribution which can be made by the people of this state," Dr. Champ Lyons told members of the Alabama Heart Association at its annual meeting here, June 27.

Dr. Lyons, who is Chairman of the Department of Surgery of the Medical College of Alabama, spoke to the group at a dinner following afternoon sessions on cardiovascular diseases. Held in Point Clear the meeting was attended by more than 200 lay and professional members.

"Open-heart surgery is far too complicated for the conventional operating-room complement," Dr. Lyons said. He stressed the urgent need for more highly-trained specialists to perform the surgical repair of defective hearts. He also pointed out that "to be done effectively and with an acceptable mortality rate, the job requires quite a large team of these trained technicians and heart specialists and a cardiovascular center equipped with all the mechanical help our present technology can give the surgeon."

MRS. RAWLINSON DIES AT HOME

Mrs. Rosa Lee Rawlinson, 80, died Sunday at her residence. The funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Booth Methodist church with the Rev. Tom Greenwood and the Rev. F. M. Barnes officiating. State Patrol, Jaycees, Bottlers Join Forces in Fatality Fight on 5th

Monday, the 5th of July, jaycees, in cooperation with the Alabama Highway Patrol, the Coca-Cola Bottling Company and the State Patrol held a courtesy "Take A Minute" check on highway 31 north of Clanton Drive-In Restaurant.

During the period of one hour and fifteen minutes, approximately 1,100 automobiles had stopped, the drivers asked to please drive carefully and to please serve to any motorists who wanted them.

The State of Alabama and the same procedure was carried out in an all-out effort to reduce the number of highway fatalities.

The Highway Patrol had a 2-1 decision after one extra inning from "Snowy" Melton's ball club.

WITNESSES IN ARGENTINA CAN'T WORSHIP

THE Clanton Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses learned last night, July 3, that Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina have been denied their constitutional rights of free assembly and worship.

A vote of protest was taken and plans discussed to petition the Argentine Republic to correct the restrictions laid on the Christian group's activities.

W. E. Robinson, the local congregation's presiding minister, said that in spite of many liberal advancements made by the present Argentine government that ousted the dictatorial Peron regime, a few non-Catholic religious groups that were declared illegal by Peron have yet to be recognized by Argentina's constitutional president, Arturo Frondizi.

According to Mr. Robinson, two different applications for recognition were denied by the "Ministry of Worship," a department of the government formed by Peron to control the registry of all non-Catholic religions in the country.

Furthermore, two futile appeals have been made to the present government to rescind the order denying Jehovah's Witnesses the right to register.

The latest appeal was made following a new decision signed by Frondizi on February 6, 1959, giving non-Catholic religions full right to worship God as guaranteed by Article 14 of the Argentine Constitution.

Mr. Robinson said the more than 600 Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina began circulation of a petition addressed to the president of the Argentine Republic requesting recognition under the new, liberal provision of his government.

The petitioning countries of Bolivia, Chile, Paraguay and Uruguay are circulating similar petitions to acquaint the people of those countries, as well as Frondizi, with the condition that exists in Argentina.

BURGLAR GETS AWAY WITH VALUABLES

THURSDAY night, July 2, a burglar as burglars plundered Pig Headley's West End IGA Super Market office and made off with valuables estimated in hundreds of dollars as well as $200 in cash. According to Headley the thieves made their way into the building through a window high on the east side of the building. After disrupting everything and getting all they could they left by the rear door. Rings, watches and an "old coin" collection were among missing valuables.

Officers took into custody two suspects Friday, the day following the burglary, but released them after questioning. According to reports fingerprints were obtained by Ralph Holmes, State Investigator and investigation was also made by the local Sheriff's office. Exact time of robbery could not be ascertained at the time.

CHILTON TAKE A BOW-

DURING the 80-hour Fourth of July week-end Chilton County highways and byways were unmarred by death or tragedy.

We like to think that this was due to the precautionary measures taken rather than the fickle hand of fate.

The Alabama Highway Patrol in Chilton County along with the Sheriff's forces and of course the local law enforcement in each town worked around the clock throughout the week - end to ward off disaster from careless or incapable hands at the wheel.

For those of you who think that these men have little or nothing to do here is a "for instance":

One of the highway patrolmen this week-end stated that he started working at 6 a.m. and worked until 2 a.m. the following morning. He went to bed and was promptly called out on a wreck. He got back home at 5:30 a.m. and again tried to get some rest. Once more he was called out before he could get to sleep good. That was Sunday morning and when we were talking to him Sunday afternoon at 6 p.m. he was still going strong and said he would be until about 2 a.m. Monday.

The devotion to duty of Chilton's Highway Patrolmen is second only to their willingness to help out a motorist - any motorist - in trouble. Such officers as Sheriff Head, Billy Lawrence and Byron Prescott deserve thanks from Chilton citizens.

Sheriff's forces also working long hours over the week-end were: D. J. Cook, Wayne Hardy, T. J. Lockhart, Jack Roper and of course Sheriff Hugh Champ-bart.

It is apparent that the efforts of these men and others like them were instrumental in warding off disaster on many of Alabama's and the nation's main arteries during the Fourth week-end. Our hat's off to the men who saved lives that would have otherwise been taken by, foolishness, drunkenness or incapability.

SPOKESMEN FOR THE SOUTH --

REPRESENTATIVES John Bell Williams of Mississippi and Armistead I. Selden, Jr., of Alabama, testifying before the Senate Civil Rights Committee against so-called civil rights legislation, are among spokesmen for the South who have made good presentations.

The gentleman from Alabama said that relations between the races had been severely strained in his state in recent years "primarily through the interference of persons and organizations from other parts of the nation," and that each new Supreme Court decision, NAACP attack and civil rights law further agitates and separates the members of both races. He pointed out that many seem to fail to realize that Southerners deal with great masses of Negroes whereas in other parts of the nation the numbers are relatively small.

The Mississippian gave it the name in calling the crusade "anti - South hysteria" and presented federal statistics to show there was a much larger percentage of criminal convictions of Negroes in other sections than in the South, indicating, he said, either that Southern Negroes are better behaved than they are in the North or that Southern courts are more lenient with them than others', which is the reverse of what the agitators for "civil rights" legislation are crying.

Lieutenant Governor Maybank also put in a message declaring that the "civil rights" bills were superfluous.

If nothing else these gentlemen are putting solid facts before a committee of one branch of the national legislature, and these facts are getting on the trunk wires. Agitative editors will thus have the opportunity to follow ethical journalism by running them or violating their public trust by suppressing them.

THE MAN HAS A POINT--

MUCH blood and sweat has gone into Little League Baseball activities in Chilton County in the past few years to the extent that they now have a ball diamond of their own and, not to be taken lightly, a crowd of staunch supporters and rooters in parents and chums.

This is without a doubt all well and good.

ECONOMICS LESSON

"WE NEED MORE MONEY FOR MORE POWER PLANTS"

TVA

"THE UNITED STATES HAS A FREE ENTERPRISE ECONOMY"

Government ownership is Socialism.
TVA is Government owned.
2 + 2 = 4

SPEED UP OR SLOW DOWN?

IN the first place Congress has no business authorizing a government agency to compete financially with taxpaying private citizens or enterprises. Having taken such a step, however, Congress certainly should not turn that agency loose to operate as it pleases without effective Congressional controls.

Comes now the Tennessee Valley Authority and asks power to issue its own bonds in the amount of $750 million. This would give the TVA a source of revenue over which Congress would have no control. It would set a precedent violating the procedure by which government agencies must apply to Congress for operating funds each year and explain how they intend to use the money it they get it.

TVA originally was created as a flood control project, with incidental authority to dispose of any electric power generated as a by-product of the dams it built for flood control. Now TVA's flood control purpose has been all but forgotten and its dams produce only a minor portion of its electrical output. Seventy-five per cent of TVA power is derived from steam generating plants. This government corporation has mushroomed into the largest producer of electric power in the free world and the largest individual user of coal.

No matter how you look at it, government ownership of a production industry is socialism. In this area, do we want to step on the gas—or the brake?

ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

DON'T BE A QUITTER

John and Jim were vying for the one available job at the local hardware store.

The store's owner knew both boys well, but he could not make up his mind which one to hire.

"Each of you fellows will have to try out for a day," he told them, "so I can figure out which one will work permanently."

He told them to go up into the loft at the rear of the hardware store. "Start sorting out all the nuts and bolts, screws and nails in that big hopper up there," he said, "and be sure to put each piece in its proper bin."

So both boys climbed the ladder to the store loft and began working.

After about two hours John came down.

"Have you finished already, John?" asked the owner.

"Well, yes and no," John replied. "I'm finished ... but the job isn't."

Then John tried to explain that the job given to him was too time consuming. "It is going to take me too long to sort out all that mess of stuff," John said.

Needless to say, John was sent on his merry way by the hardware store owner!

The rest of the morning passed. The lunch hour went by. About 3 o'clock in the afternoon the owner decided he had better check on Jim.

He has been up in that loft a long time, he thought. I haven't heard a peep out of him. Maybe he slipped out during the lunch hour and has given up, too!

So the owner climbed the ladder to the loft. There he found Jim, absorbed in his work, patiently and meticulously pawing over the huge pile of hardware, putting each small screw and bolt into its proper place.

"How're you coming on, Jim?" asked the store owner.

"Just fine," Jim replied. "My progress is slow, but I'm determined to get the job done, no matter how long it takes."

"You've passed the test with flying colors, Jim," said the owner. "Come on down and let that stuff go. You've just landed yourself a good job."

Which one of these boys fits your character best—John or Jim?

Can't you see the test that life has given you?

It is easy to quit when the going gets rough or when we feel we're not progressing as fast as we ought.

But don't be a quitter like John!

If you have some particular problem that you are facing in life, don't give up. Ask God to help you with that problem.

week indicate his feelings about the situation that prevails by saying that "when the Little Leaguers got themselves a ball diamond we thought we (Babe Ruthers) would have the ball park pretty much when ever we wanted it." "It turns out," he says, "that the men and girls softball teams have taken over to the extent the Babe Ruthers don't have much choice of playing time and therefore cannot pick a favorable night or time for spectator participation."

THE man has a point!

And it is this, at the age Babe Ruthers are, they need guidance and adult supervision more than at any other time in their lives. This is proven true. They need support and the support they should be getting is dwindling out between Little League Baseball and adult softball. We think the boys from 13 to 15 need a little encouragement too: it could prove beneficial to them, yourself and the community.

THINGS We see and hear
by BOB

STOPPING folks on the highway to tell 'em to drive carefully is dangerous work but it does prove interesting. One fellow will have his driver's license out, ready for anything. Another will not know what's going on and when you try to hand him a leaflet he says: "It's not coming back anyway (meaning through this neck of the woods we presume). And we even had one lady try to pay us for a Coke. Compulsory Coke buying? Nope, it hasn't gotten that bad! Another fellow wanted to know if we didn't have an RC. That's gratitude for ya'. Takes all kinds... at least that's what they say! "

REP. Armistead Selden received notice from the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture this week that "we are now checking into the possibilities of offering peach insurance in Chilton County..." We think that's fine. At least we didn't need it this year, however! Hope we never have to pick pipe, amaretto or be available in the near future!

SEE where Mrs. Andrew Jackson and Mrs. Zachary Taylor, the first ladies of the land, were reputed to be happy pipe smokers. We agree with 'em. They beat rabbit tobacco all hollow.

ALSO see where The Birmingham Gas Heating and Air Conditioning Co., Inc. was low bidder for the central air conditioning system and electrical improvements to be installed in the Clanton Post Office building at a cost of $21,660.00. They were the lowest of three bidders. The work will be completed within a 90-day period. It does get pretty hot down at the P.O. sometimes!

THE one big bad thing about a holiday such as the recent Fourth, economy-wise, is the let-down in business immediately thereafter. We don't know why it is unless we weary consumer just wants to let his weary pocketbook take a rest.

THEY had yours truly out early Sunday morning picking peaches. You couldn't exactly call it labor by any means because we didn't receive any wages of any fashion and we didn't even get the peaches. It sure is nice to be neighborly but it isn't near as nice as a good "amaretto" early on Sunday morning. We accomplished something we had never done before so we suppose that's compensation enough for the time we put in... we picked two bushels of peaches!

MULBERRY CHURCH NEWS

Rev. L. E. Daniel, pastor Services were well attended here Sunday. Several visitors were with us. We are happy to have you visit us at any time.

Mid-week prayer services are held at 7:30. Choir practices follow at 8:15 each Wednesday night.

If you are missing any of the services of the church, you are missing many blessings. Be a good steward of your time as well as your money.

DR. HONAN ATTENDED A DRS. SEMINAR

DR. Charles D. Honan, 508 7th St. North, Clanton, Ala., was among the many doctors and their wives who attended an Educational Research Seminar held in the Thomas Jefferson Hotel, Birmingham, Ala.

The seminar was an intensive course of instruction by Dr. Earl S. Robinson, Chief of Staff, outpatient clinic, of the Los Angeles College of Chiropractic in Glendale, California.

The subjects covered in the two day session were related to the latest developments and research in the field of chiropractic and professional economics, according to Dr. Honan.

The affair was concluded Sunday afternoon with an open forum on doctor-patient relationship and its bearing on results obtained in practices.

BY 1975 it is estimated that American farmers will use between 10 and 12 million tons of fertilizer as plant nutrients, an increase of 75 to 100 percent over that now used.

YOUR Health

THE HYPOCHONDRIAC

The hypochondriac is a disturbed and frustrated individual. The medical definition of hypochondriasis is morbid anxiety about the health, often associated with a simulated disease. The hypochondriac is in a continual state of worry about his health out of all proportion to his actual physical condition.

Whether he has any real disease or not, and he usually does not have, the hypochondriac complains about the condition of his health. This anxiety may be directed toward any part of the body, and the symptoms may be of any kind. Pain, dizziness, insomnia, strange sensations, constipation, and fear of contracting some disease are common manifestations. The hypochondriac spends much time seeking medical attention.

He is a continual problem to medical men who recognize the symptoms, and by reassurance and persuasion attempt to lead the patient out of his introversion. The cause of hypochondriasis stems from a personality disturbance that often is traceable back to childhood. Anxiety about health is a recognized universal personal characteristic of the human race. Reasonable concern for one's health is normal and natural, especially when there is illness. Everyone knows that poor health can prevent a person from engaging in physical, social and mental activities.

In many cases, when an individual has difficulties in working out the problems of life he looks for an excuse and subconsciously selects a health handicap. Mild cases of hypochondriasis are satisfactorily treated by the general practitioner. Severe cases call for psychiatric help to overcome this mental fixation.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN
Congressman, Sixth District

Congress took final action on an excise tax extension bill last Monday and the President signed the measure into law the following day.

The new law continues for another year the excise rates originally imposed in 1951 on distilled spirits, cigarettes, passenger cars and automobile accessories. It will thus prevent the government from losing approximately three billion dollars in annual revenues.

The extension law contains some tax reductions, however. It reduces from 10 per cent to 5 per cent the tax on passenger transportation and repeals the levy on local telephone service. Both these provisions will go into effect on July 1, 1960.

YOU CAN BE SURE. . .

YESSIR, you can be sure you're getting your money's worth when you go to a local Chilton business establishment to do your trading and shopping.

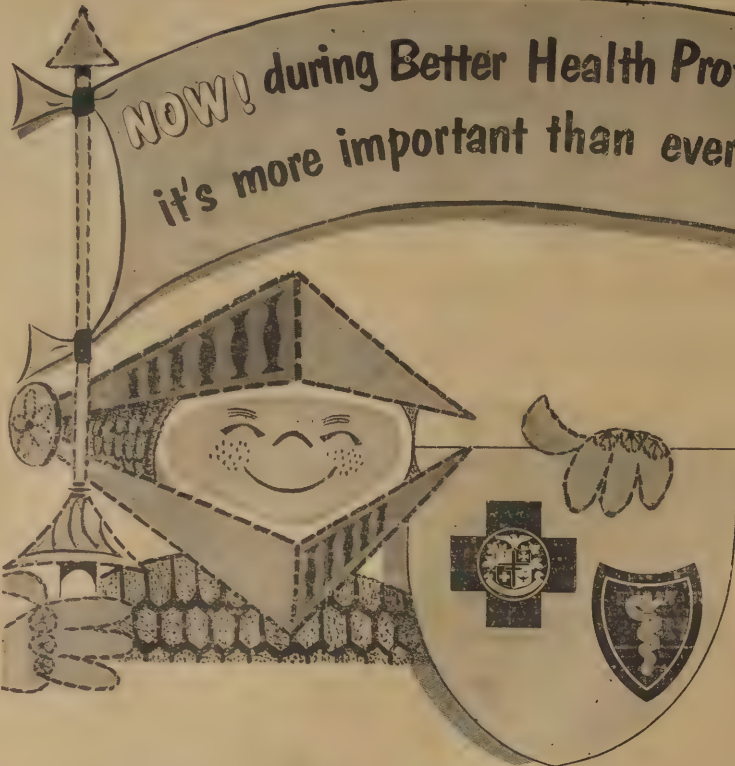

It's a proven fact that money spent at home, stays at home. On the other hand, where does the money you spend in Birmingham, Montgomery or Selma go? It goes to those communities to better themselves. It seems that, as a privileged member of this community we are all obligated to keep as much money at home as we can so we will have better things for better living for our families and ourselves.

Merchants in this community are "Trade At Home" conscious. They are because they know the value of keeping trade local. If you are a housewife, a worker or a fellow who needs a new pair of seat covers it is evident that you should do your buying where it will produce the most results as well as give you top quality merchandise for your dollar. The merchants listed on this page ALL handle top quality items and pride themselves in good service to their community. Shop your community merchants and save. . . at both ends!

it's more important than ever for you to know the reasons why...

750,000

ALABAMA PEOPLE

Overwhelmingly

Prefer

Blue Cross-Blue Shield

That's right! Nearly one out of every four of your neighbors in Alabama is now enrolled as a Blue Cross member! Here are a few important facts which might influence your choice of a health protection plan:

Blue Cross-Blue Shield is the only non-profit community health plan in Alabama. There are no stockholders. This means that all money taken in except for small operating expenses, is available to members in the form of health benefits. 95.71% of the money paid in during 1938 was used to pay claims!

Quick, easy hospital admission is assured as a Blue Cross-Blue Shield member. Your Identification Card is honored in 123 Alabama Member Hospitals, and usually no advance deposit is required.

Greater service benefits than ever before are yours with the new Blue Cross-Blue Shield $25 Deductible Contract.

Today, room costs often represent only a minor part of your hospital bill. The modern miracle drugs that get you well, laboratory tests, x-rays, etc., often create heavy expense. The $25 Deductible Contract provides these needed services—drugs, and many other contract benefits—WITH NO DOLLAR LIMIT OF ANY KIND during the eligible period of coverage.

One-third of all Americans have chosen Blue Cross as the best available protection against the often high costs of health care. Value, service, and dependability to its members have won Blue Cross this tremendous nationwide popularity, and have helped make it the choice of nearly 56 million Americans.

Over $117 million in health benefits have been paid by Blue Cross-Blue Shield to Alabama members since 1936.

Over $18 million were paid for the health care of Alabama members in 1938, alone.

Dependable Coverage.

Your Blue Cross-Blue Shield membership is never cancelled, because of job change, condition of health, amount of benefits provided, retirement, or because of advancing age.

No claims to file, no red tape, no waiting for reimbursement. Hospitals and doctors are paid direct by Blue Cross-Blue Shield for services rendered to its members.

Rates are based on local conditions and costs, rather than a national average. Age or size of family do not affect your rates.

Blue Cross-Blue Shield is the only health protection organization officially endorsed by the Alabama Hospital Association and Medical Association of the State of Alabama.

95% of Alabama's Community Hospitals, who see health insurance in action every day, have chosen BLUE CROSS-BLUE SHIELD coverage for their own employees.

Broader Protection Is Yours With Blue Cross-Blue Shield's New $25 Deductible Contract

While a Member Hospital bed patient, you are eligible to receive:

X-RAY EXAMINATIONS	No dollar limit
ANESTHESIA	No dollar limit, when administered by hospital employee
ELECTROCARDIOGRAMS	No dollar limit
PHYSIOTHERAPY	No dollar limit
BASAL METABOLISM TESTS	No dollar limit
MATERNITY CARE (Family contract—normal delivery)	10 benefit days
a. Waiting period	9 months
b. Newborn covered	From birth

OUT-PATIENT SERVICE

Unlimited contract benefits above deductible amount NOTE—There is no deductible on payments for medical or surgical services

MEDICAL BENEFITS

(for doctor visits to you as a hospital bed patient)

DAILY ALLOWANCE

$3 a day, beginning the 1st day
70 each confinement, separated by 3 months

NUMERICAL BENEFITS

(1 visit per day)

SURGICAL BENEFITS

(for surgical services in or out of the hospital)

SURGICAL PAYMENTS

From $5 to $200 according to Schedule. (Have option to purchase $300 Schedule with higher surgical payments)

PROFESSIONAL ANESTHESIA

$30 maximum. (Based on 20% of Surgical Schedule payments of $50 or more, up to $30 maximum)

* The "deductible" feature of this contract means that the patient will pay the first $25 of hospital charges for contract benefits, each admission — then coverage will apply.

Read these recent statements by your Chilton County neighbors who know the value of Blue Cross-Blue Shield Protection.

Wm. E. Clecker, Sr., Thorsby:

"Last year, my family needed Blue Cross-Blue Shield coverage 7 times. In all, we received over $1,500.00 in benefits."

Lester Carter, Clanton:

"Blue Cross and Blue Shield meant over $600 to me last year."

Barnes E. Reeves, Clanton:

"Blue Cross and Blue Shield were mighty good friends to have last year."

C. E. Tucker, Clanton:

"I found Blue Cross and Blue Shield very dependable when I needed coverage."

Mrs. Jowill M. Calhoun, Verbena:

"I paid only $23 on a hospital bill of $215.00."

E. E. Gentry, Thorsby:

"Blue Cross-Blue Shield saved us $430.00 in health bills last year."

This team made a good beginning, won 1, but have lost a few. They have what it takes, but faith to hold on, and hope to win the next one.

The manager is Mr. Billy Oakes.

Jemison Golden Age Citizens

Another of Jemison's Golden Age Citizens is Mr. John Webb. Mr. Webb is now 93 years old, has lived in and around Jemison all his life. In early years Mr. Webb farmed and gardened.

In 1900, Mr. Webb began work with the L. & N Railroad, as section foreman. He became foreman of section 19, 1904, maintaining road bed and other work.

Mr. Webb has one son, Curtis, living in Tuscaloosa, and three grandsons living in Clanton, who keep in touch with him and Mrs. Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb are enjoying Mrs. Webb's daughter and her children this week. Mrs. Joe Pope and her two small boys, Ben and Steve, also Patsy Newborn. Mrs. Pope is from Ft. Eustis, Va. Patsy is from Lackland Air Force, Base, Texas.

Martin Webb Vows

A wedding of interest here, Calera and other points was that of Miss Eddie Mae Martin and Morris Aaron (Bud) Webb, united in a ceremony at the Calera Baptist Church, Friday, June 26 at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. H. L. Sizemore, pastor of the church, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Martin, Sr., of Calera; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb of Jemison.

Standards of white and yellow carnations were on either side of the improvised altar formed of bridal greenery. Candelabra, holding yellow candles were above the altar.

The wedding music was furnished by Miss Peggy Busby, organist.

Coming and Going

Dr. and Mrs. Jesse James and children, Fred, Jerry and Emily of Lexington, Mass., are with her parents for a visit. Jesse has been in research at M I T.

The supper guests of the Rev. Louis Brashers Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Pate, of Birmingham; Sara Jane Palmer, Weirale, Fla., and Hugh Watkins, Talladega.

Methodist Women Met

The Ladies Fellowship Group of the Thorsby Methodist Church met Thursday, July 2nd, at the home of Mrs. Lucile McFarland.

Mrs. Myrtle Epperly had charge of a very interesting program on youth and the church, school, family, and community. We were happy to have as our guest for this meeting, Mrs. Epperly's friend from Birmingham, Mrs. Ligon Rowe.

Prayers were discussed to add to our fund to be used for church projects. It was decided that each member would take one talent ($1.00) and work to increase it. Most of you know the members of this group so call on them to bake cakes, pies, fry pies, etc. Some plan to make and sell pot holders and aprons to increase their "talent". This project will continue until the first Thursday in September.

After the business discussion refreshments were served.

Mrs. Jeff Clecker was hurt on Saturday while fishing. He is in Clanton hospital recuperating.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kendrick and son, Roy, Jr., joined the Kendrick family Sunday for a spend the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kendrick.

Rev. Fred Holbrook was the speaker Sunday for both morning and evening services at the First Baptist Church.

Vacation Bible School

The Vacation Bible School starts at the First Baptist Church on July 13 and continuing through the 17th, 8:30 Saturday, July 11 is set for registration and parade to follow.

Shower

Mrs. Jo Ann (Collins) Price was honored Friday at the home of Mrs. Burber Price. Mrs. Price received a lot of nice useful gifts. A salad plate and punch was served.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. Osmond Clecker on the arrival of a baby girl, July 4, Denise Gail, weighed 9 pounds.

The Home Demonstration Club will meet next Wednesday in Jemison with Mrs. Anne Glass.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Amos Glass had a light stroke since he has been in the Veterans Hospital in Montgomery.

Rev. Bobby Watkins, who has completed his basic training of 8 weeks at Camp Chaffi, Ark., spent two weeks here with his wife, Earline. He left here Wednesday for a base at Houston, Texas. He was accompanied by Mrs. A. J. Foppwell, where she will visit her McNeill.

The president, Mrs. F. E. Chapman read Psalm 119, Mrs. Geo. Naish led in prayer. Mrs. Naish acted as Secretary, read the minutes of the last regular meeting. The members repeated the last fifteen books of the Bible. Ten others will be memorized for the next meeting. Ways were discussed for making, shovels and enlisting other members.

The hostess served home baked coconut cake with iced grape juice.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Shaw, Patsy Shaw and Carol Brasher spent the holiday week-end in Datona Beach, with his brother, Mr. Sidney Shaw. The girls went to Ft. Walton, Fla., to spend a week with the Sidney Shaws.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Roulane of Birmingham spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Susie Middlebrook and Mrs. Essie Aldridge.

Mrs. K. V. Lowery, Ned and Robert spent June 28th week-end in Mobile with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Melton and her mother, Mrs. Callie Price, with the mothers, returning for a visit with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny McKinnis and Paul of Clanton and their guests from Columbus, Ga., were holiday guests of Mrs. A. C. Branton and Larry. They enjoyed an outside meal at the noon hour.

Mrs. Bill Allen spent the week-end in Birmingham as guests of Mrs. R. L. Sullivan, attending the all-night singing.

Veteran's Peach Party

The American Legion and Auxiliary of Thorsby Post 206 sponsored their annual peach party at a Veterans hospital in Tuscaloosa Sunday, July 5. About 1,000 patients are now in the Tuscaloosa hospital, and they with the entire personnel were served this delicious fruit from our own Thorsby orchards. In all, 91 baskets were served in the wards and to individuals in the hospital.

The Post and Unit acknowledge with gratitude the very generous gifts of peaches from the orchards of the Bentley-Robson Farms, A. D. Headley Farms near Thorsby. They gave the peaches served to the hospital patients. Mr. Delebert Collins came in with some very delicious ripe peaches.

Mr. Clarence Smith, Post Commander, and Mrs. Vergia Glass, Unit President, headed the group of members who accompanied them to help serve the peaches. Others were: Mr. and Mrs. Davis Clecker, Mesdames, Helen Smith, Idell Kincaid, Maggie Maddox, and Tom Maddox and Darryl Glass.

Peaches that were not served were washed and put in the hospital cooler and will be served the patients in pies and sliced with cream, as they are needed.

ANY COLOR PHONES in your home? If so, you're right in style. The Bell System has just won a special award for adding the beauty of color to telephones. It's from the National Society of Interior Designers--the first award of this kind ever made by the Society.

HERE'S A BEAUTY TREATMENT THAT SAVES MONEY! Sound impossible? Well, here's how it works. "Spring" type telephone cords--the kind that can't twist and catch on things--eventually lose their neat, tight curls. Then they're ready for a "permanent wave." (They get it when the telephones come in for repair.) Around one million cords get the full beauty treatment each year--washing, rewinding, and heat setting. $400,000 is saved by this annually, helping to keep down telephone costs.

PATTERSON SAVES STATE MILLIONS

CHARLES Meriwether, State Finance Director said today that more than $1 million dollars has been saved Alabama taxpayers during the past five months in state purchases.
 The Patterson Administration ran for office on a platform of saving millions for Alabama taxpayers. The first millions were saved before the new administration was in office for even a half year.
 Meriwether said, "We have been able to search the market, and with out bulk-buying practices, been able to save upwards of $1 million already this year."
 "I want to reiterate we have done no negotiating in making state purchases. Our mass buying practices over long periods embodies the true spirit of the competitive bid.
 "We can anticipate for a certainty a savings of at least $250,000 on asphalt purchases alone. And we want to thank our various asphalt suppliers for their cooperation in our huge highway program."
 Meriwether further stated, "It is my firm opinion that the state will be able to save more than $1 million a year in all our purchases."

TAYLOR BEGAN WOODLANDS DEVELOPMENT IN CHILTON COUNTY BACK IN 1952

THE July issue of The Progressive Farmer cites the Chilton County area for its woodland improvement program.
 It started in 1952 when A. R. Taylor, a lone soil conservation district cooperater, agreed to denude blackjack oak and other cut hardwoods on 40 acres. O. G. Fields, SCS technician, had pointed out to him the opportunity for growing valuable pines on cutover land.
 Six years later 120 more district cooperators had followed suit on 5,425 acres. How this work is "snowballing" is shown in the fact that last year alone 60 cooperators were growing valuable pines on cutover land.

Best Room!

JUST ONE OF 7 Big Bests Chevrolet OFFERS you over any other car in its field.

Take a tip from the experts... in their own words... and from on-record facts and figures: More than ever, Chevrolet gives you more than any other of the leading low-priced three! More room to relax in, for instance, a sampling of official dimensions reported to A.M.A. makes this clear. Chevy front seat hip room, for one thing, is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars. And Chevy even offers more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars!

Best Brakes

Not only bigger, but built with bonded linings for up to 95% longer life. Just to prove what's what, Chevy out-topped both of the "other two" in a NASCAR-conducted test of repeated stops from highway speeds.

Best Style

It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

Best Engine

Every motor magazine has given Chevrolet's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "... surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

Best Ride

MOTOR TREND magazine calls Chevy "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." You'll be able to tell this yourself instantly, once you take the wheel.

Best Economy

No doubt about this: two Chevrolet 6's won their class in the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, got the best mileage of any full-size car, 22.93 miles per gallon—with Powerglide.

Best Trade-In

Check in any N.A.D.A. Guide Book. Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

WAS talking to Pig Headley about the Cafe the other day when he was eating his lunch. He said that his business is doing since the transition from to cash basis. In fact he said that business in general has and it couldn't happen to a worker, nicer guy, than he was also wondering we got the paragraphs for and "Things" and now he

RADY Heflin started on his about the People's Savings on July 1st. He listens to you, too, but he stated he was just a boy. Anyway, Grady and good about forty years. We hope to help you cele-

WIKING to Ed Yeargan this about the Methodist Church. It certainly is growing the splendid leadership of W. R. White who has been for the past year. The was organized in 1954 and members met in the Concordia Church building. They met in a $17,000 brick veneer of their own that was completed in 1956. The first meeting of their own building was held on Sunday in October 1956. By the end of the year the membership grew to 52 members and the life is largely responsible for the fine growth of the church.

THE high cost of State and Federal Government is taking us to cleaners. This year the 45 Legislatures that are meeting have proposed one billion five hundred million dollars in taxes, and that is just the State taxes. THE men were discussing who "chose" in their homes, which ask me, is a stupid thing to say. Anyway, the story goes that the fellow said: "I'm in my home. Last night I was not hot water when I came, and I raised the heat. And believe me, it was hot, and in a hurry to wash dishes in cold water."

RADY asked the drunk why he like a bus home. "Snowed. The wife wouldn't keep it."

ON GRATULATIONS to the Elmore Stores, Inc. They have the most modern new store and it is beautiful to see. They have their grand opening starting today. James Parr, manager, invites you to visit.

WE hear that Julian Evans was the first to see it. Julian didn't want to see it, but we heard he was so fat and we suspect he wanted to accuse him of being middle age spread. He's still at the same old in Florida and likes it down

COMING AT MOUNT NEBO

The annual homecoming service will be held at Mt. Nebo Methodist Church Sunday, July 19. Rev. J. M. McKinney, pastor of this church and pastor of Chilton County, will be the guest speaker. Sunday at the regular time. Lunch at the noon hour. There will be singing in the afternoon. Travelers of Birmingham and guest singers. Members, former members and friends are especially invited.

The refrigerator is too noisy, probably unlevel.

GUEST SPEAKER AT CLANTON 1ST. METHODIST

REV. Jesse H. Roberts, Pastor of the Hemeway Methodist Church of Evanston, Ill., will be the guest preacher on Sunday, July 19, at the First Methodist Church of Clanton.

Rev. Roberts is the son of Rev. J. H. Roberts of Dadeville, Ala., and the brother of Mrs. Henry Arthur Roper of Clanton. He will be remembered by Clanton residents as the Song Leader during the Sunday Festival at the Methodist Church.

LEGION MEMBERS TO ATTEND A CONVENTION

Members of Post No. 6, Chilton County, will attend the State Convention in Birmingham, July 18-19, 20 and 21. Post No. 6 will be invited to five voting delegates. Also Chilton County will be represented in the giant parade that is to be held Saturday, July 18th, at 2 p.m. All members who wish to attend any of these meetings in Birmingham, are urged to call Lally Bates.

Speakers at this convention are: Gov. Faubus of Arkansas; Gov. John Patterson, Alabama; Senator Lister Hill, Sen. John Sparkman, and many others.

A MINOR mending job that is put off becomes a major operation. Allow time for repairing clothes in your laundering schedule.

USE warm water for sprinkling clothes. It dampens garments more quickly and evenly than cold water.

THIS IS A WARNING

A WARNING issued by the Mayor of Clanton this week cautions all dog owners to LOCK UP all dogs through July 25, due to RABIES in the vicinity. This is not a plea; it is a warning; and the statement is to the effect that dogs not impounded will be shot by the City Police if reasonable efforts to catch them and put them in the City Pound fail!

This is the statement issued:

JULY 16, 1959
"A few days ago a MAD DOG was killed in Clanton, Alabama. We knew this dog bit several other dogs, but do not know how many dogs or what dogs were bitten; therefore, as a protection for the people of Clanton the following order is being issued, by power invested in me by the State laws of Alabama.
1. All dogs (whether vaccinated or not) must be kept impounded or on leash for observation through JULY 25, 1959.
2. Any dog that is not impounded or on leash will be caught and put in City Dog Pound. If they can not be caught with reasonable effort they will be shot by an Officer of the Police Department."

JAYCEES AWARD CERTIFICATES OF MERIT

INDUCT NEW MEMBERS, OFFICERS

THE presidents annual report to the general membership pertaining to activities for the past six months was given by Morris L. Oatis. It is noteworthy that the club was very efficient in many activities.

The following awards were announced: Certificates of Merit go to Jon Will Pitts who served as general chairman of County Fair; Jim Heflin who served as chairman of Operation Library; Bob Tucker, chairman of Cripple Children Program. Exhausted Rooster 1st and Certificate goes to Orville Wood. Jaycee Bell Buckles to past 1st Vice-President, William Thomas and past treasurer, Lamar Heasley.

Inducted into membership as new members were Eddie Edwards, Doc Samral, Lloyd Boswell, Lally Bates and Barney Owens.

Other guests present who are prospective Jaycees includes Billy Bell, Johnny Mack Taylor, Billy Lawrence, and Charles Wright. Installation of new officers was handled by District Vice-President, Jim Heflin.

LOCAL WITNESSES TO ATTEND 4-DAY CONVENTION: 23-26

FINAL plans have been concluded by the local group of Jehovah's Witnesses who will leave next week to attend their annual District Convention in Chattanooga, Tennessee, July 23-26.

Mr. William J. Robinson, presiding minister for the group, discussed the subject of "Proper Christian Conduct" at their meeting Friday night in the Kingdom Hall and explained how Christians have certain Biblical standards which must control their actions. He said "Jehovah's Witnesses are noted for their orderliness and cleanliness at these conventions, and this one will be no exception."

Among those planning to attend as delegates from here are the following: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bennett and James, James Baker and Mrs. Carolyn Robinson, from Clanton; Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Harrison and family from Adams Station; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cofer and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Almonte Barnhill from Jemison; and a number of others.

To ease travel requirements and rooming requirements, the United States has been divided into 21 districts. The 7,500 expected to attend the Chattanooga assembly will come principally from Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina.

FRIDAY JULY 10

In the first of two Little League games played on Friday, July 10, the Jaycees racked up another victory by defeating the Braves 13-7. There were four home runs hit in this game, three of them being hit by J. C. Players, Allen Owens, P. Fulmer and Robert Presley, and the other one being hit by Griffin Lloyd of the Braves.

BABE RUTH DOUBLEHEADER FRIDAY, JULY 17

BABE Ruth League will wind up the regular season play with the double-header, this Friday night, July 17th. The contest will begin at 6:00 p.m., and will feature players from both Clanton teams as well as Jemison and Montevallo. This event is a step toward tournament play and for this the all-stars will be chosen.

Since Clanton has been chosen for the District tournament site this year, much greater interest is expected. Everyone is invited. A large crowd will add much spirit to the boys participating.

BEEPS TO REPLACE BONGS

An experimental coin telephone, which will eliminate the sounding of chimes and gongs when money is deposited is currently undergoing field trials.

This is to be accomplished by an electronically-generated device which will emit "beep" instead of the usual "bongs." This device, which employs a transistor, will

Original Elmore's Store Re-opens in Clanton

THE remodeling of the V. J. Elmore 5c, 10c and $1.00 Store in Clanton will have been completed and a modern store will be open Thursday, July 16, when residents of Chilton and surrounding counties are invited to visit the store, one of the most modern in every way of the Elmore Chain.

Back-to-back counters with over-counter shelving will greatly increase the amount of space for goods and will permit better merchandising methods. Lower counters will make selection easier for the customer and the new self-service checking type of operation will make shopping faster and more convenient. Departments have been enlarged to provide the customer with a better selection of merchandise.

County Fair Committee Leaving No Stones Unturned in Planning

MONDAY, July 13 at a luncheon at the City Grill in Clanton members of the 1959 Chilton County Fair Committee met to iron out problems and discuss plans for the County Fair which will be August 30 through September 5.

Presiding was President of the Chamber of Commerce John Ponder Lawrence who gave data, ideas and plans to date and answered questions of the committee.

On Committee

Present at the meeting were Dan Mims, Red Glasscock, Ott Miller, Ervin Joiner, Gordon Robertson, Bob Tucker, Jon Will Pitts, Buddy Taylor, Morris Meats, T. E. Wyatt, Mrs. Essie Mae Wall, Lewis Headley, Buddy Wade, John Ponder Lawrence, Archie Ogburn, P. F. Singley, and Jim Heflin.

These people are making efforts to present to Chilton County the finest County Fair on record. The booths to be sold commercially are mapped out and planned to be very worthwhile to the community and interesting in every way.

Entirely New Ideas

The grounds have been rearranged as to parking, carnival space and concessions and a full-time watchman will be on duty this year; 24-hours a day.

As for the presentation of the fair itself, there will be some 55 or 60 business firms represented in the Exhibit Building; HD Clubs will have projects exhibited and open civic clubs will have entertainment planned; show shows; farm exhibits and of course that wonderful Carnival with all the lights, noise and fun.

Going To Be Tops

It can't miss! The 1959 County Fair will be the biggest, most thoroughly planned out Fair in Chilton's history and you can't afford to miss it. Keep your eye on your News for details in picture and story as they unfold. And start planning now to attend!

Give one "beep" when a nickel is deposited, two when a dime is put in, and five when a quarter is inserted.

CRISP bacon, hard-cooked eggs, and mayonnaise make a tasty filling for sandwiches. Keep refrigerated until served.

SPOTS IN THE NEWS

On Dean's Advisory Board--

MISS Rebecca Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Baker of Verbena has been appointed to the Dean's Advisory Board at Alverston-Draughton Business College in Birmingham. She is a graduate of Verbena High and was chosen to this position for her scholarship and leadership qualities. She will take part in the daily meditation at the College during July.

Wrong Again--

Correct date for the Summer Revival at Shiloh Baptist Church is August 2. Last week this column stated otherwise, but we were just checking to see if you were on your toes. Remember that date! August 2 at Shiloh!

Democrats Meet--

Members of the Democratic County Committee of Chilton County are urged to attend the meeting at the Courthouse on Saturday, July 18 at 2 p.m. Officials calling the meeting state that important business will be discussed and it is pertinent that all members be present.

Mr. Jim Patton, Old-timer--

Jemison's Golden Age Citizen this week is Mr. Jim Patton, age 87 who moved to his present home when he was 8 years old. His is a very interesting history including the fact that he has worked on (carpentered) every building in Jemison and some that have been removed. Read it all in this week's Jemison News by Mrs. George Naisit!

That One That Didn't Get Away--

Mrs. Beatrice Smith of Shoals went deep sea fishing with hubb and she got a whooper. It was the largest catch of the day weighing in at 8 pounds. Now what is it Mrs. Smith, a Mud Cat or a Barracuda?

Appointed to PTA Committee--

Mr. Kelley is getting things done at Maplesville. He called a meeting of patrons of the school (he has just been made principal over there) and along with other school officials formed a committee to recommend officers for the new Parent-Teachers Association for the coming year. Appointed to this committee were: Mr. Ed Clapp, Mr. Robert McAfee and Mrs. Annie Owens. Report will be made at next meeting Friday, July 17 at 7:30 p.m. There were 51 present at the meeting to organize.

McKinney at Mt. Nebo--

According to our correspondent, Rev. J. M. McKinney, former pastor at First Methodist in Clanton will be the guest speaker at the Mt. Nebo Homecoming Sunday (July 19). He haven't seen the Rev. since he left Clanton some six or seven years ago and if he doesn't come around, let us see to see while he's here we're going to be pretty sore. Don't forget the Homecoming folks!

POLLS SET FOR JULY 23; WHEAT QUOTA VOTE

VOTING places for the referendum to be held July 23 on marketing quotas for the 1960 wheat crop was announced today by Ed Die Owen, Chairman, County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. The referendum is the county's vote to be at the A.S.C. Office in Clanton from 8:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M.

POOR JUDGMENT IN MANY WAYS--

THE person or persons who attempted to throw the evidence of an obviously "wild" week-end off the overhead bridge here in Clanton used poor judgment in more ways than one.

In the first place, they missed their target and Budweiser had labels strewn all over the street. In the second, it was no place to make the attempt; that's what the City dump is for. In the third, it wasn't a wise way to spend the week-end in the first place.

The third being none of our business particularly we think number one and two are. Next time, whoever you are, don't clutter up our town with the disards of an obviously useless time of merrymaking. No doubt the place where the merrymaking took place would have been a much more suitable location for the dumping of the 'empties'. We don't mind beer, but we do detest poor judgment!

THE CALL TO ROAM--

LOOKING over different folders and magazines the week-end and after reading a story on Tahiti we very definitely got the bug to go places and see things. The sea, as strange as it seems, has always held a fascination that we couldn't quite shake off. Landlubbers such as ourselves would be laughed off any ship fit to sail, but it doesn't stop us from dreaming of far away places. We often look at a big ship (pictures that is) and read where it's bound and where it's been and we get that itch all over again. We'll probably never satisfy this particular longing, but then, that's half the fascination anyhow; wanting to and not being able to!

We can always shrug it off as a fancy. . . but it always returns to tease us. Taint fair, by golly!

IT'S OUR SOCIETY AT FAULT--

THE attacks continue on women and girls by deviates of one sort or another and there are many claims and theories as to "why it happens". Of course it's our society and the morals, ethics and ideals we live by, what else could it be?

It is not because girls 'tease' by wearing revealing clothing or because individuals with warped minds prey on the unfortunate. . . it's because we will sit by and allow such goings on to happen without doing something about it. We might add, the rate of the happenings is increasing alarmingly.

Education would help. Girls and women should not go unescorted and asking for trouble. It's old-fashioned perhaps, but it works. This would cut-down, but we need something more. We need a revision of our principles to include decency, respect for the opposite sex, a return to a way of life which include chivalry, healthy admiration, respect in general.

That won't "respect" keeps popping up and it seems fitting that it should be the focal point of any revision. Respect for ourselves and respect for others should go a long way in cleaning up a bad situation. The world is supposed to be progressing. It is evident that without mutual respect from every individual and every corner of the world it will not progress it will ferment and rot.

A healthy respect for things is not that hard to attain. Would we sacrifice everything for the false freedoms (disrespect brings)? Let's hope we haven't fallen that far into the muck, yet. Respect is not a pretense, it is a way of life. Too many of us are finding 'easier' ways of life and are becoming ignorant to the fact that a tall building needs a firm base. We're growing tall, but Heaven help us if we've been sloppy in laying the foundation.

"Make Every Week Farm Safety Week" --

FARM PONDS
CAN BE HAZARDOUS

1,600,000 storage-type ponds.

Farm ponds have many benefits, but they can also be dangerous. That is the warning sounded this week by Mr. Eddie Owen, Chairman of the Chilton County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

"Next Sunday, July 19th, is the first day of Farm Safety Week," Mr. Owen said. "This is a good time to urge everyone to be especially careful around ponds and other bodies of water and to make every week farm safety week."

The ASC Chairman said that precautionary measures are urged for all farmers and ranchers who own farm ponds. But neighbors, people from town, and other visitors also need to be alert around open water. Ponds are especially hazardous for children, he added.

Fifty in Chilton

Fifty farmers in Chilton County have built farm ponds on their land in the past ten years under the Agricultural Conservation Program, Mr. Owen explained. He pointed out that this figure does not cover all ponds constructed in the county, but only those which the ASC County Committee approved for ACP cost-sharing assistance. Nationally the ACP has shared construction costs on about

Recreational
Farm ponds, built with ACP cost-sharing, are constructed for agricultural purposes, but fishing and swimming are often recreational by-products.

"Well managed farm ponds, properly built with drains, floats, overflows and filters, not only offer conservation benefits -- such as water for livestock, irrigation, and erosion control -- but they're nice to have around for fishing, swimming and even boating," Mr. Owen stated.

How They're Built
Although ACP farm ponds are built to rigid specifications, not all ponds are alike. They vary because of their construction, location, size, drainage, shape, reinforcement and overflow facilities.

Some characteristics of farm ponds are:
They are usually constructed some distance from the farm-house.
Most ponds have deep water. Ponds usually have some steep sides.
Banks and side slopes usually are covered with grass and may be slippery.

Other Farm Dangers
Chairman Owen also pointed out that other conservation measures also may be water hazards, including such practices as detention structures, pits, drainage ditches, floodways, levees, dikes, spillways and channel clearance projects.

"One simple safety aid available to every farmer is to post 'danger' signs," Owen declared. "Keeping a boat handy, having a length of rope or an inflated inner tube or even a lone oar ready for use are practical safety aids."

While emphasizing the water practices, Chairman Owen also reminded farmers that other conservation measures may require equal safety precautions. Tree planting and earth moving equipment, chemicals for eradicating noxious weeds, other practices that call for heavy machinery or strenuous physical exertion, are good reasons for making every week Farm Safety Week on your farm.

BENEFITS OF BLUE CROSS
DURING JULY

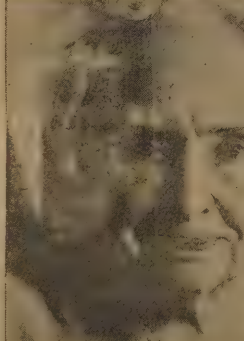

Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Alabama is now conducting a special membership campaign in Chilton County. During July, all county residents under age 70 and in good health may obtain Non-Group health coverage with this well known Alabama organization.

The structure and operation of Blue Cross - Blue Shield widely differs from the commercial insurance companies. In 1936, a special legislative act established this health service plan as a non-profit corporation. Since its beginning, all money taken in, except for a small operating expense, is available to members in the form of health benefits. To

Helen Keller World Crusade for the Blind

HELEN KELLER, pictured as she enters her 80th year, is inspiration for an international effort to benefit the blind. Under sponsorship of American Foundation for Overseas Blind, the Crusade seeks support from the American people to increase urgently needed services for the blind in other lands. Miss Keller, blind and deaf since infancy, helped found AFOB over 40 years ago. She greeted diplomats, business and philanthropic leaders at the Crusade's opening meeting at the United Nations, saying, "I did not expect to live to see a movement started for the deliverance of the blind throughout the world. . . my heart glows with the beauty of your joining the Crusade for their liberation." Initial goal of the Crusade is $1,250,000, to be used in international service programs. Gifts should be addressed: "Helen Keller Crusade, AFOB, 22 West 17th Street, New York 11."

Report from Washington

ARMISTEAD SELDEN
Congressman, Sixth District

Another of the bills designed to reverse controversial Supreme Court decisions was passed by the House of Representatives last week on a roll call vote of 262 to 138.

It provides that a confession obtained from a criminal suspect in the period between his arrest and arraignment cannot be barred as evidence in federal courts solely because there is a delay in arraignment. The bill requires arresting officers to advise suspects that they are not required to make any statements and that any made will be used against him.

Court's Decision

In 1957, the U. S. Supreme Court reversed the death sentence of convicted negro rapist Andrew Mallory on the grounds that the seven-and-one-half-hour lapse between his arrest and arraignment invalidated detailed confession to the crime. In its decision, the Court held that the delay violated the federal court rule of arraignment "without unnecessary delay."

The following year, the House passed a bill similar to the one approved last week, providing that an otherwise admissible criminal date over 117 million dollars in health services have been provided.

"Service" benefits, rather than dollar allowances, is a big feature of Blue Cross hospitalization coverage and is the origin of a close relationship between the plan and its 123 Alabama Member Hospitals. This way, a Blue Cross member is furnished actual hospital services covered by his contract. As hospital charges vary to a large degree in different areas, this system has proved very realistic and effective.

The organization is governed by an 18 men Board of Directors composed of 6 representatives from the general public, 6 hospital representatives selected by the Alabama Hospital Association, and 6 physicians selected by the Medical Association of the State of Alabama. These Board Members meet each month and serve entirely without pay.

The Chilton County hospital is represented at the annual Blue Cross trustee meeting by James N. Sudduth, the hospital administrator.

The guests of Mrs. Eula Tucker on Friday night and Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tucker of Duncanville, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tucker and children of Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Smith and little daughter, Cynthia of Marietta, Ga., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Conway.

APATHY IS PAVING
WAY FOR POLIO

As of July 9, 25 cases of polio have occurred in Alabama. During the same period last year six cases had occurred. (The State Health Department said that seven cases had been reported but it was later determined that one had actually occurred, several years ago.)

23 Paralytic

Twenty-three of the 1959 cases are paralytic polio. Health Department records indicate that 24 of the 1959 polio victims had not received Salk vaccine. The person who had received vaccine has had only one injection.

Ages of 1959 victims range from five months to 35 years. Eleven cases have occurred in children five years of age or younger. Eight range in age from seven to 17 years. Six are adults.

None in Chilton

Counties in which the 1959 cases have occurred and the number of cases reported by each are Montgomery 6, Calhoun 5, Mobile 3, Walker and Madison 2 each, and Dallas, Etowah, Butler, Coosa, Cullman, Baldwin and Randolph 1 each.

CHILTON SHOWS
15.2% INCREASE
IN RETAIL SALES

ALABAMA retail sales remained at an unusually high level in April, the U. S. Bureau of Business Research Reports.

At the County level sales gains and losses during the month were evenly divided but only Clay and Sumter Counties indicated declines from April 1958 sales.

Chilton County showed a 1.8 per cent decline in the March to April period and a 15.2 increase in the April 1958 to April 1959 period.

Statewide, automotive sales created biggest gains up 36 per cent in April with sales in this category improving each month of this year.

Lumber and building materials sales continued to increase, keeping pace with construction trends. Sales by gasoline service stations and eating places showed gains of nearly 25 per cent over the previous April, reflecting the rise in tourist travel. Food sales increased 12 per cent from the year before.

The Bey System has had for some time an air operated reed device which acted as an artificial larynx, which it has made available to those who lost their vocal cords. Now even the artificial larynx, which has gone electronic. The new device consists of a small loudspeaker powered by a battery operated transistor oscillator. In use, the small speaker is held against the outside of the throat, and the oscillator turned on. The vibrations from the speaker are transmitted into the throat. The user only then has to form the words with his mouth and lips, and the speech will emerge. The device is adjustable by the user so that the pitch of the voice can be raised and lowered.

The method of creating artificial speech has been used in animated cartoons in the movies and on radio commercials, to give speech to inanimate objects or animals. For instance, if any sort of a sound is sent from a loudspeaker into the voice box in the throat, this sound can be modulated by one or more organs of speech, and a voice of sorts will emerge from the speaker's mouth.

WMU MEETING MAKES NEWS AT JEMISON

by Mrs. George Naish

WMU Quarterly Meet
The Chilton - Unity Quarterly WMU meeting was held at the West End Baptist Church, Wednesday, July 8th.

The meeting opened at 10 o'clock with Mrs. J. W. Johnson presiding. She read verses from the Psalms, as a call to worship. The theme was Lord, Teach Us to Pray. "The members joined in singing, All Hail the Power." Rev. L. D. Brookshire gave the devotion using the theme, Luke 11:1; Rev. M. Lockhart led in prayer.

Intermediate girls from Concord church, accompanied by Mrs. Homer Carroll, sang "How Long Has It Been?" Mrs. Maxwell Preston spoke on the theme using phrases from The Lord's Prayer as emphasis and these Scripture: Mark 11:24, Faith; II Chronicles 7:14, Humble; Jeremiah 29:13, Wholeheartedly.

There were 22 churches represented, 6 pastor present, 102 present. The center of interest was a table covered in blue with a banner, In Freedom's Holy Light Above It, a Bible in the center of table, surrounded with small U.S. flags.

As each officer gave plans for the fourth quarter's work, it was planned with the thought of freedom. The nominating committee reported, all offices were filled. The present Sunbeam leader mentioned a leadership school August 11th at the F. B. I. at Baptist Church in Clanton for all Sunbeam workers, Clanton Week August 9-15.

Mrs. George Curlee read the suggested recommendations and they were adopted. Rev. Matthews, pastor of Liberty Hill Church, gave the closing prayer.

All enjoyed a bountiful meal at the noon hour. Attending from Jemison were Mrs. Edna Cost, Mrs. George Naish, Rev. and Mrs. Louis Brasher.

TOPS IN SHILOH NEWS

by Mrs. J. O. Bice

Both services were well attended Sunday and the pastor brought two gospel messages which everyone enjoyed. We should apply the message to our daily lives. We were also glad to have among our guests some of our former members, Mr. Euspin (Bill) Mullins of Birmingham and Mrs. Era Lockhart and daughter Jo Ann of Clanton.

The WMS, the GA's and the YWA's will meet at the church Thursday (tonight) at 7 p.m. All members urged to attend and bring someone with you.

A Correction

Sorry we gave the wrong date on our summer revival in last week's paper. The correct date for the revival at Shiloh is August 2nd. Everyone is invited.

Coming and Going

Rev. and Mrs. A. V. Bice were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Dobby.

Mr. Euspin Mullins of Birmingham spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mullins, while his wife and children visited her brother, Mr. G. B. Sharp in Louisville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bice enjoyed a very pleasant week-end in Pensacola, Fla., July 10-12. While there they visited Rev. and Mrs. M. S. Deason, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gausby and children, the Aubrey Deasons, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Deason and children.

Enjoy Party

Miss Laverne, Eloise and Linda Wilson entertained a group of friends at a party at their home Saturday night. Those enjoying the fun and ice cream and cake were: Miss Hazel, Geraldine and Patricia Mullins, Jimmy and Bob.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Glenn have returned home from Birmingham and with them is their grandson Ken Kelly.

PLEASANT CHURCH NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Riggins of Birmingham were the Sunday guests of the C. Riggins.

Mr. Orville and Estus Moore of Montgomery visited their family, V. O. Moore Monday.

Mrs. Bonnie Price is very ill in the University Hospital in Birmingham. Let's be much in prayer for her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Riggins visited with Mrs. Tipton Eiland and family in Birmingham Thursday.

Mrs. Bonnie Price, Mrs. Price is very much improved and is on the road to recovery. We are happy to report this.

The Intermediate Class in BTU program Sunday night, they did a fine job. They sang hymns and gave scripture reading.

Several from this community will leave for National Guard camp the 19th of July. They are Earl Mesher, Ivan Smith and Fred Blackmon.

Mr. and Mrs. Herlie Mims visited the Riggins family Saturday evening.

We were happy to have Rev. Lockhart visit our church Sunday night. Hope he will come again.

We send our heartfelt sympathy to the Ward families in the death of their mother, Mrs. Ward of Lomax. She was loved by all who knew her. May the Lord bless and comfort the family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Grace and children of Savannah, Ga., and Mrs. Virgie Holland and daughters of Birmingham visited the Sanford Cole family Tuesday.

Mr. L. R. Armstrong, Mr. John D. Smith, Mrs. Bonnie Price and Mrs. Dolly Melton and Mr. Jim Foshee are on our prayer list.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayes of Chicago visited their grandmother, Mrs. Dolly Melton Monday. He is the son of Mrs. Gladys Hayes and the late Hershel Hayes.

Mr. E. Robinson of Montgomery visited the Riggins family last week.

Mrs. Mary Price visited her daughter, Marjorie and family on Saturday.

Please be present every Sunday as we are electing a pastor soon and want your vote. Let us be much in prayer for this serious undertaking. May the Lord guide us in selecting the right man for Mr. Pleasant.

I have often wondered why we take so long selecting a preacher wondering if we will like him. Why not turn it around and pray that he will like us well enough to lead us.

Mr. L. R. Armstrong, Mr. John D. Smith, Mrs. Bonnie Price and Mrs. Dolly Melton and Mr. Jim Foshee are on our prayer list.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayes of Chicago visited their grandmother, Mrs. Dolly Melton Monday. He is the son of Mrs. Gladys Hayes and the late Hershel Hayes.

Mr. E. Robinson of Montgomery visited the Riggins family last week.

Mrs. Mary Price visited her daughter, Marjorie and family on Saturday.

CLANTON DEFEATED BY TUSCALOOSA IN A DOUBLE HEADER

Kanora of Tuscaloosa defeated Johnson-2b Standard Oil Company of Clanton in a double header softball game in Tuscaloosa Wednesday, July 8, 1959, and Kanora will give a return doubleheader in Clanton on Saturday night, July 25 at the Clanton City Ball Park.

Kanora has a very good ball club, last year they played Pepsi Cola in the finals of the State Tournament with Pepsi winning by one run in the eleventh inning. Kanora came out 3rd in the Blue-Grey Tournament this year and were playing in a Tournament in Pensacola last Saturday.

Don Meritt pitched three hit ball for Clanton and the Club got 7 hits and couldn't get a run across the plate and Kanora won the first game 2 to 0.

Jackie Evans pitched a no hitter against Standard Oil in the second game and his team collected five hits off of Standard Oil second pitcher, Buddy Ford, with Kanora winning 4 to 0.

Jaycees Win...

(CONT'D. FROM FRONT)

The Lions won the second game as they had eleven runs to the Kiwanis ten. The Lions had ten hits and the Kiwanians had only three, but the Lions' pitcher walked thirteen of their batters which accounted for the ten runs.

TUESDAY JULY 14

The first game of Tuesday night's doubleheader on July 14, between the Jaycees and Lions was won by the Jaycees, with a final score of 5-4.

Perry Fulmer saved the game for the Jaycees when he hit a home run in the sixth inning with two out and the score being tied 4-4 up to that point.

Both of the team's hurlers did a fine job of pitching with the Lions' pitcher, Cecil Wade, striking out seven batters, and the J. C. pitcher, Allen Owens, striking out ten batters.

The Braves lost to the Kiwanians in the second game by a close score of 13-12.

Clanton - Original Home
Clanton is the original home of this Company and there exists a feeling of close relationship between those associated with the Company and the City of Clanton. In view of this it is believed that this brief history of the Company will prove interesting.

Elmore, Founder
V. J. Elmore, founder of the V. J. Elmore & Co. Inc. & S. L. Stores, Inc., was born on a farm in Alabama in 1887. Mr. Elmore, at the time of his death, was President and Treasurer of the Company. He was succeeded by his wife as President and she now occupies that position.

Opened in 1925
The first of the V. J. Elmore & Co. Inc. & S. L. Stores was opened in Clanton in 1925. This store produced sales of $32,794 the succeeding year. An additional store was opened at Jasper, Alabama, and by the end of the year 1928 there were five stores in operation. These stores operated profitably. As profits accumulated and personnel could be trained, there were additions made until at the time of Mr. Elmore's death in 1932 there were forty-four stores in operation with approximately 1,800 full-time and part-time employees. The Company, feeling that modernization is fully as important as expansion, has continuously improved and modernized stores as is evidenced by improvements made here in Clanton.

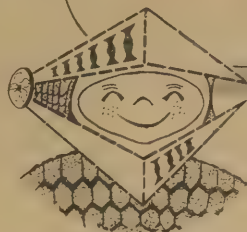

Incorporated
In 1935 the business was incorporated under the present name. The Company operated a warehouse at Clanton as a distributing point, but due to continued growth, it was decided to move the executive office and warehouse to Birmingham. A site was purchased at 10 South 14 Street in Birmingham, and in 1941 a modern office and warehouse building was erected. It at this location that the present headquarters and warehouse of the Company are maintained.

Reasonable Expansion
Through the foresight of Mr. Elmore in providing for an eventually and his selection and training of management personnel, the business has continued to operate profitably. A reasonable program of expansion has been maintained and with two additional stores to be opened during the current month, there will be sixty-eight in operation.

250 Employees
There are now approximately 250 regular and part-time employees. Insurance has been provided in insurance pension plan, group insurance and other benefits for the regular employees, the expense of which is borne by the Company. The warehouse and office building in Birmingham has been enlarged to provide ample space for operation. A company-owned fleet of trucks is operated and has facilitated delivery of merchandise to the various stores.

A great number of the members of the Company organization are from Clanton, the home of the first Elmore store.

How Much Is An Extra 20 Years of Life Worth?

Today, Modern Health Care
Can Often Make It Possible...

We are of course unable to measure the cost of life in terms of dollars. Yet the question asked above is not as vague as it may seem. Here's why—

Revolutionary progress in medical science skills, and in hospital care during the past 50 years has given the average individual 20 extra years of life. The normal life expectancy today has been increased from 50 years to almost 70.

Modern medicine is finding the answers to more and more of the diseases that were once fatal. But this skill and treatment is expensive. Often, lengthy hospital care is involved which requires a variety of treatment. For example, about 200 different kinds of laboratory tests are routinely conducted in a modern hospital.

These complex services—which prolong life and good health—also account for the fact that health care today costs a great deal more than it used to.

offers the best answer to rising costs...

How can the average Alabama family afford modern, life-saving hospital and medical care?

Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Alabama was created to provide the answer—and to protect you against a crippling financial burden that could result when this kind of costly care must be paid for.

Blue Cross-Blue Shield provides outstanding advantages to Alabama members. First, benefits and rates are based on local conditions. The Alabama health and community leaders who govern non-profit Blue Cross and Blue Shield are thoroughly familiar with local health needs. Coverage is realistically designed to meet present-day Alabama conditions.

Second, Blue Cross offers "service" benefits—

BRIGHT SPOTS
FOR POULTRY
RAISERS

The skies may look pretty dark right now, but there are certainly some bright spots in the poultry picture.

According to API Extension Poultry Specialist S. L. Davis, over-production or under-consumption has been one of the poultryman's main problems. To get the picture for the months ahead, he points out the significance of recent reports on production.

For the United States as a whole, the number of chicks hatched in May of this year was down 10 percent from the same month last year. And the number of broiler-type chicks was down four percent. Some especially good news for egg producers is that the number of egg-type chicks hatched in May was down 20 percent from May of 1958.

The specialist reports that broiler chicks hatched from January through May this year were up eight percent as compared to the same period last year. However, the news is better with egg-type chicks since there were four percent fewer hatched during the first five months of 1959. The number of broiler-type eggs in incubators on June 1 was seven percent less than a year ago. And the number of eggs for egg-type chicks was down 31 percent.

But the poultry industry in Alabama isn't following this national trend. The specialist reports that the state had an increase of 33 percent in the number of broiler chicks during January through May. And there were 35 percent more egg-type chicks hatched this year. This means that Alabama has increased from 50 million broiler chicks last year to 66 1/2 million during the same period this year. The number of egg-type chicks hatched during the first five months of 1959 has increased from 3,100,000 to 4,182,000.

CASE NO. 787-A
STATE OF ALABAMA,
COMPLAINANT

VS.
ONE 1949 FORD
MOTOR NO. 98BA 299101,
RESPONDENT

The Bill of Complaint of the State of Alabama, on the relation of Lawrence P. Gerald, Jr. County Solicitor of Chilton County, Alabama, against one 1949 Ford 2 door sedan, Motor Number 98BA 299101, being exhibited to me, and it appearing therefrom that on the 11th day of June, 1955, one Herman Stone, did transport in said automobile, certain prohibited liquors or beverages from one point to another in the State of Alabama, and that said automobile was, on the said date seized by Officers of Chilton County, Alabama, and said Bill of Complaint prays that this Court be declared and forfeited to the State of Alabama, and for an Order of Condemnation and sale thereof.

It is therefore Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed that notice of the filing of said Bill of Complaint be given for three successive weeks in the Chilton County News, a newspaper published in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, and that all persons claiming or asserting any right, title or interest in said automobile be required to appear and assert such claim by the 3rd day of August, 1959, and that failure to do so, their said right, title or interest will be forever barred.

Ordered and Decreed, this the 25 day of June, 1959.

OVERWEIGHT
PROFITABLE

Feeding hogs to heavy weights is seldom profitable.

Hogs that weigh around 230 to 240 pounds have a great percentage of their weight in fat, reports API Extension Hog Marketing Specialist Ray Cavender. He points out that the fat, in the form of pork shortening, has been selling for less at the retail store in the past months than the live animal brought per pound. Also, heavy hogs put on thick layers of fat in the muscle seams which lowers the quality of pork cuts from the consumer's standpoint.

Another reason for keeping down weight is that the cost per pound of gain increases substantially after the hog reaches 200 pounds. This means, says the specialist, that profit on additional gains, which may be sold on a lower market, tends to drop off.

According to Cavender, marketers prefer a high quality, that weighs between 200 and 250 pounds. This appears to be the most profitable market weight at the present time. However, producers continue to increase the size in hogs, it is predicted that future hog marketing will take place at earlier ages, lighter weights of 160 to 180 pounds. And because of the increased muscle size, this weight animal will continue to supply the homemaker with the pork she is accustomed to.

Research shows that the difference in the taste of lighter weight hogs, at the specialist. In fact, the 160 pound hog should cut out one pound or more of its carcass in lean cuts. In addition, most rapid gains are usually up to this point (then feed could be negative).

Up a steep mud-choked wash—Positraction pays off!

Through a mountain stream—deep in Awtinaquin Canyon.

NO MOUNTAIN CAT, MISTER...

That's a Chevy with Positraction!

That 3134 Fleece is the sure-footed way of a big western bobcat. Roams through high brush country that would buck the life out of most trucks. Crosses streams without benefit of a bridge. Climbs talus grades where pifon won't even grow. But that's all routine for this Chevy, equipped with Positraction rear axle. It's hard at it every day for the Utah Fish and Game commission. Figure about 60,000 miles of mountain driving before this Chevy is traded. And yet the district officer who drives it would bet his badge the tie rods won't even need replacing! Out in that wild, climbing Utah country, Chevy's suspension, frame and brakes, its Positraction rear axle and Thriftmaster 6 power are proving themselves under rougher conditions than most test engineers could dream up. They're proving that Chevrolet's advanced engineering and design ideas pay off—in spades—when the going gets especially mean and dirty.

Positraction, of course, is a big plus on this job, providing the sure grip needed to dig through mud, snow, loose sand, whatever comes along. Could be that a Positraction-equipped 1/2-ton pickup is the answer for your area of operation. Or maybe a 4-wheel drive Chevy. We've got trucks that specialize in getting in and out of any kind of country. Talk to your dealer about your needs. He'll show you what tough trucks are made of.

8 POINTS OF SOIL BANK COMPLIANCE

Chairman Eddie Owen of the Chilton County Agricultural Station and Conservation office today issued an eight-point reminder on the responsibilities of farmers who have entered into Soil Bank Conservation Reserve Contracts. He summarized the farmer's responsibility under his contract as follows:

1. No crop of any kind may be harvested from your Conservation Reserve land.
2. No grazing is permitted on any Conservation Reserve land.
3. Vegetative cover must be established and/or maintained.
4. If a conservation practice has been authorized for your Conservation Reserve land and the practice has not been established by the designated date, notify the county office at once.
5. If all of your eligible land is in the Conservation Reserve, do not grow any soil bank base crops.
6. If only part of your eligible land is in the Conservation Reserve, do not exceed your permitted acreage of soil bank base crops.

The Old Timer

mitted acreage of soil bank base crops.

7. Comply with any acreage allotment in effect on your farm. However, if you have a wheat allotment of less than 15 acres, you may raise as much as 15 acres of wheat (for 30 acres under the feed wheat program) without penalty provided you do not exceed your permitted acreage of soil bank base crops.
8. Control noxious weeds on your Conservation Reserve land. Clipping should be done when and where necessary but in the process of clipping be careful to prevent avoidable destruction of wildlife.

BACON THAT BRIDES WON'T BURN?

Research chemists have found how to cure bacon so it won't burn readily. Now meat packers can cure it with a synthetic sweetener instead of sugar, to get this virtually char-proof bacon.

Nutrition researchers are bringing many interesting changes to food products, but changing styles of foods won't change many Americans' preference for the two "old favorites"—BEER and ALE.

ing include a baccalaureate degree or higher from an accredited college or university. Age limits are 20 1/2 to 27 1/2. There are no marital or dependents restrictions. Applicants will enlist for two years and will receive their 90 days of training in the pay grade of Staff Sergeant.

Full details of this new opportunity can be obtained by visiting the Air Force Recruiting Office at the Post Office in Selma or by calling TR4-8127.

S&H Merchandise

and
Save Cash on Low Prices at Stores That Give S&H Green Stamps

You can come out dollars ahead, too, for these two reasons: (1) you can get 1500 different items of national brand merchandise by saving S&H Green Stamps. (2) Only efficient merchants—those who sell at low prices—distribute S&H Green Stamps. Merchants who distribute S&H Green Stamps must be top merchants in order to receive an S&H franchise to distribute Green Stamps.

CASE NO. 3561
STATE OF ALABAMA, PLAINTIFF
VS.
ONE H&R SPORTSMAN 22 PISTOL, AND WILLIE TRIPP, DEFENDANT.
RESPONDENT.

The bill of complaint of the State of Alabama on the relation of Lawrence F. Gerald, Jr., Deputy Solicitor of Chilton County, Alabama, against one Willie Tripp, and one H & R Sportsman 22 Pistol, being exhibited to me, and it appearing therefrom that on the 10th day of April, 1959, one Willie Tripp was convicted of carrying a pistol in violation of Section 175 of Title 14 of the Code of Alabama from one point to another in the State of Alabama, and that said pistol was on the 3rd day of June, 1958, seized by Edward V. Headley; and that said bill of complaint prays that said pistol be declared forfeited to the State of Alabama and for an order of condemnation and destruction thereof. And it further appearing to the Court that Willie Tripp has filed an answer and waiver in this cause; it is therefore, ordered that notice be given for three weeks by publication in the Chilton County News, and that all persons claiming or asserting any right, title or interest in said pistol be required to appear and assert such claim on the 15th day of August, 1959, and that failure to do so, their right, title and interest will forever be barred.

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, this the 9th day of July, 1959.

MAPLE SPRINGS-CHURCH NOTES

Mrs. A. C. Harris
Our pastor, Rev. N. E. Cook is recovering from an operation in the Prattville hospital. Latest reports are that he is doing fine. He still needs your prayers. Let's all remember him daily in our prayers.

In our pastor's absence last Sunday, Bro. J. W. Jones from Thorsby brought two wonderful messages of our Lord Jesus Christ. Bro. Jones is an old time friend to everyone here, having been with us for a time. It was good seeing and hearing him again. Bro. Jones had Sunday dinner with the Clyde Clackler family.

Singing
Our homecoming and all-day singing will be on the 4th Sunday in July. All singers and lovers of gospel music are invited to come and spend the day. We are expecting a large crowd and a wonderful singing. Bro. O. L. DeVaughn is chairman and we're asking everyone to come and help him out with the singing on July 26. Whether you sing or listen or just want a good dinner, or just want to come home, you are invited to attend this singing on the 4th Sunday.

FOLKS and THINGS About Town
by Ben

DOCK Wilkinson has dreams. Several weeks ago he had been in a lot about these "Toro" jobs in the newspapers and dreamed he found the evidence. When he found the identity of the men were found Dock had them for about 30 years. They are crazy.

TWO fellows had gone fishing Sunday morning and were feeling guilty. One remarked: "We should have gone fishing." "Hick," said the other, "I couldn't have gone to anyway. My wife is sick."

HEARD the chimes of the church playing the past. They had been in need of some time now and were in town. Glad they were again, the sound of the music is sweet.

LET the younger generation find what finding a horsehoe would think it meant the was running around in his time feet.

ADVERTISING is just another of calling on your customers.

SURE were cowboys galore Chilton County, Wednesday. Black Angus Breeders Association held a field meeting in the field of the county and had the barbecue. According to the classmate they had been bargaining for three days they were waiting for such a big crowd. Best of success. Anyway, after it over there was "no beef".

LIFE is cruel to men. When they born their mothers get them and flowers; when they married the bride gets them and publicity; and when they die, their wives get the inheritance and the winters in Florida.

Death Plagues Chilton As 6 Die In Week-End Mishaps

Plane Plummets to Earth; All Perish

SATURDAY afternoon at 3:10 o'clock the lives of four Birmingham men were snuffed out in the crash of their small private plane. Three of the men were from one family. The other was an In-Law.

Reported eye witnesses stated that the plane lost part of its tail assembly in flight and went helplessly out of control. According to reports from those on the scene the pilot, Leo C. Bridges, 26 of Center Point apparently did all he could to right his crippled plane but his efforts were futile and the plane plummeted to earth in a loud crash. It landed, wheels up.

Others in the crash were: L. F. Wilder, Sr., 55 of Locust Fork owner of the small aircraft; his son L. F. Wilder, Jr., 32 of Center Point and Lester J. Wilder, 50 of Village Springs, brother of the Senior Mr. Wilder. Bridges, it was reported, was the son-in-law of the Senior Mr. Wilder.

The Chilton County Rescue Squad was called to the scene, but the bodies had already been taken from the wreckage when they arrived according to authorities. The State Highway Patrol kept an all night vigil at the site of the crash so that FAA officials could investigate and try to find evidence of why the plane went to pieces.

The bodies were taken to Martin Funeral Home in Clanton and later removed to Birmingham.

HOME COMING AT MAPLE SPRINGS

Our homecoming and all-day singing will be next Sunday, July 26th. Everyone is invited, singers and listeners alike. Dinner will be served at the noon hour. Prof. O. L. Devaughn is chairman. Let's all show our appreciation for him, by helping make this a great day, singing and giving praise unto the Lord. You be here and I'm sure you will feel the Spirit of the Lord. Everyone invited.

We're happy to report that our pastor, Rev. N. E. Cook is home and doing fine. After a stay in the Prattville Hospital. May God's richest blessings be with you is our prayer.

MISS CHISM ATTENDS TWIRLING CAMP IN GEORGIA

WELLS FAMILY REUNION

THE Wells family reunion will be held on Sunday, August 2nd, at the G. H. Wells on Highway 22, LaGrange, Ala. Relatives are cordially invited to attend.

MAYOR MAKES FIRST CALL

Mapleville changed smoothly to the "25" telephone numbering system, Southern Bell disclosed today. When the switch was thrown, all telephone numbers became a part of the new nationwide system using an office name and five numerals.

W. R. Evans, manager of the telephone company, said that while some people apparently forgot that the new system went into effect July 19th, the change was made with a minimum of difficulty.

"Of course, there were some old numbers dialed the first day or so, but we haven't encountered many mistakes.

If everyone will look up numbers in the new directory, it will cut our virtually all wrong number dialing."

The telephone official credited the change with the successful inauguration of the new numbering system.

Yellowleaf Claims 2 As Auto Jumps Rail

JUST before 9 p.m. Saturday a car carrying fisherman home to Calera from a day on the Coosa River crashed a railing on the Yellowleaf Creek Bridge just South of Lay Dam killing John Glass, 60 and Mrs. Sarah Dean Harris, 32. John Harris, husband of the dead woman escaped with his life.

The car, driving with only one dim headlight, according to reports, approached the trestle bridge from the north. The car went out of control and went over the railing of the bridge, plunged 20 feet into Yellowleaf Creek and landed in a deep pool of 5 feet of water, where investigators Harris found Glass out of the car and then went for his wife. She was hopelessly pinned in the wreckage and he could not help her. She is the mother of two children.

Ironically, fishermen were completing a few days ago for the construction of a new bridge across this creek. Building will start immediately. Members of the Alabama Revenue and Conservation Department will be finished in two or three days.

Lawyers who report this as a gross negligence case will ask all such cases to be paid in Chilton County and ask to make them safer for the motoring public. Appropriate signs and railings can sometimes mean life... or death!

ALA. INDUCTION CALL IS 272

NONE CALLED FROM CHILTON

STATE Director Walter M. Thompson, Jr. disclosed today that a total of 272 men will be called to the induction station in August to fill the Alabama Selective Service quota.

Thompson said that the August national call is for 7,000 men. In July the nation had an overall quota of 8,000. All were channeled to Army service.

The State Department said the Alabama call would assume students, delinquents, and persons on I-A and I-A-O, without children. Individual county calls are based on those available registrants examined and acceptable.

REV. COLES TO PREACH AT 1ST. METHODIST JULY 26

REV. Lawrence W. Coles, director of Adult Work of the Alabama-West Florida Conference, will fill the pulpit at the Clanton Methodist Church Sunday, July 26th, morning and evening. Rev. Coles is from Montgomery.

The public is invited to hear this fine speaker on Sunday morning at 11 a.m. and on Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. The Evening Service will also feature special singing by the Youth Choir under the direction of Mrs. Henry Arthur Roper, and the Children's Choir under the direction of Miss Helen Parrish. The Church Nursery will be open to care for the smaller children.

THE Peoples Savings Bank has been approved to make FHA property improvement loans to homeowners.

The approval was contained in a letter sent today to Mr. James D. Helin, Assistant Cashier of the bank by Mr. Roy F. Cooke, Assistant Commissioner of the Federal Housing Administration.

Loans are available to all owners for remodeling, modernizing and repairing homes under this widely-used FHA Title I low cost budget plan.

SUPT. OF EDUCATION GIVES PROGRESS OF LOCAL 1 CENT SALES TAX

In recent weeks we have had many inquiries from patrons throughout the county relative to the one-cent sales tax. It was passed by an act of the Legislature of 1958 to 1959 in the amount of $100 to $120 in the amount of election of November 4, 1958. Interest of the people has been aroused by the fact that the legislature is in session and right now is in special session trying to find solutions to the educational problems with which our state is confronted. Two, people feel sure that boys and girls will be in school buildings that are modern and attractive.

September is fast approaching and the school year is beginning. The Board of Education with its members and interested citizens think it best to explain to the people how the money is being used in the progress that has been made in setting up an adequate program of building and improvement. Since the election on November 4, the Board of Education and the Superintendent have been very closely with Representative Speaks and Senator Joe Graham. Numerous meetings have been held to plan the school improvement program of the county which the money from the tax will support.

Explains Progress

Since the election on November 4, the Board of Education and the Superintendent have been very closely with Representative Speaks and Senator Joe Graham. Numerous meetings have been held to plan the school improvement program of the county which the money from the tax will support.

Architect, Committees

The Board of Education has employed on a tentative basis an architect who has already commenced plans for the new school building.

Thanks

The Board of Education and the Superintendent again wish to express appreciation to Representative Speaks and Senator Joe Graham and to the people of Chilton County for their splendid cooperation in wanting better educational facilities for the boys and girls of Chilton County.

Signed: W. A. LeCroy, Superintendent.

SPOTS IN THE NEWS

A New Pastor --

Liberty Hill Baptist Church proudly announces that they have a new pastor and family with them. He is the Rev. Harvey J. Matthews and according to reports comes highly recommended and is a fine fellow. We look forward to meeting him!

Who Dunit?--

According to numerous reports (some of them unfriendly) we learned that the Kiwanians licked the Jaycees 16-9 in a Saturday game last week. It definitely was a scheduled game (source reliable) and it was the first time the Jaycees had been defeated in three years. Now, did we stick our neck out to again? By the way, Little League Standing in next issue.

New P.T.A.--

Mr. Billie Dennis is president of the newly-formed P.T.A. at Mapleville. See other officers and committeemen in this week's Shoutles News by Mrs. Robert McAfee. Inside!

28 Years--

Mr. L. E. Daniels, who is retiring his position as principal of Mapleville High School, has been principal there for 28 years. That in itself is an admirable record. But he can get up some noble memories dealing with young'uns for that length of time.

Mr. Walter C. Herrod, retired Mail Carrier at Planterville suffered a stroke, but is now returned from the hospital and is able to be up a bit. Details in this week's Stanton News with Miss Ruth Hicks.

Quack, Quack--

Local Jaycees are in the midst of a drive for membership and have already more than doubled that of a month ago. Why? Because the fellow who doesn't have a new member gets, to keep a duck and her 19 6-week-old brood! Anybody want to be a Jaycee?

Babe Ruth Tournament--

The Babe Ruth Monday Tournament will be held in Clanton this year and begins Monday night, July 27 at the City Park at 6 o'clock. Double elimination series will be played Tuesday and Wednesday and until a winner is chosen for the State Tournament.

Mr. Cox Makes Statement--

Mr. W. B. Cox of Clanton, Rt. 2 made the statement to the effect that the will be 80 years young this Saturday and also stated "I would like to see this world go back to God before I go." He also said "his feeling fine so perhaps this is an indication that he will be around to see his wish come true. Many in this world are working on it Mr. Cox!"

COMMITTEEMEN NAMED FOR COUNTY FHA

A TRAINING meeting was held in Talladega, Tuesday, July 14, for the FHA County Committeemen from 8 Central Alabama counties. There are three committeemen from each county. Any loan made by the FHA must first be recommended by the local County Committee. A review was made of types and terms of loans and eligibility of applicants.

Committeemen attending from Chilton County were Fozzie T. Williams, Chairman, of Rt. 1, Billingsley, H. A. Roper, Rt. 3, Clanton, and Charlie R. Childers, Rt. 1, Jonestown.

Isaac C. Byrd, County Supervisor, and L. G. Nichols, Assistant Supervisor, from the local FHA Office also attended the meeting.

CHILTON GUARD NOW AT FT. MCLELLAN

CHILTON County, Alabama and Mississippi National Guardsmen in the 31st Infantry (Dixie) Division are in their first week of the annual summer camp at Ft. McClellan.

More than 5,000 troops arrived at camp Sunday with no accidents or mishaps en route reported.

The troops began training immediately after their arrival.

The reorganization of the Dixie Division from the old three-regiment system to the modern "pentomic" concept of five battle groups is complete.

Since the reorganization, some men who were formerly in the engineers, anti-aircraft artillery, and other non-infantry units, are now in rifle companies.

EARLY START -- INSURES SUCCESS --

It has been proven time and again that an early start is a prime factor in the success of any undertaking. This being established, the Chilton County Fair for 1959 is a guaranteed success in every way!

Ideas from such community-spirited fellows as John Ponder Lawrence, Buddy Wade, Red Glasscock, Archie Ogburn, and Lewis Headley are flying fast and furious and most important... they are following through with their ideas.

Lawrence has given very definite and well-planned posters on new and more effective booth arrangements for the benefit of local merchants and the pleasure and convenience of the public in general.

Buddy Wade is working tirelessly on literally every aspect of the Fair, always with the public interest and feeling in first place of importance. He's a "go-getter" no question!

Of course "Red" is an old hand with County Fair business and his experience is proving invaluable to the Fair Committee on difficult problems.

Mr. Archie, his usual business-like self offers suggestions as to the general effectiveness of the Fair; how it will please the people and how it will prove profitable.

Lewis Headley, knows the need of a County Fair and is using his rare abilities as a talker and booster (both of individuals and groups) to further cooperation of the Fair Committee and the general public.

At literally every meeting of this group, there is that ever-present awareness that these people are working to accomplish something for the good of a majority. This year's Fair will very definitely be a decisive one as to whether or not Chilton County wants and appreciates an effort such as this. Without the tremendous efforts of the fellows mentioned and scores of others like them we would not have a County Fair.

What can you do about it? Support it in every way possible and most important attend it and praise its effectiveness if you think it deserves recognition.

WHAT ABOUT WELFARE--

WELFARE started out on a local level as a gesture of brotherly love and has successfully grown into one of the most taken advantage of "Bureaus" anywhere in our government. There are without a doubt untold thousands of people who honestly deserve "welfare". We may very well depend upon ourselves someday. This, however, does not alter the fact that "professional parasites" take advantage of these opportunities at every turn. This is just one instance of our economy going in the hole. But it is 'an instance' and something should be done to correct it.

A STANDARD, BUT WHAT HAPPENED TO TRUTH AND CONVICTION

WE, in the United States, yes, in Alabama, even in Chilton County truly have a high standard of living. Our economy and our way of living has given us a false interpretation of just what a high standard of living is; nevertheless, in terms of financial security we do have high standards.

Arguments that truth and noble convictions will not fill your empty stomach are true enough. That's as far as they are true, however. A man is not a man without personal convictions on the right and wrong of a situation. If a man let's his desire for a higher standard of living overshadow his inner knowledge of truth and conviction he is no longer of much use to the progress of his race.

No doubt, the men and women who fought for and built the Country we now enjoy appreciated what an empty stomach was like, yet they found their strength in their personal convictions that they were working for something good and something lasting.

Unionism is making petty, fun-loving selfish loafers out of too many Americans who claim they are striving for a higher standard of living. Our standard of living is now higher than it ever has been; in other words, we're in the midst of plenty. Why do we not have time to stop and survey the situation and get our economy on an even keel again. Our culture could stand improving. Our standard of living is at a peak! Striking, bawling, wanting more and acting detrimental to get it is not, to our way of thinking, any form of progress or for that matter a means toward a higher standard of living.

About this time each year, there is quite a bit of speculation as to the adjournment date of Congress. Although no one knows exactly when the House and Senate will conclude their legislative business, it is generally agreed that adjournment will not come this year until after the middle of August. The President has indicated that he may call a special session in the fall if Congress does not enact certain of his recommendations before adjournment. Most members are doubtful, however, that a special session will materialize.

Record to Date

In addition to the enactment of the annual appropriation bills, Congress this year has passed legislation to stimulate airport construction, admit the Territory of Hawaii as the 50th state, extend the military training program, tax life insurance companies under new formula, raise the national debt limit, and extend corporate and excise taxes.

An omnibus housing bill recently approved by Congress was vetoed by the President on July 7. Among other provisions, this bill authorized urban renewal grants totaling $900 million over a two-year period and the construction of 45,000 additional public housing units. The bill was defeated and members of the House went on to approve the bill that was later vetoed.

Thus, housing legislation still remains on the agenda and will undoubtedly be considered again before Congress adjourns.

Bills Pending

Pending in the Senate at the present time are a number of House-approved measures. Foremost among these is the bill dealing with enforcement of state laws which are not in direct conflict with federal acts. On the other hand, the House has not yet considered labor-management reform legislation, although the Senate has already passed a bill on this subject.

Committees of either or both the House and Senate are presently conducting hearings on measures that may or may not be considered before Congress adjourns. These include bills pertaining to civil rights, federal aid to education, minimum wage increase, methods of financing the highway construction program, and expansion of social security benefits, including hospital care for the aged. Pending measures not considered before adjournment of the present session will be taken over to the Second Session of the 86th Congress which will convene next January.

PRODUCE A FINE LAWN WITH GOOD MANAGEMENT

Most homeowners fail to realize what fine lawns Bermuda and zoysia will give with a good start and good management.

Although these species will survive neglect, states A. E. Lowney, Agronomist J. C. Lowery, why not give extra care and produce a beautiful turf? For best fertilization results, the agronomist recommends top-dressing pure standards of Bermuda grass and zoysia with 10 pounds of 8-8 fertilizer per 1,000 square feet in the spring. This practice should be repeated every four to eight weeks.

According to Lowery, one pound of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet will be substituted for some of the 8-8-8 applications. The last application of fertilizer should be applied three or four weeks before the usual time for the first killing frost.

Don't apply lime without first making a soil test for acidity land alkalinity, advises the specialist.

ally to get it is not, to our way of thinking, any form of progress or for that matter a means toward a higher standard of living.

One union member, apparently, sums up his opinion thusly, "Why not a cut in profits to ease inflation and I am sure there would be no strike." Which came first, the chicken or the egg? It's a stalemate we can't afford and since our "standard of living" is at such a high level, we might consider doing without some of our "necessities" and thus bring inflation to a much needed screeching halt!

"BETTER SAFE THAN SORRY"

MEN ARE CARELESS
(1st in a series)
MEN ARE SHOWBOYS.

And besides, most guys are showboies. These observations come, strangely enough, from a member of the so-called stronger sex -- Thomas Fansler.

In support of his opinions, Fansler, director of the home division of the National Safety Council, cites such facts as these:

1. Seven out of 10 persons who die in accidents are males.
2. Males are killed more often than females in accidents involving motor vehicles, fires, drownings, firearms, railroads, poison gases and poisons.

"In a recent year," Fansler pointed out, "men were killed three times more often in motor vehicle accidents than women."

Thirty years ago, the average white female lived about three years longer than the average white male. Today she can expect to outlive her man by more than six years.

A big reason for this, according to Fansler, is that men are careless. "Men are careless," he says, "and that's why they die."

"It's a hazardous job to be done around the house," Fansler explained, "the man does it. Besides men's jobs involve more accidents than women's."

"And men so often are showboies."

Solution to the problem? The little woman.

"Women," said Fansler, "can do a lot to keep their men alive. They can encourage them to play it safe when doing odd jobs around the house."

"They can persuade hubby he isn't expendable, that he doesn't have to keep proving himself."

"No woman wants to be a widow -- even of a would-be superman," he said.

Across Editor's Desk -- Chilton Old-Timer
Praises News as "Fine Weekly"

WE received a card this week from Mrs. H. S. Van Hoose of 518 Forest Hills Blvd., Knoxville, Tennessee and she had some kind words indeed for the Chilton County News as well as the Sumter County Journal. Mrs. Van Hoose is a native of Chiltonian and resident until 1915; she still keeps up with her home County happenings.

"Dear Mr. Tucker, The Chilton County News arrives regularly (Saturdays) and I'm much delighted with each issue! A fine weekly!"

Chilton County was my native County until 1915 when Sumter County became my home until recent years. Also the Sumter County News is my weekly visitor. Both papers are quite welcome, 'newspaper friends'.

Success to both you editors. Sincerely, Mrs. H. S. Van Hoose

Fort best results, the pH of the soil should be 6.0 or higher. Lime according to the soil test recommendations.

"Good fertilization and correct clipping go together," points out Lowery. "And regardless of how intelligently a lawn is fertilized, clipping it too close will thin out all of the grasses."

Pure Bermuda grass should be clipped from one to three inches. If the Bermuda grows in a mixture, clip it to one-half inch after the first killing frost in the fall. Then rake it to minimize mat or thatch accumulation. Pure Bermuda grass sods need not be raked of leaves until the spring.

A STATE INCOME TAX IS FAIRER THAN A SALES TAX; THE SALES TAX HITS THE PEOPLE LEAST ABLE TO AFFORD IT.

By Kenneth Fink, Director
Princeton Research Service

Princeton, New Jersey--Across the nation, state government officials faced with the task of meeting ever increasing budgets are confronted with the problem of enacting new taxes or increasing rates on their present forms of taxation.

In many states, the problem of adding a penny or two to their present sales tax or increasing rates on their present income tax is one that is giving legislators much concern.

Some states--those with neither a state income tax or a state sales tax--are facing the problem of which form of tax--a sales or an income--should be enacted.

To determine people's thinking on the matter, MAIN OF THE STREET and his reporters over the past months have been asking people to make choices between a state income tax on the one hand and a state sales tax on the other. Of even more importance, the people talked to were then asked why they preferred the tax they named.

Today's report will deal with the reasons people give for preferring a state income tax. Next week's report will show why people prefer a state sales tax.

Now just what are the reasons why a sizable group of the people talked to prefer a state income tax to a state sales tax?

Analysis of the findings shows that the reasons are support on the minds of those who prefer a state income tax to a state sales tax.

1. The income tax is based on ability to pay; it's fairer; it's more equitable; it's in proportion to income; if you make more money, you pay more; it hits the higher income brackets; it's in proportion to earnings; you are taxed on what you earn; all proportionately graduated. 39%
2. The sales tax hits the people least able to afford it; it hits the poor man; poor people pay higher proportion than the rich with a sales tax; some people can't afford to pay a sales tax; sales tax hits all even if they don't have the money; if I'm out of work, I don't have to pay an income tax; low salaried and big families pay more under sales tax; poor people can't afford to pay a sales tax. 27%
3. The sales tax is a nuisance; don't like to be annoyed paying a couple of cents at a time; don't want to pay pennies every time I buy something; pain in the neck to pay sales tax everywhere you go; with sales tax, you pay every time you buy something; don't like the idea of paying every time I buy. 11%
4. Two out of every three (67 percent) of all those who prefer the state income tax to a state sales tax named one of the above three reasons.
5. Next most frequently mentioned reasons for preferring a state income tax are:
6. You wouldn't miss income tax so much; they'd take it out of your pay; it would be regular payments; would come out of wages and you wouldn't feel it so much. 7%
7. A sales tax would reduce business in the state; people would buy less; would interfere with economy so much; would reduce buying; out of states wouldn't buy here if we had sales tax. 4%
8. Just prefer it; would be better. 10%
9. I've had a sales tax in other states; New York's sales tax is a pain in the neck; I had it in North Carolina; didn't like it in Arkansas; didn't like it in West Virginia; didn't like it when I lived in Ohio. 16%
10. The sales tax is too hard to administer; too complicated; gets all fouled up. 3%
11. Just don't like a sales tax; never did like it. 3%
12. You pay the income tax in one lump sum; it's a yearly tax; not paying all the time. 3%

Smaller groups mention that you know where you stand with the income tax; that is, you can budget your money better; that the income tax wouldn't put a burden on retired people; that the prices of things would go up with a sales tax; that you may get refunds from income tax payments; that the sales tax is a hidden tax; that the sales tax would collect more money from the income tax; and that there would be less chance for chiselling with an income tax.

WE have found out that the fellow who gets up the articles to go into our "Public Opinion" column which starts this week was the only Pollster in the nation to predict flatly that Eisenhower would win in 1952. He also predicted Congressional Elections in 1956 within 1% accuracy. This is well worth considering and we hope you'll watch for our new "Public Opinion" column which will appear weekly.

BROTHER McKinney didn't come around to see us like we said (we didn't suppose he would) so we took the liberty of going out to see him at Mt. Nebo last Sunday. Bro. "Mac" will never know how much he meant to us while here in Clanton and we sorely missed him these past seven years. He's looking well. Had his arm in a cast. He said something about the missus, but we don't think she broke it. No, he fell off a chair while cutting some hedge and broke the big bone in his right arm. He's getting over it now and it will be good as new. He also tells us that son Fred (who was our close friend) is now married, living in Bay Minette and has a young son. Time flies, 'is true, but we hope it's not another seven years before we get to see Bro. "Mac" or some of the clan. But one thing though, if it's not seven years we'll have to go to Dothan to see him! By the way, his address is 202 Airport Road, Dothan, Ala.

SPORTSMEN-- Vital Data on What, When to Hunt in State

Alabama's Advisory Board of Conservation today set hunting, trapping and fishing seasons, bag and creel limits for the coming year, according to an announcement by the State Department of Conservation.

Major changes from last year's seasons were setting the closing date for the deer season on January 1 rather than January 4; ending deer hunting throughout the state on November 26 rather than November 20; and opening the quail season on November 1 rather than November 20; separating seasons for north and south Alabama, and opening of the quail season November 26 rather than October 1 in counties north of the Alabama River.

Bagging seasons for the coming year are as follows:

Deer Hunting
Hunting only with less than three antlers may be taken one or two a season. The season shall extend from November 1 through January 1 in the following counties and areas: Bibb, Butts, Catoosa, Clarke, Conecuh, Etowah, Greene, Hale, Jefferson, Mobile, Monroe, Perry, Russell, Sumter, Tuscaloosa, Walker, Wilcox, and Wilcox County. (except south and west of U. S. Highway 90; Coosa, Walker County south of U. S. Highway 5 and east of U. S. Highway 69.)

Hunting with limits of one and one a season will be allowed Nov. 13-14; Nov. 16-17; 27-28; and Dec. 4-5 in Col. County (except Colbert County) and Franklin County south of Alabama Highway 24.

Hunting of deer with limits of one a day or two a season will be allowed in Shelby County on Wednesdays and Saturdays between 5 and Dec. 5 with days of hunting. The Port Rucker Reservation hunting will be open Nov. 1 through Jan. 1.

Bag hunting of deer only will be allowed in the following counties and areas from November 10 -

Squirrel Season
Squirrel season shall extend from October 15 through January 1 north of Highway 80 and from Nov. 1 through Jan. 15 south of Highway 80. Bag limit is six a day or in possession.

Turkey
Hunters may take gobblers only with a total bag limit of one a day or five during the entire 13-20 seasons.

Turkey
Hunting will be open for the fall season November 10 through January 1 and the spring season March 25 through April 20 in Clay, Coosa, Jefferson, Randolph, Shelby, Talladega, Tuscaloosa and Walker Counties.

Turkey
Hunting will be open for the fall season from November 10 through January 1 and for the spring season from March 20 - April 15 in Bibb, Butler, Chilton, Choctaw, Clarke, Conecuh, Escambia, Mobile, Monroe, Washington, Wilcox and Baldwin County except south and west of U. S. Highway 90.

Bobwhite Quail
Bobwhite Quail may be hunted November 26 through February 20 with bag limit 10 a day and possession limit 10.

COURTNEY QUAIL
may be hunted November 26 through February 20 with bag limit 10 a day and possession limit 10.

DOVE season was not set because federal regulation which governs the Alabama seasons have not yet been announced. However, the Advisory Board recommended that half days of dove hunting be allowed, with a split season, the first half as early as possible and the last half as late as possible.

WOODCOCK season was not set pending receipt of federal regulations.

Rabbit
Rabbit hunting in South Alabama with bag limit of six a day will extend from Oct. 1 through Feb. 20. In North Alabama (Counties north of Jefferson County) rabbit hunting will be legal from Nov. 26 through Feb. 20 with bag limit of six a day.

FOX, no closed season, no bag limit.

Waterfowl Season
Waterfowl Season were not set pending receipt of federal migratory bird regulations. Time for shooting resident game will extend from daylight to half hour after sunset. Previously it closed at sunset.

Trapping
November 1 through February 20 for civil cat, skunk, fox, opossum, muskrat, weasel, otter, raccoon, beaver, mink, and nutria.

Fishing
Fishing creel limits remain unchanged from the past year with season on game fish open the year round throughout Alabama.

LOCAL MERCHANTS ARE WELL REPRESENTED IN CHILTON COUNTY NEWS

THE FIZZLE FAMILY

REV. MATTHEWS NOW PASTOR AT LIBERTY HILL

Rev. Harvey J. Matthews, pastor Our new pastor, Rev. Harvey Matthews is now on the field and we are glad to have him and his family with us. We are looking forward to "laboring together with God."

A large crowd attended the closing of our two-week music school last Friday night. Bro. W. M. Devaughn did a wonderful job of teaching, and we think lasting good has been accomplished. We were indeed glad to have all the visitors with us. We passed the 100 mark in enrollment and about 15 churches were represented.

Last Sunday morning we carried out the slogan "Everyone bringing some amount for the building fund", and the amount of $409.95 was given. Our building fund is really growing and we are to begin real soon on our new Educational Building. We are badly in need of more space and we know that the Lord will bless us in this effort.

Revivals are the results of prayer and work. The field is white unto harvest." Rev. Tom Broom, all of Brandon, Fla., will be with us August 24-30. We are looking forward to his coming and praying now for a great revival.

Coming and Going
Mrs. Bernice Johnson was back in church Sunday, after having been sick for some time. We are so glad that she is able to be back with us.

Visiting with the Coy Kendrick's Sunday were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kendrick, Carolyn and Shirley of Birmingham, Roy Kendrick and Roy, Jr., and Mrs. Alice Powell of Thorby, Judge and Mrs. J. B. Atkinson, Luther Kendrick, Glenda and Jimmy of Clanton, Miss Joan Atkinson of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reid attended the funeral Monday of Mr. Reid's aunt, Mrs. Ella Mitchell at the Enon Baptist Church, Shelby.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Stevens from Alexander City visited Mr. and Mrs. Zane Lowery Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ruthie Harris from Montgomery is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lerla Eubanks.

Those having dinner with the Jimmy Blackwell's Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Blackwell of Mulberry, Fla. and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blackwell, Brenda and Terry.

most miles per gallon ONE OF THE 7 BIG BESTS CHEVROLET GIVES YOU OVER ANY CAR IN ITS FIELD

Take it not from us, but from official results of this year's Mobilgas Economy Run: Chevy's pennypinching 6 delivers the most miles per gallon in its field. For a pair of these Chevrolet sized with Powerlock walked away with the first two places in their class, getting the best mpg figure—a whopping 22.38—of any full-size car. And here are more expert, impartial opinions and on-the-record facts backing us up on Chevy's other six bests:

BEST TRADE-IN
Check the figures in any N.A.D.A.* Guide Book. Chevrolet used car prices last year averaged up to 12% higher than comparable models of the "other two."

BEST STYLE
It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "Chevrolet establishes a new high in daring styling."

BEST BRAKES
In direct competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by NASCAR, Chevrolet out-stopped both of the other leading low-priced cars—and why not? Chevy brakes are far larger, built with bonded linings, to help lengthen brake life by as much as 66%.

BEST ROOM
Official dimensions reported to A.M.A. make this clear. For example, Chevy front seat hip room is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars.

BEST ENGINE
Every motor magazine has given Chevrolet's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "Indeed this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

BEST RIDE
MOTOR TREND magazine calls Chevy "the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." You'll be able to tell this yourself, instantly. And your Chevrolet dealer can tell you about a long list of other advantages besides these 7 big ones!

PAYNE-GUNN WEDDING

MISS LaNelle Payne became the bride of Roger Gunn in a lovely candlelight ceremony at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Pope Payne, Jr., of Thorsby, July 10th at 8:00. Parents of the groom are Mrs. Pearl Gunn and the late Jesse Gunn. The Rev. B. B. Burks and Rev. Robert Carden officiated in the double ring ceremony.

The brides only attendant was her twin sister, Miss LeDella Payne, who served as maid of honor. She was beautiful in a ballerina length dress of pale blue taffeta with a short blue veil and matching head dress. Her flowers were white carnations. The bride was lovely in a ballerina length dress of white taffeta and Chantilly lace. The basque waist was accented with a scooped neckline of frosted white lace medallions. The long sleeves came to the wrists and were attached to a white tulle skirt with a white orle, stepianotis and white bridal ribbons. The bride's father of the bride, served as best man.

Parents of the bride entertained at a reception following the ceremony. After a short honeymoon the couple will be at home in Birmingham.

WOMEN SAY NO TO NEW TAXATION

Mrs. J. F. McVay, Jackson Alabama, President of the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs, said that members of the Federation are unalterably opposed to any increase in gasoline taxes, federal or otherwise.

Mrs. McVay, who is leader of 30,000 Clubwomen in Alabama, said that the present proposals to increase the federal gasoline tax should be rejected by Congress because gasoline taxes already are cutting deeply into household budgets. "We pay our own expenses to and from our many Federation meetings, and we object to having additional taxes taken from our limited personal funds."

"In line with the General Federation of Women's Clubs the Alabama Federation at its Board Meeting in January passed unanimously a motion opposing any federal tax increase in gasoline. We feel that special automotive taxes already paid by the motorist should be applied to the highway building program before additional burdens via higher taxes are placed upon the car owners."

CLANTON WITH MISS HICKS

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gay, Sr., received word from their son, Mr. C. Gay, Jr., and family that they had arrived back home from an enjoyable vacation with the Gay family (Mrs. Ruth Gay) in Michigan. C. C. and family visited Mammoth Cave in Kentucky many other points of interest. Arriving in Caro, Mr. Gould and Mr. Gay went to the wilds of Michigan for a weeks fishing. They had their headquarters in On. They especially enjoyed the beautiful woods of Michigan. C. C. Gay's returned Sunday night, July 19. Walter C. Hand of Bethesda, Maryland, entered a Washington last Sunday for on his hands. We wish Hand a complete and satisfactory operation.

Zula Duncan, popular Cafe manager and manager of Planters entered a Selma Hospital early morning, Saturday. We trust her stay will be short and not of a serious nature.

Suffers Stroke

Water C. Herrod of Planters Mail Carrier, suffered stroke and was confined to Memorial Hospital for several days. We are glad to report Herrod returned to his home Saturday and is able to move around the house part of the day. Mr. Herrod at the age of 20 was made a Rural Carrier (S. Eastern Star Supper

Last Saturday night, the Plantersville Eastern Star Members met at the Eastern Star Hall and enjoyed a covered dish supper. Miss Julia Levins, lovely and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parmer Levins, presented a musical program during the meal and the entertainment which added so much to the enjoyment of the evening. Mrs. Barney Levins asked all the men present, to join in a Contest, which they did. This contest held the group's interest and much laughter.

only 8 days left...

to take advantage of the special

Blue Cross-Blue Shield enrollment opportunity in Chilton County!

July is the month Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Alabama has dedicated to Better Health Protection in Chilton County. Now—Chilton County residents have only eight days left to apply for individual (Non-Group) Blue Cross-Blue Shield health coverage with this special offer!

During July only, all employment conditions on Non-Group membership have been removed. Every Chilton County resident under 70 years of age and in good health is eligible to apply for Blue Cross-Blue Shield's broad new $25 Deductible Contract—regardless of where they are employed!

Only eight days remain to take advantage of this valuable offer. So act right away!

How Blue Cross-Blue Shield gives you

BROADER BENEFITS — MORE DEPENDABLE PROTECTION

Blue Cross offers its members "service" benefits—not limited dollar allowances. The new $25 Deductible Contract provides coverage for actual hospital services, drugs, and other contract benefits with NO DOLLAR LIMIT OF ANY KIND during the liberal eligible period of coverage.

As health costs increase, your Blue Cross benefits automatically increase, also. For example, when new drugs are introduced, they are promptly included in your Blue Cross coverage. This flexibility gives you far greater protection than dollar-maximum coverage which usually remains unchanged... despite rising charges for health care.

Blue Cross-Blue Shield is the only non-profit community health plan in Alabama.

There are no stockholders. Except for small operating expenses, all money taken in is available to members in the form of health benefits. During 1958, 95.71% of money received from members was used to pay hospital and doctor bills.

Prompt hospital admission is assured to Blue Cross-Blue Shield members. The Identification Card is honored in 123 Alabama Member Hospitals, and usually no advance cash deposit is required, as with many other plans.

Your Blue Cross-Blue Shield membership is never cancelled because of job change, condition of health, amount of benefits furnished, retirement, or because of advancing age.

ACT NOW! This Special BHP Month offer is limited to July only!

If you have been unable to form a group, or if you have simply been putting off this vital means of financial protection, we urge you to take advantage of this special membership opportunity now, while all employment conditions on Non-Group membership are removed.

Dues payments are easier than ever, too!

There is no registration fee—and you now have a choice of paying the reasonable rates either bi-monthly or quarterly.

HOW TO APPLY!

For complete information on how to become a Blue Cross-Blue Shield member, mail this coupon or contact any of the following men. They will give you full facts about this wonderful opportunity!

—Grady Loftin, special Blue Cross-Blue Shield representative at the Chilton County Hospital in Clanton.

—Farm Bureau members—contact agents Claude S. Blackwell, Clanton, or J. Archie Ogburn, Thorsby.

NO. LEGAL NOTICE

CHILTON CO., A MUNICIPAL CORPORATION, PETITIONER

VS. M. C. HOPPER AND WIFE, LUCIE HOPPER AND GEORGE DUTTON, RESPONDENTS

TO: M. C. HOPPER AND WIFE, LUCIE HOPPER, 831 Gardner Street, South Beloit, Illinois, Non-Resident of Alabama.

You will take notice that on the 3rd day of July, 1959, a petition was filed in this court by Chilton County, A Municipal Corporation, to condemn for certain purposes therein stated, certain lands belonging to M. C. Hopper and wife, Lucie Hopper, described as follows, to wit:

A strip of land 40 feet in width on each side of the survey centerline from station 120+00 to 121+00; thence as a strip of land 50 feet on the left side of the centerline and 40 feet on the right to station 124+00; thence as a strip of land 40 feet in width on the left and 50 feet in width on the right to station 129+00 thence as a strip of land 50 feet in width on each side of the centerline to station 138+00, the north property line.

All lying in and being a part of the NE 1/4 of the SW 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of Sec. 22, Township 23, Range 12, in Chilton County, Alabama, and containing 132 acres more or less including that portion now occupied by the present county road.

Also easement to strips of land of sufficient length and width necessary for the construction and maintenance of inlet and outlet ditches extending beyond the above described right of way.

By petition filed in this Court and plaintiff prays that this Court will make and enter an order appointing a day for the hearing of this petition and for such other and further orders and procedures as may be necessary.

You will take further notice that the court has appointed the 31st day of July, 1959 at 10:00 o'clock A.M. to hear said application to the petition at which time you and all other persons claiming any right or interest in the same may appear and contest the same if you so desire to do.

Witness my hand this 3rd day of July, 1959.

and Mrs. Richard Bratton daughters of Savannah, spending a two week vacation with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bratton and Mr. and Mrs. Littleton.
Marcelle Collins left Thursday for Amarillo, Texas, to attend the wedding of her son, Lawrence, who was performed Sunday, July 19.
Jean Woodall and children spent last week with parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Williams.
Mrs. Wilbur Champion
recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Ciekler.
Mrs. Aronold Jackson, spent the week end in Ga., visiting relatives of her son.

Legion Aux. Meeting
E. R. Yeargan left Saturday morning and attended the conference of American Legion Auxiliary at the Tutwiler Hotel, Birmingham Monday. He was met by a group of ladies:
Margie Glass, president; Mrs.
Yeargan, Mrs. Evie Kincaid, Mrs. Idell Kincaid, Mrs. Alma Kincaid, Mrs. Glennie Collins, Mrs.
Maddox, Mrs. Helen Smith, Mrs. Linda Beasley at the convention with the Legion Auxiliary.

James Easterling (nee Honeycutt) returned to her home in Thorsby Sunday, from Calif. after attending the wedding of her grandmother, Mrs.
Robinson. Her mother,
Margaret Honeycutt stayed over to finish her mother's affairs.
Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs.
Ben visited relatives in Tusculooosa Saturday. Miss Martha Honeycutt returned home with her mother after a two weeks stay with her mother.

Franklin returned home from his daughter, Mrs. Brady and son, Ricky to Fort Worth, Fla., last Wednesday.
Franklin plans to spend the summer there.
At the end of this week, the Legion Auxiliary will have a day in Tusculooosa and at the Veterans a birthday celebration.
Kincaid left Sunday for Tusculooosa for a two weeks stay with the National Guard.
Maureen Cantrell of Birmingham is here visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Evie Kincaid and Mrs. Bobby Farley and wife.
Mrs. Kincaid, Mrs. Bobby Farley and Mrs. Linda Beasley attended the wedding at Pleasant Grove
Sunday.
Mrs. Carroll Sorrell returned to the home of her grandmother for a weeks stay from a trip in Miami, Fla., and Dayton, Ohio, a good time was reported.

Legion Officers
Helen Smith was installed matron in a beautiful ceremony at the grand lodge hall of the Masonic Lodge on Sunday, July 14. Roy Kendrick was installed worthy patron.

Gentry, Emma Low-myer, Mamie Burke, Electa
Smith, Warder; Glenn Marshall; Trustees: Lola Mae
Rev. B. B. Burks, Nell
Smith.
The installation was played by Mrs. Margo Gentry and
Mr. Rick, Jr.
Legion Officers
206, Thorsby, elected officers for the 1959
year:
President, Ed Yeargan; Ist
Vice-President, James Kascoe;
2nd Vice-President, Bill Cummings; and Finance Officer,
Gentry; Post Chaplain,
Bice; Historian, Grover; Service Officers, Louis
Amos Glass; Sgt. Alton Maddox; Auxiliary
President, Mrs. Vergie
Maddox; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Maggie; Mrs. Marietta Bice;
Mrs. Helen Smith; Hilary, Idell Kincaid; Sgt. Alton Violett Porter.
The group voted to have a joint service with the auxiliary be held on the night of the 25th in the Legion Hall. A chicken supper with all things, plenty of coffee or tea. All members, prospective members and friends of the Legion and Auxiliary were invited. Mrs. Janice Collins will report on Girls State trip.

GOV. URGES SALES TAX REDUCTION BILL ENACTMENT

Gov. John Patterson this week hailed the 2 1/2 per cent sales tax reduction bill for education as the "double solution to a lot of our problems."

has been satisfied this month of July, 1959. The Hall is all paid for and the big supper will be held in celebration of this ending of the debts.

tax bills as well as school problems" and urged its early enactment into law.
The bill passed the House last week and is now pending in the State Senate, where public hearings are being held.
"This unopposed tax-reducing measure will help save our schools and at the same time give the people a cut in sales taxes of 17 per cent," Mr. Patterson said. "Moreover, this measure will not place an unfair burden on any group."
The bill will provide about $25 million more each year for education by removing certain exemptions now written into the 5 per cent sales tax law. Farm supplies remain exempt from the sales tax.

"House Bill 94 removes exemptions from big business and political favorites which we consider to be loopholes in the law," Gov. Patterson said. "By shifting some of the lop-sided tax burden to those who have long escaped their fair share of the responsibility for education, everyone can share in the reduced sales tax rate."
Mr. Patterson said housewives, working people and pensioners would benefit primarily from any cut in the state sales tax.

"It would mean more money for food in the purse of the housewife," he said. "With the sales tax reduced by one-sixth, it would amount to a sizeable saving over a period of weeks or months."
The working man, always hard hit by the sales tax, carries far more than his share of taxes, in the governor's opinion. "A tax benefit to the working population is long overdue."
The largest group to be affected by a drop in sales taxes are those living on fixed incomes, including the 130,000 needy on the rolls of the State Department of Pensions and Security.

"More than any other group,
they feel the sting of rising prices and increased taxes," Gov. Patterson said. "For this reason, saving only a penny or two from the sales tax would mean more to the poor and needy because a penny to them is to dear."
The sales tax at 3 per cent is too high in Alabama, the governor said, in proportion to other forms of taxation.
In backing the 2 1/2 per cent sales tax bill, he urged all citizens to contact their state senators and representatives to make known their views. "We need your support now if we are to help education in this session of the Legislature," Gov. Patterson said.

Numerous revenue bills for education are pending in the Legislature. Some of the measures impose new taxes on industry.

"Maintaining our industrial growth is dependent upon our improving our educational system," Gov. Patterson said.
"The better schools we have to offer, the more industries we can hope to attract in the years ahead."

PISTOL, AND WILLIE TRIPP, RESPONDENT. The bill of complaint of the State of Alabama on the relation of Lawrence F. Gerald, Jr., Deputy Solicitor of Chilton County, Alabama, against one Willie Tripp, and one H & R Sportsman 22 Pistol, being exhibited to me, and it appearing therefrom that on the 10th day of April, 1957, one Willie Tripp was convicted of carrying a pistol in violation of Section 175 of Title 14 of the Code of Alabama from one point to another in the State of Alabama, and that said pistol was on the 3rd day of June, 1958, seized by Edward V. Headley; and that said bill of complaint prays that said pistol be declared and forfeited to the State of Alabama and for an order of condemnation and destruction thereof. And it further appearing to the Court that Willie Tripp has filed an answer and waiver in this cause; it is therefore, ordered that notice be given for three weeks by publication in the Chilton County News, and that all persons claiming or asserting any title or interest in said pistol, required to appear and answer claim on the 15th day of July, 1959, and that failure to do so, right, title and interest in said pistol, shall be forever barred. ORDERED, ADJUDGED, DECREED, this, the 9th day of July, 1959. Oakley W. Melton, JUDGE.

MISS CHILTON COUNTY FAIR —

WE STILL think that the possibilities are good to eventually combine the "has-been" Peach Festival with the Chilton County Fair and really make a rip-snorter out of it. There are also decided advantages, publicity wise and otherwise for us to consider the crowning of a Miss Chilton County Fair and making an annual affair of it. It would be a feather in the cap of Chilton County to be well represented at all state-wide social functions and it would be a good break for some lucky, deserving girl. We're going to have a good County Fair, this year—which is as it should be—if you're gonna have a County Fair, we say, make it a big'un!

AN "ACE IN THE HOLE"—

SOMEBODY says they have an 'ace in the hole' concerning the Courthouse question—when to build or what to do—it is apparent, considering all previous Grand Jury recommendations that anyone with an 'ace in the hole' should make it known pronto—otherwise we may have a Courthouse in the hole!

DELINQUENT DOG OWNERS —

FOLKS didn't keep their dogs up as they were requested. There is evidence of less strays than at other times, but there are still numbers of house pets at large. Seems like it's always the most law-abiding citizens who disobey the most laws and ordinances. Too bad they can't work out some consequences for those who choose not to assist the law enforcers in minor matters. Minor matters can make major problems for someone!

WE DON'T SELL MIRACLES--

IT is difficult for us to understand at times why a man in business will try to fool himself into believing that advertising is some sort of miracle! It is not and very few advertising men will lead you to believe that it is.

Advertising—presenting your product to the public—is necessary in your business because it shows the buyer where the market is. Newspaper advertising, for instance, is not created to "SELL" your product or your business. It is a means by which you can tell the public that YOU have what HE wants and it gets him in your store. There is never a guarantee that what you are selling is what the public wants at the moment. Certainly SEEING is an enticement to make him want it, but there is still no guarantee that he will buy. Since the pictured product or written word is effective in getting the buyer's interest it stands to reason that it is good business for the health of your business to show him as much and as often as possible.

Too many people want to make a miracle of advertising and expect way, way too much from it! That is not to say that advertising is a gamble. On the contrary, if you do not try, through consistent advertising, to entice the buyer to your business you are gambling with the chance that he MIGHT come in. Or possibly you're taking advantage of someone else who IS advertising.

The man in business who saves advertising does not make a good businessman. He must budget his advertising to fit the "buying power" of his customers. If he does, and advertises frankly, honestly and consistently he will see results.

"Splash" advertising—only occasionally—does not do your overall business strength any good. It only serves to fool you into believing that advertising is a miracle. It is not; it is a media by which you can reach the buying public and you have to judge your buying public carefully in order to get the most from your "consistent" advertising.

LIKE IT OR NOT; HERE'S HOW

FOOLISH UNIONISM IS BECOMING--

PRIOR to last Memorial Day, a county government in an Eastern state appropriated $250 and sent it to the Memorial Day Committee for the purpose of hiring a band. But a proviso was attached—that it had to be a union band, and not a school or other volunteer band. The Committee, it is pleasant to record, sent the

WHERE IS POLIO?
IT'S STILL HERE FRIEND--

PERHAPS it would be better if we just left this space blank and called it "A Picture of Polio". Because that's the way Polio is. . . you can't see it, or read it, but it's there all the same.

Now take the boys and girls in the picture above; they, like our own children can be seen and heard and so we take it pretty much for granted, since they are certainly tangible enough to see and hear that "it can't happen to us".

Boys and girls can be seen. . . Polio cannot be seen. . . only the pitiful, wasteful, now unnecessary after effects of Polio can be seen and what a sight they present to the parent who has to look upon them.

I'm sorry, you say, after your child is lying stricken with a dreaded crippling disease. You aren't sorry in such a pathetic way, however, if you know in your heart you've done all you can to prevent such happenings. . . Then you can gain strength to fight this intruder into your family circle.

Do all you can. . . as a parent. . . for your children!
Go directly to your health officer and see what YOU can do. And don't forget to take the kids!

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN
Congressman, Sixth District

The Tennessee Valley Authority has greatly improved the economy of certain areas of North Alabama. Since other sections of our state also benefit when another area of Alabama is strengthened, legislation affecting the Tennessee Valley Authority should be of interest to all Alabamians.

Need for More Power
The TVA is the sole supplier of electric power for an area of about 80,000 square miles in which over five million people live and work. In addition, it supplies about a third of its output to installations of the Atomic Energy Commission. In the past six years, there have been no funds appropriated for the construction of new generating facilities by the Tennessee Valley Authority. Yet, power requirements in the area are now growing at an annual rate of about 12 percent of 72,000 kilowatts, and a severe shortage is expected by 1961.

For the last 26 years, the House and Senate have had under consideration legislation that will allow the Tennessee Valley Authority to finance its own expansion programs through sale of revenue bonds. Legislation of this type was finally given congressional approval last week and sent to the President.

Self-Financing Plan
Supported by all members of Congress from Alabama, the bill approved by the House and Senate will allow the TVA to issue $750 million in bonds for financing construction of facilities needed to meet increasing demand for electric power in the area presently served by the agency.

Under the bill, the TVA plan, the check back. It said that it wouldn't pay then "to take part in a patriotic celebration."

The incident drew this ironic comment from the Flemington, N.J., Democrat: "Let's call off Memorial Day until we get everybody in this country into a union. Let's bury no more veterans without the services of union pallbearers, union gravediggers, union embalmers, union chauffeurs driving the mourners to the cemetery, union-made and set grave markers, union-grown flowers and union-made-up floral pieces, union-made American flags over the graves, placed, not by volunteers like the Legionnaires and the Sons of Veterans but by card-bearing union grave decorators to the exclusion of comrades in service, neighbors, friends, relatives. And let no word of scripture be uttered, no prayer be said except by a AFL-CIO licensed and dues-paying pastor."

The grim fact is that this isn't just sheer fantasy. It's precisely what some of the labor leaders would dearly love, judging by their drives for more and more monopoly power.

expansion by the issuance of bonds that would be paid off solely through the sale of electric power. The legislation stipulates that the bonds cannot be obligations of the United States government, and it requires the TVA to repay the Treasury with interest for the federal government's prior investment in the program.

An important amendment to the bill, adopted by both the House and Senate, limits the expansion of the TVA service area to a five-mile strip around the periphery of the existing service area.

Veto Possible
President Eisenhower has indicated he feels that the TVA self-financing measure has several defects. Whether or not he believes these defects serious enough to warrant a veto remains to be seen. Should he decide to veto the measure, however, it is doubtful that his veto could be overridden.

SAFETY PAYS . . .
YOU!

(2nd In A Series)

Be it ever so humble, there is no place like home -- despite the accident statistics. The statistics might make you wonder about home, sweet home:

1. Home accidents kill more children 1-4 years of age than any disease.
2. Home falls take 12,000 lives a year.
3. Home fires and other burns takes the lives of 5,500 persons annually.
4. Accidental poisoning in the home claims 1,000 victims a year.
5. "Home accidents," the National Safety Council reports, "kill 27,000 persons a year, and injure more than four million."
6. "In view of these facts," the Council said, "you may well be concerned with the safety of your home."
7. "But when you stop and consider the great number of hours spent in the home, the statistics are more understandable even if the danger is just as real."
8. A hazard-free home, the Council said, results from practicing the safe way of doing things. "You'll soon do them automatically, it is predicted."
9. Here are some danger signals

THINGS
We see
and hear
by BO J

AND BO J's mind is occupied a lot of the time by fascinating encounters with the fairer sex. We don't blame you for that bit, but what we want to know is, now you manage to spend that other 10%.

A note from Mr. G. L. Adams in Opelika this week states that he wishes to take advantage of the "bargain rate" of the News before it goes up to $3 per year. His subscription isn't expired, but he wants to take advantage of the situation. Lots of folks, new subscribers and old, are taking advantage of this offer before time runs out the 1st of August.

ANOTHER friend writes from Bradenton, Florida to inform us that their address is incorrect and they miss the News about every other issue. Why man, that's shattering news! You can bet we now have the R. D. Woodson's address right and they'll be receiving their News regular and on time. Appreciate the nice letter and the nice thoughts that went along in it. They did mention something about missing those "good ole Chilton County Peach Festival" proof enough that they are true natives and get homesick for Chilton more than occasionally. We wish 'em the best from Chilton County!

LALLY Bates, the Insurance Man, was quite pleased over the fact that he got to meet Gov. of Arkansas Orval Faubus at the American Legion Convention last week. Lally said the Governor was quite a fellow and gave quite a talk. He also says that the Convention was one of the best they have ever had. Sounds like success all the way around. You might look out for this Bates fellow too, he sure looks like he's headed in that general direction. We're glad he represented Chilton County (he was part of the delegation from Chilton, anyway).

YOU remember what Gregory Peck, as Capt. Ahab in "Moby Dick" called the great white whale when he sank the harpoon into the big brute's thick hide? Well that's just about what we were ready to call a bunch of ducks last week when we couldn't get rid of 'em. We finally chickened out and sent 'em all back home but not until they had messed up just about everything around, including us. Understand we didn't have that "feeling for the ducks" that the Capt. did for the whale, but we were ready to get rid of 'em most any way we could. Anyway, the old "biddie" didn't like us.

WE caught Lewis Headley Monday morning in the process of mopping up! Not the way you might think. . . this was literally. Those fellows finally put the boss to work and fast as we could tell the rest of 'em were standing around enjoying it. That's one thing we've always said "Pig Headley is lazy. . . that's why he'll never amount to nothing." One thing for sure, he sets an example that's a challenge to follow when it comes to hard down, callous raising, back breaking work!

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee; because he trusteth Thee. — (Isaiah 26:3)

Peace of mind and soul is sought by millions of us these anxious days, in books, in talks with clergymen, in psychoanalysts' offices. These may help some unhappy souls in their search, but the Bible tells us where true peace may most surely be found,

- to watch out for in the home:
1. Water or grease on the kitchen floor.
 2. A unlighted stair, or toys and boxes piled on stair steps.
 3. Oily rags or papers left in a corner of the basement.
 4. Dull knives, which are dangerous because they force the user to apply too much pressure and because most people don't have the proper respect for them.
 5. Pots on the stove, the handles turned out for little hands to grab.
 6. Rubbing alcohol, candy-coated laxatives and aspirin left for small children to sample.
 7. The average American consumed 1,380 pounds of food in 1958.
- Ripe, ready-to-eat peaches should be kept in the refrigerator until time to use.

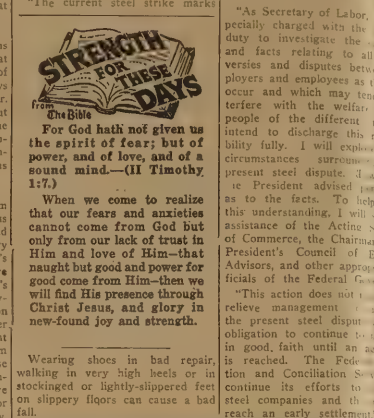

Secretary Mitchell
On Steel Dispute

The following statement, on the current steel dispute, was issued by Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell on July 21, 1959:

"We must preserve the strength of free collective bargaining within our free enterprise system has worked exceptionally well over the years.

"The current steel strike marks the sixth time since the World War II that the industry and labor in the United States have failed to reach a compromise out of a strike. . . . The welfare of the people of the United States, however, is not at stake. I am about to take . . .

"As Secretary of Labor, I am specially charged with the duty to investigate the causes and facts relating to all such strikes and disputes between employers and employees as to occur and which may tend to interfere with the welfare of the people of the United States. I intend to discharge this responsibility fully. I will expose all circumstances surrounding the present steel dispute. I will make this understanding, I will seek the assistance of the Acting Secretary of Commerce, the Chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, and other appropriate officials of the Federal Government. This action does not mean I will relieve management of its obligation to continue to negotiate in good faith, until an agreement is reached. The Federal Government will continue its efforts to bring the steel companies and the workers to a peaceful settlement."

SALES TAX WOULD BE A BURDEN FOR PEOPLE TO
AND A SALES TAX
ON EVERYONE. CHIEF REASONS GIVEN BY THOSE WHO PREFER A SALES TAX

Kenneth Fin, Director,
County Research Service
Clanton, New Jersey--In a survey of states across the nation, the problem of whether to add a sales tax or to increase rates on present income tax is one facing legislatures.

State legislatures--those that state a sales tax nor income tax--are faced with the problem of deciding whether to add a sales or an income tax into state law.

Week's report showed why preferred a state income tax.

One of the findings show
two reasons are uppermost in the minds of those people who prefer a sales tax to an income tax.

A sales tax is easier to pay;
it gives it a little at a time;
it doesn't notice it so much as it comes out a bit at a time;
the public doesn't feel the burden as much; it's gradual;
so you don't notice
it until it's too late.

Another reason is that the family would not miss it as much as the income tax.

SOME BAIT -- POOR FISH The 1959 Alabama Deep Sea Fishing Rodeo

THE 1959 Alabama Deep Sea Fishing Rodeo, slated July 31, August 1 and 2, will be the 27th annual edition of this famed summer sports festival.

Established by a group of mobile sports enthusiasts back in 1929, the Rodeo has been held each year with the exception of two or three summers during World War II when transportation made it unfeasible.

They named it the Alabama Deep Sea Fishing Rodeo, and as far as is known, this was the first time the name "Rodeo" was applied to a fishing contest.

Smaller groups mention that the sales tax would cost out of states who visit the state; that they never did like the income tax; that the sales tax would probably be only on luxuries and other unessential goods; that it is the lesser of two evils, and that they would prefer handling the money themselves.

Percentages add to more than 100 because some people gave more than one reason for preferring a state sales tax.

This is one of a series of reports on taxes.

J. J. Mullins, Jr. To Go With Law Firm in Albuquerque

Joseph J. Mullins, Jr., who has been practicing law with his father in Clanton since the fall of 1957, reports, effective August 15, he will associate with the law firm of Rodey, Dickason, Sloan, Aiken, & Robb in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Joe graduated from Chilton County High School in 1948. He attended Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Virginia, where he graduated summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa in 1952.

In June, 1955, he received a Bachelor of Laws degree from Harvard Law School in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Joe served in the United States Army from August, 1955 through August, 1957. While stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas, he met and married Genevieve Townsend of El Paso, Texas. They have one daughter, Melinda Roberta.

Since his return to Clanton, Joe has been serving as a Second Lieutenant in the local National Guard unit. He has also been active in the youth work at the First Methodist Church.

The Mullins regret leaving their many friends and associations, but look forward to frequent visits from all those who go out West.

We wish Joe and his family every success in Albuquerque.

BETHSALE
HD REPO

The Bethesda II Demonstration Club, met July 24, with five members and one visitor present. The Club was called to order by Mrs. E. S. Short, the president. Mrs. J. C. Boockholdt gave the devotionals. Mrs. Derrell Pierce read the story of the hymn. We then pledged the U. S. flag.

We met without an agent, so Short, the president, was in charge of the demonstration on Sewing Machine-cleaning and adjusting.

Mrs. Derrell Pierce, the secretary, read the minutes.

Every member of this Club is asked to prepare any canned goods or home made article, for the fair, and bring it to the August meeting.

Delicious refreshments and several games were enjoyed by the group.

Mrs. Gene Wilson, Mrs. E. L. Pierce and Mrs. J. C. Boockholdt won the prizes.

We were dismissed with the Club Collect to meet again with Mrs. A. I. Pierce in August.

other air conditioning system, and water and shade together make it almost ideal.

"If natural shade is not available, anybody can build a straw shelter for their animals," comments the livestockman. Research has proved that a frame four feet high, stretched with chicken wire from edge to edge and stacked on foot deep with straw on the wire, will provide better shade than any other tested material. And this test included aluminum, galvanized iron roofing, and plywood.

Phillips also recommends foggers, clean, sandy streams, and portable wallows. The main thing, he says, is to get the hogs out of that heat.

According to Phillips, a 200-pound porker does his fastest and cheapest gaining when the temperature is around 60 degrees. When the thermometer rises to 90, the average pig will need about three times the amount of feed to put on the same gains. Other tests show, reports the specialist, that unprotected hogs ready for market may lose up to two pounds a day when the sun is beating down at 90 degrees.

Although science has not yet found a practical air conditioning system for pigs, Phillips says that clean water is one of the best cooling agents. Good shade is another.

CHILTON TOPS IN DISTRICT BOND SALES

SAVINGS Bonds sales for the month of June amounted to $3,208,271. Six month's sales in Alabama reached 222,353 or 46.8% of this year's goal of $48 million.

Sales for Chilton County for the month of June amounted to $22,099. County chairman, J. A. Ogburn, stated this represents 43.7% of our 1959 goal.

Chairman Ogburn reminds every Chilton countian that the purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds has a three fold benefit to every American -- Savings Bonds Strengthens America's Peace Power -- detters inflation and it's the easy automatic way of saving for the big things in life.

Chilton is tops in percentage in District Four which includes Bibb, Greene, Hale, Perry, Pickens and Tuscaloosa Counties. Nearest one is Perry with 42.9% of goal.

Award $300,000 Building Contract

THE First Baptist Church, J. Gilbert Hutchinson, pastor, last week awarded a contract to Andrew and Dawson, Montgomery, for new educational space and the enlarging of the present auditorium. Mr. Tom B. Kirkland of Montgomery is the architect and the estimated cost of the new work is three hundred thousand dollars.

Dr. Hutchinson states that the new work will include the enlarging of the auditorium to seat double the present capacity and will provide an elevator for the convenience of those who are not permitted to climb stairs. It will also include the placing of a steeple on the front of the building.

One of the important features of the new building will be a chapel which will be available at all times for meditation and small services.

In the educational section, four departments will be provided for adults, one department for married young people and two departments for primaries. These will be in addition to the existing departments. Recreational space, kitchen facilities and a complete suite of offices will also be provided.

This is the completion of the over-all plan of the church as drawn up some eight years ago.

Mr. W. L. Smith is the chairman of the deacons and Mr. F. Leo Thompson is chairman of construction.

NEURITIS AND SCIATICA

By Dr. C. D. Hosan
Neuritis is a painful inflammation of a nerve, with weakness of power and sensation. The parts supplied by that nerve are most frequently affected when there is an invasion of the nerves going to the arms and legs.

Sciatica is a neuritis of the sciatic nerve, one of the nerves in the entire lower part of the body, running from the small of the back down the entire length of the legs. It is extremely painful and frequently requires the aid of medicine.

Many suffer from neuritis and sciatica should avail themselves of chiropractic adjustment and delay.

CLANTON LITTLE LEAGUE
ALL-STARS IN STATE TOURNAMENT GAME

The Clanton Little League season is over, but the All-Stars, having been chosen by the team managers, are now participating in the State Tournament being held in Tallahassee, Alabama.

First game of the Tournament for the local team was with Tallahassee at 2 p.m. Tuesday. The game was in Montgomery.

Clanton All-Stars, picked by managers are: Cecil Wade, Woody Fulmer, Wayne Johnson, Ricky Wyatt, Joe Malldox, Buddy Ellis, Donald Nelson, Jim Wade, Mike Cox, Harold Lawrence, Earl Wray, Jerry Fulmer, Perry Fulmer and Allen Owens.

Alternates are: Joe Hayes, Ronald Hay, and Robert Presley.

All-Star Managers are G. D. Jones and Eddie Edwards. The teams were selected by the four team managers who turned in a list of 14 players they believed to be the best in the League. The boys with the top number of votes are the All-Star. The four managers voted on the two managers for the tournament.

Final Standings

Final standings in the 1959 Little League season are:

A STAND TO LICK
ALCOHOLISM!

The Alabama Commission on Alcoholism has begun publishing a quarterly periodical as a part of its increased effort to inform the public about "coholism."

The 36-page periodical, called "The Alabama Challenge," is mailed as a public service to professional and lay people. The issue was published in March and mailed to over 7,000 persons.

"Out task of informing citizens of Alabama about alcoholism is so great that we saw the need for a publication such as this," stated Vinrod T. Erazar, Administrator of the Commission. He said that public response to the first issue had definitely established this need. The periodical is edited by John L. Sanders, the Commission's educational director. A. H. Hewitt, information specialist, is managing editor.

It is mailed, free of charge, to doctors, social workers, public health nurses, judicial officials, and other interested professional and lay people.

EGG production increased in Alabama from 69 million dozen in 1957 to 75.6 million dozen in 1958, a 9.5 percent rise. According to API Extension Poultry Specialist, S. L. Davis, only Florida exceeded Alabama's rate of expansion last year.

One of Nature's Miracles-- The Turtles Are Running At Jensen Beach, Florida

Sometimes the only way to believe anything is to see it yourself. One thing you must see are the giant sea turtles crawling up to 2,000 lbs. crawling here after dark.

ggs. In a six mile stretch ocean front at Jensen Beach, Fla., you can get a once in a lifetime something that has been going on for probably millions of years, and not much published before August 15. (Starts about May 15 every year.)

Indian Legend
The mysterious turtles lay off-shore waiting for it to get dark, then they slowly crawl to dry sand to dig a hole with their rear flippers. Indian Legend says that the turtles see eggs just above the water. We won't have any hurricanes that year, but when the turtles go clear to the dry bluff, over-water out!

No Hurry
The turtles are patient. She has a load of eggs that must be buried, then she waits for some time, and then she crawls a few feet to the beach, takes about 45 minutes. After the hole is dug, she squats over it, and eggs are as big as a teaspoon while lying between 100-300 eggs depending on the size of the turtle.

(Whether she is crying from joy or sadness has never been figured out.) She appears in a trance and looks neither right or left while laying -- just crying. And she doesn't notice anything around, and is not bothered by flashlights or flash cameras if you take pictures. Just don't be fool enough to put your hand near her mouth 'cause you'll draw back a bloody stub, that's for sure!

Covers Her Eggs

After the eggs are laid, the waters turn good, then proceeds to take her rear flippers and fills up the hole with surrounding sand, and every couple minutes she moves forward a little. Just before she heads back for the ocean, she takes her front flippers and throws sand behind her for 15 feet or more. Don't stand close behind her if you don't want to get completely covered with sand. It's worse than a windstorm! Of course the purpose is to camouflage the nest from the coons, fox, and possum that are in the ridge waiting for her to go.

Nest Robbers

On a moonlit night, you can see these pairs of beady eyes--watching--waiting. . . Soon as she's gone back to the ocean--then they dash to the nest area, poking around the soft sand trying to find the nest. The busy, searching paws really throw out the sand getting to the eggs, then out they come, and the feast begins as they slurp those delicious eggs, and getting egg yolk all over themselves. A quick dash to the ocean soon washes that off. The next morning a trip down the beach reveals thousands of white, destroyed eggs, and the two huge tracks in the sand the mam turtle made coming up and going back. And around the nest are the tiny footprints of the nest-robbers.

Annual Mission Complete

Once back in the cool water, she lets the surf wash over her for 15 minutes--resting. Her annual mission is accomplished. Then away she swims on the surface, out to where her mate waits for her a half-mile offshore. There is one thing you'll never see--a male helping his mate dig the hole to lay the eggs in!

Look Out Turtle!

In a few weeks, the eggs hatch, then another drama of nature takes place--another reason why about only one egg from a nest ever grows to a full grown turtle. As the little turtle dig themselves out of the sand and head for the water, the ever-patrolling pelicans swoop down and nab them on the fly, or sit around the nest grabbing the little fellows as they make their way to the surface. What few baby turtles that do reach the water are eaten by the waiting, predatory fish--who too know the turtle hatching season is here. Those little turtles are a real delicacy.

The law protects the nest and turtles from molestation during May, June, July and August, and no turtle or eggs may be in possession during that time. During that time the Game Warden, Roland C. Byrd, and deputies, vigorously patrol the beaches--thoroughly looking for poachers--those unscrupulous individuals who kill the turtles or rob the nest. A $500 fine waits for anyone caught! Please report all violators at once!

Two Types of Turtles

There are two types of turtles: The Loggerheads which range up to 800 lbs., and the Humpbacks which range from 800 to 2,000 lbs. Their tracks in the sand have measured nine feet in width, and lay eggs the size of a tennis ball, while Loggerheads lay an egg the size of a golf ball. Both last year and the year before, the Conservation Department transplanted nests of turtle eggs to watch developments, at the nearby House of Refuge--now the Martin County Museum. (This is free and very worthwhile to see on your visit here.) The eggs hatched of course, and the tiny turtles grew 10-12 inches per

Thompson Gets The Bull

J. R. Thompson, extreme left, vocational agriculture teacher at Clanton, received a purebred heifer from Sears-Roebuck Foundation last week at Auburn. The award was made for his excellent work in the Sears bull breeding program. Other winners to right of Thompson were: W. C. Locke, Montgomery; K. H. Cook, Dozier, and C. D. Richardson, Stevenson. year, so you can see a 2,000 lb. turtle is a real veteran at this egg-laying business. Probably born to Jensen Beach hundreds of times, and swam all the way. (This article by and Courtesy of the Ray Lorens Ins. Agency, Box 645, Jensen Beach, Florida).

LOCAL "WITNESSES" TERM ASSEMBLY "GRAND SUCCESS"

"A danger much worse than nuclear war between man and man, is the danger of war between God and man," Nathan H. Knorr, president of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, told 9,953 assembled at the Chattanooga's Engel Stadium Sunday afternoon as a climax to the "Awake Ministers" district assembly.

"That war will bring peace to this earth," he assured his listeners. "Only those lovers of peace with justice and happiness long to hear the voice of the one strong enough to command peace upon all nations." Knorr said, "Jerusalem rejected Jesus, her priesthood led the fanatical in crying out to the Roman governor -- 'If you release this man, you are not a friend of Caesar.' Likewise the world of today is rejecting him as the enthroned King of the earth."

Mr. Robinson, who had been the local group, termed meeting a grand success. The highlights of the assembly reached Saturday morning.

223 were ordained for the ministry in a simple mass baptism.

Mr. Robinson commented on the advanced Bible instruction of talks, demonstrations and discussions throughout the session.

"We all returned home with a more serious outlook on our life and the future," he said, "We must be 'Awake' Ministers."

Party for Anthony
Friday, July 24th, was a lucky day for Anthony Vines. On this day his mother, Mrs. W. Vines, entertained honoring him on his 5 birthday.
The party was held at Jemison Plunge. All the little guests enjoyed games, but the central attraction was swimming and wading.
The birthday cake held the inscription, Happy Birthday, Anthony. It was decorated with indians and cowboys. As he blew out the 5 candles, the guests sang the birthday song.
The group enjoyed homemade ice cream, cake, potato chips and candy. Take home favors were balloons.
The gifts were displayed on a table for all to see. Those enjoying this occasion were: Brenda and Brad Simmons, Joe and Bridget Price, Bridget and Sue Stephens, Vicki Woodley, Judy Fair-cloth, Trudy and Mike Burnette,
Judy Lewis, Patricia and Cynthia Vines, sisters of Anthony and both grandmothers. Several mothers were present.

Too much frost on the freezing unit of the refrigerator can be caused by an air leak in the door, by leaving uncovered foods, by incomplete defrosting, or by setting the temperature control too low.

This mother is showing some of the common things used around a house which can be dangerous to infants and small children unless they are kept out of them.

Just as a mother keeps her children out of contact with matches, knives, scissors, electric stoves, and other dangerous objects, she should also exercise the same caution with the disposable ultra-thin plastic bag which protects her family's freshly cleaned clothes.

Made of ultra-thin plastic film as substitute covers for cribs, play pens, baby carriages, furniture, etc., has resulted in a number of infant deaths attributed to suffocation when the non-porous material came in contact with the child's face.

National experts in safety, working in cooperation with the Society of the Plastics Industry in a campaign to save lives by urging parents not to mis-use this ultra-thin plastic bag, warn that it come into contact with small children.

These experts urge that once the ultra-thin plastic bag has served its intended purpose, it should be shredded or knotted and disposed of in a covered can, safely away from children.

42 Years Combined Experience To Serve Chilton County

THIS is the working force of the Gulf Oil Distributor in South Clanton. Combined the four have 42 years of experience in their line and stand ready to serve your gas and oil needs--plus a few more. Left to right they are: A. H. Poole, B. N. Studdard, Gilbert Green and Charles Watts.

BEN or B. N. Studdard as he is officially known in the Gulf Oil Company in Chilton County, has been at the same old stand for the past 20 years. He and Mrs. (Hazel) Studdard have reared three fine children who all finished school at C. C. H. S. and then went on to the University of Alabama for their higher education. Dwight, the youngest is now an assistant engineer with the State Highway Department, but when school time comes again he will be off to the University to continue the course in engineering that he has started.

Melba the oldest of the three Studdard children is now Mrs. Oakley Melton, Jr., and resides in Montgomery. Jerry, the oldest son, is now Dr. J. M. Studdard of Jacksonville, Fla. He is a practicing dentist there. That is all about the Studdards as we see the Mr. and Mrs. most every day and the community is very proud of them.

At the Gulf Distributing Plant in South Clanton much construction has gone on recently and new equipment added. Ben Studdard says he is equipped with just about anything the farmer needs in the way of tractor oils and accessories. Call Ben when you need his services.

YOU CAN BE SURE...

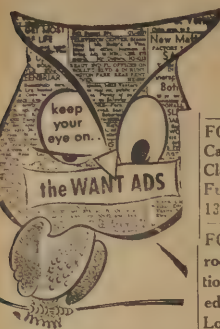

YESSIR, you can be sure you're getting your money's worth when you go to a local Chilton business establishment to do your trading and shopping.

It's a proven fact that money spent at home, stays at home. On the other hand, where does the money you spend in Birmingham, Montgomery or Selma go? It goes to those communities to better themselves. It seems that, as a privileged member of this community we are all obligated to keep as much money at home as we can so we will have better things for better living for our families and ourselves.

Merchants in this community are "Trade At Home" conscious. They are because they know the value of keeping trade local. If you are a housewife, a worker or a fellow who needs a new pair of seat covers it is evident that you should do your buying where it will produce the most results as well as give you top quality merchandise for your dollar. GOOD SEED MEANS HIGHER PROFIT TO YOU

Marketing seed is no different from marketing other agricultural commodities. There are three major objectives in the sale of seed, reports API Extension Agronomist Melvin Moore. These include finding a ready market, obtaining a satisfactory price, and establishing a satisfied customer. And these objectives aren't always easy to obtain, says Moore, who says the market the seed profitably, the agronomist gives the following pointers:

1. The product must be good. Today most inferior seeds have been replaced by new and improved varieties, but the variety must also be high in quality. Good seed must be genetically pure, high in germination, free of disease. And free of insect damage. Also states Moore, the seed should be recommended for the area where it is to be used.

2. That good product must be properly processed. The agronomist points out that no farmer wants seed that are full of weed seed, other crop seed, and inert matter.

3. An attractive and properly packaged product is always associated with quality. Even if your seed is of extremely high quality, a dirty, unattractive bag will detract tremendously. And make sure the package is labeled properly to insure positive identity. A moerly also recommends having a carefully planned marketing program, an efficient operation, and sufficient advertisement to reach potential customers. He points out that successful seed marketing for a long period of time is built on good principles. A really successful seed producer puts quality and honesty in every bag of seed he sells.

Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.... (St. Luke 23:24.)
Do you ever find it hard in your heart to forgive anyone? Do you sometimes find it hard even to forgive yourself? On the cross, Christ Jesus asked God to forgive those who were crucifying Him--for the eternal God of love and mercy will forgive--and he hears even the smallest prayer.

Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.... (St. Luke 23:24.)

FOLKS and THINGS About Town

by Ben

STRANGE things are happening every morning there was a truck parked along the curb of the Used Car lot. On the back of the truck was a piano being delivered. At the piano a man was playing as though no one else was in town. "I Got The Sugar" was the tune.

For the high ground mister, mister, mister. That's what mister Vines has to do when it rains. Lately the water has backed up in the sewer in front of the house of Harton Mullins and the sidewalk running in front of it. He reported it to the city and something is to be done about it. Now mister Vines he will have to go to the City Park for his swims.

VanDerveer, who will be visited by many in Clanton, is a visit last week end. He is a good and is doing well. He is a good and is doing well. He is a good and is doing well.

MR. AND Mrs. Thompson are a race with the stock from Japan and won. They are a day before their daughter, gave birth to a baby. It's any details yet, but will be there as soon as the baby and grandma get back.

FRIEND of ours was telling about the first job he ever had, as a carpenter's helper. In he was promoted to foreman. He was only 18 years old. He was told him. "Now here on, you must wear your shoes when you are on the job."

CENTRAL ALABAMA GAS GRAND OPENING

THE Central Alabama Gas Company will celebrate a double event this week when they hold the grand opening of their new building at Lomax and at the same time celebrate the 15th Anniversary of the founding of the Central Alabama Gas Company.

Luther Foshee and his son John Morgan Foshee, founded the business in 1944 and it has steadily grown until it is one of the largest of its kind in Central Alabama.

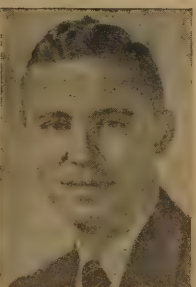

The Grand Opening will be held Aug. 6, 7, and 8th, and during these three days free prices, free gifts and refreshments will be passed. A Tappan Range, two 250 gallon gas tanks, a 30 gallon Permaglass Water Heater with a 10 year guarantee and four space heaters are some of the free prizes to be given away.

Make your plans now to attend this big opening of Chilton County's oldest gas and gas appliance dealer. Mr. Foshee stated "we are out to make new friends and new customers in Chilton County. Come on out and join in the fun with us."

REVIVAL AT ALPINE, 9TH

THE Alpine Baptist Church is very happy to announce the coming of Dr. Morgan Patterson to be the evangelist in the Revival services, beginning Sunday, August 9, and continuing throughout the week. Services will be conducted twice daily, 10:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Patterson is a graduate of Stetson University, Deland, Fla., and the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. He is regarded by the Seminary Faculty and the Student Body as one of the most outstanding professors in the Seminary. He has served as pastor in Alabama and Mississippi.

The church would like to extend to everyone a cordial invitation to come and share the blessing that will come to us through the messages of this Servant of God. All pastors and their members are invited.

LOCAL MERCHANTS ARE WELL REPRESENTED IN CHILTON COUNTY NEWS

NEW OFFICERS FOR CHILTON C OF C

AT a regular business meeting held Monday, August 3 new officers were elected to the Chilton County Chamber of Commerce.

Succeeding J. P. Lawrence, Jr. at the helm of the organization is J. Archie Ogburn, Thorby banker and well-known Chilton business man.

Newly-elected vice-president is Dick Scott of Ala. Power Co. New members to the Board of Directors are: E. S. Monroe, Johnnie Vines, P. F. Sinsley and Bobby Lane. Board Members retaining their status are: John Foshee, Gordon Robertson and the past President, J. P. Lawrence, Jr.

The Chamber of Commerce is growing with renewed vigor and spirit in Chilton County and business men are urged to support it in its efforts to keep business at home and better relations between businessmen and businessman, and businessman and consumer.

POOLE-RATLIFF FAMILY REUNION

THE Poole and Ratliff reunion will be held Sunday, August 9th, beginning at 12 noon. Bring a covered dish.

What Does "Supervised" Mean?

A SITUATION that seems to be causing great discussion concerning the Chilton County Fair this year is whether or not to have supervised parking for the public.

One of the greatest factors in the slowing down of our County Fair in past years and creating disinterest has been the parking facilities. . . or lack of them. Parking by the roadside and in the ditches and harem scarem everywhere has proved to be very unsatisfactory.

There has been a proposal, which the Board of Revenue is now considering to charge for supervised parking. This charge is NOT for the right to park on public property--the Airport, but to supervise the parking of your car to the extent that you may come and go when you please and will not have to worry about your car while at the Fair.

It is to be considered, not only from a 'convenience' angle, but from a 'safety' and 'emergency' angle as well. Someone could very easily get hurt or killed in the melee which accompanies the 'every man for himself' policy. If an emergency arises requiring immediate ambulance or fire fighting services some inlet and outlet should be definitely clear for these emergency vehicles.

As we said, you aren't paying for the privilege of parking on "your" land, you're paying a fee for the supervision of your auto while you attend the Fair.

Whether or not the public is charged for the supervision of vehicles at the Fair this year is secondary. The first obvious fact is: supervised parking is a must considering all the possibilities surrounding a gathering such as will be at the Fair and unless we establish a supervision policy we can expect more public disapproval from that subject than we'd ever get from the small charge for the convenience and safety of the supervision.

Beta Sigma Phi Sponsors Maid of Cotton In Conjunction With Fair

THE local chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will sponsor the 1959 Maid of Cotton contest again this year. It was revealed Tuesday night.

According to a spokesman for the group girls from 15 to 25, single and 55" or over are eligible to win this coveted title. Of course the winner of the local County Contest will go on to the State Judging during the State Fair and a chance at the State Crown and even greater rewards.

Interested Chilton County young ladies are asked to contact U. L. Headley at telephone 102-R or Mrs. Erskine Wyatt, 1701 after 5 p.m.

A final note: all entries must be in by August 15th to qualify. We have a chance to show the State and nation just what kind of 'crop' we do grow in Chilton County. Watch your News for further details.

Farm fires in 1958 destroyed about $156 million worth of livestock, machinery, crops, and buildings.

CLANTON LITTLE LEAGUE ALL-STARS

WHAT Clanton's Little League All-Stars lacked in size they made up in spunk and determination, but it just wasn't enough of a combination to lick Tallassee and they lost out in the State Tournament last Tuesday night at the tune of 9-0. We are nonetheless proud of these young fellows and their managers who showed good sportsmanship and represented Chilton County well.

They are first row, L to R: Cecil Wade, Woody Fulmer, Ricky Wyatt, Joe Maddox, Earl Wray, Mike Cox and Donnie Nelson.

CD Emergency Communication Unit

THE local Civil Defense Communications Unit is headed by Lester Carter and meets each Thursday night at Radio Station WKLF. There is no age limit and members serve to learn. Ages range from 15 years to Sgt. A. K. Corbett. Mr. Carter is teaching the boys to be amateur radio operators and at the same time have a first class home Civil Defense emergency communication media.

CHILTON GETS NEW JAILOR

EDWARD Burnell Henley has been named Jailor according to Sheriff Hugh Champion. Burnell has been in the United States Marines for several years and has had some experience as a law officer. He has a wife and one child.

Jack Roper has resigned to take a position with a construction company. Upon leaving Sheriff Champion paid Mr. Roper the highest of compliments and assured him that if he ever wanted to resume his law work he would be more than glad to have him back. He has made a very good peace officer since joining the Sheriff's Force.

WHAT BETTER RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN PARENT AND CHILD

IT says here that someone has found a definite relationship between strictness in parents and dependency in children. Especially in the three-year-old child, it said. Evidence of dependent behavior includes: Seeking protection, seeking verbal or physical love or affection, and seeking approval. We sure hate to louse up the author's theory, but it has been the accepted opinion of more than a few for quite some time now that a three-year-old child normally needs and has a dependent feeling and it is also common knowledge that the evidences she proclaims are things which a normal child needs to grow into a healthy, happy human being. We think the lady was barking up the wrong 'thesis'. And she was working on her Master's degree, yet!

WHAT! LOST OUR FISHERMEN?

THERE is an ominous void in the conversations going the rounds in Chilton County this year in regards to fish tales!

Used to, fellows from all sides were always and forever bending your ear about how good the fishing on the lakes was and just how big the one that got away really was.

What's happened to all of Chilton's fishermen? Have they turned in their fly rods for more accessible sports or are they just playing it crafty and keeping the good spots to themselves.

The Birmingham fishermen are fast taking over the Coosa Lakes as their own private fishing grounds and we've heard more than one local angler complaining this year about how crowded the lakes were at the right times to fish.

We like those Birmingham folks, now, but you fishermen don't let 'em root you out of your 'happy huntin' ground' (or fishin', whichever the case may be).

Who taught those fish how to bite, anyway?

CLANTON AND IT'S IRREPLACEABLE PARK --

FOR a town the size of Clanton to have a City Park the size of Clanton's is something very commendable and we feel an appreciation for it. But somebody is responsible for this gift to the public. We think the members of the Park and Recreation Board of Clanton along with the Mayor and City Council have done a magnificent job in maintaining our city park. . . to be sure, improving it every day over the past two or three years.

Of course, it didn't just start two or three years ago, but progress beyond all expectation has been witnessed during this period and it was not by chance that this happened.

Clanton's Park and Recreation Board consists of chairman: Mr. Louie Smith and five members: Mutt Vray, G. D. Jones, Ott Miller, Mrs. Richard Muncher and Callen Alred. These citizens work in an advisory capacity with the City Council and recommend programs and personnel.

Just recently a group from the University of Alabama under the leadership of Dr. Johnson came over to inspect the workings of our Park and Recreation Board and were high in their praise of what has been accomplished.

We have numerous programs for all our children and some for adults as well. The new Little League Diamond has been completed and is second to none.

The Bond Issue which started the whole thing is being paid back at $5000 per year, plus interest and is only two years away from being taken care of. It is on schedule we might add.

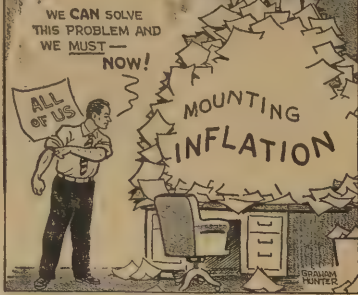

These are just a few reasons why you should voice our approval of our City Park, not to mention V. L. Bulger and Don Finlayson and their staff who have added so greatly to the overall success of the park facilities.

The Board also has the Clanton Colored Park well underway with a baseball diamond, lighting, some playground equipment and some improvements still under construction.

URGENT TASK

"THERE IS NOTHING WRONG WITH AMERICA THAT THE FAITH, LOVE OF FREEDOM, INTELLIGENCE AND ENERGY OF HER CITIZENS CAN NOT CURE."

Inflation Addiction—An Epidemic

IMAGINE an epidemic of alcoholism or drug addiction sweeping the United States.

Something similar is taking place. Inflation, an economic disease, is ruining the financial health of Americans and their nation.

Economists have diagnosed its causes and prescribed remedies. Communications media have funneled their warnings and recommendations to the public. But not enough people have realized the epidemic's seriousness to force concerted action to stamp it out.

The nature of the disease is partly responsible. Like alcoholism and drug addiction, inflation causes a deceptive feeling of well being. When one jolt wears off, its victims want another jolt, not a cure. Everything will be fine, they think, if they can just get another wage raise or more help from the government.

No one or two people can halt this epidemic. To be cured, inflation's victims (and let's face it—that's us) must realize what is happening and want to be cured. That will take fact-finding, will power and backbone enough to break off the self-deceiving habit of demanding something for nothing—whether it be more pay without more production or more government spending without more taxes.

Report from Washington

BY

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

Members of the House of Representatives voted last week to appropriate $3 billion for the mutual security program for fiscal year 1960. This amount is more than $700 million below the total asked by the President for both military and economic aid under the so-called foreign aid program. Although President Eisenhower has expressed the hope that the Senate will restore most of the funds cut by the House, it is doubtful that this will occur.

The President had also asked for an additional $500 million for the Development Loan Fund which makes low interest loans to stimulate growth in underdeveloped nations. However, the House did not increase the Loan Fund's appropriation above the $500 million included in the bill.

The House bill carries about $370 million less than the ceiling set by the mutual security authorization bill that was previously approved by Congress.

New Restriction

In an effort to further eliminate waste and mismanagement in the foreign aid program, the House added a restrictive amendment to the mutual security appropriation bill before sending it to the Senate. Under the terms of the amendment, Congress can cut off funds for the program with the exception of military assistance, if the Administration refuses to furnish information concerning the General Accounting Office and several congressional committees have complained because evaluation reports on the activities of the foreign aid program are not included in the proposed Inter-

The big thing we can't overlook is the fact that with City Parks such as we have and programs to put them to use we are occupying young minds constructively that otherwise may be pre-occupied with something less commendable. Too, the fact that we have playgrounds for our children could have already saved a child's life who would have had to play in the street. It could be your child.

You owe much to the Park and Recreation Board and to the Mayor and City Council. Give them your active cooperation.

PUBLIC OPINION

That he was better qualified; his past record; that they knew more about him are the chief reasons voters give for electing 1958 Democratic Congressmen.

By Kenneth Fink, Director, Princeton Research Service

In the last three nationwide Congressional Elections, the Democrats won control of the House of Representatives—in 1954, with 52.6% of the major party vote; in 1956, with 51.4 percent of the major party vote. (Public Opinion predicted the winner in each of the three nationwide elections within one percent of perfect accuracy.)

To determine why people voted for the winning Democratic Congressmen, Public Opinion and his people have just completed a series of studies to determine the reasons why the winning Congressmen—Democrats and Republicans alike—achieved their victories.

A further study was made of the reasons people give for voting for losing Congressional candidates from both major political parties.

Today's report deals with the differences in the reasons people give for voting for Democratic Congressional candidates who won and lost.

Another report will appear shortly showing the reasons why people voted for successful and unsuccessful GOP Congressional candidates. Watch for it in this newspaper.

Analysis of the reasons people give for voting for Democratic candidates who won and now occupy seats in the Capitol Building in Washington show that three reasons are uppermost on voters' minds:

1. That the Democratic candidate was the better man: he was better qualified
2. That the Democratic candidate had a good record
3. That they knew more about the Democratic candidate who won than about his GOP opponent.

Examination of the reasons people give for voting for Democratic Congressional candidates who DID NOT WIN show clearly why they lost, even though in many cases, the same amount of effort was expended during the campaigning.

For example, the number one reason people give for voting for Democratic Congressional candidates who lost is THAT HE WAS A DEMOCRAT.

Significantly, where the Democratic Congressional candidate lost, the fact that he was a Democrat was named three and a half times as often as it was about Democratic Congressional candidates who won.

The above fact would lead to the conclusion that, outside the Solid South, any Democrat cannot win—that the party is not sufficiently strong enough to get a man into Congress.

Still another noteworthy finding is the fact that he was the better man was mentioned about five times as often about winning Democratic Congressional candidates as it was about losers.

In other words, Democratic Congressional candidates who won and are now in Congress were able to convince voters that they were better qualified to serve them by their Representatives in Washington than GOP opponents—something the Democratic Congressional candidates were unable to do.

Survey findings also show that he had a good record was named six times as often about winning Democratic Congressional candidates as it was about Democrats who lost.

Of importance, too, is that they knew more about him was mentioned at least three times as often about winning Democrats as it was about losing ones.

Still another interesting sidelight is that the fact that the Democratic candidate was more for labor received three times as much mention for losing Democratic Congressional candidates as it did for Democrats who today occupy seats in the House.

That the Democratic candidate was more for the farmer is named about five times as often about winning Democrats than it is about losers should give leaders in both political camps much to think about.

The above finding suggests that in farm states, the Congressional candidate—Republican or Democrat—must make farmers feel that he has a better understanding of the farm problem and will do more for the farmer than his opponent.

In short, when the Democratic candidate won election or re-election for office, the fact that he was the better man; that he had a good record; that voters knew more about him were the principal reasons given by people who voted for these winning candidates.

About one in eight who voted for a winning Democratic Congressman did so because he was a Democrat.

In contrast, more than two out of every five who voted for a losing Democrat say he did so because he was a Democrat.

SAFETY PAYS

WATCH THAT BABY!

(3rd in a Series)

Here are some tips from the National Safety Council that could save a life — your baby's!

They cover subjects ranging from baby's bath to hitting crib bars.

They're designed to help wipe out accidents—No. 1 killer of persons 1-24 years of age.

Baby's bath—always check water temperature to prevent scalding. Watch out for hot faucets. Never leave baby alone in the bath. Forget the phone or the doorknob when you're busy with baby.

Toys—choose them for safety. Give baby sturdy rattles, brightly colored rings hung in view, large soft colored balls and push-pull toys with rounded edges. Stuffed animals or dolls make good toys for baby, as long as they don't have hard button eyes that can be pulled loose and swallowed.

In the crib—no pillow. Make sure the bars are up and locked when baby's in the crib, and that crib and window sills are coated with lead-free paint. Beware of thin plastic mattress covers.

"When baby graduates from the crib to the floor, clear it of all obstacles. Don't leave things around he can get hurt on," the Council advised. One of the main hazards:

Here's the way people who voted for Democratic candidates for Congress—winners and losers—answered when asked:

"What would you say is the main reason why you voted for the Democratic candidate for Congress?"

The following is percentage of where Democrats won and where Democrats lost.

He was the better man: he was better qualified; more capable; believed him to be the better man

His record: he did a good job while in office; did well in other offices held; his past record; why he handled public office before; his record in his job or business

Knew more about him; heard more about him; knew him personally; lives around here; heard him speak at meetings

He was a Democrat

He was more for the farmer; trying to help the farmer; understands farmer problems better

I wanted a Democratic Congressman

Liked the Democratic candidate better

The Republican had had it long enough

Wanted a change

Democratic Party's more for labor or

Liked his platform better

Democratic candidates do well in Congress

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

...remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.—(Acts 20:35.)

It takes most of us at least half a lifetime to appreciate, through our own personal experience, the truth of the Master. But what a blessed, full and useful life would result if we accepted His words in our youth and lived the long years by them!

Poison—tots will taste anything, even poisons. . . . these items—all potential . . . within a child's reach in your home: aspirin, iodine, perfume, nail polish remover, drain cleaners, match heads, shoe polish or kerosene? "Many poisonous substances," the Council emphasized, "have a delayed reaction and may not produce symptoms for some time. . . . ter they're swallowed. Look for symptoms to develop. . . . minister first aid . . . call a doctor.

"Young children need constant protection," it said. Parents remove the hazards from a child's path and get a sharp out for unexpected trouble."

BLUE CROSS CONCLUDES A SUCCESSFUL CAMPAIGN

THE special Blue Cross-Blue Shield campaign that has been running in Clanton County during the month of July has come to a successful end. Many new subscribers have been added to the Blue Cross family during this campaign, which will be reflected in additional payments to Clanton County Hospital in the future.

This has been a campaign where the Doctors, Clanton County Hospital, Clanton County Commissioners, City Councils of Clanton, Thorsby, Maplesville and Jemison along with the fine co-operation of the Alabama Farm Bureau, have all contributed to the success of the special Blue Cross efforts during July. This all adds up to the fact that several hundred new subscribers to Blue Cross, Blue Shield will be in better position to take care of their health care bills.

The above picture shows the beautiful Blue Cross-Blue Shield display used in the lobby of Clanton County Hospital during the month of July.

Mr. Grady Loftin, Special Representative of Blue Cross and Mr. Thomas J. Simpson, regular representative along with Mr. James Sudduth, Clanton Co. Hospital Administrator wants to thank each and every person or organization for any contribution to this special campaign.

SARDIS TO PRESENT GUEST SINGERS AUG. 9TH

The Gospel Travelers Quartet of Birmingham will be our guests on Sunday night. We will meet at 9:30 p.m. and serve lunch. Everyone is invited to come and bring sandwiches and ice tea.

Next Sunday will be our preaching day. We will meet at 9:30 A.M. for Sunday School, so we can finish early with our worship services, as some want to attend the homecoming and singing at Bethsalem.

We are planning on running a Bible School next week. Announcement will be made later. Listen to your radio for the time.

Rev. and Mrs. Nelson E. White invites you boys and girls to join them.

Thanks
I would like to thank the ladies of

MT. NEBO NEWS HAPPENINGS

by Sue Culp

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family of Mr. J. N. McKee, who passed away last Friday. Mrs. McKee continues to be very ill at her home.

Rev. Lane delivered a wonderful message on Sunday morning. He was the dinner guest of the W. W. Culp.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams honored their daughter, Debbie Williams, on her seventh birthday last Thursday with a picnic and swimming party. Those helping Debbie celebrate at Lake Forest above Jemison were: Elsie and Wayne Wilson, Leroy Foshee, Ricky Calfee, Geinda Mims and Mrs. Chas. Mims and the parents. Everyone had a good time and wished for Debbie many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Rosie Grant of Clanton, spent a few days with Mrs. Roberta Broadhead last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tucker and family of Montgomery, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mims and children for a while Sunday afternoon. Billy Mims was home for the week-end.

Mrs. E. R. Aycock and children of Caryville, Fla., and Mrs. E. S. Chasten were supper guests of the W. W. Culp on Monday and Tuesday night.

Lay Speakers
The Lay Speakers for Sunday will be Mr. E. R. Yeargan at 11:00 a.m. and Mr. Campbell White at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is urged to attend.

The WSCS is sponsoring an Ice Cream and Sandwich Supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Williams Saturday night, August 8th at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is especially urged to attend and help make the supper a success.

The WMU for the beautiful get well cards they sent me. Also the kindness of the members of Sardis Church, during my illness. It is nice to be remembered. Thanks so much. Mrs. G. B. Culp.

Mr. Wallace Dies

The Best Eating; Additional Space Insures Chilton's Health

THE two scenes above give a good indication that things are progressing with the new addition at Chilton County Hospital. Fear was expressed this week by Jim Suddeth, Administrator, that work may be slowed down because of the steel strike. But as of now things are humming.

MRS. Jo Ann Burks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott, is the new Dietitian at Chilton County Hospital. Mrs. Burks is a graduate of Chilton County High School and finished at the University of Alabama in the School of Home Economics, majoring in nutrition. She spent one year at the Druid City Hospital before coming to Chilton County Hospital. About 225 meals are prepared at the hospital each day according to Mrs. Burks which includes the Nursing Home patients also.

Mr. Jeff Wallace died in the Selma Baptist Hospital Saturday, August 1. Mr. Wallace has been in bad health for a long time. He was laid to rest in Tabernacle cemetery, Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. He was 74 years old. He had one son and four daughters. He had 16 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Mr. Wallace and his family lived in our community for several years. Our sympathy goes out to his wife and children.

Sports News
Miss Joyce McAfee, a member of R. L. Zeigler Women's softball team, Selma, reports they are leading the City league by 3/4 game. They have won 5 games and lost 1. This game is carried on by these women who believe in good wholesome fun.

Lawley ball team played Mars Hill at Mars Hill Sunday. Mars Hill kept the victory at home by a score of 7 to 2 for Lawley.

Reunion
The McGee reunion was held at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church on Sunday. Everyone seemed to have had a good time. The crowd was much smaller than last year.

PTA Meeting

Friday night, August 7th, all the officers of the P.T. A. and the chairman of all the committees will meet at Maplesville School house at 7:30. Please come.

Coming and Going
Mrs. Sara Mitchell and son, Terry spent this past week in Altoona with her sister, Mrs. Watts Tilley.

John McAfee spent this past week in Selma with his sister, Mrs. Coleman Smith.

Our visitors at prayer meeting on Wednesday night was Rev. C. E. Deans niece from Selma, Miss Rosemary Smith.

Mrs. Jessie Smith and daughter and Mrs. Dan Royster and grandson visited Mrs. Robert McAfee last Tuesday evening. We all got in Mrs. Royster's car and drove over to Tabernacle Cemetery, where our parents are buried en route over there we visited Mrs. Susie Green. Mrs. Green is 84 years old and still does all her own cooking and does her house work.

When we got there she was making apple jelly. This made us wonder what we will be doing when we get that age.

Mr. Willard Lawley is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawley. In the meanwhile he is working for his brother, Ezra Lee Lawley. Willard is on the TCI strike in Birmingham.

John McAfee is visiting relatives in Altoona, Ala., this week.

Mrs. Eva Eunice returned home in Montgomery Saturday, after an extended visit here with her sister, Mrs. George Shoults.

Mr. Horace Richardson from Utah, Ala., was our visitor at Church Sunday. We were glad to have him. Mr. Richardson told us he had not missed Sunday School in 12 years. We thank God for this wonderful record. He proved to us he had learned lots about the Bible when he took part in answering questions in our adult class.

MULBERRY CHURCH NOTES

Rev. L. E. Daniel, pastor.

The Summer Revival for Mulberry begins, August 10. Rev. J. F. Hixon of Montgomery will be the evangelist. Be much in prayer and make plans to attend each service.

We are thankful for the fine attendance and interest shown in our church services.

Mr. and Mrs. Cland Hathcock visited Fonda Hathcock in Centerville, Ala., one day last week. Fonda is home from the hospital. He will have to stay in bed for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McAfee's guests over the week end were: Mr. and Mrs. Watts Tilley (nee Grace) Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey McAfee, Lynn and Brenda of Selma. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mitchell, Martha, Joe, Judy and Terry of Maplesville, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. Bennie McAfee of Plantersville, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Smith and son, Greg, of Maplesville, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Betty, Jean, Kenneth Ray, Linda Kay, from Siluria, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Watts Tilley and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McAfee and John, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Oaks, Melba and Harriet all visited Mr. and Mrs. Norman Miller at Sprott, Ala., Saturday night.

Last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawley, Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun Garner, went shopping in Selma, at the noon hour they found a very wonderful cafe and enjoyed a wonderful meal.

Accident
Last Monday, Tommy Wayne McAfee was working as a carpenter helper. Tommy fell on a 2x4 and cut his face. He was carried to a Selma Doctor and had 11 stitches. He is now doing nicely, but is still under the care of the Doctor there.

The Fabulous LeFevres Join Other Groups Here For All-Nite Sing

THAT famous and most versatile of musical families, the LEFEVRES are coming to Clanton.

On Friday, August 21 from 8 p.m. to 12 p.m. an All-Nite Singing will be held at the local National Guard Armory.

Along with the LEFEVRE family to entertain you will be the Boone Trio of Montgomery accompanied by Barney Smith, guitarist and a local musician. Also the Owensby Family from Montgomery and the Glenn Sisters will participate in the program.

According to agents for the Singing it is being sponsored by the local churches and the merchants of Chilton County.

There will be a drawing held for prizes to be given. Tickets for the performance are now on sale at City Fire Service and Wright Drug Co. in Clanton.

COTTON CARDS TO BE MAILED

Cotton marketing cards will soon be mailed to growers in Chilton County by the County ASC Office, according to Eddie Owen, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The cards are for identification of upland cotton produced in 1959 on the one farm for which the particular card is issued.

The Chairman explains that the marketing card will be needed in either selling the cotton or putting it under loan, since the card shows whether or not the cotton was grown in compliance with the individual farm's acreage allotment and therefore whether it is eligible for sale without a marketing quota penalty. It also shows whether the crop is eligible for price support and what kind of support may be obtained.

In 1959, Mr. Owen points out, cotton grown in compliance with a farm's Choice (A) allotment will be eligible for purchase by the Commodity Credit Corporation at a national average of 30.40 cents per pound, gross weight, basis Midland 78 inch. Cotton grown in compliance with a farm's Choice (B) allotment will be eligible for a CCC loan at a national average of 24.70 cents per pound, same basis. CCC loans are not available for 1959-crop Choice (A) upland cotton.

Growers with Choice (A) cotton who wish to use the price-support program may sell their cotton to a local purchasing agency approved by CCC or direct to the CCC office at 120 Main Street, New Orleans 16, La.

Chairman Owen warns that the wrong use of a marketing card to identify cotton from a farm other than that where it was grown would cause both the seller and the buyer to be subject to criminal prosecution.

The place, Jenkins Store in Verdena and there will be loads of new merchandise as well as good used bargains.

A HOUSE TO FIT MOST ANY LOT

The major problem of satisfactorily orienting a house — adjusting it by compass direction to the most favorable exposure — often is solved more readily by accommodating design. Designer Richard B. Pollman has achieved that with this one-story L-shaped home. Attractive from all points of view, it may be built upon almost any terrain and occupy a lot of any shape. It has 1,344 sq. ft. of livable floor area. This house has a large living room with fireplace, dining area, kitchen, three bedrooms, two bathrooms, seven closets and tremendous storage space in the two-car fireproof brick garage. A side door in the garage is a protected storage of lawn, garden and sports equipment. The front and back windows of this house assure full ventilation and cooling in summer. The compact design reduces winter heating costs.

SPARKMAN ON COTTON ACREAGE BILL PASSAGE

Washington, D. C., August 13.—Senator John Sparkman, Alabama, hailed the passage of the cotton acreage bill as a great thing for Alabama and the South generally. The House version of the bill was overwhelmingly passed by the House of Representatives and accepted by the Senate without a single dissent. The Senator said he believes President Eisenhower will sign the bill.

He listed the following advantages of the cotton acreage bill: 1. It incorporates a provision long sought by Senator Sparkman that is designed to prevent further loss of cotton acreage to Alabama and the South.

2. It will assure fuller utilization or planting of acreage allocated to Alabama and other Southern States.

3. It will result in increased farm income and make for a more stable farm economy.

REVIVAL AT MULBERRY

REVIVAL services will begin at the Mulberry Baptist Church next Sunday, August 16th. There will be both morning and evening services with morning services at 10 and evening services at 7:30.

Rev. J. Frank Hixon, Superintendent of City Missions, Montgomery, Ala., will be the evangelist. Mr. R. C. Veazey will lead the music.

Nursery service will be provided for the evening services. You have a cordial invitation to attend.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO LEGION MEMBERS

THERE will be an important Legion meeting, Post No. 6, Monday, 7:30 p.m., at the Veterans Club. This will be the first meeting of the new year. Work for the coming year will be discussed, and the membership drive will start.

Any eligible Veteran who is not a member, is urged to come and become a member of this post.

PROMINENT CITIZEN DIED WEDNESDAY

NEWS reached Clanton early Wednesday morning that Dick Arnold was dead. Dick had been sick for more than a year and his death was not unexpected. He has been in the University Hospital for the past several weeks.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by Martin Funeral Home.

POT LUCK SUPPER

Everyone is invited to attend the Pot Luck Supper, Saturday, August 15, 1959 at 7 a.m. at Adams Church. This supper sponsored by the Adams Home Demonstration Club.

REVIVAL AT REFUGE

REVIVAL services begin at the Refuge Baptist Church east of Clanton, Sunday, August 16, with Rev. Foster Gildwell of Cooper doing the preaching. Services twice daily at 10:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. throughout the week. The pastor and church invites everyone to attend each service.

'60 Soil Bank Details Ready In Mid-August

FARMERS of Chilton County who are interested in the Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank for the 1960 crop season will be able to get full information at the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office after the middle of August. SAC Chairman Eddie Owen said today.

This will be the fifth year of the Conservation Reserve, under which farmers contract to withdraw general cropland from production and protect it with conservation uses for a period of 3 to 10 years. The national program for 1960 was announced recently, but will be several weeks before county offices have full details, Mr. Owen said.

Rate Established
The County Committee will establish the rate, setting it 10 percent higher if all eligible cropland on the farm is to be retired.

Priority On Contract
After the basic rate has been determined, the farmer may apply for a contract at any figure below that rate. In case the county receives more applications than it can accept, priority will be given to the farmer offering the land at the lowest rate compared with the basic rate established for his land. For example, if the basic rate on a farmer's land is set at $12 an acre, he will have a contract at $10 or $11.

Similarly to '59
In 1959, the 1960 Conservation Reserve contract was set at $10 an acre. If a farmer's land was set at $12 an acre, he would have a contract at $10 or $11.

Soil Bank Base Crops
The basic rate is based on the average yield of the county's base crops, which are known as Soil Bank base crops. The percentage rate will be earned each year the contract is in effect. In addition, a farmer can get a cost-share payment to assist in establishing approved conservation uses on the land.

ANNUAL SING AT MINERAL SPRINGS

ANNUAL All-Day Singing and dinner on the grounds will be held Sunday, August 16th at Mineral Springs Church.

Chairman S. V. Miller says to come early. Starts at 10:30 and everybody has a special invitation to join in the services.

The Boone's from Prattville will be featured along with other guest singers and groups.

SPOTS IN THE NEWS

Mrs. Wells Takes Leave -- Mrs. J. H. Wells, our Isabella Correspondent says to remind the folks in her community that she is going on a vacation to Mississippi next week and to get their news in to her as early as possible before Sunday so that she can compile it and turn it in for publication.

Ross Races Auto-Loses -- Frank Ross, of Stokes, Chilton Co. tried to stop his car after he rolled it in to work Monday morning on foot. Frank got out of his car, the car started to roll and Frank tried to get in again and missed. He cracked his knee-cap as a result and shattered the bone. According to reports Mr. Frank is doing OK and an operation was planned for Wednesday morning. At press time, no news of the results were available. He will be in the hospital (St. Vincent's in Birmingham) for 10 days or more.

Born In '22-Now 'Ancient' -- Overheard Jerry Boddens' boy talking about his favorite baseball players to another young friend the other day and he had some enlightening news. Said Larry, "that guy was born in 1922... he's about shot." We don't know whether or not his age 'shot him', but these youngsters have some strange opinions about who's old and what's 'shot'!

Softball -- Dixie Sports Store will play Prattville in a Doubleheader at the local ball park Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock.

20 Traffic Accidents -- Chilton County reported 20 traffic accidents in July 1 through August 2. These accidents resulted in 10 injuries and 2 deaths. One two and three reasons for accidents were: (1) Wrong side of road, (2) Excessive speed, (3) Drunk drivers.

Golden Wedding Anniversary -- The H. C. Jeffersons of Jonestown were honored on August 9 with a reception on their Golden Wedding Anniversary. See full details in this week's Journal News.

Bible School -- Vacation Bible School begins at Shiloh on the 24th. Everyone is welcome and cordially invited to attend.

Your Blood Is Needed -- Tuesday, August 18 is the date set for the Bloodmobile to be in Chilton County. It will stop at First Methodist Church in Clanton all day and every eligible Chiltonian is urged to give pint of blood so that we may reach our quota and stay in the blood program. There is no way of telling how many lives can be saved if 8,000 pints of blood are given. Life-giving blood with someone is fortunate. Don't forget that date says chairman Ralph Johnston, a lot of Chilton Countians are counting on a lot of other Chilton Countians to put this program across!

HRUSH WILL ENJOY IT, ANYWAY--

NIKITA Sergeevich Khrushchev, certain to be the most controversial guest any American President has ever received, is and has been many things to many men. Beginning as a present farm boy in Kursk province learning the blacksmith and locksmith trades, he fought in the Bolshevik revolution, began climbing the Communist Party ladder, apparently rung-by-rung including that of purge-master in the Ukraine in '38, seemingly worshipful satellite of Stalin since the '40s, Nikita's praises turned to denunciation in 1956 after Good Old Joe's stooge and immediate successor as premier, Georgi Malenkov, had been sent to the provinces and Nikita was firmly in the saddle. Others who faded from the Soviet scene about this time included President Eisenhower's pen-pal, Marshal Zhukov, Khrush's buddy, Marshal Bulganin and Vyacheslav Molotov.

Currently, as chairman of the USSR Council of Ministers and top Communist of the world, Khrushchev is absolute dictator of half the globe, and has made his intentions quite clear about the other half. He is also chief of the largest, most intricately organized and most ruthless espionage, sabotage and intelligence network the world has ever known.

He is coming here, he says, as "a man of peace" and is not interested in seeing military bases. With all the details on file in the Kremlin — including US patents as they are issued in Washington — why should he bother?

Kather, Mr. K. will no doubt play Foxy grandpa and visit such childish Americans as the Iowa corn-burner who wants to show off his farm. If we can prove to the visitor that America is an even juicier prize than he has thought, we rather doubt if that will change his eagerness to take over as promised. And certainly he should be thrilled to see our vast surpluses of price-supported grain — which he might consider mute evidence of our faltering faith in capitalism and the free enterprise system.

Interesting indeed is the belated effort of the State Department, that has pushed relentlessly for the Khrushchev visit, to warn us against expecting too much from the Ike-Krush talks. Even Vice President Nixon has expressed similar misgivings.

This back-peddling might suggest that some of our eager beavers in Washington are beginning to wonder, a month in advance, whether this was such a good idea.

ANOTHER MEMORIAL --

IT is fantastic to think that within a few weeks of President Eisenhower's proclamation of "Captive Nations Week" for prayerful ceremonies in memory of the satellite victims of Soviet Communism — Americans will be lining the streets of Washington under the hammer and sickle to greet the command-in-chief of the Red conspiracy as he is escorted to the White House by that same President! (We are assuming here that the routine common to visits by chiefs of state will be followed, and that thousands along the way will be Government workers given time off for the purpose.)

Naturally, we would think, the encouragement we have striven so mightily through the years to give to the unfortunates behind the Iron Curtain would be thinning out and hearts sinking in dismay at what must appear to be at least a chance in US policy, and at most capitulation. And already our allies are reported as quivering with alarm over our official enthusiasm for the Khrushchev visit, and the dangers to their interests of that must be in effect a two-man summit.

As for the attitude of Americans at large, we shall have to wait and see. The Vice President told us, in stepping off his plane from Warsaw, that we must be open to our guest — and probably we will be, in the main. But we do not have to like the idea of entertaining with our tax money the man who has promised to turn us as a nation and that our grandchildren will be living under Communism. And we do not have to dance in the streets with Communists to welcome their leader.

Perhaps we would impress Khrushchev more if we were to declare another memorial period during his visit, to pray for the thousands of American POW's languishing since his Red Chinese stooges drove them behind the Bamboo curtain. We do not think the Master of the Kremlin will care to visit our churches.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Simple Jig-Saw Solution

A GOOD SAMPLE OF WHERE OUR TAX MONEY
IS GOING DOWN THE DRAIN

The nation's taxpayers themselves would demand a change in military purchasing methods "if the public were fully informed on the wasteful, non-competitive contracting practices of the Department of Defense," Senator John Sparkman (D., Ala.), stated in a Senate speech.

The Department of Defense has become a prime factor in contributing to inflation," Senator Sparkman declared. "By its failure to apply sound economic principles and by its seeming indifference to the value of money, the Department of Defense has contributed substantially to the depreciation of the dollar, to increasing the cost of living, and finally, to unbalancing the budget."

Navy Contracts
In discussing 14 Navy contracts involving overcharges to the Navy amounting to $12,000,000, which Senator Sparkman said that it would take the Federal income tax payments of 22,346 taxpayers in the most numerous $5,000 to $6,000 income bracket "to equal this $12,000,000 contract waste."

Wasted Effort
"It is any wonder that these 22,346 individual and heads of households," he said, "many of them in debt and many of them having to go further in debt to get the money to pay their income tax might well feel that so far as the Federal Government getting any good from their tax dollars is concerned, they might just as well have put a match to their checks or money orders when they mailed in their tax returns."

Navy Not Alone
Saying the Navy alone is not involved, Senator Sparkman said that audits of military contracts by all of the services by the Comptroller General show that the negotiation of contracts "without meaningful price competition" results in the irreparable and unnecessary loss of millions upon millions of dollars resulting from a succession of so-called "bad procurement jobs."

Defense Dept. & Small Business
The Defense Department, he added, is opposed to some measures which are designed to inject competition from small business concerns into defense contracts. Citing the efforts of the Small Business Administration to certify the competency of small firms to perform specific contracts after they had been turned down as suppliers by military services, Senator Sparkman said this program alone had saved the Government $24,000,000 on 553 contracts.

"A saving of more than $800,000 as a result of competitive bids from small business concerns does not seem like much money, but I am certain it would seem worth saving the taxpayers who are footing our national defense bill," Senator Sparkman said.

Competitive Bidding
Remarkably that competitive bidding from small business concerns "time and time again" have reduced the cost of military supplies and services, Senator Sparkman said there "seems to be a sort of cold war going on between the Department of Defense and the Small Business Administration."

Here Is Possible Solution
He suggested that the President call a "Little Summit Conference" in Washington of his Department heads, saying: "The purpose of such a trip-level meeting would be for him,

MONDAY morning the Board of Revenue and Control "Okayed" the proposal by the Fair Committee to have supervised paid parking at the Fair this year and also agreed to make some arrangements as to getting the grounds and approaches in usable condition by that time.

Monday night, at a joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and the Jaycee Board of Directors it was decided and agreed upon how the supervised parking would be handled and who would handle it. The Jaycees made a proposal to handle the supervision of paid and free parking and the Fair Committee accepted their proposal. The Fair Committee is doing a splendid job of organizing this year's big Chilton County Fair and it should be brought to the attention of all those who will benefit by it that a lot of businessmen are putting a lot of their time and effort into meetings and projects to insure the Fair's success. There is no doubt in our minds that we have, in the making, the finest entertainment of its kind ever to be or to be seen by Chilton County. Advance effort is being put on every phase and no stone is being left unturned. You have every possible assurance that your 1959 County Fair will be a whopping success. President Has Power
"It appears that only the President himself has the power to make certain that efficient business principles are adopted as standard practice throughout the Government. By doing so, he would give a great note of certainty to his oft-proclaimed desire to promote efficiency in Government and to control inflation."

WE just received a copy of the Bryce News from the Tuscaloosa mental hospital. The "Flag" of the publication proclaims that it is "of the patients... by the patients... for the patients..." and we think such an activity as this publication will serve well, along with other efforts of the management and staff, to rehabilitate unfortunates who have awayed a bit from our standards of social behavior. From the contents of the newsletter one thing is evident: patients are given plenty of grounds to emphasize their desire to be rehabilitated and we think that is a great step in the right direction. Congratulations to Bryce and their patients in their seemingly, impossible task with short funds and short manpower. To say it's challenge is putting it mildly.

SAYS here, "moderation in child-rearing practices makes for better behaved children." We don't doubt it; accordingly everything in moderation is better than an excess of it.

Report from Washington

BY
ARMISTEAD SELDEN
Congressman, Sixth District

Both the House and the Senate have approved legislation that is designed to preserve acreage allotments and, at the same time, is expected to reduce the production of surplus crops at no additional cost to the government. The legislation, which was strongly supported by members from southern states, will allow a conference committee to determine the degree of hardship and economic distress, with many being forced to find other means of earning a living.

Aid For Cotton Farmers
While the House-approved bill deals with all government-supported crops, the provisions pertaining to cotton are of particular interest to those of us who live in Alabama. These provisions will permit a farm, county, and state to maintain their total cotton acreage history without full planning of each farm allotment every year. Farmers who plan 75% or more of their cotton allotment will be regarded as having planted their entire current allotment in cotton for future allocation determination purposes. Those who do not plant any acreage voluntarily release their allotments, so that they can be distributed among other farmers, first in the county and then on a state-wide basis. Under this plan, a county or state will not lose any acreage history credit because of underplanting, as long as 75% of the allotment is planted or the acreage is released.

Acreage Needed
The production of cotton, which was once Alabama's principal source of revenue, is still vital to the growth and stability of our state. During the past several years, however, there has been a steady decline in the amount of cotton acreage allocated to Alabama. This has occurred because, in addition to the national acreage reduction, some farmers in our section have underplanted, and the acreage they forfeited has been shifted to other states. As a result of the reduced allotments our state's cotton farmers have experienced a great degree of hardship and economic distress, with many being forced to find other means of earning a living.

If the legislation passed by the House is enacted into law, it should halt the unnecessary loss of cotton acreage in the Southeast to states of the Far West. Since it will require the planting each year of 75% rather than the present 90% of a farm allotment in order to protect future allotments, it may also reduce to some extent our current surplus.

The herringbone milking parlor is designed with the cows facing outward at an angle and standing about 30 inches higher than the operator's floor level. This arrangement requires a minimum amount of labor for handling milking units.

Highway Director Has Fears
On Interstate Road Project

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. — The possibility of a serious curtailment in Alabama's interstate highway program was told today by Highway Director Sam Englehardt who pointed to legislation now in Congress which if enacted will cut the state program by about 67 percent.

This cutback in the state road building program, it is estimated, will result in the loss of approximately 20,000 jobs used directly and indirectly in the highway industry, including materials, equipment and suppliers.

Mr. Englehardt pointed out that July 1 of this year was the first time since the inception of the Federal Aid Road Building program in 1916 that Congress hasn't had highway appropriations made before the beginning of the fiscal year.

It seems, Mr. Englehardt said, that Congress is reluctant to continue the large federal aid program began in 1956 and continued in the 1958 Highway Act. This act provided Alabama during the last fiscal year a total of $67 million for highway construction.

The House Ways and Means Committee has just recommended a drastic reduction in the program which would provide only $30 million for the current fiscal year and only $45 million for the next fiscal year.

Nearly all these reductions are in the interstate program, the program where the Federal Government puts up 90 percent of the money and the state puts up 10 percent.

Appropriations for fiscal year 1960 were $8,490,362 for primary roads, $2,590,179 for urban, $6,592,841 for secondary and $49,053,500 for our giant interstate program.

Next year the appropriations for primary, urban and secondary will remain practically the same but our interstate will be cut from the near $50 million figure to about $11½ million.

The program, Mr. Englehardt said, that was initiated at the offset of the Patterson Administration would mean the eventual construction of 825 miles of the interstate variety. Presently there are 199 miles of this type roads under construction.

The strange paradox in the whole matter, Mr. Englehardt said, was that 1958 Congress called the States of the carpet for getting along with the highway program too slowly. "Now a few months later we are faced with having our program, partially wrecked," Mr. Englehardt said.

A number of states are in much worse shape than we are, he said. Of the 199 miles of interstate under construction in Alabama, all der construction in Alabama, all will be completed since we have not contracted ahead of our funds. Furthermore all our new highways link up with existing roads. But in some states they are faced with the prospect of having million dollar overruns without any roads to run under them. In other states segments of four lane roadways are built out in areas without any access roads.

Two-five states have stopped their interstate program entirely. Since the first of the year Alabama has been letting about $9 million in new business each month. This actually means about $10 million in new business each month in that the contracts do not include the engineering cost, buying of right-of-ways, etc.

Mr. Englehardt attended an urgent meeting in Chicago on Friday, called on a day's notice, of highway administrators from throughout the country.

Despite the one day notice, 44 states were represented and what was termed the "rising seriousness of the situation was pointed out" to the administrators by leading highway people in the American Assn. of State Highway Officials.

AGAINST ANY ADDITIONAL
AUTO TAXES

DARLINGTON-In view of federal highway developments in Washington, J. Ernest Lambert, Chairman of the Alabama Highway Users Conference, stated again his organization's opposition to any additional automotive taxes.

Lambert recalled that the Alabama Highway Users Conference, composed of 28 organizations representing agriculture, industry, transportation, and motorists, last December and also in April declared its opposition to another tax increase. Nothing has been done to change this position, he said.

More than $58 million in federal automotive taxes were paid by Alabamians in 1958, of which more than $28 million was from the federal gasoline tax, Lambert pointed out. This is in addition to the 7-cent state tax which netted $65 million, and city and county gas taxes amounting to $10 million. Gasoline taxes in Alabama range from 10 to 13 cents per gallon, already he emphasized.

"We must keep in mind that Alabamians in many counties pay federal automotive taxes to the interstate system, yet they will not receive direct, real benefit."

REVIVAL AT SHILOH WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

Rev. A. V. Bice, pastor. We were greatly blessed during our summer revival here last week. Some wonderful messages were given by the pastor. They were twelve additions to the church and one who re-dedicated his life to Christ.

A beautiful baptismal service was held Sunday morning at Shiloh and ten candidates were baptized by the pastor. They were Betty Davor, Janice Jacks, Judy Dobbs. The boys were James and Junior Dobbs, William Carter, Kenneth and James Williams, Kenneth Patterson and James Bavor. We are all very grateful for these boys and girls. We hope that this revival will go on and on in the minds and hearts of our people and that others will be enlisted into his service.

Bible School to Begin
The date for the Bible School to begin is the fourth Monday, August 24th. We hope that all the children will be able to attend on that date.

Social Happenings
The week of Mr. and Mrs. Grady was a very successful one. Mrs. R. E. Darden of Alabaster, New Mexico.

Dr. Dewey Traywick of Eglin AFB, Fla., spent the week end here. He was guest of Jimmie Bice Saturday night.

Mr. Crawford Owens returned Thursday from the Chilton County Hospital, where she has been a very sick patient. She is now home.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Kendrick and Mrs. Wynell and Gail left for Knob Noster, Miss. They are now guests of their Airman and Mrs. Clyde Kendrick. They plan to return next week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Owen and Mrs. J. O. Bice spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Haggard of Mobile.

OFFICIALS ON CERTIFICATION OF SEEDS

Seed certification officials from 16 southern states met in Montgomery this week for their 10th annual convention.

More than 100 delegates discussed regulations, standards, and problems pertaining to seed certification and control. The Whitley Hotel served as headquarters for the event.

Melvin Moore, API Extension seed crop specialist, explained that the purpose of seed certification in Alabama and other states is to make high quality seed of superior varieties available to farmers.

The specialist, who serves as chairman of the seed officials' group, said that certified seed were produced on a total of 44,581 acres in Alabama last year. The leading crops produced in the state are cotton, reseeded crimson clover, peanuts, hybrid corn, oats and soybeans.

Representatives who participated in the three-day meeting were from Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Georgia, Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia.

Special guests R. C. Bamberg, Alabama commissioner of agriculture and industries, and Dr. Lane Wilson, executive vice president of the Southern Seedsmen's Association, spoke during the meeting.

In addition to Moore, the officers of the Southern Seed Certification Officials are Hugh Inglis, Georgia, vice chairman; and John W. Oakley, Mississippi, secretary.

Safety In The Home

(4th In A Series)

When a fire strikes your home tonight? What would you do? Would you be blocked?

Most people do not know what to do in case of a fire. They are not prepared. They do not know the escape route they should take. They do not know how to use a fire extinguisher. They do not know how to get out of the house safely.

It is important that you know what to do in case of a fire. You should know the escape route you will take. You should know how to use a fire extinguisher. You should know how to get out of the house safely.

Notify the fire department when you see a fire. Tell everyone in the building first.

ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

THERE IS NO "BOOM-OR-BUST" WITH GOD

Some who were hard-hit during the great depression of the 'thirties may become apprehensive when hearing talk of "another depression."

Says one man: "I lived on fried bread and crowder peas for more than a year. I hate to think of another depression but I guess I can make it through the next one."

This is the proper attitude to take but the man missed a most important point: There need not be any "next" depression for you!

If you are one who is fearful of what the future holds for you economically, remember these Scriptures:

"My God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:19); "Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper" (3 John 2).

Christ has promised to supply all our needs.

If we expect big things from God, we will receive big things! God wants us all to prosper.

There is no "boom-or-bust" cycle with God. He does not depend upon any economic conditions to govern how much He bestows upon us.

God does not worry about depressions, recessions or depressed markets.

He supplies our needs according to His riches and abilities. These are limitless! Isn't it comforting to know that God is ready to stand by us, no matter what future economic conditions might occur?

Even in the "tough" times, God has the power to give us all of our needs, and to let us prosper. Therefore, we need have no fear for the future.

I heard a woman say: "I never ask God for anything other than what I actually need. I don't dare ask for anything extra!"

My question to her is, "Why not?"

God has gone on "record" in the Bible. He promises to supply all of our needs and to give us abundance! "Abundance" means more than enough! God wants us to have some "extras" as well as the essentials.

He wants us all to have our needs met according to the riches and ability of Christ.

Yes, God wants to give us a surplus—a surplus which we can use for His glory.

When you hear talk of a depression or recession, don't be worried. God will stand by you.

With this thought uppermost in your own mind, you will not fear for the future. For God wishes "above all things that thou mayest prosper."

By faith we understand that the world was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was made out of things which do not appear. (Hebrews 11:3)

We have never "seen" electricity or the "waves" that carry radio and TV sound and images. Yet we have faith in them, for we know they are, and that they just happen. How, then, anyone doubt that God

ELEMENTARY P.T.A. PLANS PROGRAM

The Program Committee for the Clanton Elementary School Parent-Teachers Association, met at the home of Mrs. Bob Powers, on August 4th, to discuss and make plans for the programs for the coming year.

The theme for the year will be, "Lift the Level of Learning Through Better Homes." The Committee worked out some very interesting and promising programs to first be presented on the 1st Tuesday in September and then be entitled, "Take Time To Know Your Faculty."

This Committee, consist of the following members: Mrs. Bob Powers, Mrs. Douglas Barton, Mrs. Ralph Norlan, Mrs. Kenyon Vincent, and the P.T.A. president, Mrs. Tate Davis.

They urge all parents to take a special interest in their P.T.A. Quality and nutritive value are not affected by the color of the egg nor the color of the shell. Weight for weight, small eggs are equal to that of large eggs of the same quality.

WAR HERO TO COME TO CLANTON

Local Clanton residents attending the Young Men's Congress for Alabama-Mississippi-South Carolina-Florida-Georgia-Florida last week-end were the newly arrived World War II hero, Walter Kohlers and family. The Walter Kohlers and family are the Walter Kohlers and family.

The two-state Congress opened Friday night with a colorful ceremony and deep serious consecration with nearly 1,000 Seventh-day Adventist young people witnessing the dramatic stage production entitled, "The Year Time Ended."

Highlight of Saturday night's performance and Recreation Hour was the honoring of Congressional Medal winner, Private First Class Douglas I. Doss.

According to the official citation, Private Doss, a Seventh-day Adventist non-combatant company aid man, "through his outstanding bravery and unflinching determination in the face of desperately dangerous conditions... saved the lives of many soldiers. His name be-comes a symbol throughout the 72nd Infantry Division for gallantry far above and beyond the call of duty."

High on a jagged four hundred escarpment near Orasoo - Mura, Okinawa, Ryukyu Islands, on April 29, 1945, Private Doss refused to seek cover from a heavy concentration of artillery, mortar and machine-gun fire that he might lower seventy-five casualties down the four hundred foot cliff on a rope supported later to friendly hands.

Private Doss appeared recently on the "This Is Your Life" program. "This Is Your Life," where, among other things, he received a new Edsel station wagon.

Plans are under way to bring Private Doss to the Clanton

Serving With Fleet Aircraft Service Squadron Nine

Carlin Jones, chief aviation electrician's mate USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones of Cooper, Ala., and husband of the former Miss Patsy A. Petrie of Elton, Ky., is serving with Fleet Aircraft Service Squadron Nine at the Cecil Field Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Fla.

He was promoted to his present rate June 22.

After entering the Navy in 1947, Jones graduated from Vreelands High School.

$1.91 PER HOUR WAGE IN JULY

The average factory production worker earned $1.91 per hour during June, an increase of two cents over the hourly rate of $1.89 for May and nine cents above June 1958, according to Ralph R. Williams, Director of the Alabama Department of Industrial Relations.

The over-the-month increase was due largely to a longer work week and an increased proportion of higher paid workers. The advance of 16 cents per hour in the transportation equipment industry may be credited primarily to a large scale work stoppage which idled all workers in this group except the higher paid employees, Williams said.

The Chilton Countians enlisted with the Central Alabama Honor Platoon, June 10 and were granted special permission by the Army to stay together during all basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Upon completion of basic training they will be assigned in various fields of specialized training each man selected before he enlisted under the Army's graduate specialist program and the vocational training plan now available to young men who enlist for three years.

BRIEFS FROM THORSBY

Mrs. Robinson Honored
Mrs. Ernie L. Robinson, who before her marriage, Saturday was Mrs. Jean Faulk Wardell, was honored at a miscellaneous shower when Mrs. Kenneth Campbell and her sister, Miss Ann Beaird were hostesses in the home of the latter, on Biltmore Avenue in Montgomery.

The reception rooms were decorated in pink and white gladioli. The tea table was centered with a milk glass punch bowl and encircled with pink gladioli and baby breath fern. Tall pink candles burned in silver and candleabra on each end of the table. The color scheme of pink and green was carried out in the refreshments.

Twenty close friends of Mrs. Robinson attended.

It's a Girl
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lee Day upon the arrival of a baby girl. She arrived Monday, August 3rd. Mr. Adrian Beasley, the granddaddy made this report and he tells us he can readily see why you call it your grandchild. Mr. Beasley carried this young lady to visit his mother in Jemison when she was only 3 days old. He says they will call her Donna Lynn. Happy grandpa!

Mr. Ross Injured
We are very sorry to hear that our good friend Frank Ross was hurt Monday morning, upon arriving at his work, when his car started rolling, he tried to stop it and fell, injuring his knee badly.

by. He was carried to St. Vincent Hospital in Birmingham.

Football Clinic
Mrs. Sam Bentley carried a group of girls from here last Wednesday to the Football Clinic in Tuscaloosa. Those who attended were: Janice Collins, Norma Litz, Barbara Ann Collins, Gary Dean Marting, Doris Smith, Rebecca Bentley and Gail Robinson. The girls met and talked to the National and University of Alabama Cheerleaders.

Coming and Going
Mr. and Mrs. Volle Littleton visited her son, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Burkett, in Georgia, a few days last week.

Mrs. John Floyd Mims, has returned home from a visit with her mother in Chicago, Ill.

Mr. Mollie Vance of Clanton visited her brother, the E. R. Yeargans last week.

Mr. Charles Leonard Collins of Mobile spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Collins.

Mrs. Powell and daughter, Jean Wilson and children, left last Thursday of Missouri, to visit her daughter (Eleanor) Mr. and Mrs. Mason Esay, they expect to be gone through the month of August.

Mrs. Effie Robinson returned home Sunday from a visit with her son, Sterling and family in Birmingham.

Mr. W. I. Lessley of Jemison is spending a couple of weeks with his son, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lessley.

Mr. and Mrs. Akin Collins, Mrs. Estelle Hayes of Thorsby attended the Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Jefferies of Jemison Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Susie Goodgame is visiting relatives in Portersville, Miss. Glad to see Mrs. Alta Franklin home again. She returned to Thorsby last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bentley and children, Miss Muri Williams accompanied by Mrs. Bobby Watkins, who will visit her husband, Bob, who is with the Army at San Antonio, Texas.

Miss Norma and Pamela Litz are visiting their aunts. The M. McBrides this week in Foley.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Pilgrim and daughter, Faye, and family left on Sunday, for a visit with their son, in Goldberg, N. C.

Culver Completes Armor Training

Army Pvt. Billy O. Culver, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Culver, Clanton, Ala., is scheduled to complete eight weeks of advanced individual armor training August 4 at Fort Knox, Ky.

Culver is receiving experience in driving the Army's medium tank and is becoming proficient in firing the .30 and .50 caliber machine guns and the 90 millimeter tank gun.

He entered the Army last December and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Culver attended Verbena High School.

THIS WEEKS "BUSINESS OF THE WEEK" IS YOUR COMMUNITY NEWSPAPER, THE CHILTON COUNTY NEWS.

THROUGH THE CO-OPERATION OF OUR GOOD SUBSCRIBERS, WE WON TWO PLACES IN THE ALABAMA PRESS ASSOCIATION'S "BETTER NEWSPAPER CONTEST".

Here's The Publisher

And he tells us to be sure and remind the folks that the News does Commercial Printing of all kinds and every effort is made to compete in quality and price, with the larger printing plants. We will appreciate your next order!

THE PRESENT MANAGEMENT AND OWNERSHIP HAS PUBLISHED THE "NEWS" FOR THE PAST 21 YEARS THIS SEPTEMBER AND HAS ENJOYED EVERY YEAR, EVERY MONTH, EVERY WEEK AND EVERY DAY OF IT.

AT THE HELM IS: R. M. (BEN) TUCKER, PUBLISHER; HIS SON, BOB TUCKER, EDITOR; AND GEORGE H. TUCKER, ADVERTISING MANAGER. OTHERS ON THE STAFF INCLUDE: ARNOLD MIMS, MRS. EARL HILYER, FLOYD MIMS, HORACE MADDOX AND ED, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL.

THE NEWS IS PROUDEST OF ITS 3RD. PLACE CERTIFICATE FOR "COMMUNITY SERVICE", CHOSEN FROM NEARLY 200 ENTRIES OF WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS IN ALABAMA.

IT IS OUR SINCERE DESIRE TO CONTINUE THIS COMMUNITY SERVICE UNTIL WE ARE THE "BEST" NEWSPAPER IN THAT CATEGORY IN THE STATE.

BECAUSE OF INFLATIONARY COST, THE "NEWS" HAS BEEN FORCED TO INCREASE SUBSCRIPTION RATES TO $3.00 PER YEAR. WE WILL CONTINUE IN OUR EFFORTS TO GIVE YOU MORE THAN YOUR MONEYS WORTH EACH WEEK.

YOU CAN BE SURE...

YESSIR, you can be sure you're getting your money's worth when you go to a local Chilton business establishment to do your trading and shopping.

It's a proven fact that money spent at home, stays at home. On the other hand, where does the money you spend in Birmingham, Montgomery or Selma go? It goes to those communities to better themselves. It seems that, as a privileged member of this community we are all obligated to keep as much money at home as we can so we will have better things for better living for our families and ourselves.

Merchants in this community are "Trade At Home" conscious. They are because they know the value of keeping trade local. If you are a housewife, a worker or a fellow who needs a new pair of seat covers it is evident that you should do your buying where it will produce the most results as well as give you top quality merchandise for your dollar. The merchants listed on this page ALL handle top quality items and pride themselves in good service to their community. Shop your community merchants and save... at both ends!

STANDARD OIL SPLITS DOUBLEHEADER WITH GEORGIA STATE CHAMPS

Clanton Oil Softball Club split the doubleheader with the State Champions from Atlanta, Georgia, Tuesday night. In the first game, Clanton lost 4 to 2 in 11 innings. The Kenyon struck out 11 men in the first inning. The second game was won by Clanton 1 to 0 behind the pitching of Merritt. Herb Brigrance was named first on a single by Merritt to end the ball game in the extra innings.

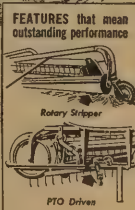

The Oiler from Clanton is playing in the State Tournament in Tuscaloosa Wednesday night at 7:30 P.M., meeting the Ko Ko Kluf, and if they get by they will meet the All-Stars from Gadsden at 9:30 Thursday night and Pepsi Cola will meet the winner of this game on Friday night if they get by another team from Gadsden on Thursday night. All the Tournament will be held at the Jaycee Ball Park in Alabama City, just out of Tuscaloosa.

Chevrolet's exuberant Impala 4-Door Sedan

Chevy's the hottest one on the road

It's the hottest looking, hottest saving, hottest selling of the leading low-priced three.

Have you had a taste of pure engine efficiency recently? Well, it's standard equipment in Chevrolet's lineup of eight lively V8's. These are the powerplants that recently won the NASCAR* Outstanding Achievement award for "America's most efficient V-type engines."

One, in fact, produces over one horsepower for every single cubic inch of displacement. It's the only American engine to reach such a high level of deep-breathing efficiency.

But whichever Chevy powerplant you pick, you're primed for some of the perkiness going you've ever enjoyed, and you'll know it for sure the moment you set your Chevrolet into silk-smooth motion.

Or maybe you're looking for a tightfisted six. Well, Chevy's got just the ticket for you—the saving-six in its field.

And wait, wait till you hook up your favorite Chevy engine to one of Chevrolet's five transmissions, including those precision stickshift gearboxes and ultra-smooth Turbo-glide, among others. We'll leave it to you to choose your favorite from the five, and don't think you won't have fun doing that!

Oh, there's a long, long list of things to like about Chevy, and your Chevrolet dealer will be more than happy to tell you all about it. Why not make it a point to visit him soon?

*National Association for Stock Car Advancement and Research.

No wonder more people are buying Chevrolets in 1959 than any other car!

See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer for the best buy on the best seller!

Wedding Tops In Billingsley -- Bethsalem News

by Mrs. Clyde Chandler
The Bethsalem Baptist Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Elvire Jean McGee and Harold Patterson, Friday evening, August 7th at 8 o'clock.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McGee of Bethsalem community and Mr. and Mrs. George Patterson of Cooper.

The nuptial ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. E. Wilkins, before a back ground of southern smiles, accented with white floor standards, filled with white gladioli. Illuminated white tapers held in wrought iron stands, alabaster cast a soft glow over the scene.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Shirley Yeagran, pianist, Miss Ann Williams sang "I Love You Truly".

Candle lighters were Patricia Carter, cousin of the bride and Betty McGee, sister of the bride. They wore dresses of blue.

The bride chose her sister, Miss Mary McGee as her maid of honor. Her dress was white lace with matching hat.

Bridesmaids were: Miss Betty Bowman and Miss Ann Griffin. Their dresses were blue.

Junior bridesmaids were Renee and Cathy Cox, who also wore dresses of blue. All the brides attendants carried rose gays of white carnations.

James Bowman served the groom as best man. Ushers were Aubrey and Billy Cox.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was a portrait of loveliness in a gown of white lace. The bodice was misted lace over taffeta, long sleeves formed a collar point at her wrist.

The bride's length skirt was styled with tiers of lace and tulle. Both the bride and groom's mothers chose a dress of blue lace.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in the Floyd community. They many friends wish for them a long and happy life together.

Singing a Success
The annual homecoming and singing was held at Bethsalem Sunday, August 9, with a record crowd and one of best singings ever held in this community.

"Pleasant Dreams"
If I can find, when day is done, Such pleasant thoughts to dwell upon,

As having in another's need, Done just a single, kindly deed, Then I shall sink into my sleep Without the dread that there will creep

Into my dreams, the awful things That an uneasy conscience brings.

And I shall not so worried be That sleeplessness will torture me: For if I cannot sleep — well, then, I'll think my pleasant thoughts again.

Ulcers are things you get from mountain-climbing over mole-hills.

DECIDED IMPROVEMENTS

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This article concerning Chilton County High School is representative of the improvements being made in all of Chilton's schools and further indicates that we ARE making "slow, but sure" progress toward bettering our schools for our children.)

by WAYNE ATCHESON

CHILTON County High School and all the schools in the County will start on Monday, August 31st. The Clanton school has added many new features to its school. Three teachers have been added to help with the increasing enrollment. Mrs. Bob Bowers, a Clanton graduate, will teach Social Studies (Democracy). Mrs. Bowers attended Alabama College during the summer.

New Teachers

Miss Sadie Mae Norman, a graduate of Judson College, comes from Ft. Deposit, and she will teach health and Physical Education for the girls.

Mrs. Horace Smith has been added to the Math Department.

Glee Club

Mrs. Jeanette Rae will be in charge of the Glee Club. This will brighten the Music Department, because the school hasn't had a Glee Club in the past few years. Mrs. Rae will also give private voice lessons.

Clanton High will only lose one teacher. He is Mr. John Will Pitts, who taught Democracy last year.

Record Enrollment

Mrs. Eddie Waters, principal, expects another record enrollment. Last year's enrollment was 684. For the past eight years the enrollment has increased each year. In 1952, C. C. H. S. had 23 teachers; 1959, C. C. H. S. has 27 teachers.

Guidance Offered

A new department has been added to the school. This is the Guidance Department. Mrs. Dorothy (See 'School Back Page')

WRESTLING CARD AT JEMISON

BIG time wrestling will be presented Saturday night, August 29, 8:15 p.m., at Jemison High School Auditorium sponsored by T-J Lions Club—with Nick Gulas as Matchmaker.

Four of the nation's outstanding wrestlers have been assigned for this big card—two men Tor Yamato and Len Rossi and two ladies, Mrs. Pancho Villa meets Miss Lois Cook.

Mat time 8:15 p.m., Sat. night, August 29, at Jemison High School Gym, Jemison, Alabama. Advance tickets on sale by members of the T-J Lions Club, and prices are: Ringside $1.25. General Admission $1.00. Children under 12—50c.

MR. DEATON BURIED AT FRIENDSHIP

LLOYD William Deaton of Birmingham, age 53, years died at Birmingham on August 17th. Funeral services were held on Wednesday, August 19th at 2:00 p.m., at the Friendship Baptist Church. Interment at Friendship Cemetery.

Surviving relatives: 4 sons, DuWayne Deaton of Birmingham, Marvin Deaton of Miami, Fla., Larry Deaton of Birmingham, David Deaton of U. S. Army in California; 2 half brothers, J. L. Deaton of Miami, and Callan Deaton of Augusta, Ga.

Funeral Home was in charge.

Mr. Deaton will be remembered by many in this area as the Standard Coffee Agent for many years before moving to Birmingham.

ALL-NITE SING AT ARMORY WITH FABULOUS LEFAVRES

THE LeFavres, the Boone Trio, accompanied by Barney Smith, The Owensby Family and the Glenn Sisters will all be at the National Guard Armory Friday night, August 21 in an All-Nite Singing which begins at 8 o'clock.

LIONS TO SELL LIGHT BULBS

THE Lions Club of Clanton will be going from house to house selling light bulbs, Friday night, August 21, 1959, for the benefit of Sight Conservation of Alabama. The Lions have helped many in Clanton and Chilton County through their sight program. Buy bulbs so you and others may see.

SPOTS IN THE NEWS

No Can Findee--

YOU will take notice (please) that the Isabella Mustangs are omitted on the Football Page this week. We made every possible effort and spent much time trying to get the schedule together, but were unsuccessful. When we do manage to get the schedule we will run it in a prominent place so that you may supplement the page with it. Thanks!

Back-To-School

IT won't be too hard for you to determine that this is a Back-To-School issue of the News. Through-out advertising and news stories you will find the underlying theme of better education and information on returning the youngsters to school. We hope you enjoy the results of a lot of work on the part of the News staff and crew!

Pleased to Announce --

WE have a new Social Editor too, this week. She is Mrs. Verna Bean and she's done a jam-up job this week (see Social Page). If you have news, phone Mrs. Bean, her telephone number is at the top of her Woman's Page.

Give-A-Way--

SEE the advertisement in this week's News concerning the Jaycee Come-To-The-Fair Give-A-Way. Many big and valuable prizes will be given away each night of the County Fair (August 31 - Sept. 5) and you stand a good chance to win one or more prizes! See the adv. for details on where to get tickets, what they'll do for you and rules for the Give-A-Way. It's almost Fair time!

High honor to Lieut. Ivan Smith

THE Alabama Commendation Medal, Alabama's highest honor was awarded to 1st Lt. Ivan F. Smith of Company E, 1st Battle Group, 167th Infantry on July 25, 1959, at Fort McClellan, Ala.

Governor John Patterson and Brig. Gen. John Sides, acting Division Commander of the 31st "Dixie" Division, made the presentation. Lt. Smith was cited for meritorious and outstanding service as a platoon leader for the Clanton National Guard Unit.

In addition to the Alabama Commendation Medal Lt. Smith wears the wings of a Senior Parachutist with over 50 jumps.

Lt. Smith has over 3 years active duty, having seen service in the Panama Canal Zone and Germany as a paratrooper with the 11th Airborne Division.

Lt. Smith is mathematics teacher at Chilton County High School.

Chilton Rallies To Call For Blood; Clobbers Quota

IN a report late Wednesday afternoon from County Chairman Ralph Johnston it was revealed that Chilton County went over its quota in blood collecting yesterday (Tuesday, Aug. 18) by many more and reports are that many more are still available.

Tickets for this performance are now on sale at City Tire Service and Wright Drug Co. here in Clanton. This program is being sponsored by local churches and merchants.

We can rally to a cause when it is necessary and Chilton Countians deserve a pat on their sore arm for being so generous and answering the call of those in need.

174 pints of blood was accepted at the Blood Bank Station at First Methodist Church in Clanton yesterday. 32 more were rejected.

Chilton County's annual poultry show is a presentation of samples from projects being conducted as 4-H home flock demonstrations by Junior Poultrymen participating in Sears-Roebuck Foundation's poultry project.

HOW TO FIGHT AND WIN--

It becomes increasingly difficult to understand things when the law of the land, in a free society, such as ours, does not necessarily fulfill the wishes of the people. Such is the situation we are confronted with regarding to integration.

The best way to deal with the destruction of our education system, as it appears is the case, is to overcome the trivials in order not to conform on important issues.

The Little Rock situation is mock evidence that workable integration will never succeed through the use of force. Of the many things the American has become used to, bullying and 'jam-it-down their throats' tactics are not part of them.

Our children, it appears, will pay the price, and we don't like the sound of it!

No solid educating can be accomplished where there is hatred, one for another; contempt and fear, one another.

The Segregationist does not believe in hatred and violence. He simply believes that forced mixing of people is undemocratic and even un-Christian. That something for the individual to decide, providing of course we still believe in the rights and privileges of the individual.

On the other hand, it seems the Integrationists do not want to cooperate in any way to better the cause of all concerned. All they want is to get it done. The end justifies the means. We think they have proven their point, only in reverse as one gone long before them did also. . . the end DOES NOT justify means.

When a vital necessity such as education is threatened, we think it is time everyone considered a little succeeding in order to preserve this vital institution.

Jesus Christ Himself believed and taught us to turn the other cheek and we are of the most positive opinion that Christ never conformed with His basic laws and principles. He won His battles with over-whelming love. How do we, who are mere men, expect to win our conflicts with hatred, greed, selfishness and misunderstanding?

We will not obtain unity with marsh law. We cannot obtain understanding with rules and regulations. Whether Integration or Segregation is right, it is necessary that one educate the other to a better understanding of it before forcing its way.

Education, the thing we are disrupting is the very thing which will bring about an end to the impossible situation we now find ourselves up to our necks in.

We can build a lasting peace and a better world by through the virtues of brotherly love and mutual respect and understanding.

OUR COMMUNITY STALWARTS--

If we the people of Chilton County were as anxious to support, build and activate our community as an average merchant we would be decidedly out front most other communities.

A large majority of Chilton's businessmen carry load of public responsibility entirely on their own shoulders and it is a heavy, unrewarding burden.

Or is it unrewarding?

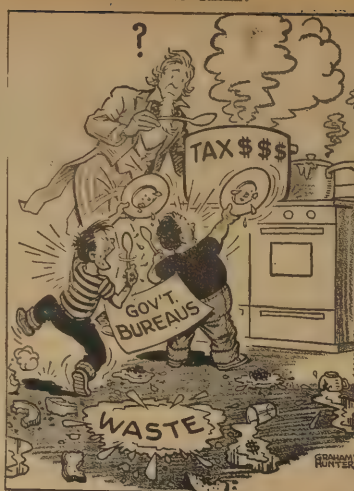

There are very few charities or public causes that we public-minded citizens do not support, actively and graciously. This is rewarding in its self-approval of doing a good thing and doing it well without bickering.

On the other hand, how many of us, as private persons, even lift a finger or an eyebrow to know if it's going on in our community and around our friends and churches.

Public apathy is becoming more prevalent and we think it is a bad situation. Without public approval no undertaking is worth very much. It is our duty as a citizen of this community to approve or disapprove of what is going on. If you remain silent it is evident you don't give a hang or a rip what happens around you and you do not make a very good citizen. . . of any other community.

Speak your mind!

POILING THEM?

It's Only Money--But It's Ours!

WHEN eighty billion of anything are moving around in all directions, it probably is inevitable that some will end up lost, starved or possibly stolen.

Federal agencies had more than eighty billion dollars to move around last year. It was quite a job to see that just the right number got to just the right places for just the right purposes. Even when some of those billions of dollars were translated into millions of necessities such as ships and shoes and shooting irons, it was still a king-size chore to keep up with all of them.

No wonder then that the Comptroller General's office, checking the Philadelphia navy yard, found a $26,000 boat and $200,000 worth of other equipment which the navy had lost track of and written off. Or that the same navy yard had 1,022 more sandalwood chairs than it had people to sit in them. Or that a 40-year supply of WAC clothing turned up at another military base. Or that for every government typist the government now owns two and one-half typewriters. Or that the navy buys sunglasses for $5 while the Air Force sells the same glasses as surplus for $1.25. Or that some of our foreign aid dollars aren't buying what we think they are buying.

Yes, it's probably inevitable. Yet the sneaking suspicion arises that not quite so many tax dollars would go astray if not quite so many of them were going around.

Report from Washington

BY ARMISTEAD BELDEN
Congressman, Sixth District

After a tense week of debate and deliberation, the House of Representatives passed the Landrum-Griffin labor-management reform bill last Friday on a vote of 303 to 125. However, the key vote was made a day earlier when the Landrum-Griffin bill was substituted by a vote of 229 to 201 for a weaker committee - approved measure.

The Shelley substitute bill, supported by organized labor, was defeated on the second day of debate by a decisive vote of 245 to 132.

Public Interest

Both Senator McClellan and President Eisenhower openly supported the bi-partisan Landrum-Griffin bill. Speaker Rayburn was joined by the Kennedy brothers, Bob and Jack, in endorsing the committee measure. AFL-CIO President George Meany backed the Shelley substitute. There was a considerable amount of lobbying for all three of these measures, and the mail from home was unusually heavy. In addition, many charges and counter-charges were made during House consideration of the legislation. The final vote, however, was an indication of the overwhelming public demand for adequate legislation to curb labor abuses such as those exposed by Select Committee headed by Sen. McClellan of Arkansas.

Union Rights

While the provisions of the Landrum-Griffin bill are designed to halt union racketeering and other corrupt practices, they are also intended to penalize the vast majority of legitimate unions operating throughout the United States. The measure does not prevent a union from seeking to organize members through legitimate methods, nor does it stop working men and women from joining voluntarily unions of their choice. Neither does it prevent any union from negotiating collective bargaining contracts, with the traditional right to strike. However, the House-adopted measure will protect the rights of individual union members by penalizing union leaders who violate these rights, by making it mandatory that union elections be held regularly through the use of secret ballots, and by requiring unions to make financial reports to their members and to the federal government.

Bill Predicted

The House-approved bill now goes to a conference committee charged with the responsibility of working out a compromise between it and the labor-management reform bill passed earlier by the Senate. Although some have predicted that a deadlock will result and there will be no bill, I am among those who believe that reasonable labor reform legislation that protects both the members of organized labor and the general public - if it's passed before Congress adjourns.

WAYNE Archeson is doing a jam up job for the News on reporting, athletic and general affairs of the local high school. All the schools in Chilton County should have an up-and-coming youngster like Wayne reporting affairs for them. It's good public relations for the school and good for the morale of the community as well as being a boon to the Community Newspaper.

BOYS and girls of the First Methodist Church Junior Department don't forget the big party at the Church Friday night, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Mrs. Vance and Mrs. Traywick, as well as Helen Parrish have worked hard along with the Junior girls to throw the boys a number of a fellowship and we wouldn't want you to miss it 'cause you forgot. . . remember, Friday at 6, at the Church.

And say folks don't forget the Maid of Cotton, who is to be presented on Monday night of the big Chilton County Fair. The contest is open to eligible young women and details can be obtained from any member of Beta Sigma Phi, Mrs. Lewis Headley or Mrs. Erskine Wyatt. Chance of a lifetime girls!

HAD the distinct privilege of assisting one of the young ladies out at the Nursing Home the other evening. As we were making our usual weekly visit there, one of the residents, in a wheelchair was being assisted into the building by another young lady. The charming one being assisted asked us to help her inside, the other being unable to complete the operation. We helped her inside and went our way. But she doesn't know it, but as we said before, it was our privilege to help such a polite, completely feminine young lady. They just don't make them kind much anymore.

THE incident mentioned above got us to thinking it would be that there would be more gentlemen in the world today if the female of the species would quit trying to prove how much she can do and try accepting the compliment offered her by a helping hand. Nobody particularly respects one who doesn't demand. . . at least request it.

AN actor, after having played the part of a newspaperman in a theatrical performance stated that he would never be a newspaperman. "It's too much work," said he, "even a weekly television show is like a vacation by comparison." Something we've suspected all along! Our grandfather, father, along! Our grandfather, father, make a livin', but it's a lot of fun tryin'.

A COMMUNITY supports its community newspaper because it is the stalwart of that community. If it is a good newspaper, it is their representative voice in any matter concerning them. This should be considered by those who would make their community newspaper into a gossip and slander sheet. True, this makes 'good' reading for those minds which feed upon it. . . but does it increase the quality of the community spirit or fill the need of truthful and honest representation? Those people don't want a progressive newspaper; they condone Yellow Journalism and in our opinion, don't deserve the true representation of a good, alert local press!

SOUTHERN BELL ASKS YOUR OPINION

EVERY telephone customer in Clanton will receive a post card from the telephone company in the next few days, asking for his comments and criticisms of his telephone service and the company that provides it, according to W. R. Evans, manager for Southern Bell Telephone Company here.

Evans calls the project a post card canvass. "In making the canvass, we'll mail a double post card to each customer. The cards will be mailed next Monday, so people will start receiving them about Tuesday or Wednesday. We hope that everyone will take a minute to fill out the return half of the card and mail it to me."

"We're not necessarily seeking compliments," the manager points out. "If any of our customers have criticisms, we would like to know them. Comments like these help us give customers the kind of service they want."

"PUBLIC OPINION"
PUBLIC VERY CLOSELY DIVIDED ON QUESTION OF WHETHER TO RAISE TAXES TO MEET INCREASED COSTS OF THEIR STATE SERVICES OR TO CUT DOWN ON THEM!
By Kenneth Fink Director, Princeton Research Service
Across the nation . . . governors and legislatures are faced with the problem of whether they should raise taxes to meet the increasing costs of their state services or cut state services so that taxes need not be raised.
To determine how voters feel about this important matter, Public Opinion and his people put this question to 1,177 adult citizens in all walks of life:
"If the governor of your state and the state legislature are faced with the problem of cutting down on state services or raising money in taxes to meet increased costs, which of the two would you prefer?"
Results of the survey show that rank and file American citizens are closely divided on the matter, with neither those who favor increasing state taxes nor those who would like to see state services cut if it means higher taxes able to win a majority in their camps. Nearly one out of every two of all those asked to in face to face interviews favor CUTTING down on state services if it means higher taxes to maintain them. At the same time, almost as many people say they would favor RAISING taxes rather than see their state services cut. These were the actual survey findings:
Cut down on present state services if it means increasing taxes to maintain them 49%
Raise taxes 29 49%
No opinion 4 5 5

The first is that the voter, the more likely he is to be raising taxes to meet increased costs of state services, the older the person, more inclined he is to want services cut. If it means higher taxes to maintain them, present state services.
Here's the way people in various age groups voted on matter:
21-29 30-44 45-54 55-64 65-74 75-84 85-94 95-104
Cut down 40% 40% 40% 40% 40% 40% 40% 40%
Raise taxes 55 50 50 50 50 50 50 50
No opinion 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5

The other is that the more formal schooling people have, the more willing they appear to be to pay higher taxes to maintain present state services. The vote by educational levels:
Grade or no formal schooling H. S. or less 67% 49% 30%
Cut down 29 49% 30%
Raise taxes 55 50 50
No opinion 4 5 5

Interestingly, on the matter of raising taxes to meet increased costs of their state government, Democrats, and Independents, and men and women also eye to eye on the matter of meeting the increasing costs of state government. Differences in opinion on the matter between men and women are almost negligible. Many people who said they would be opposed to additional state taxes to meet the increased costs of state government volunteered that they felt these same services could be maintained if their state government was more economically and spent the money it is getting more prudently.

SETTING THE COURTS STRAIGHT

Washington may be the not too distant future be telling bankers how much can be loaned and to whom, Supreme Court Chief Justice J. Ed. Livingston told Alabama bankers meeting at the Capstone this past week (Aug. 11). Scoring what he termed a trend towards the police and welfare state, he said some members of the Supreme Court are an instrument of this change.

Supreme Law of the land is the constitution and not the Supreme Court of the U. S., he said, adding that the highest court of the land has been making decisions on constitutional questions "without rhyme, reason, or law."

THE CALENDAR tells me there's a holiday ahead--the Labor Day week-end. And this makes me think of two things--a good time (which I'm sure all in the Clanton exchange are planning) and safety.

SAFETY ON THE HIGHWAY will be especially important this year. There are more cars on the roads today than ever before in history--and you can count on it that most of them will be out over Labor Day. So, take care and drive carefully. You'll have a happier holiday if you do.

AND ON THE LIGHTER SIDE of safety and warning, if you're going away for Labor Day, "play it safe" and "warn" folks of your arrival. A Long Distance call will reserve accommodations, help you plan your visit with out-of-town friends and family. Remember when calling Long Distance, it's cheaper to call station-to-station--faster when you know the number.

THE REASON I'm so safety conscious is because we at the telephone company are continually aware of safety's importance--especially on the job. Because of this, we regularly conduct classes in safety and first aid. This knowledge helps protect us at work, and many times it's enabled us to help others in emergencies--even save lives. That's why I never underestimate the rules of safety, and I hope you won't either.

SUCCESS--

Gov. Patterson Gives People Credit for School Program

Gov. John Patterson this week credited the education-minded people of Alabama with winning the "fight for better schools" in the Alabama Legislature.

The Legislature, meeting in special session, enacted revenue measures to raise approximately $42 million more for education in the 1959-60 school year and $39 million more in 1960-61.

"In support of the people provided to be the key to our success," Gov. Patterson said.

"Up and down the state, everywhere, in every county, every community and every city and town, the people rallied behind our school program," the governor stated. "All in all, we scored a tremendous victory for education here in Alabama."

Praises Legislature

Patterson also had words of praise for members of the Legislature, which met for four consecutive days last week to wind up its work on the school program as soon as possible. Many Alabama schools have already opened.

"The Legislature fully recognized the many needs of education in our state and realized that run-down schools should not be tolerated," Gov. Patterson said. "The Legislature did its part to help the schools, and has given us a good program for education in our state."

Administration Floor Leaders

Administration floor leaders led the way, the governor said, and the school children of Alabama will remember the valiant fight they made for public education.

Revenue Measures

To meet this growing crisis, the Legislature enacted two basic revenue measures. One of these bills, H. 56, added an additional 2-cent state tax on cigars, cigarettes and tobacco. The second bill, H. 94, removed certain sales tax exemptions, particularly on industrial machinery, but kept the sales tax on consumers at only 3 per cent.

Patterson pointed to the fact that some $32 million was raised for education without increasing the sales tax--"a fact our opposition in the Legislature said we'd never be able to do." However, all attempts to boost the state sales tax to 4 per cent were beaten down by Patterson men.

The governor said the role of education in the state's future was never more important.

Trains-Investment in Future

"The taxes which the Legislature has levied are really an investment in our future, and the return will be many times this expenditure," Gov. Patterson said. "The return will be an economic bonanza to our state."

In helping our public education system, we are really helping ourselves--our children today, our leaders of tomorrow, and our entire state as well," the governor pointed out.

The governor said the educational needs of Alabama could not be overlooked. "If we are to move ahead, top-flight schools will lead the way," he stated.

"The type of citizens we make out of our young people now in school will determine the kind of state and community that will be our home in the years ahead," Patterson said. "Education in this day and time is much too important to be slighted for any reason."

Reason for Special Legislation Call
The governor said Alabama was "well on its way" toward resolving the financial crisis in education which caused him to call the special legislative session in June. The session came in the middle of the Legislature's regular biennial session.

Letters & Telegrams Appreciated

"For their encouragement and help, I thank the people of Alabama who were genuinely interested in doing something more for education," Gov. Patterson said. "I appreciate all the letters you wrote and telegrams you sent, to say nothing of the telephone calls and petitions."

"The help we received from the citizens of the state was immeasurable, and I am very grateful for your interest in education," the governor said.

$148 Million 1959-60

The new revenue raised in the Special Session will provide a record educational appropriation totaling $148 million in 1959-60 and $156 million in 1960-61. Included are funds to finance a construction for new classrooms and school buildings totaling some $100 million.

25,000-Plus Teachers

The huge appropriations bill for education will also provide the some 25,000-plus teachers in the state an average increase of 15 per cent in salary this year and 20 per cent next year. There'll be money too for employing 1,000 more teachers holding college degrees.

Said Gov. Patterson in commenting on the appropriations: "Our school system has reversed its downward trend and is once again on the incline."

LEGAL NOTICE
IN THE PROBATE COURT OF CHILTON COUNTY, ALABAMA
No. _____
CHILTON COUNTY, A MUNICIPAL CORPORATION, PETITIONER
VS.
MRS. JOHN A. LEROL, KERMIT LEROL, ET AL.
RESPONDENTS.
TO: MRS. JOHN A. LEROL, KERMIT LEROL, AND AFFREY LEROL, Filmore County, Whalan, Minnesota
You will take notice that on the 17th day of August, 1959, a petition was filed in this court by Chilton County, A Municipal Corporation to condemn for certain purposes therein stated, certain lands belonging to Mrs. John A. Lerol, Kermit Lerol, and Affrey Lerol, as follows, to wit:
A strip of land 40 feet in width on the left side of the survey certificate beginning at station 215--22 and extending to station 220--22.
All lying in and being a part of the NW 1/4 of the SE 1/4 of Section 1, Township 22, Range 13, in Chilton County, Alabama, and containing 0.46 acres more or less including that part now occupied by the present county road.
By petition filed in this Court and plaintiff prays that this Court will make and enter an order appointing a day for the hearing of this petition and for such other and further orders and procedures as may be necessary.
You will take further notice that the Court has appointed September 9, 1959, at 10:00 o'clock a.m. to hear said application to the petition at which time you and all other persons claiming any right or interest in the same may appear and contest the same if you so desire to do so.
Witness my hand this 17th day of August, 1959.

SCHOOL . . .
(Cont'd From Front)
Roper will be the head of the new department. Students may receive guidance from personal problems to school problems. Mrs. Roper has experience in this field and she has attended Alabama College this summer to study, more about this field. This will only be held part one during school.
Driving Education
A new course added is Driving Education. Mr. Ray Scruggs, who took the study at the University of Alabama, will be the teacher.
The school also has new television sets. These will be used at times to see programs on the educational TV and to see National History making events.

Band Room Improved
One of the many new improvements added is a new band room. The room is sound proof, has a water cooler, has a place to keep the instruments, and has many other features. Mr. Lamar DeLoach, the Band Director, also has an office. We are happy that the band is getting the room, because they spend many hours of hard work before their performances.

Printed Thorough
The corridors, classrooms, and the office have been painted. This will be a welcoming and appreciated sight to students and teachers.
In the Athletic Department the boys dressing room has been remodeled. The football field has been reconditioned and more lights will be added to the field.

It's Here, Kids!
So summer has almost passed. School time is upon us, and its time to better our lives and minds for the future. Also time to get out on those chilly nights (Friday) and see an exciting football game. School Time is Here. . .

FOLKS
THINGS
About Town
by Ben

It was a hot-bub last week when G. C. Walker had his birthday party and we failed to get it in the paper. It's on the third page this week. Confidently we don't mind advertising his party but we wouldn't utter a peep about it.

It's a matter of age and stuff we put on the Post Office Saturday and ploughed three feet of Lize Smith's green grass with our nose. I have been just three inches deep in it like it was much. We stepped for the curls and ka-blooy; right on!

Time last year there were accidents in this County caused by mobile accidents—this year have been five. Somebody trying.

Someone told us the two doctors that have contributed most government is Form 1040 MOA.

Chilton County Fair starts week-end more effort and it has been put into it than before. All those hundreds of people who have worked hard and to present this year's edition of the Fair are to be congratulated for their community spirit. We're it will be well worth your to attend at least one day.

Reminded this the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture and Hour Division a child must be 16 years of age before he or she can be employed in agriculture during school. An age certificate is the protection for the farmer according to Mr. Williams, and is obtainable from your school official.

Service to young married men—let's get busy bringing home to you that you forget the old folks.

Back to the Fair that will come next week—let's all keep in mind that this is "our" Fair and all a part of it. We have recently that some who would display their wares refuse to do so because of the treatment and the hazards of white people damaging same.

NOTE that smile contentment of Ralph Johnston in "Business of the Week" this surrounded by a bevy of girls like that who are smiling.

THREE CAUGHT AT WHISKEY STILL

EARNIE JONES, John Henry and George Terry were caught at two whiskey stills Wednesday morning and placed in the county jail charged with manufacturing and possessing illegal whiskey. Their bond was set at $750.00 each.

Forty-five gallons of whiskey was confiscated and the stills destroyed. The raid was made by the local Sheriff's office, assisted by State and Government men.

HOMECOMING AT FLOYD BAPTIST

THE public is cordially invited to attend the homecoming at the Floyd Baptist Church on the second Sunday in September.

Rev. M. Lockhart will bring the message. Lunch will be served at the noon-hour and there will be singing in the afternoon. Mr. L. Grant is chairman. All former pastors have a special invitation.

ELEMENTARY P.-T. A. HAS 1ST. MEETING, SEPT. 1

THE Clanton Elementary Parent Teachers Association will hold their first meeting of the year on next Tuesday, September 1, at 2:45 in the lunchroom.

The program "Take Time to get Acquainted and be a Good Neighbor," will be introduced by Mrs. Robert Powers. We urge all parents to attend.

MRS. ROBINSON IN HOSPITAL

MRS. Lillian Robinson is in the Jackson Hospital at Montgomery. She will undergo surgery Thursday morning.

DR. MARTIN TO SPEAK AT HILLCREST

HILLCREST Church on Highway 82, two and one-half miles South of Maplesville will have as the speaker Sunday Dr. Linzey Martin. All members are urged to come.

HOMECOMING AT PLEASANT HILL

HOMECOMING and Singing at Pleasant Hill Sunday Aug. 30. All former members and singers are invited to come.

Rev. J. C. Martinson of Montgomery and a former pastor will deliver the message. Dinner on the grounds at noon.

Miss Faye Scott of Clanton spent the week end with Miss Barbara Veazey.

Which Miss Will Hold Cotton Maid Crown For '59?

PICTURED here are the five lovelies competing for the title of Maid of Cotton, 1959 to represent Chilton County in the State-wide competition which will take place at the State Fair in Birmingham. From left to right they are: Anita Lockhart, Marietta Propst, Priscilla Hubert, Sue Culp and Carolyn Popwell.

Every one will know who Chilton County's 1959 Maid of Cotton will be on Monday night, August 31. The choosing of the beauty who deserves this most coveted title will take place at the gymnasium, Chilton County High School at 8 p.m.

Five lovely Chiltonians are competing for the title and any one of them would represent our County well in every contest.

The judging and contest is supervised by the local chapter of Beta Sigma Phi and a committee of spokesmen for the group. Winners after being crowned and crowned will be presented to the crowd at the County Jail Monday night at Chilton County High School at 8 p.m.

49 STAR FLAG TO GO UP AT HOSPITAL

AMERICAN Legion Post No. 6 along with the Chilton County Hospital Board are seeing to it that we will have a new 45 foot flag pole and a new flag in front of the hospital.

Work was received this week from Senator Lister Hill that he was sending the local Post a 40 star flag that has flown over the United States Capitol.

Work has already begun on this project with the first piece of pipe already set in concrete. It is expected to take about ten days to complete the project.

A formal dedication with every one invited will be held in the near future.

The Local Post of the American Legion is working to have a flag flying from all schools and public buildings.

Watch for further details.

SINGING AT OAK GROVE SUNDAY NIGHT, AUG. 30th.

NEXT Sunday night, August 30, is the time for our regular Fifth Sunday night singing at Oak Grove Church, located two miles north of Jewett. Singing will begin promptly at 7 p.m. All singers and lovers of gospel music are invited to attend. We are expecting another good singing and some new groups of singers to be with us.

NEAR 10,000 WORKERS PLACED DURING JULY

STATE Employment Service offices placed 9,229 workers on non-agricultural jobs during July, a gain of 1,829 over the same month in 1958. All major industry divisions except government contributed to the increase, Ralph R. Williams, director of the Alabama Department of Industrial Relations, announced today.

Stantially more than 10,000 job placement times. Various such work that more community work being channeled up in construction and trade divisions and private household services.

CD RESCUE AUX. ORGANIZED

THE Auxiliary to the Chilton County Civil Defense Rescue Squad has been organized. An organizational meeting was held last week with 22 Charter Members present.

Officers elected at the meeting of the new Auxiliary were: Mrs. Curtis Collins, President; Mrs. Paul Parrish, vice-President and Mrs. Luther Mims Secretary and Treasurer.

Future meetings and time and place will be announced.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson and Sue were visiting relatives and attended our services Sunday night. We welcome them anytime they can come.

Plans Complete; Fair Festivities Begin 31st

Only One Thing Left ...

CONCERNING the 1959 Chilton County Fair we think we've said about all there is to say except the final detail... "YALL COME!" Since we have covered the Fair and its many facets we give you this week the program of the week so that you may better decide what days you want to attend the Big Fair. We want to also make a special mention to the effect that according to officials, there will be a "High Wire" daredevil act EVERY night during Fair week so just about any night will be rewarding and entertaining. We'll see you now, hear!

THE GOVERNOR PROVES A POINT--

ONE thing we agree with John Patterson on is that you don't need a vote of the people every time you walk across the threshold of a new idea. Of course the people should be consulted on vital matters, but we here in Chilton County, for instance, are sticklers for taking small matters as well as large ones directly to the people and we don't know a better way to kill time or kill an idea.

The people vote to put a man in office. Along with this vote is the confidence that his integrity, intelligence and ability to decide what's best is equal to the job.

The merits of the idea in question are not what we are arguing. We are simply saying that if you want it done, you have to do it. We think the Governor, with all his faults, has proven this point beyond question.

IT'S GRATIFYING--

CHILTON County is becoming more progressive with each passing day. Fast fading into the twilight past are the once deep-rooted conservative ideas that made us afraid to take a forward step for fear of disapproval and Chilton County hovered behind a few big shots who pulled the strings for our decisions. We are coming into a new era of free thought and we think the big reason is that our leaders are becoming more and more individual in their thoughts and actions and are not leaning for support on some old-time politician who has seen better days and knows it, yet keeps plugging for the high chair.

We are on the move. Progressing toward bigger and better tomorrows and you can look down main street at the business improvements and recognize that the change is one for the better.

Stick to your guns, you individual thinkers. You are our main-stay.

EXCEPTION TO THE RULE --

AS a rule we like home-spun humor, local opinions and community projects confined to the local scene. Reason for our liking these things is simple: we feel that if we take care of the local home front we'll be doing a swell job.

Occasions arise, however, when we must veer from the local train of thought and mingle with the ideas of others whose thoughts which occur around and about us each day.

What does the visit of Nikita Krushchev to the United States mean to Chilton County.

If the following things are true facts then you can answer for yourself how you feel about his visit and how we should treat him.

... the unrivaled blood-letting of Nikita Krushchev. . . the 95 mass graves at Vinnitsa, containing nearly 10,000 corpses of fully-dressed victims--many of whom, both men and women, are shown by the evidence to have been alive and gasping for breath when they were buried--is merely a typical example of the horrible fate which Krushchev inflicted on literally millions of residents of the Ukraine.

"Or that: in Krushchev's case it seems entirely probable that the piles of corpses due directly to his personal orders were larger than for any other human being if he can be called one) who ever lived. Nikita Krushchev almost certainly hold the record, and deserves the title of the archmurder of all recorded history."

Accepting these facts, as facts, from reputable sources we personally want to throw up even at the mention of such a man. Certainly we do not want to see the American Flag disgraced flying in his honor or our people dishonored welcoming him with open arms and cheering throngs.

As a God-fearing nation will we sanction his unspeakable deeds by paying him homage or will we cast a light on his infamous shenanigans by observing, as some have put it, "A Day of Prayer."

It is a good idea to have a nationwide "Day of Prayer" to show our respect, not for, but for the respect we hold for those who have died unmercifully at his hands.

DICK ARNOLD: Outstanding Civic Leader, Church Layman, Friend of Howard Clinton and

He knew to be right. Howard Clinton Arnold was born March 12, 1913, at Ashland, Clay County, Alabama, moving later to Clarks, graduating from High School at Montevallo, moving to Clanton in 1930 where he began his work as a floor sweeper with the local textile mill, then operated by the Alabama Mills. Those were long hard hours then, but Dick's zeal and ambition to advance found him burning mid-night oil studying textile engineering through a correspondence course.

He moved up through the ranks advancing to Superintendent of the local unit of what is now Dan River Mills. His record as Superintendent stands among the top group, maintaining respect and esteem by all with whom he worked. Dick recognized his responsibility to his church and community and for years was active in his church work and civic affairs. He served a number of years as Sunday School teacher, deacon, and president of the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church, where he was a member. He could always be counted on to give generously of his talents, time, and money in every activity of his Church. In civic affairs, he concentrated his efforts through his affiliation with Clanton Tennis Club, serving a number of terms on the Board of Directors, as President in 1952, and Chairman of a number of important committees. In Kiwanis, as in other endeavors, his work was outstanding. He is particularly remembered for his work of promoting Dale Carnegie courses in Clanton. Dick recognized his personal need for development of leadership abilities and determined to do something about it. He not only took a course in Dale Carnegie, but almost single-handedly organized and directed two classes which resulted in adding many others in developing their leadership abilities, which he knew was so vital in building communities. He also served a number of years on the Board of Directors of the Chilton County Chamber of Commerce through which he gave unselfishly of his time in new industry process and the County Fairs sponsored by the Chamber.

In his busy schedule, Dick never failed in his obligations to his family, realizing the importance of a model family as being the foundation for successful lives in the building of good communities. He is survived by his devoted wife, Mary Carr, and two fine children, Robert and Carol.

In his illness which lasted some three years, he fought this with the same zeal and determination to win as he had in the many ventures he worked in the years past. Only God in his infinite wisdom saw fit to take this great servant and our loss is his great sorrow as Honorary Pallbearers at his funeral were a large number of officials of Dan River Mills, the membership of Clanton Kiwanis, and the Board of Deacons of his Church, together with the great number of friends in attendance and the beautiful floral display which gave attest of the love and respect so many had for Dick. His letter statement could have been stated that when the Pastor said that he was unable to speak in oration for Dick, he had truly lived his day by down through the years.

PUBLIC OPINION

ONLY THREE IN TEN ADULT CITIZENS WOULD WANT THEIR SONS IN POLITICS

By Kenneth Fink, Director Princeton Research Service

A sizeable grip of adult citizens--nearly three in ten say they would want their sons to go into politics.

At the same time, a considerably larger group--a solid majority--are of the opinion that they wouldn't want their sons to go into politics.

In other words, among those having an opinion on the matter of their sons going into politics, the number who would NOT want their sons to enter politics exceeds those who would by a margin of about nine to five.

Survey findings also show that about one in eight of all those talked to say that on the matter of going into politics, they would prefer to let the boy himself make the decision.

These are the highlights of PUBLIC OPINION survey just completed.

When PUBLIC OPINION and his people recently asked the following question of people in all walks of life:

"If you had a son, would you want him to go into politics or not?"

This is what they found:

Yes, we would want son to enter politics 29% No, would not 54

It is up to the boy 13

No opinion 4

Princeton Research Service has been reporting sentiment on this question from time to time over the last dozen years.

At no time, have as many as one in three of the voting public talked to said they would want their sons to go into politics--a finding that should give politicians and other leaders across the nation something to think about.

Two interesting findings emerge from today's survey.

One is that the more education people have--and the more they look with favor on the idea of having a son in politics--

Here's the way people in the various education levels feel on the matter:

Grade or no school 23% 39% 39% No 67 50 45 Up to him 5 16 12 No opinion 5 5 4

THINGS We see and hear by BOB

NO need for us to again remind you of the forthcoming Chilton County Fair. It's upon us! Yes, as of Monday (the 31st) you can see for yourself what we've been trying to tell you for months. The 1959 Chilton County Fair will be the biggest, best Fair ever and will attract thousands from Chilton County and elsewhere over the State of Alabama.

"THE BOSS", as he is known affectionately and officially around the News plant has done it again. Ben Tucker's "Folks and Things About Town" column got a mention in the judges comments in the recently held Better Newspapers Contest sponsored by the Alabama Press Association and he didn't even know about it until now. According to the judges the only reason the column didn't place was that they ran out of "places". We just thought we'd mention to you folks that you do have one of the State's top columnist in "Ben". Look for his comments each week on page 1.

HOPE Mrs. Wilson who writes the Cox Chapel News will accept our apologies for failing to publish her news column last week. We don't know what happened Mrs. Wilson, but we didn't receive it by press time. It was postmarked the 18th and we should have gotten it in time, but we didn't. Sorry mamam!

HOPE Mr. Deramus and Mr. Popwell and the fellas will forgive us for a boner last week, also. (We were full of fun weren't we?) Well, we lost our notes, dang it! Anyhow, Mr. C. L. Parker of Clanton Rt. 3 had the first bale of cotton in at 487 pounds and was graded "Strict Middling". Mr. Deramus states that he has some new equipment down there this year and can really give you a good winning job. That's gonna cost you fellows!

IF you haven't already done so, look at the BIG-GIVE-AWAY page in this week's issue of the News that the Jaycees are sponsoring. Buddy Wade, William Thomas and the Jaycee organization are doing a swell job of advertising and publicizing the Fair this year and are devoting many hours getting merchants to donate prizes for the nights of the Fair. Look at the ad and just see what you can win. There are some valuable gifts listed to be given to some fortunate persons. The concentrated effort to make folks mindful of the Fair this year will pay off handsomely which will be evidenced by a large turnout. We predict it now. . . see if we don't hit it.

NEWS, as of Tuesday afternoon put Jim Heffin in the bed flat of his back with his feet in the air. Pretty rough treatment for a fellow who's sick, but that's what they said. We couldn't find out for sure what Jim was suffering from. It was the flu or appendicitis or something. . . . Here by this time he's up and running and still has all his movable parts in tact. They can't keep a good man down for long, you know!

Andrews Says Debt Figures Are Startling

Figures gathered by the Library of Congress show a startling fact, Rep. George Andrews (D-Ala.) told Congress.

The total national debt of 67 countries of the free world--including England, Japan, Canada, Australia--totals $185.5 billion, he said. That of seven countries in the Soviet bloc is $50 billion.

This combined total is $236.5 billion. In comparison, America's national debt is $290 billion, or almost $50 billion more than these other countries combined.

Now, said Mr. Andrews, the gross national product of the other countries totals $788 billion compared to only $441 billion for this country. "These countries that we're helping are producing more, almost twice as much as we are, and we owe $50 billion more than they do combined," Mr. Andrews declared.

In hand injuries, every effort is made to preserve the full length and function of the fingers, with special consideration for saving the thumb. Persistence of chronic ulceration after the original cause has become non-existent indicates a need for plastic surgery including skin grafting. Plastic surgery in the physicians evaluation, is the procedure to restore a structure injured through accident or disease so that the patient may not only look better, but function as well as can be made possible.

Safety At Home-- Inadequate Playing Area for Youngsters

(5th In A Series)
Parent-or playground supervisor? Most of us are both these days. Lots of money and kids, contented with inadequate playground area in new suburban developments and in crowded sections of the city, have set up their own playgrounds in the backyard.

Few of these well-intentioned parents know anything about supervising a playground, yet, that's just what the task entails. "Many well-meaning parents," the National Safety Council said, "are happily assembling their own backyard playgrounds, and then obliviously turning their children loose to survive by trial and error."

Inevitably, some children get hurt! The injuries reported to the Council range from cut foreheads to broken bones. Many thousands of playground injuries undoubtedly go unreported and are treated at home.

Here are some Council suggestions on how to make your backyard playground safer--and give you more peace of mind.

1. Allow ample space in the yard for each playground device. Crowding can cause accidents.
2. Keep debris such as broken glass and nails out of the play area. This may require a daily inspection.
3. Explain rules for safe use of the playground equipment to your youngsters--and then enforce the rules.
4. Buy swing seats of leather belting, rubber or rubberized canvas. It's harder for a child to stand on them, and consequently, fewer kids will fall from them. And if such a seat strikes a child, it can't hurt.

IF you haven't already done so, look at the BIG-GIVE-AWAY page in this week's issue of the News that the Jaycees are sponsoring. Buddy Wade, William Thomas and the Jaycee organization are doing a swell job of advertising and publicizing the Fair this year and are devoting many hours getting merchants to donate prizes for the nights of the Fair. Look at the ad and just see what you can win. There are some valuable gifts listed to be given to some fortunate persons. The concentrated effort to make folks mindful of the Fair this year will pay off handsomely which will be evidenced by a large turnout. We predict it now. . . see if we don't hit it.

Landmark Growing Under Able Management; Expert Pharmacist

TO SERVE YOU--PRIMARILY

THE "crew" that makes the wheel go 'round at the Upchurch Drug Company. Left to right are: Janice Davis, Linda Messer, Mary Lane Wilson, Virginia Hughes, "The Boss", and Patricia Messer.

The Upchurch Drug Company, your Rexall Store, and a landmark in Clanton is growing and prospering under the management of Ralph Johnson.

Ralph first went to work at Upchurch Drug Company when a boy. He started there in 1931. In 1941 he entered the United States Army and served for three years. After his war service he went to Montgomery where he was manager of the Rexall Drug Company there until 1950 when he returned to Clanton and bought part interest in the store.

In 1940 Ralph married Miss Hazel Nivens and to them two sons have been born. Now, one is 12 years of age and the other is seven.

The drug store that Dr. E. E. Upchurch founded has survived and grown and expanded through the years featuring Rexall drugs and products, but also carrying a full line of everything you need in the drug line. A modern soda fountain is popular with the younger set and Monday of this week we visited a while there with Mrs. Upchurch, widow of the founder and her sister, Mrs. Della Latham, who still take an active interest in the business.

W. H. L. Smith, pharmacist at Upchurch Drug Company who has rounded out his 37th year with the firm. Dr. Smith says when he was called to work by Dr. Upchurch he was gathering fodder and he doesn't know whether the fodder was ever gathered or not--he didn't take time to find out. Upchurch, wouldn't be Upchurch's without the sight of Dr. Smith. He is as much a part of the store as the furniture and fixtures.

WE had one lovely lady say she agreed with our idea about "Trading At Home" but she just didn't like having to "run all over town" looking for what she wanted when she could go to one of the large department stores (elsewhere) and get everything at one time.

Besides the benefits she derives directly from the business houses through taxes, etc. we wonder if the lady ever considered the possibility that if she patronized the Chilton County merchants regularly she would learn their wares and where to go to find what in a short time without shopping the entire area.

We certainly won't argue that we have everything in the world available here at home, but we are prepared to back up our local merchants to the extent that they try to handle the most WANTED items and one of the big reasons they don't handle MORE items is the demand is not big enough. That gets back to the consumer! Tell the local merchant what you want. He will either supply you with the commodity, see that you get it on order or he'll frankly tell you he can't get it for you and will suggest that you go out of town.

But don't go out of town first. . . TRADE AT HOME. . . AND SAVE!

Accepts Scholarship

(By Wayne Atcheson)

OSBON Mims, ex-Chilton County High School basketball pro, has accepted a basketball scholarship at Marion Military Institute. Mims received the scholarship because of his fine ball handling skills and ability.

Osbon made his mind up to enter Marion after playing in the High School all-star basketball game in Clanton on August 6. Osbon was one of ten boys from South Alabama, picked by Head Coach Elliot for Selma, to play in the classic. It was a great honor for Osbon. Osbon played most of the game, and his performance he made. "Oz" scored four points and played a fine floor game. The North edged the game 60 to 59.

Osbon won't be alone at Marion, because Herchel Hargisley also plays basketball at Marion. Herchel is now a graduate of C. C. H. S. Herchel was a football scholarship and was asked to play basketball. Herchel played a lot of basketball as a young man. M.M.I. played the National Junior National Tournament in Kansas last year.

Lots of luck to you Osbon!

Clanton Tigers Hit Season With High Hopes Of Victory

By Wayne Atcheson

The Chilton County High School Tigers who return several lettermen and six regulars figure to be a strong team this year. Coaches Don Finlayson and Ray Scruggs can field starting a line and back field composed of lettermen.

This Is The Year

The Clanton Tigers ran into some tough breaks in three or four games last year, but nevertheless posted an even five and five season. One of the losing games was with Childersburg, a team the Tigers have never beaten. The team figures that this is the year to beat them and they are working hard to ward winning the victory.

Chances are that Finlayson and Scruggs will open the season against Childersburg at Childersburg on Sept. 11, with Seniors, Don Jones, transferred from guard, and David Cobb at the flanks.

Tackle Posts

Coach Scruggs has several boys out making a bid for the tackle posts, but Jimmy Dennis and Tommy Edwards who started at tackle last fall will get the nod.

John Argo, Bobby Easterling, and Lowell Patterson, a transfer from Columbus, Ga., will handle the duties at guard.

Jimmy Wayne Easterling and Clay Carroll will take care of the pivot post.

Other boys who will probably see service on the line are Melvin Billingsley, who has been transferred from guard, at end, James Partidge, Toby Mayfield and Thomas Earl Mills at tackle, and Tommy Tiffie and Jerry Vines at guard.

LOCAL BOY ON FIRST TEAM AT MARION I

MARION INSTITUTE BEGINS PRACTICE AUG. 26

MARION Institute's 1959 football season will get underway this coming Wednesday, August 26. At that time approximately forty candidates will report to Coach Jim Garner and Coach Leigh Pegues for pre-school practice.

The cadet's team of last year fashioned a very respectable 5-2-1 record and indications are that that record will be improved upon this year.

My Neighbors

"My boss thinks I'm working for him, my wife thinks I'm working for her, but only the income tax people are right!"

Forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark. --(Phil. 3:13-14).

Yesterday is gone, and with it its failures and successes. We cannot improve upon it by wasting today in vain regrets or useless pride. Let us then, as St. Paul enjoined the Philippians, wipe the slate clean by forgetting those things which are past and press forward toward the goal of living a Christian life in harmony with God and in love and charity with our fellow men.

Cattle numbers in the United States increased from 93 million on January 1, 1958 to 97 million on January 1, 1959.

The backfield appears to be the bright spot in the 1959 picture. The entire starting unit of Ted Davis, Hurley Knott, Charles Tedder, and Richard Griffin, will be returning. In addition to the above David Bickerstaff and Clarke Clark, two letter winning halfbacks with speed to burn, will also be returning.

Griffin, who averaged 6.8 yards a try last season, is being touted as a candidate for Junior College All-American honors. He is expected to be the wheelhorse in the cadet offense and to supply the spark in Garner's variation of the Split T.

The big question is the 1959 line. Graduation left many gaps in the forward wall that will have to be filled by new comers. Linemen returning are Herschel Billingsley, Tony Gatch, Oscar Harper, Doug Hollifield, and Red Wilkins. Wilkins, a 6'3", 200 pounder, had a great year in 1958 as a pass catching end, and should be greatly improved this year.

All in all, the prospect for a successful season look extremely bright.

ISABELLA SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. J. H. Wells

Isabella church has just completed a revival. Large numbers of people, both morning and evening, were present. Many people were converted. The greatest number of conversions in many years. J. Frank Hixon, Superintendent of City Missions for the Montgomery Baptist Association, was the evangelist. His presence was greatly blessed all who heard him.

Similar services were well attended. The pastor brought the messages at both services. He spoke Sunday morning on "The Glory of The Bible" and Sunday night on "Prepare to Meet Thy God."

Mulberry Church had one of her greatest years in many ways. The work continues to move forward. The Training Union attendance has been in the 70's and 80's for the past several weeks. The church has consistent attendance. The church has ever had. The spirit among those who come and support the church is good. We thank God for His wonderful blessings on the church at Mulberry.

Baptismal services were conducted on Wednesday night of this week. Those baptized were Mr. Marvin Baker and Mr. Sam Nabors.

The Nominating Committee is at work and will present their report to the church for their approval at the next monthly business meeting.

You are invited to listen to the Glad Tidings Broadcast on Station WKLF each Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock. Our pastor, Rev. Daniel, is the director of this broadcast and brings the messages each Sunday morning. Your prayers for him in this radio work will strengthen and help him in this important ministry.

You have a warm welcome to attend all services at Mulberry Baptist Church.

Church Reporter.

Personal Notes

Mrs. Edna Smith, Richard and Alvin Sexton, spent several days recently at home visiting the Mason family.

Mrs. Flora Tucker reports a wonderful trip to Panama City, on the week end of Aug. 16. She went with her son, Jack Tucker, and daughter, Mary. They enjoyed the vacation very much and returned home with many good memories.

Mrs. C. E. Carter was called to her home in West Beach, Fla., on Saturday, of last week. At this time we are sorry to hear of her passing.

Mrs. E. E. Porter died at her home in Clanton, Ala., on Saturday, of last week. She was 53 years of age. She was a member of the Clanton Baptist Church.

Mrs. E. E. Porter was born in Alabama. She was a member of the Clanton Baptist Church. She was a devoted wife and mother. She is survived by her husband, Mr. E. E. Porter, and several children.

The Arthur Tuckers of Dun-cannville were Saturday guests of Mrs. Eula Tucker.

Mrs. R. E. Tucker and Mrs. C. H. Oden of Birmingham and Mrs. S. W. Wee's of Tuscaloosa visited the Mannings and Wells here the week end. Mrs. Wee's (nee Dorothy Manning) has just returned from a trip to Miami and Nassau.

Mrs. Wee's was a delegate from the Zeta Chapter of Tuscaloosa to the Alpha Delta Kappa International Teachers Sorority Convention in Miami, Fla. After which she with four hundred other ADK's from all over the United States and Canada boarded the S. S. Florio for a cruise to Nassau for four days and nights.

On Sunday, Aug. 30, Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Lela Lecroy were Mrs. Eula Tucker, Miss Edna Tucker, and the W. J. Cummings family, and Lorine Lecroy. Mrs. Lecroy returned home from Gadsden, after staying with her daughter, Lorine, for sometime. She will stay with Mrs. Tucker for a while.

Mrs. Bessie Conway went home with Mrs. Clyde Hightower on Wednesday last week and visited with them. Mr. J. D. Conway spent the week end with the Hightowers. Mrs. Conway returned home on Saturday.

On Sunday the J. D. Conways and Clyde Hightowers went sight-seeing through Gadsden, Atlanta and on Sand Mountain. They reported a wonderful time.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Gordon Conway was admitted to Clanton Hospital on Friday of last week, but we are glad to report she is doing nicely at the time of the writing.

JAMES OWENS JOINS ARMY

JAMES Owens, a 1950 graduate of Jemison High School, joined the Army recently. SFC H. Smith, US Army Recruiter for the Chilton County area, announces. Owen is the son of Mrs. J. R. Owens, Rte 1, Jemison.

For assignment, Owen chose the field of Military Police under the Army's vocational training program.

Arrangements for his three year enlistment and assignment were made by SFC Smith, Montgomery Army Recruiting Station Commander, who comes to Clanton on Monday of each week.

Believes in "Book Sense"

JAMES HENDERSON, Clanton FFA'er, studying a book from his agricultural library. He built the table as a shop project while in a vocational agriculture class.

Believing that "book sense" is very important to success in farming, James Henderson, a member of the Ag. III class at Clanton, has established an agricultural library in his rural home.

The library, which enables the Chilton County youth to better carry out his supervised farming program, was begun with a set of Yearbooks of Agriculture that James acquired through his congressman. He has added other books and bulletins until he has information on almost every agricultural subject.

His farming program is made up of livestock and peaches. Out of the Vo-ag student owns ten hogs, seven head of beef cattle, and a Jersey heifer. He assists his father in the operation of the peach farm.

An active member of the Clanton FFA Chapter, James won the Chapter Public Speaking contest. He lost in the county elimination, but with a year of school remaining, he told Clanton vo-ag teacher, J. R. Thompson, that he is looking forward to giving it another try. He was a member of the chapter poultry judging team that competed in the state contest this summer at Auburn.

The FFA'er is also finding time to work on a home improvement program. He recently re-floored the front porch and has plans for other improvements. His shop training is being put to profitable use on this project.

THREE JOIN ARMY UNDER BUDDY PLAN—

THREE young men from the local Army Recruiting area joined the Army recently under the Buddy Assignment Plan, SFC H. Smith, US Army Recruiter, for the Chilton County Area, announces. The enlistees were (L to R) Samuel E. Baker, Rte 2, Clanton; Clyde L. Chambliss, Rte 1, Prattville, and Henry M. Whetstone, Jones, Alabama. The three enlistees are 1958 High School graduates.

By enlisting under the Buddy Plan the group will stay together during all basic training. For assignments, Chambliss and Whetstone enlisted under the Army's Vocational Training Program for assignment in the Airborne to specialize in the aircraft maintenance field. Baker enlisted under the Graduate Specialist Program and will enter the Aircraft Maintenance School at Fort Rucker for eight weeks training in November.

Port Jackson, South Carolina will be their first duty station.

Rev. O. L. Deavers filled his pulpit at Pilgrim Rest Sunday. Mrs. Deavers, Ozzie, Joan and Jeff accompanied him and they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Chandler and Helen.

Miss Shelia Jean Chandler of Selma was Saturday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hill and Vonnelle.

Rev. and Mrs. A. V. Bice enjoyed a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hay in Clanton last Sunday.

We missed those who were absent from church Sunday, and you missed a blessing. The pastor urges that we not only fill our places next Sunday, but make a special effort to bring someone with us.

Now You Can Find That Magazine

Finding a magazine when school opens this fall will be a simple matter at Isabella High School due to the efforts of the vocational agriculture department.

The Ag. II Class, with some assistance from other classes, has constructed a magazine rack of white pine for their classroom and one of pine panel which was given to the school.

Twenty-eight different magazines can be displayed on each of the racks and there is space for as many as 20 copies of each publication.

"These racks will enable us to move magazines from cluttered-up tables to an attractive display," observed Curtis Smith, Isabella Vo-Ag teacher.

Isabella School Principal Gordon Conway, accepting the rack for the school, expressed his appreciation to the ag. department and continued, "This rack will add much to the efficiency with which we use magazines in our teaching program."

EVAN CALFEE, a member of the Isabella Chapter, looks at a magazine from the magazine that the Vo. Ag. class built for their classroom. Similar one was given the school.

SEASON ON CANVASBACK SNIPES & 'REDHEADS'

Duck hunters will have less shooting this season, as an announcement by the Alabama Department of Conservation. In addition to the reduction in hunting ducks, the coot limit was set at 10 last season to a limit of four this year. Game Director William C. Younger said, "and the board decided to accept the shorter season with the larger bag limit since most duck hunters prefer a reduction in days rather than a reduction in the bag limit."

Younger also announced a change in the rabbit season which was set at the July Board meeting. A previous announcement stated that the rabbit season would open in all counties north of Jefferson on Nov. 26 and continue through February 20 and in the remainder of the state on Oct. 1 through February 24. Younger stated that the Advisory Board members reconsidered and have dates and a majority voted to have statewide rabbit season opening on October 15 and continuing through February 20.

Another change made in the regulations passed at the July Board meeting pertained to turkey hunting in Marengo county. Board members voted to allow both a fall and spring season instead of a spring season only.

Other changes in the waterfowl regulations stipulated by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service are a reduction in the bag limit on Canvasbacks, Redhead, and Ruddy ducks from last year's two to one for the coming season and the reduction in the bag limit on Sora from 25 to 15. Hunting hours this year will be from sunrise to sundown except on opening day when the legal time will be 12 noon.

Hunting north of the Mobile Causeway and south of the Railroad Bridge will be permitted from sunrise to twelve noon only.

Season dates and bag limits are: Ducks and coots, four a day or eight in possession, Nov. 25 through January 3.

Wood duck, Canvasback, Redhead, and Ruddy Ducks, one a day or in possession, Nov. 25 through January 3.

Geese and brant, five a day or five in possession, not to include more than two Canada geese or one two white-fronted geese or one of each, Oct. 31 through Jan. 8.

Rails and Gallinules, 15 a day or in possession, Nov. 25 through Jan. 3.

Wilson snipe or Jacksnipe, eight a day or in possession, Dec. 10 through Jan. 8.

Woodcock, four a day or eight in possession, Dec. 7 through Jan. 15.

No Idle Hands Here

TWO members of the Clanton FFA Chapter stand tables that the Vo. Ag. class built from army surplus materials. The boys are Royce Easterling and Billy Estes.

The Clanton vocational agriculture department has found a way to get new classroom tables despite the scarcity of the school funds.

Using surplus army cots and mosquito net supporting rods, the vocational boys, under the direction of teacher, J. R. Thompson, are constructing sturdy, attractive tables at a cost of approximately $11.25 each compared to a retail price of about $45.

The main cost of the tables is a solid core, wooden door that will be used for the top.

To build the tables, three of the half-inch rods are welded together for distance of about six inches from one end and are then sprung apart to form a triangular inverted pyramid. One of these assemblies is welded to each corner and the others six inches from it on the adjoining side and end.

The door will be fastened to the cot with wood screws from the under side. It will be sanded to a finish smooth enough for writing and then varnished.

FARM CENSUS TO BE TAKEN IN CHILTON

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF CHILTON COUNTY, ALABAMA IN EQUITY

Case 1487.

STATE OF ALABAMA, Complainant, vs. ONE 1949 FORD AUTOMOBILE MOTOR NUMBER BOAT 141484, Respondent.

The bill of complaint of the State of Alabama, on the relation of Lawrence F. Gerald, Jr., Deputy Solicitor of Chilton County, Alabama, against one 1949 Ford Automobile Motor Number Boat 141484, being exhibited to me, and it appearing therefrom that on the 1st day of March, 1958, one Arlie Langston did transport in said automobile certain prohibited liquors or beverages from one point to another in the State of Alabama, and that said automobile was, on the said date seized by officers of the City of Clanton, Chilton

County, Alabama, and said bill of complaint prays that said automobile be declared and forfeited to the State of Alabama, and for an order of condemnation and sale thereof.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED "that notice of the filing of said bill of complaint be given for three successive weeks in the Chilton County News, a newspaper published in the City of Clanton, Alabama, and that all persons claiming or asserting any right, title or interest in said automobile be required to appear and assert such claim by the 28 day of September, 1959, and that failure to do so, their said right, title or interest will be forever barred."

ORDERED AND DECREED, this 14 day of August, 1959.

J. B. Atkinson, Judge of the County Court of Chilton County, Alabama.

Proof that Chevy delivers the most miles from a gallon comes from an indisputable source: this year's Mobilgas Economy Run. For a pair of Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide walked away with the first two places in their class—got top mileage, in fact, of only 12.2 mpg. Over the Run's long, rugged course, over mountain and desert in the long, long haul from Los Angeles to Kansas City,

WOMAN'S BACK TROUBLE VANISHES

"In June of 1946," writes a woman from Iowa, "a back ailment which caused me severe pain in the right leg was diagnosed by my doctor as sciatica (inflammation around the sciatic nerve)."

"I want to tell you that God healed me of this affliction!"

"Before God healed me, the doctors had done everything in their power to help me. X rays were taken, showing one of my vertebrae was out of place. I underwent special treatments. I was fitted with a surgical belt and it gave me a measure of relief, but I found it painful to sit on hard chairs."

"My husband and I heard about your Crusade in Saint Petersburg, Florida, so we decided to go for prayer."

"Sitting on the hard chair in the tent was untold agony for me. I leaned one way and then another because I couldn't stand pressure on my spine. But God seemed very near."

"After you finished preaching, you said you were going to pray for those who needed healing. I poured out my heart as you prayed. The healing power of God swept through my body, and I was healed right there in the audience!"

LOCAL BOY IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Specialist 4th Class Jimmy Fulford was in an automobile accident in France, about a month ago, and has been hospitalized ever since. He is able to be in a rolling chair now, but will have to remain in the hospital for sometime yet. If his friends would like to write him he would be glad to hear from them. His mother, Mrs. Howard Fulford will be glad to give anyone his address.

PHONE IT. We shouldn't tell this on our good friend Hettin, but you listen real close. The other afternoon Grady the car door on his thumb
just about mashed the nail off.
He got it all wrapped up and satiated it with turbine to stop the hurting and press. Then without thinking he lit his cigarette.
One year it was his right thumb that got smashed—and he thought that lighter just once, he caught the turpentine flashed up and scared the rest of Grady. We didn't know he broke the record getting the gauge off that sore.
It all turned out good and he didn't get burned and the hitchhiking appendage is just right.

Ben Bennett was a visitor Sunday. You remember Ada went to run Johnson's Fashion Show. She called home and he talked to her for a while.
She is doing fine. Just get-

Record Crowds Throng to County Fair

Fair Parking— Some Cooperate And Some'd Rather Not!

MONDAY night, at the Fairgrounds, a new model car was side-swiped by a hit-and-runner according to our report and one car got stuck in a ditch across from the hangar on the public road.

This only goes to prove the point that the supervised parking, sponsored by the Jaycees, is the safest, most convenient and all around best way to handle traffic at the Fairgrounds.

They are handling the traffic pretty well and there is a free parking area for those who don't want to pay a quarter to park. The free area is also supervised and safe for parking as is the paid area if you follow instructions.

Don't get your car smashed by an unknown driver by parking it on the roadway. We've been asked to tell you to please park in one of the areas which are supervised. Thanks.

GIVE-A-WAY AT BIG CROWDS FAIR DRAWING

BILL Thomas, promoter for the Jaycees Come-To-The-Fair Give-A-Way prizes. Wednesday late that the proceedings and drawing each night is drawing spectacular crowds and grand enthusiasm from thousands.

Some of the winners at the drawings thus far are: Mrs. J. C. Parr, James Milford (he won an automobile) and Clarence Burnett. Of course these are just some of the winners and there are many prizes yet to go. Come to the Fair and win a free prize that's worth the winning.

Ogburn Pleads Guilty; Sentencing Oct. 21

ARCHIE Ogburn entered a plea of guilty before Judge of the U. S. District Court, Frank M. Johnson, Jr., Tuesday at Montgomery. Ogburn was charged with entering $29,676 in fictitious loans at the bank of Thorsby of which he was cashier and executive vice-president.

U. S. District Judge Frank M. Johnson, Jr., postponed sentencing until Oct. 21.

THE J. J. Mims family had a reunion at the Mims park last Sunday. The family had a picnic and lunch. There were around 75 people there. Everyone enjoyed the day together. This was their first time to meet at the park, but found it was such a nice place that they plan to make it an annual affair on the last Sunday in August.

CHILTON County's 1959 edition of the Annual County Fair is expected to break all previous attendance records according to officials. Also, interest in general was built up to a peak by advance advertising and publicity and the throngs at the Fairgrounds nightly

Chuck Wagon Gang Here

According to Barney Smith, promoter, the famous Chuck Wagon Gang singers will be in Clanton for all six nights. The first night, Monday, crowds were estimated at between 2500 and 3000 and the climax at the end of the week should boost the total to the estimated number having mileages and too much rainy weather.

Fiddler's At Fair Saturday Night

Morris Moatts, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce asks that all fiddlers and would be fiddlers (of course there are none of those) contact him at telephone 345 and get in on the Big Fiddler's Show to take place at the Airport Hangar this Saturday evening, the final day of the Big Fair. He says it will be a corker, so come on you folks who fiddle around and get in on the fun-making!

Bud Graves Back At Goodyear

We have been asked to announce that "Buddy" (we call him Bud) Graves is back with the Goodyear Store here in Clanton along with his wife and two youngsters. We remember Bud from about two years ago when he was at the local branch for a few months. We doubt if he remembers us, but we're glad to have him back in Clanton. Hope he and the family enjoy their new home. We might add that Ed Wilson, who has been with the local Goodyear for several months now is moving his family to Clanton and they will reside in the old, Mel Martin home on 1st Avenue. Ed's already an active Jaycee in Clanton and apparently likes it here.

Survivors: wife, Mrs. Alice Lee Mims, Clanton; 5 daughters, Mrs. Renie Baker, Mrs. James Ellison, Mrs. Eva Thomas, all of Clanton; Mrs. Allen Tracy, Mrs. M. B. Correction Please

In August we ran the obituary of Mrs. O. W. Boyd (Mary Howell) and we spelled her name "Howard". Mr. Boyd called our attention to this error and we're much obliged to him for setting us straight. The deceased was "Mrs. Howell Boyd".

Storm In Shoults Area

Monday afternoon about 4 o'clock a rain and hailstorm hit the Shoults Community Southwest of Clanton doing considerable damage to late corn crops and to many large trees in the area. Our correspondent maintains that it was a powerful hard rain the women have never seen" and it was mighty sudden. We're glad no greater damage resulted.

Morris Moatts Joins Florist

Announcement was made early this week that Morris Moatts, long time associated with A&P in Clanton, has joined Herbert and Clara Ward in a partnership in the firm of Ward's Flower Shop in Clanton. Morris has been training in the present Gardens in Montgomery and attended a short course in design at Auburn. He is also opening in late winter and every spring in Ala with flowers and floral arrangements.

Also connected with the firm will be Miss Bernice Moatts and Mrs. Paul Johnson.

are really coming to see something and going away happy. Perhaps a lot in the pocketbook, what with all the rides and concessions and ways to spend a dime, but happier all the same for a good time.

Estimates as to attendance have been set at around 20,000 for all six nights. The first night, Monday, crowds were estimated at between 2500 and 3000 and the climax at the end of the week should boost the total to the estimated number having mileages and too much rainy weather.

The crowds were thinned out somewhat Tuesday evening, but those in attendance had just as much fun as they would had it been dry and sunny, perhaps more. All the booths and displays are very original this year and Monday night judging of the exhibits was held. Elsewhere on this page you'll find the results of the judging as well as the 1959 Chilton County, Ala. of Cotton and her royal attendants.

All in all, after two nights of the Big Fair were put in the past the outlook for a colossal success was very good.

Many persons put many, many hours on this event and it definitely showed up in the results as Mr. and Mrs. Miss and Master Chilton County all turned out for a good time of it... and found what they were looking for.

THORSBY P-TA WILL MEET

DESPITE the fact that Lee Crowson works from home much of the time, the 120 acre farm in Chilton County isn't being neglected—nor are 125 acres of rented land.

Shouldering a major share of responsibility for operating the farm is Mr. Crowson's Larry, a member of the Ag. II class at Jefferson High School.

In addition to 80 acres of peaches, there are 110 acres of corn which will be fed to hogs, 14 acres of cotton, 6 acres of watermelons, 100 plum trees and 5 acres of improved pasture. Two tractors and equipment including a high-pressure sprayer enable the farmers to work large acreages with a minimum of time and labor.

Larry also finds time to care for the family garden which provides the family with a year-round supply of vegetables. He lists among his FFA projects, two beef calves and a forestry plot.

His wife, Cloveteene, lives in Denbigh, Va.

Patterson Returns After 5-Month Tour

Jerry D. Patterson, machinist's mate second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Patterson of Route 2, Clanton, Ala., returned to San Diego, Calif., Aug. 17, aboard the destroyer escort USS Vammen after a five-month tour of duty with the S. Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

During the cruise the Vammen participated in various operational exercises with navies of Far Eastern countries and visited Hawaii, Japan, Hong Kong, Korea and the Philippines.

At Davao, in the Philippines, crew members donated over three tons of school books collected in the United States to school children of that city.

On Sept. 1, 1959, the Vammen is scheduled to enter a Naval Reserve Training Squadron at Long Beach, Calif., and will be used to train Naval Reservists-off the California coast.

From here, after the all important events, the program was delivered by the Beta Sigma Phi Chapter, which the new maid and Alternate made received cash prizes from Mr. Claude Blackwell of the Farm Bureau.

The new maid was crowned by Miss Janice Wood, 1957 Maid of Cotton.

A large bouquet of red roses was presented to her by Mr. M. R. Glasscock, County Agent. The contestants and Miss Nelson were taken to the Chilton County Fair where the new maid and Alternate made received cash prizes from Mr. Claude Blackwell of the Farm Bureau.

Nineteen year old Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Nelson of Thorsby, Ala., and at the present time she is employed as legal secretary to a firm in Birmingham, Ala. She was Alternate Maid of Cotton in 1958.

A Message From Our State Representatives

On November 4, 1958, a referendum was submitted to the people of Chilton County as to whether or not a One Cent Sales Tax would be imposed in Chilton County for the purpose of school construction, maintenance, and equipment. This tax measure was overwhelmingly approved by the voters of this County.

After discussing this matter with the representatives of Education and the County Board of Education, we are now introducing a Bill requiring that all construction not done by the employees of the Board of Education, and purchases of $800.00 be submitted for competitive bids and awarded to the lowest bidder.

Both of us in our respective campaigns promised the voters, if elected, we would make it possible for them to nominate their Board of Revenue members by districts. We are also offering this legislation for passage.

We would appreciate any recommendations or criticism which you might have on these Bills or on any legislation which might be introduced.

GENEROUS IS THE WORD--

See where an elderly country doctor, upon his death, willed to his patients all past debts due him and gave them a clean slate as far as owing his estate anything. The sum amounted to several thousands of dollars and the Doc will likely be remembered by his townsmen as the most generous fellow ever, even in death. We need more characters like that!

A BIG DIFFERENCE--

OTHER than stature, the big difference in the John Patterson administration and the "Big Jim" administration is that while one dipped from the "bucket" with the hole in it, the other just pours directly from the spout! We stand corrected. . . it ain't no different!

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?--

IN your opinion what does it mean to us individually, to be an American citizen? Oh, you never gave it much thought! That seems to be the general opinion these days and it is a wrong one. Being an American should be our most honored and respected heritage, second only to our faith in God and trust in our religion.

The American Legion, Post No. 6, Clanton has taken steps to see that the Hospital here gets a flag pole to fly Old Glory from its heights and nothing we've heard for quite some time thrills us as much.

It's rewarding to know that there are still those of us who cherish the flag enough to see it displayed and respected as it so richly deserves. It's a symbol of our liberty and the lives that liberty has cost us. It is a thing we should never forget and a thing we can never repay to those who sacrificed. Thus, the least we can do is to honor the Flag which so proudly unfurls. We would like to be among the very first to thank the American Legion Post for their forward step and pledge our allegiance to their noble cause. . . the Flag of the United States of America.

THE DETERMINED STEP OF PROGRESS--

TAKE a long look, through your imagination, at the City of Clanton from the air. You can see her alleys and streets.

Now, take a long look, imaginative or on the spot, at the storefronts and insides up and down main street. There is no similarity of the times of these two things.

Practically without exception our business houses have made improvements, one by one, over the past five years that reflect our optimistic outlook for Clanton and our businessmen's courage in our future.

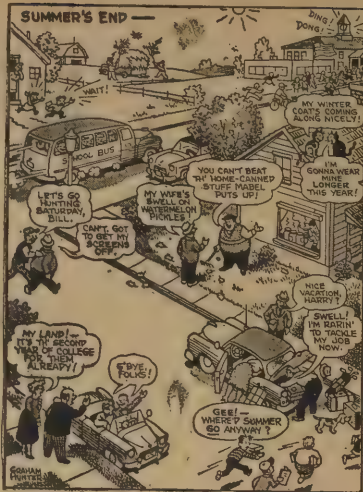

On the other hand, our streets and our alleys in the business district do not reflect the same qualities.

The City fathers, the Jaycees of Clanton and many enterprising businessmen are of the opinion that we can help our hometown to be more attractive to visitors, newcomers and new business by improving the looks of our alleys and streets.

This does not reflect on the City, because their hands are tied unless the property owners are willing to invest the small amount required to curb and gutter and pave our alleys.

A member of the City Council reports to us that the City loses money on such projects, but is willing to do so in order to beautify and "sell" our town.

As we said, the cost to the individual is nominal. There are some that have been improved and you can see just what the difference is. Take a look at the alleys down by the County Jail and at the new gutter work in several different places over town. If the property owners will give the word "go" the City will go to work. How about it?

Report from Washington

BY

ARMISTEAD SELDEN

Congressman, Sixth District

Last week President Eisenhower vetoed the appropriation bill containing funds for public works projects throughout the entire nation. The President in his veto message objected to 67 projects added by Congress that he said would eventually cost more than $800 million. Included in that number is the Holt Lock and Dam Project so important to our own Sixth Congressional District.

Efforts to Override

An effort will be made this week by the House of Representatives to override the President's veto. To do so will require a two-thirds majority vote of those present in both the House of Representatives and the Senate. Although some of President Eisenhower's 144 vetoes have been overridden to date, this perhaps will be his strongest test as all sections of the United States are affected.

Housing Bill

Failure to override an earlier Presidential veto resulted last week in the passage of the second general housing bill of the present session of Congress. The first bill received congressional approval on June 23 but was vetoed by the President two weeks later. An attempt by the Senate to override the veto was unsuccessful.

The new measure, which also received overwhelming approval in the Senate, still goes beyond President Eisenhower's recommendations. As a result, rumors have already begun to circulate on Capitol Hill that a second veto is possible.

Public Housing Voted

Before passage, the House voted (380 to 134) to retain the provision for new public housing units--one of the most controversial sections of the legislation. The bill calls for 37,000 new units, as compared with the 45,000 included in the previous bill. President Eisenhower has stated, however, that he opposes the start of any new public housing units.

For urban renewal grants, the bill authorizes $650 million to be made available immediately after enactment of the legislation. This is twice the amount that the Administration had requested for a two-year period.

Housing for College

Other provisions of the bill authorize loans in the amount of $250 million for construction of colleges dormitories and $50 million for building college classrooms. The Administration had asked for less for the dormitories and is opposed to any new funds for college classroom loans. The classroom provision was retained in the bill by a vote of 146 to 133.

Veto Outlook

Should the House of Representatives override the President's veto of the public works appropriation bill when it votes this week, such action might well influence the President's decision to either veto or sign the housing bill that is presently on his desk.

PUBLIC OPINION

THREE OUT OF EVERY FIVE ADULT CITIZENS SAY THEY SEE A GOODLY NUMBER OF SPEEDERS ON THEIR STATE HIGHWAYS.

By Kenneth Fink, Director, Princeton Research Service. The only thing certain about this Labor Day Week End is that several hundred men, women and children across the nation will be killed in auto accidents.

In addition, thousands will suffer injuries from smashups that will keep doctors, hospitals, and ambulance squads busy over the coming week end.

To help stem this awful toll from traffic accidents on America's highways, local, county, and state police will do everything possible to keep drivers from killing and injuring themselves and others.

Some idea of the tremendous task highway police face this week end can be seen from the results of Public Opinion survey just completed on the question of speeding on state highways.

Survey findings show that three out of every five of all those questioned are of the opinion that there are a considerable number of speeders on their state highways. (About two out of every five (39%) of all those talked to say that they see MANY speeders on their state highways. And another one in five (21%) say that they always see some drivers speeding.

Only three in ten say that they do not see many speeders on their state highways. In other words, those who say they see many or some drivers speeding as they ride on state highways outnumber those who say they don't see much speeding by a margin of about two to one.

These were the findings when Public Opinion and his people put the following question to adult citizens in all walks of life:

"As you ride on your state highways (Not Turnpikes and other toll roads), would you say that many drivers go faster than the legal speed limit or not?"

See many or some going faster than the legal limit 69%
See many going faster 39%
See some going faster 21%
See little speeding 31%
No opinion 9%

Highlight of today's survey findings is that the younger the adult citizen talked to, the more inclined he is to say that he sees little speeding when he rides on state highways.

Furthermore, fewer of these same younger adult citizens talked to say that they see MANY drivers speeding on the state highways they ride on. (Statistics show that younger adult citizens (particularly males) have a higher proportion of auto accidents than do older people.

Here's the way people in the various age brackets answered:

21-29 30-44 45 yrs. and over
See many speeders 42% 40% 40%
See some speeders 34 19 22
See little speeding 41 51 27
No opinion 5 8 11

Still another interesting sidelight is that somewhat more men than women say they see speeders when they ride on state highways.

A whopping two out of every three (65%) of all the men talked to say either that they see many speeders (42%) or that they see some speeders (25%) when they ride on their state highways, whereas among women, a smaller proportion--56%--say this. 36% of the women say they see many speeders and 20% say they see some speeders when they ride on their state highways.

The proportion of men and women saying they see little speeding is, however, exactly the same--31%.

And somewhat more women than men express no opinion on the matter.

Here's the way men and women answered on the question of speeding on their state highways:

Men Women
See many speeders 42% 36%
See some speeders 23 20
See little speeding 31 31
No opinion 4 13

A number of people talked to volunteered that there was considerable speeding on their state highways after midnight during the early morning hours. This speeding they blamed--rightfully or not--on younger drivers.

Still others said that there was considerable speeding by people going to and coming home from work. And others said that they noticed many speeders when they drive on week ends.

Regardless of when and where the speeding takes place, people on the highways this week end should recognize one important fact--the chances are that there will be considerable number of speeders on state highways across the nation.

With this in mind, those on the road this week end would be wise to drive with the utmost caution. This is one of a series of reports on traffic conditions. WATCH FOR THEM IN THIS NEWSPAPER.

The Chilton County News presents the reports of Public Opinion exclusively in this area. PRS releases presently appear in some 30 states across the nation.

Back to School Safety Habits

(1st in a Series)

How times change. . . It wasn't too long ago that kids walked--or, if they were lucky, rode a bike--to school each day. Some of our parents even rode horseback to school.

Those days, the distance most children had to cover was at least a mile, often more--and regardless of the weather.

Those days are gone forever. Many students still walk to school, but increasing numbers drive. The problem of schools in bygone days was to get enough racks for students' bicycles. Today, high schools often must build parking lots to hold the mass of motor vehicles their students arrive in.

If schools don't construct parking lots, students have to leave their cars around the school building--thereby creating a traffic hazard.

COUNTY PENSION OFFICE REQUEST PUBLIC AID

Effort of the Department of Pensions and Security to uncover instances of fraud or misrepresentation among pensioners or to receive assistance are being given full attention. Commissioner Prestwood revealed to the public that the first of criminal prosecution in years which was heard last week in Dallas County.

want to take this opportunity to commend Solicitor Blanchard, Judge Hugh Mallory, and the local officials for their efficient handling of the case. Prestwood declared. He said a $500 fine and 30-day jail sentence had been levied against a woman who misrepresented her income and circumstances to get aid for dependent children.

ough this is the first such criminal prosecution, Prestwood there have been some civil suits recently brought against persons ineligible for them. He said, voluntary repayments have been made when persons became aware the agency might en- suit or could prosecute.

CHILTON COUNTY, A MUNICIPAL CORPORATION, PETITIONER
VS.
MRS. JOHN A. LEROL, KERMIT LEROL, ET ALS
RESPONDENTS.

TO: MRS. JOHN A. LEROL,

KERMIT LEROL, AND AFFREY LEROL, Filmore County, Whalan, Minnesota

You will take notice that on the 17th day of August, 1959, a petition was filed in this court by Chilton County, A Municipal Corporation to condemn for certain purposes therein stated, certain lands belonging to Mrs. John A. Lerol, Kermit Lerol, and Affrey Lerol, as follows, to wit:

A strip of land 40 feet in width on the left side of the survey centerline beginning at station 215+22 and extending to station 220+22.

All lying in and being a part of the NW¹/₄ of the SE¹/₄ of Section 11, Township 22, Range 13, in Chilton County, Alabama, and containing 0.46 acres more or less including that part now occupied by the present county road.

Also easement to strips of land sufficient length and width necessary for the construction and maintenance of inlet and outlet ditches extending beyond the above described right-of-way.

By petition filed in this Court and plaintiff prays that this Court will make and enter an order appointing a day for the hearing of this petition and for such other and further orders and procedures as may be necessary.

You will take further notice that the Court has appointed September 3, 1959, at 10:00 o'clock a.m. to hear said application to the petition at which time you and all other persons claiming any right or interest in the same may appear and contest the same if you so desire to do.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF CHILTON COUNTY, ALABAMA IN EQUITY

Case 1487.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Complainant,

vs.
ONE 1949 FORD AUTOMOBILE
MOTOR NUMBER BOAT 141484,
Respondent

The bill of complaint of the State of Alabama, on the relation of Lawrence F. Gerald, Jr., Deputy Solicitor of Chilton County, Alabama, against one 1949 Ford Automobile Motor Number Boat 141484, being exhibited to me, and it appearing therefrom that on the 1st day of March, 1958, one Arlie Langston did transport in said automobile certain prohibited liquors or beverages from one point to another in the State of Alabama, and that said automobile was, on the said date seized by officers of the City of Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama, and said bill of complaint prays that said automobile be declared and forfeited to the State of Alabama, and for an order of condemnation and sale thereof.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that notice of the filing of said bill of complaint be given for three successive weeks in the Chilton County News, a newspaper published in the City of Clanton, Alabama, and that all persons claiming or asserting any right, title or interest in said automobile be required to appear and assert such claim by the 28 day of September, 1959, and that failure to do so, their said right, title or interest will be forever barred.

ORDERED AND DECREED, this 14 day of August, 1959.

J. B. Atkinson,
Judge of the County Court of Chilton County, Alabama.

MULBERRY BAPTIST NEWS

Attendance was good at both services Sunday. We had 114 in Sunday School with a number coming in for preaching service that were not in Sunday School. There were 94 in Training Union. This was the best attendance we have had in Training Union in more than a year. Our church has experienced a summer "hump" instead of a "slump" and we are grateful to God.

Our pastor preached Sunday morning from Acts 1:1-11 on the subject "In Subjection." This was the first in a series of sermons taken from Acts.

Sunday night he preached from the first chapter of the gospel according to John. This also was the first in a series. His subject was "There Was A Man Sent From God."

The deacons met in their regular monthly meeting on Monday night. The Nominating Committee met on Tuesday night to continue their work on officers and teachers for the new church year.

Next Sunday will be time for our regular monthly business meeting. The report of the Nominating Committee will be read and acted on.

They were: Mr. W. A. Dickerson, GDD, Mr. Hilton Lane, Mr. L. McDaniel, Mrs. Mattie L. Dorse, WM.

Mr. and Mrs. Solum W. Wilson and children left Sunday for North Carolina where they will make their home, accompanying them was Sgt. Charles McGlellan.

VOICE TEACHER AT CCHS

MRS. Lyle A. Roe, a newcomer to Clanton and to the Chilton County High School as Glee Club director, has moved with her husband to Powell Street. Mrs. Roe is also opening a piano and voice studio. Her telephone number is 74-AW.

at this meeting. Our mid-week services continue to grow. We had 70 present last Wednesday night. Family night was held on Wednesday night of this week with all the organization's meeting. Family night will be held on the first Wednesday night of each month.

IF YOU LIKE MONEY,
YOU'LL LIKE BUYING
A CHEVY NOW!

IT'S BEST-BUY SEASON ON NEW CHEVROLETS RIGHT NOW... AND YOU'LL NEVER DO BETTER BY YOUR DOLLARS Spent by your Chevrolet dealer's and see the season's most wonderful money's worth. Better make it soon!

IF YOU LIKE GETTING YOUR MONEY'S WORTH, YOU'LL LIKE CHEVY'S 7 BIG BESTS!

BEST BRAKES... STOP ON A DIME AND GIVE YOU MORE STOPS PER DOLLAR They're bigger too. With 'em, Chevy out-stopped all competitors in its field in a NASCAR* conducted test of repeated stops from highway speeds.

BEST RIDE... CARRIES YOU AS CAREFULLY AS IT PAMPERS YOUR DOLLARS "The smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." That's the way MOTOR TREND magazine describes Chevrolet's cream-smooth ride. It's way more fun to smooth than to read about though. Get out in a Chevy and see what Full Coil springs do.

BEST ENGINE... YOU COULD SPEND JARFUL OF JACK AND NOT GET A V8 LIKE CHEVY'S Talking about standard as well as Corvette V8's, SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED says, "Indeed, this device is and said that "... in its price class, Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling." Chevy's leadership in sales for '59 says a lot for its looks too!

BEST ROOM... NO CRAMPED QUARTERS Let's take the official figures filed with the Automobile Manufacturers Association. They show Chevrolet's front seat hip room up to 5.9 inches wider than, in comparable cars. Count on real comfort.

BEST TRADE-IN... YOU GET MORE DOLLARS BACK FOR YOUR CHEVY LAST year, for example, Chevrolet used car prices averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of other makes. Just check the NADA* Guide Book.

BEST ECONOMY... SOCK AWAY YOUR CHEVY SAVINGS As sure as two Chevy Sixes won their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, getting the best mileage of any full-size car!

Now there's an Impala Sport Sedan... one of Chevy's full series of Impalas for '59

See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer—you might as well get the most!

Personal Notes

LABOR DAY TRAFFIC — WILL YOU BE ALIVE SEPTEMBER 8TH.

Monday we will observe Labor Day. This day has been set aside to honor the skill and industry of the working man.

At 6:00 P.M. tomorrow we will begin the seventy eighth year Labor Day holiday period, which will end at midnight Monday.

With the motorists and pedestrians make this holiday period a safe one as they did on the Fourth of July, or we will plunge headlong into another blood bath as we have so many times on major holiday weekends? Your driving habit and your attitude will determine how many traffic accidents and traffic deaths will result from this holiday period.

During those seventy eight hours of haste, bustle, hurry and flurry, 32,000 will suffer disabling injuries and about 400 will be killed in traffic accidents across the nation.

Unless we are willing to do a better job this year than we did last year, approximately 100 persons will suffer disabling injuries and 10 may die as the result of traffic accidents that will occur on the streets and highways of Alabama.

What the record reflects at the end of this holiday period will depend on your thinking and actions when you walk and drive during the holidays.

The Labor Day holidays officially begin tomorrow at 6:00 P.M., but the highways will already be clogged with seemingly endless numbers of automobiles—all filled with people in a holiday mood seeking to have a good time.

What will the people do wrong that may cause traffic deaths to spiral upward during the Labor Day holidays in spite of all the efforts of the local and state enforcement officers?

Some drivers will attempt to drive too great a distance in little time and will drive too fast and will take unnecessary chances. Some will attempt to drink after having had one or more of alcohol.

Many others will ignore the traffic congestion that clog the streets and highways during this period.

Many others will believe that they will reach their destination to die in a local high speed accident. (Probably a high speed car accident with a drinking driver at the wheel).

Floyd H. Mann, Director of Alabama Department of Transportation said, "The results of accidents are a terrible manpower and vital resources with your assistance and cooperation, we can make another record during this holiday period that will keep you safe that you may be able to report work next Tuesday morning."

SCHOOL TOPS IN JEMISON BRIEFS

Mrs. George Neish
The girls were singing Monday evening for "Me and My Girl" for hundreds of boys and girls all around.

The opening exercises of Jemison High and Elementary began at eight o'clock.

Group singing by the new 6th grade pupils who accompanied them on the piano. They sang, "Have I Told You Lately That I Love You", "America, The Beautiful" and "Onward, Christian Soldiers".

Rev. Louis Brasher gave the devotional, reading Col. 3:8-16, then led in prayer.

Jimmy and Charlie Martin, accompanied by Joan Northcutt, sang, "The Bible Tells Me So."

Mr. Peterson gave a very informative talk, telling what improvements, not only in an educational line, but physical as well. The buildings have been painted, as well as new lights, new chairs and two as the lunchroom renovated, with deep freezers.

The County Board had the lawns mowed, the football field fertilized, smoothed down and grass sown.

Federal funds supplied scenic equipment, two TV sets, two slide projectors.

The P-TA furnished a back stop for the Little League teams. Shades were furnished for several rooms.

School insurance was mentioned, dates to enroll after 1 and 2 of September will be Sept. 29-30.

The PFA quartet, Vicky Matrows, Douglas and Jerry Avery and Ralph Littleton, accompanied by Franklin Johnson, sang, "Don't Forget to Stop and Pray."

New teachers in High School, Mrs. Regina Caversness, Hollis Elbert Todd and Mrs. Ella Neve Gay. In Elementary, Mrs. Elizabeth Vail and Mrs. Maggie T. Bice.

Mr. J. K. Eklblad is the guidance counselor, having received special training the past summer. All teachers will assist pupils when requested.

Floyd Langston was appointed to ring the bells at 20 minute intervals on Monday.

For the lunchroom: Mrs. Catherine Horton, buyer, leaders, Mrs. Bonnie Willis and Miss Myrtle Price; workers, Mrs. Bertie Ray, Mrs. Lillie Rogers, Mrs. Bertha Martin, Mrs. Elma Ray and Mrs. Shirley Samples.

P-TA will meet the 2nd Monday night in September, September 14.

A lovely arrangement of Nassau myrtle was used in the principals' lilies outlined with pink crepe office and one of the same lilies was used on the stage.

Bride Honored
A lovely affair of the late summer was the miscellaneous tea shower on Sunday afternoon, August 30th, when Mrs. W. J. Davenport honored her granddaughter, Mrs. Tony Tucker, nee Jackie Morgan.

Co-hostess with Mrs. Davenport were: Mrs. C. C. Conway, Mrs. Lillie Blackstock, Mrs. Frances Rogers, Mrs. Hugh Rogers, Mrs. Clyde Harrell and Mrs. Donald Rachels.

The Davenport home, newly decorated, was adorned with potted plants, with a large arrangement of pink, white gladioli and white carnations in the entrance hall.

Mrs. Davenport received and welcomed the guests, assisted by Mrs. Lucile Underwood and Mrs. C. R. Phipps. The honoree was wearing a pink taffeta dress.

Mrs. Annie Cooper presided at the bride's book. She was wearing a flowered voile dress and a white carnation corsage.

In the dining room, the tea table laid covered with center with large arrangement of late pink and white summer flowers.

Langston and Mrs. Harrell served punch. Individual embossed cards, mints and nuts were served during the calling hours.

Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Rachels presided in the gift room, where a delightful assortment of gifts were distributed. Among guests were: Mrs. Margaret Adair, the other grandmother, from Helena, Ala.

Golden Age Citizens
Our golden age citizen for the week is Mr. Jim Langston. Mr. Langston, at the age of 6, moved from Jefferson County near the Shelby line to Jemison. He attended school in the old Baptist church and Masonic building then in the building, during the Methodist Church.

He remembered a former teacher, Mr. Burns.

At the age of 18 he began helping his father, Mr. New Langston, in his business.

At the age of 18 he married Miss Mary Hand. He continued working for his father until the death of his father, then he took over the business, scavell taking over the business.

He continued his major work in the business, and at the age of 25 he was at the old store every day.

He is carrying on the business every day.

Langston, following 11 weeks of college work, enjoyed a short vacation through the Smoky Mountains and Cumberland Mts. Leaving home they went to Nashville, Tenn., visited the Parthenon, the Capital building and the Hermitage.

Then to Oak Ridge, through the Atomic Museum, passing through Knoxville, Gatlinburg, spent a night in Cherokee, N. C., in Asheville, they shopped a while.

They returned by Chattanooga. It was a mountainous route both ways.

Mrs. and Mrs. Princeton Simmons and two children, Brenda and Brag, left home Aug. 9th, for a trip. They went to Chattanooga, taking a ride on the incline. They visited friends, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCarter; By Gatlinburg, Tenn., to Cling Man's Rock and Cherokee, N. C., where pictures of the children were made, with Indians. They continued to Big Stone Gap, Va., where they visited friends and the relatives of Mrs. Simmons.

OES Conference
Jemission Chapter, 398, OES, were hosts to the Otto B. Smith Conference, Friday night, August 28 at eight o'clock.

Mrs. Ann Glass and Mrs. Sam Collins served as worthy Matron and Patron. Members from other chapters in the Conference filled the room.

Distinguished guests were Mrs. Elma Cline, worthy wife of Matron and Mrs. Earl Heaton, worthy Grand Patron, Mrs. Louise Clifford, A. G. M., Mrs. Woodrow Stephens, A. G. P. and six Past Grand Matrons, Mrs. Rita B. Smith, Mrs. Mary Clements, Mrs. Pearl Maynard, Mrs. Annie Lou Hooten, Mrs. Leila Holliday and Mrs. Hezel Whaley. There were 116 present. Thorsby Chapter won the banner with 14 present.

Slurria Chapter will entertain the Conference in November.

During the fellowship hour, punch, sandwiches, cheese crackers, and individual decorated cards were served.

Picnic for Sunbeams
Members of the Beginner and Primary Sunbeam Bands, met at the home of Mrs. J. O. Cobb for a picnic, Friday afternoon, Aug. 28.

The spacious lawn was an ideal place for games, which the children enjoyed for a lengthy period.

Tables were placed under the large shade trees. Picnic goodies were served and enjoyed by 26 members, with the counselor, Mrs. J. O. Cobb and Linda Clements, the director, Mrs. V. O. Le-noir and assisted by Mary Ann Bolton.

Cold drinks were served by the counselors.

Little Leaguers
The Little Leaguers of Jemison under the leadership of Mr. L. Hale are to be especially commended. They played 13 games, winning 10. The season closed with the last game at Calera.

Training Union Program
Miss Mary Clements was in charge of the Training Union program, Sunday night.

The theme, Christ, The Hope of The World.

Mr. William Vines read the Scripture, Rom. 10:13-15. All joined in singing, O. Zon Haste.

Miss Clements read a poem, I Know a Name, and closed with prayer.

Joyaires Program
The Joyaires quartet, Martha Jo Willis, Fromie Northcutt, Paul Northcutt and Billy Conway, with their piano accompanist, Joan Northcutt, had an all expense paid trip to Townley, Ala., north of Jasper, Saturday night. They were guests of the Walker County singing Convention. They spent Saturday night at the Walker Co. Motel in Carbon Hill. This group was accompanied by Mrs. Bonnie Willis, Mrs. Paul and Fromie Northcutt, Mrs. Conway and Judy Northcutt. They hurried back to Clanton on Sunday night.

FOLKS and THINGS About Town
by Ben

BOOKS like the chickens came to roost when the Northern rousers started all the trouble about integration. While South is virtually free from the conflict the Northern cities have a little more than they can handle. Wonder why the nation doesn't cut out the rousers to keep order?

AVOLINE LeCroy and Elora have gone to the Mississippi at Atlantic City. The week and their Beauty Shop is closed. And with all those girls out there they let their husbands go, too. Just can't get it out-was it to keep an eye on Pap and James, or to let the boys keep order?

Prospect our Driver's License Patrolman at the Court- as been swamped here lately. Now they're sending him on September 14 and 15 and on September 21 and 22. We will be two Highway Patrolmen to the courthouses to take the car and the good-ness sakes, says Ed, while he help please come in down and on your driving test. Since he a little relief he'll be glad to see you.

JUST a thought in passing, the State of Alabama receiving hundred and fifty million dollars from tourists trade why the Legislature give the Department of Records and Statistics more money to bring more tourists? At present the Department receives on seventy-five thousand dollars a year for advertising, salaries, literature, etc. It is about a third enough to do good job. Alabama has many natural and man made wonders to let the visitor—but if you don't let them—how can they know?

LATE news item that will be to read here is the notice of the Maplesville Parent-Teacher Association regarding their meeting. According to Mrs. B. Adams the meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock, Thursday, Sept. 10th at the Maplesville High School. Come out with the teachers and parents. You are cordially invited.

ACCORDING to Mrs. Wilson reports the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church No. 1, at Remison, is to hold a revival. Opening next Sunday and it will last for two weeks. The church extends invitation to all.

ANOTHER late notice received from the desk reports a P. E. A. meeting at Remison on Monday, Sept. 14th. The first meeting of 1959-60 season so naturally all members and teachers are asked to attend.

ALL women are not selfish. Of them are attracted to simpler things of life-men.

The minister asked for anyone knew a truly perfect person stand up. After a long pause took-looking fellow in the back of the church. "Do you really know a person?" the minister queried. "Yes, sir, I do," answered the man.

"Now, you please tell the congregation who this rare perfect person is?" pursued the minister. "Yes, sir, it was my wife's first husband."

Crippled Children Clinic In Clanton Today, 10th

A clinic for the crippled children of Chilton County will be held in Clanton on Thursday, September 10, 1959. The clinic will be held at the First Methodist Church. This is the regular field clinic which is conducted by the State Crippled Children's Service and sponsored each year by the Chilton County Chapter. Mrs. Omar Reynolds is the clinic chairman and is in charge of making arrangements and assisting with the clinic. Dr. Fletcher Comer and Dr. Ray Randall of Birmingham will be the orthopedic surgeons and will conduct the clinic. They will be assisted by Miss Nell Davidson, D.O.T. Orthopedic Nurse and a team of other workers who are attached to the staff of the Crippled Children's Service. Mr. J. B. Harkins, representing the Vocational Rehabilitation Service, will be present at the clinic to interview handicapped adults. The Rehabilitation Service offers vocational counseling as well as other services needed by handicapped adults to restore them to gainful employment.

Since this clinic provides treatment for handicapped children in Chilton County, the county health department and welfare department and the education departments are cooperating with the Crippled Children's Service so that many of the County's handicapped children may receive treatment. Crippled children or handicapped adults who have never attended a clinic, should contact the county health, welfare or education departments for a referral to the Crippled Children's Service. Children who have not attended Dr. Comer and Randall's clinic in several years and have not been released from treatment by the doctors should return to this clinic for check-up.

Chilton Schools Take Part in ETV Programs

Alabama continues its leadership in utilization of educational TV this fall with the Chilton County, Isabella, Jamaica, Maplesville, Verbena and Thorshy High, Cooper, Enterprise, Mt. Pleasant, Stanton, Concord Junior High, Clanton, Thorshy, Elementary and Chilton County Training, Jemison Clanton and Maplesville Colored Schools participation. The Chilton County Training, Thorshy Enterprise, Mt. Pleasant, Stanton, Thomas Jr. High, Jemison, Clanton, Maplesville, Colored, New Convert, Collins Chapel and Concord Jr. High did not use the telecourses last year.

These are part of more than 300 Alabama public schools composed of 65,000 students who will tap some of the finest teaching facilities in the State by viewing ETV as an aid to their classroom learning.

At the request of educators, effective Tuesday, September 8th, Alabama ETV network channels 2, 7, and 10 starts its telecast day at 8:30 a.m. and continue to 10 p.m. This year's fall programming will have the highest percentage of live telecasting in the AET network history. Of the 6 1/2 hour broadcast week, in-school courses are presented from 8:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. These originate in studios on the campuses of Auburn, the University of

CHILTON BOYS LEARN VALUE OF TREE GIRDLING

BIRMINGHAM—Grady and Troy Clecker, sons of a Chilton farmer, have learned the value of girdling chestnut hardwoods early, say. For their labor, Mr. Clecker gave them the $5 an acre ACP payment he got for 50 acres of hardwood girdled by them. The brothers are saving this money for their college education.

Mr. Clecker's "pay-off" will come in the future when fast growing pines are ready for pulpwood or sawlogs.

NELSON E. WHITE ATTENDS ASSEMBLY OF GOD GENERAL COUNCIL IN SAN ANTONIO

THE Rev. Nelson E. White, pastor of the Temple Assembly of God, has returned to Clanton from San Antonio, Texas, where he attended the 28th biennial business and election session of the Assemblies of God. Mrs. White, serving as delegate from the Temple Church, accompanied her husband.

During the convention, the Rev. Thomas F. Zimmerman, 47, former assistant general superintendent of the Assemblies of God, was named general superintendent. He is a native of Indiana, having begun his ministry in that state in 1928.

For the past two years the Rev. Zimmerman has been director of the Radio, Personnel, and Public Relations Departments, and of the Gospel Publishing House at Springfield, Mo. He is vice president of the National Religious Broadcasters, first vice president of the National Association of Evangelicals, and on the board of directors of two Assemblies of God colleges, Evangelical and Central Bible Institute, in Springfield.

Named assistant general superintendents were Rev. Charles V. H. Scott, Rev. Bert Webb, Rev. Gayle F. Lewis, all returned to office, and Rev. Howard Bush, Lakeland, Fla., elevated from the position of non-resident executive, and Rev. Phil Hogan, named executive director of the Foreign Missions Department.

Other high officers elected by delegates include the Rev. Bartless Peterson, named general secretary to succeed Rev. J. Russell Flowers who has served for more than 30 years and was a founding father of the Assemblies of God, and Rev. M. B. Netzel, reelected general treasurer.

The new officials, who will head the world's largest Pentecostal denomination (with 8,094 churches) for the next two years, assume duties, late in December. They will make their offices at the Assemblies of God's international headquarters in Springfield, Mo. This convention was the largest ever held in the city of San Antonio. Over 5,000 ministers and delegates registered, with other hundreds also attending.

BAPTIST WMU MEETS, SEPT. 15
THE Woman's Missionary Union Executive Board of the Chilton County Baptist Association will meet September 15th from 10:00 to 12 noon, in the Educational Building of the First Baptist Church, Mrs. J. W. Johnson, President. She requests a full meeting of all new officers.

According to Mayor J. Hollis Jackson, at an organizational meeting Tuesday evening, 14 boys signed up for the new troop, which was organized because of the overcrowded condition of Troop 57 and the fact that boys in the age group 11 to 14 were being turned away from Scouting.

These facts prompted the Kiwanis to negotiate to form another Troop and it is being accomplished.

Scoutmaster of Troop 57 at present and doing a magnificent job of it, is Leland Hudson, manager of WKLF, local radio station.

According to reports a month or six weeks will be required to obtain a charter, but things are organized enough at this time to safely assume that Clanton is on its way to being a two-Troop Scouting town.

Regular meeting night for the new Troop will be Mondays.

BAPTIST PASTORS — RESUME CONFERENCE AFTER RECESS
THE Chilton-Unity Baptist pastors Conference will meet at the First Baptist Church this Saturday afternoon, September 12 at 2:00 o'clock. This will be the first Conference following the Summer Recess and we will be looking forward to having our brethren gather for fellowship and a word concerning summer activities. We will be disappointed without your presence.

What Good Is A Superior Nature Without A Superior Understanding?

Chilton Farmers Borrow Near $221 Thousand From FHA

CHILTON County families borrowed more than $220,770.00 in loan funds from the Farmers Home Administration during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1959, according to a report this week by Isaac C. Byrd, the agency's County Supervisor.

During the year, borrowers returned to the U. S. Treasury $244,162.00 of which $14,387.66 was interest.

Loans made by the Farmers Home Administration are increasing in size, according to Mr. Byrd. For example, ten years ago FHA operating loans in Chilton County averaged less than $1,000.00 while this past year the same type of loan averaged $1,567.00 per borrower.

The growing need for capital stems from inflation, expanded operations, and the adoption of modern farming methods, he said. Farmers Home Administration family farm loans borrowed $95,420.00 for real estate investments. Some borrowers used real estate loans to improve farms, enlarge farms of inadequate size, or to finance debts.

Others built or modernized farm houses and essential farm buildings, carried out better soil conservation practices, improved permanent pastures and developed irrigation and farmstead water supply systems.

ALL DONE BUT THE DOIN'

WE have made every conceivable effort to insure our readers of Sports News coverage this season, but it is finally up to the schools themselves to see that we get cooperation enough to bring this effort to a reality.

Through our local Sports Reporter, Wayne Atcheson, we have reached literally every school in Chilton County, including the high schools. We have promised to report the ball games and school activities of that school. That's just about all we can do!

The News contributes quite a bit of time and newspaper space in sports stories and pictures from ALL the schools, but we consider that part of our service to the public.

We cannot possibly personally report the happenings of each and every school.

Then of course, there's the fact that we increase our circulation by pleasing a larger number of folks, including sports fans.

We want to cooperate with all the schools in the County, but cooperation, like Tango, is no good without "two". We'd appreciate your assistance.

Contact Bob Tucker at the News or Wayne Atcheson at Chilton County High School. And by the way, note the SPORTS PAGE this week and get an idea of just what we are trying to accomplish, Countywide.

SUPPER CLUB HONORS MR. HAND

September 1, 1959, the Alabama Supper Club opened its 1959-60 season, and again honored Walter C. Hand. Senator John J. Sparkman was the principal speaker.

Senator Sparkman presented Mr. Hand with a Scroll which reads as follows:

Alabama Supper Club

We of the Alabama Supper Club are proud to present to Walter C. Hand this scroll which certifies him as Honorary President for Life and Advisory Chairman. Through his tireless efforts and unstinting devotion the past twenty-five (25) years, the Club is now Alabama's oldest active Local Club.

Presented at Washington, D. C. in behalf of the entire membership, by Senator John J. Sparkman, this first day of September, 1959.

In addition to Senator Sparkman and other members of the Alabama Supper Club, among those in attendance were the Honorable George Grant, Congressman from the 2nd District of Alabama; Mr. Glenn L. Emmons, Director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior; Mr. Donald J. Cronin, Secretary to Senator Hill; Mr. John Horne, Administrative Assistant to Senator Sparkman; Mr. Ted Hulsey, former Director of the Tennessee Valley Authority; Mr. Charles Dobbin, former editor of the Montgomery Advertiser; Mr. Arthur Clarendon Smith, National Democratic Executive Committee member from Virginia; Mrs. Mary Jarman Dent, wife of former Congressman Pete Jarman; and many other celebrities from Congress and the Federal Government Agencies. Mrs. Johnnie V. Moore, President for 1959-60 presided. Mrs. Moore is Past President of the Washington Business Professional Women's Club.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to our many friends, neighbors and relatives for their kindness and sympathy, that we received in the death of our husband and father, Mr. L. H. Wright. Especially do we think the Liberty Hill Quartet for the songs, and Revs. Ingram and Matthews for their comforting words. Also to Martin Funeral Home. May God bless each of you who helped in any way.—the L. H. Wright family.

MAPLESVILLE KIDS OFF TO SCHOOL

Mrs. Kathryn Goff
... Mapleville High School
... The school bell rang (ending the ... children's vacation and beginning
... the parents' vacation) last Monday ... morning at 8:00 A.M. There were ... around 450 to get in on the first ... days of excitement. A lot of ... new little fellows anxious to get ... started on their long road of good ... times, hard study, happiness and ... heartaches, toward the goal of an ... education and a diploma.

There are a lot of new faces in
... the faculty of Mapleville High.
... we welcome them to the school
... and to our community. We lost
... several of our faculty members due
... to retirement and transfers else... where. We hated to see them go.
... Some of our faculty have been ... switched to different positions.

The school has a new paint job
... from front to back, sanded and ... varnished halls and auditorium, two ... television sets, new waste baskets
... for each room, 300 new chairs and
... numerous other things.

The lunch room is under new ... management, three cooks and state
... planned menus. It has a new gas ... range with 10 cooking eyes and two
... ovens, a steam table and large ... serving counter with new tables with
... legs and new fluorescent lights.

The school will be operated on
... an automatic time clock, new rules,
... less time to frolic and more work
... to be done.

The Athletic department has a
... new hot water heater and some ... new suits. Better science equip... ment.

With all the above things men... tioned that we do have there are ... still lots of things our school needs.
... Lots of work to be done and a lot ... of it is left up to the parents. So ... come out and join your PTA and ... help to work and strive to make ... it one of the best schools in the ... county. It can be done.

Notice
If all reporters of the different ... Clubs and Organizations will get ... their news by Monday of each

... was born in Georgia, in 1806 and ... joined the Shady Grove Church on ... Oct. 1829. His membership re... mained there until he died. He ... preached for the negro church in ... Burnsville for five or six years, and ... was pastor of the white church 17
... or 18 years. History has it that on ... January 13, 1892 he rode to Selma
... through cold rain, and died a short ... time later as a result of the trip.
... It is reported that his last words ... were: "Let me die the death
... of the righteous, so that my last ... days may be like his." He was ... buried in his family lot in Burn-

WEST CHILTON COUPLE IS WED

(Stanton Correspondent)

Sunday afternoon, Aug. 23, 1959, in the First Christian Church, in Selma, Ala., the double ring wedding of Miss Jeanette Fale and Martin Albye Hardin, Jr. was held. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Rex Mixson, pastor of the Alabama Avenue Methodist Church in the absence of the church's minister from the city.

The wedding music was rendered by William Henderson and the soloist was Jerry Wyatt.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Trice Fale (nee Vernon Sherrer of Plantersville) was given in marriage by her father. The bride was attended by Mrs. David Wright, sister of the groom, as matron of honor and small Rebecca Wright was the flower girl. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Michael Arban, Birmingham, Miss Melba Brady, Anniston, Miss June Byars, Pine Apple, cousin of the groom, Miss Helen McGeary, Mary Ann Gills and Nancy Pally.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hardin, was attended by his father as best man.

A reception after the ceremony was held in the church parlors. Miss Mary Frances Godwin, of Birmingham, cousin of the groom, was the guest.

Mrs. Charley Nichols, and Mrs. Thomas A. Sherrer presided at the cake table.

Mrs. Sam Houston, Mrs. Sol Tepper and Mrs. Carlisle Sherrer were at the punch table. Assisted by Mrs. Carroll Jackson and Mrs. Claude Sherrer, Jr.

After touring the Northern States for some ten days the couple will live in Tuscaloosa, where the groom will be in his junior year at the University. Congratulations to this fine couple. We wish for them much happiness.

any part thereof, are hereby directed to demur, plead, to, or answer such bill of complaint not later than Sept. 21st, 1959.

It is further ordered that a copy of this notice, certified by the undersigned register as being correct, be recorded as a lis pendens in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Chilton County, Alabama.

Done this 13 day of August, 1959.

BIRTHDAY DINNER TOPS AT HILLCREST

Church services were well attended at both services on Sunday. We had several visitors and invite all to come again.

Mr. L. M. Chandler and son of Wetumpka were with us Sunday. We invite them back.

Rev. Linsey Martin of Birmingham will be with us Sunday night. The Junior Ga's meet Sunday night. The men of the church had a business meeting Sunday night.

Birthday Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Eddy and children, Kay and Connie have just returned from a trip to the Florida Coast. They reported a nice trip.

A picnic dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Harris, Stanton, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lee Payton was an event of much interest. Several friends and relatives attended.

Coming and Going
Mrs. Tyler Harrison is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Harley Giles. Miss Joyce Giles spent a few days in Birmingham with friends and relatives.

Our Sick List
Mrs. Mary Giles is still confined.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE

WHEREAS, on the 20th day of April, 1959, Walter J. Kohler and wife, Myrtice Kohler, did execute and deliver to Sam Patterson, Trustee, a mortgage upon the hereinafter described real estate located in Chilton County, Alabama, said mortgage being in the sum of Two Thousand Three Hundred Forty Nine and 25/100 ($2,349.25) DOLLARS and being recorded in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Chilton County, Alabama, in Volume 466 at page 207; and

WHEREAS, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness being secured by said mortgage, and said default continuing, and said mortgage being subject to foreclosure;

NOTICE IS THEREFORE GIVEN that the undersigned mortgagee, the said Sam Patterson, Trustee, will sell the property described in said mortgage in front of the courthouse door on Second Avenue North in the City of Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama, at public outcry, to the highest and best bidder therefor for cash, during the legal hours of sale on Tuesday, October 5, 1959, and at 12:00 o'clock Meridian, said property being described as follows, to-wit:

From the Northeast corner of Southeast Fourth of Northeast Fourth, Section 33, Township 22, Range 14 run South along the East line of said forty, 653 feet to the point of beginning of the tract herein described. From the beginning point thus established run North 82 degrees 45 minutes West, up the branch, 262 feet to the east line of Mt. Pleasant Road; thence along the said East line of Mt. Pleasant Road, South 20 degrees West, 252 feet to the North boundary of the Littlejohn Paved Road; thence South 49 degrees 10 minutes East, on and along said North boundary of Littlejohn Road, 218 feet to the center of the branch; thence down said branch North 63 degrees East 196 feet to a point on the South Bank of branch; which point is on the east line of Southeast Fourth or Northeast Fourth; thence on and along the east line of said forty, North 272 feet to the beginning point.

The proceeds of said sale will be applied as provided in said mortgage; first, to the costs and expenses of making this sale, including the cost of a reasonable attorney's fee; second, to the payment of the indebtedness secured by said mortgage; and third, the balance, if any, to be paid to the mortgagors.

"SAFE SINCE 1901"

SHOWN here is the interior of the Peoples Savings Bank which, as you can see, is as modern as you could hope for. In the foreground are some of the "nicest people" . . . patrons. In the background is one of the Banks most active employees Jim Heflin. You can see, there are plenty of windows to serve the public.
(News Photo by SCOTT)

ONE of Chilton's oldest established businesses, still in the realm of good business and growing every day is THE PEOPLES SAVINGS BANK. Organized in 1901, the Peoples Savings Bank has increased its resources each year until today they total more than 4 1/2 million dollars.

They reached their first million mark in 1936 while the late Frank Callen was president.

A long hop from their first "money in the bank", the bank organized on December 7 had to make a financial statement at the end of the year which totaled $31,810.09. This statement was made on December 31 1901.

William Callen, Frank's father was president until his death in 1923 and Frank took over until 1926 when he left for four years. He returned as President in 1930 and remained in that capacity until his death in 1950.

Grady Heflin, then cashier, was made President in 1950 and has held that position. Under the able leadership of these men the Peoples Savings Bank has flourished until today it is one of the finest banks of its size in the South.

Employees at the bank are devoted to their work. This is marked by the number of years each has served at the bank. For instance, there's Louie Smith, with the bank since 1926 and is now Cashier; Miss Flora Harris, assistant to the cashier who has been with the bank 20 years; Miss Margurite Rainey, chief clerk, 15 years; Johnnie McKinney, 10 years; James Duke Heflin, 10 years and assistant cashier, and Wallace R. Wood, teller.

Also in the bookkeeping department of the Bank are Mrs. Grace Billingsley, Miss Mary Lou Green and Miss Faye Bates; they're the ones who keep you posted.

In the steady growth of the Bank for the past 58 years, the President Mr. Heflin, is going on his 41st year with the firm. There is no question about the experience of these people at The Peoples Savings Bank. They have spent many years learning their profession and they are at your disposal at all times. And remember. . . it's "Safe Since 1901".

THE DOLLAR
YOU SPEND AT HOME IS AN INVESTMENT
CHILD'S FUTURE!

WE had one lovely lady say she agreed with our idea about "Trading At Home" but she just didn't like having to "run all over town" looking for what she wanted when she could go to one of the large department stores (elsewhere) and get everything at one time.

Besides the benefits she derives directly from the business houses through taxes, etc. we wonder if the lady ever considered the possibility that if she patronized the Chilton County merchants regularly she would learn their wares and where to go to find what in a short time without shopping the entire area.

We certainly won't argue that we have everything in the world available here at home, but we are prepared to back up our local merchants to the extent that they try to handle the most WANTED items and one of the big reasons they don't handle MORE items is the demand is not high enough. That gets back to the consumer! Tell the local merchant what you want. He will either supply you with the commodity, see that you get it on order or he'll frankly tell you he can't get it for you and will suggest that you go out of town.

But don't go out of town first. . . TRADE AT HOME. . . AND SAVE!
